COCOA RECOMMENDATION FOR A SELECTIVE ADMISSION POLICY

1. Effective for the Fall 1992 enrollment, Kansas residents seeking admission as freshmen to the University of Kansas, Kansas State University, Wichita State University, Emporia State University, Fort Hays State University, and Pittsburg State University will be admitted without restriction if they have completed the Regents recommended preparatory curriculum with a GPA of at least 2.0 from an accredited high school.
  - a. Provisional admission may be granted to those students who have earned a Kansas high school diploma in a school district where all courses needed to meet the Regents recommended preparatory curriculum were unavailable at the time of their enrollment. These students will be required to remove deficiencies in their preparation as part of their baccalaureate program as prescribed by the faculties of the respective institutions.
  - b. Provisional admission may be granted to those students who have earned the GED with an overall score of 50 and no sub-test score below 50. These students will be required to remove deficiencies in their preparation as part of their baccalaureate program as prescribed by the faculties of the respective institutions.
2. Admission to all institutions in the Kansas Regents system will remain open for Kansas residents who are twenty-one years of age or older and
  - a. Who are graduates of an accredited high school; or
  - b. Who have earned the GED with an overall score of 50 and no sub-test score below 50.
3. The Regents Universities can maintain an admissions exception window for entering freshmen students, subject to the approval of the Kansas Board of Regents.
4. Each Regents University shall develop selective admissions policies applicable to international students, including minimum TOEFL standards, and these students shall be excluded from provisions 1,3 and 7.
5. Students who are residents of Kansas and have earned twenty-four credit hours of transferable course work with a cumulative GPA of 2.0 from any one of the state's community colleges may be admitted as transfer students to the Regents Universities provided their combined high school and community college work demonstrates completion of the Regents recommended preparatory curriculum.
6. Students who are residents of Kansas and have earned credits in transferable course work with a cumulative GPA of 2.0 at a regionally accredited college or university may be admitted as transfer students to the Regents Universities.

7. Students who are not residents of Kansas may be admitted as freshmen to the Regents Universities if they meet one of the following criteria:
  - a. Have completed the Regents recommended preparatory curriculum with a GPA of at least 3.0;
  - b. Have a composite ACT score of 23 or higher;
  - c. Rank in the top one-third of their high school graduating class.

8. Students who are not residents of Kansas and have earned at least twenty-four credit hours of transferable course work from a regionally accredited community college, college or university with a cumulative GAP of at least 2.75 may be admitted as transfer students to the Regents Universities.
