

Los Angeles 1992

This united world,
Where we are told,
Guards the rights of man.
This united world
Of few men's right,
Where women fight
For seat and right.
This united world,
Whose own country
Boils with blood,
Boils with fire
Of skin of King -
That Rodney whose blood,
Kissed the world with blood
Of violence born by men of law,
And spread to save the law
In defiance of executive lawlessness
