11 Vie for Varsity Sue, President Cites Cooperation For Enrollment Success

Weekend campus activities will be highlighted by the election of Varsity Sue and Sam who will reign over Saturday night festivities.

Votes can be cast for Varsity Sue and Sam today in the basement of the CAC from 8:50 a.m. to 2 p.m., according to Keith Thompson, SGA election commissioner.

The winners will be announced at the Varsity Sue and Sam Dance to be held in the Fieldhouse after the Montana State game tomorrow night.

The candidates, sponsored by the Greek organizations and the Women's Dorm, are all freshmen.

Contending for Varsity Sue are C. K. Zimmerman, Alpha Chi Omega; Sandy Aggus, Alpha Phi; Sylvia Swiercinsky, Delta Delta Delta; Kim Kaiser, Delta Gamma; Suzie Hollingsworth, Gamma Phi Beta; and Mary Maloney, Iota Sigma Alpha.

Those running for Varsity Sam are Steve Amos, Beta Theta Pi; Bob Babst, Delta Upsilon; Mike Jessup, Iota Sigma Alpha; Brent Esco, Phi Delta Theta; and Dave Crawford, Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Last year's winners were Becky Shenk, Gamma Phi Beta, and Jim Oxley, Beta Theta Pi.

Pres. Emory Lindquist expressed his gratitude, Wednesday, for the cooperation of all faculty and staff members for the part they played in facilitating the 47 per cent increase in fall enrollment.

Available credit hours have been increased from 93,000 to 115,000 to accommodate the influx of students. Enrollment had reached 9,301 by Wednesday, according to Dr. Worth A. Fletcher, registrar.

Budget predictions were raised to 8,500 earlier, but the 9,000 mark was reached at 11 a.m., Saturday. By Wednesday nearly 300 more students had enrolled.

"The ability to provide instruction for our large enrollment," said President Lindquist, "results from planning that has taken place over a period of several months. It has been possible because of the unfailing cooperation of the faculty and of many people behind the scenes whose names remain unknown."

The "late fee" became effective at 8 a.m. Monday morning. Students seemed not to notice as they were still lined up to enroll when the registrar's office was closed Tuesday night.

Having remained open from 6:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. every night this week, the registrar's office will close at 5 tonight. The office will also be open from 8 a.m. to noon tomorrow.

The harried staff in the registrar's office did not anticipate a large influx of students after regular enrollment was completed, but late enrollees continue coming in.

One registrar assistant put it this way, "Enrollment is over, but if they want to pay the late fee, all I can say is goodie!"

Pep Council Schedules Two Events

The annual Nightshirt Parade and the Varsity Sue and Sam Dance will be held tomorrow night in coordination with the Montana State game, according to John Morton, pep council coordinator.

The annual Nightshirt Parade will be held during the halftime of the game simultaneously with the band's halftime show.

Each sorority and fraternity pledge class will participate. The skits must adhere to both teams.

Each group will go around the football field once. The judges, selected by the Pep Council, will be seated in the east stands and will choose the winners in both fraternity and sorority divisions.

The winners in both divisions will be announced at the Varsity Sue and Sam dance to be held in the Fieldhouse immediately following the game.

Admissions to the dance will be $1 a couple.

Year of Great Expectations

The new academic year is full of promise for all of us associated with Wichita State University. It is primarily a year of sharing in the varied and delightful experiences of our university community. It is also a year when we together will create the pattern that will identify Wichita State University in the world of tomorrow, based upon the rich legacy of Fairmount College and the Municipal University of Wichita.

The real meaning, however, of this academic year will be found in the high resolve that each one of us makes about the future. The potentialities are here for great dimensions of living, thinking, believing, and acting. A dedicated faculty and staff extends a cordial invitation to learning. A variety of student organizations offer programs and activities that will enrich life. The central factor, however, resides with the individual student. Your firm decision at the outset to make this year meaningful, to extend horizons of value, and to use fully your talents and the resources of the University, will determine the abiding importance of this year.

Former and new faculty and staff colleagues and former and new students merge their talents and aspirations to fashion the exacting but rewarding life in our university community. I extend to all of you a cordial welcome. I express also my genuine expectation that this will be a singularly important year for all of us and for our University.

Sincerely,
Emory Lindquist, President
Wichita State University

Regents Honor University Educators In Last Formal Board Resolution

The Wichita University Board of Regents honored University educators this summer by renaming campus buildings. This was the last act of the municipal Board of Regents before the University entered into the state system.

The FAC became the Walter J. Duerksen Fine Arts Center. Commons Auditorium is now George D. Wilner Auditorium, and the Science Hall was renamed Dr. Lloyd McKinley Hall.

In addition the Dr. Thurlow Lieurance Music Library was created in the FAC along with the Elizabeth Sprague Art Gallery.

Walter J. Duerksen, now dean of Fine Arts, graduated from the University with a bachelor of music degree in 1931 and the following year joined the faculty as a trombone instructor.

After earning his music master's degree from Northwestern University, Duerksen became director of the new School of Music when it was created in 1949. He was raised to dean in 1953.

George D. Wilner, professor of speech and drama, has been on campus since 1923 when it was still Fairmount College. Wilner is credited with the development and organization of University Theater and assisted the architects in construction of Commons Auditorium in 1938.

Dr. Lloyd McKinley retired as chairman of the chemistry department in 1960 and died one year later while serving on the faculty. Graduating 221 chemistry majors during his chairmanship of the department, McKinley was listed in American Men of Science and Who's Who in America.

Ticket Pick-up

Student pick-up dates for football tickets will be Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday before each game, and will be available at the fieldhouse. They will also be given out at the east side of Veterans Field the night of the games between 6:30 and 8:00 p.m.

International Club to Hold Kickoff Mixer

The University International Club will sponsor a free kickoff mixer at 7:30 tonight in the CAC Ballroom featuring refreshments, dancing, and variety entertainment.

The largest organization on campus, the International Club is dedicated to helping all students at the University get acquainted. The mixer, to which everybody on campus is invited, is its first social event of the 1964-65 season.

In further attempts to bring local students and foreign students together International Club also sponsors "Tea and Conversation" from 3-5 p.m. every Wednesday in area 2 of the CAC basement.

"Tea and Conversation" is simply an informal conversation period held to acquaint students with students and students with faculty.

International Club has slated its election of officers for Oct. 7. Applications for the election may be picked up in Rm. 228 of the CAC and must be returned by Oct. 1.

Experimental Theatre to Open First Production Sunday, Sept. 20

The first theatrical production of the year is taking shape as four students in Experimental Theatre work to present "No Exit," a tale of three person's adventures in Hell.

The cast includes Martha Markley, a student of Carlton College in Northfield, Minn., and Gary Jackson and Roberta Rude of WSU, all under the direction of University student Ralph Frakes. Last year this same cast took the production on the road, when their itinerary included Carlton College.

Larry King, well known around Wichita for his work, is doing the setting for the play, which is considered to be one of the best existential plays.

"No Exit" is also the first show the Film Society will present to the student body. The students will be able to view the movie next Wednesday night and then compare it with the play which will be presented at 8:30 p.m., Sept. 20, 21, and 22.

The production will be held in the Pit Theatre under the stage in Wilner Auditorium. Tickets are available to University students for 50 cents and $1.00 general admission. The first University Theatre production will be "The Male Animal," scheduled to run Oct. 22, 23, and 24. Final auditions will be held tonight at 7:30 in the Pit Theatre, according to Professor Welsbacher, director of theatre.

THE PIT THEATRE opens the season this Sunday with the production "No Exit." Rehearsing a scene from this "adventure in Hell" are Gary Jackson, Roberta Rude, and Martha Markley.

Welcome to WSU

The Sunflower staff wishes to welcome students, administration, faculty and staff to the campus of Wichita State University for this—our initial year as a part of the state system.

Our induction into the state does satisfy many material needs and offers certain overall advantages. The transition of this school from a municipal to a state university did not, however, magically nullify all problems which previously existed within the student body. The core of the student body is still essentially the same and the interests, ambitions, and attitudes of these people remain, regardless of the name of the institution.

Political apathy is a problem which has plagued us over the years and now—in this new beginning—is an opportune time for us to take corrective measures in this area.

There is an annually elected governing body for the Student Government Association (SGA), of which all full time students are members. The Ballast Party, with Liberal Arts junior Dave Crockett as president, is now in control. Each student has an elected representative. Become acquainted with your representative now and throughout the coming months, keep informed as to what your government is or is not accomplishing. Make your satisfaction or dissatisfaction known, bearing in mind that while it is easy to criticize, constructive suggestions or material aid are more likely to bring desired results.

In this year of major national elections, campus politics may frequently become lost in the shadows. But let us not forget that we are citizens of the campus community even as most of us are citizens of the nation, and neither responsibility should be slighted.

We Shall Not Forget

Those who knew her shall not forget Joan O'Bryant. She came to the University as a student. In 1948 Miss O'Bryant joined the faculty of the English department, where she taught until January, 1964. She had resigned to take a teaching position in Colorado—plans that were interrupted by death this summer when her car went off a mountain road in Colorado.

Youthful at 40, Joan O'Bryant had a happy face and a voice filled with song. She lived each day for what it was worth, bringing encouragement and happiness to many. These things we shall not forget.

The Political Scene Storm Warnings

By Mike Snyder

Two weeks ago hurricane Dora ravaged the Florida coast leaving twisted buildings, uprooted palms, and devastated countryside in its wake. No life was lost, however, because of Weather Bureau predictions and advance precautions. But there are other hurricanes which, although predicted, cause property damage, injuries, and death, and have already done extensive damage in Birmingham, Jackson, Philadelphia, Rochester, and New York.

It isn't the first time these storms have swept the U. S., but now there are more of them, and occur with greater violence. Fed by strong, southerly, segregationist winds, a giant vortex of hate and terror has been generated into which politicians, as well as the populus, have been pulled. The votes that Gov. George Wallace received in the primaries demonstrates the popularity the segregationist message has in the North.

Sen. Barry Goldwater has said of civil rights that "government edicts benefit no one—least of all when they might open the door to a police-state system of enforcement, thus threatening the liberties of all. Continued public attention and moral persuasion will do more to create the good will necessary to the acceptance of decent and enduring social relations throughout our free society."

Senator Goldwater is probably correct in saying that "moral persuasion" will improve race relations because no civil rights law is going to bridge the gap between white and Negro and make them brothers. But then, are the Klu Klux Klaners or Black Muslims going to listen to "moral persuasion"? Or are those voters who will make up what is called the "backlash" vote going to listen to their own church leaders or other responsible people pleading for the equality of all people?

When a Negro cries "freedom now" he means it; and most Negroes are not prepared to wait much longer for it. Said Curtis Bok, Justice of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, "The cry about lack of understanding and the need for time to work things out are only excuses to do nothing about them, and for almost a hundred years this served the South very well." And the problem of "de facto" segregation exists in both North and South. The center of a hurricane is calm, and often sea gulls fly over the languid waters while only a few miles away, at the storm's periphery, waves are large enough to engulf ships. This Negro revolution can also be calm; calm as a white and Negro council to discuss discrimination and segregation, or a peaceful picket of city hall. But make no mistake, this is also a part of the storm which can pound the coast with a fury of 100 years of pent-up frustrations.

The storm warnings are out, and if ignored, says John Griffin author of Black Like Me, "will bring a holocaust that will drag down the innocent and right-thinking masses of human beings. Then we will all pay for not having cried for justice long ago."

Membership Tea Slated Sunday by Army Blues

Army Blues invite all coeds interested in becoming members of the team to a get-acquainted tea from 2-4 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 20, in the CAC Ballroom. Members will entertain with a special exhibition drill. In the week following the tea prospective members will be instructed in basic drill procedure and new members will be chosen on poise and marching ability.

Army Blues is a women's drill team sponsored by the Army ROTC. The team performs precision drills at football and basketball games and other university functions. They appeared on national television this winter when they marched at halftime for the WSU-Loyola game.

The Blues take trips to other campuses to perform and to attend ROTC functions. Last spring the girls attended the National Pershing Rifles Invitational Drill meet at the University of Illinois where WSU Pershing Rifles captured a 1st-place trophy. They also hosted the annual Regimental Assembly for Pershing Rifles teams from a four-state area. Team Commander Hon. Lt. Col. Bobbi Weir and Assistant Drill Commander Hon. Lt. Linda Ferris are Pershing Rifles Sweethearts.

Each Halloween Army Blues and Pershing Rifles members run carnival booths and distribute refreshments donated by Wichita merchants at an elaborate Halloween celebration for children from the Institute of Logopedics.

This is the average man.
The men studying him aren't.

Putting together thousands of measurements, Air Force scientists designed this "typical" head. Its purpose? To help provide better protective equipment for Air Force flying personnel.

But the young men working on this project are far from average. As Air Force officers, they are working in a field that requires a high degree of technological insight.

The fact is, most Air Force jobs today call for advanced, specialized know-how. And they give young officers the opportunity to undertake vital missions of great responsibility.

For instance, an Air Force scientist may be exploring the complex field of aerodynamics. Another may be engaged in bioenvironmental engineering. A third may be studying the technology of nuclear weapons.

How many other professions give a young man such important work to do right from the start?

You can get started on an Air Force officer career by enrolling in Air Force ROTC. For information, see the Professor of Air Science.

Huerta, New Grid Coaches To Guide Shocks in Opener

By RICK LANE, Sports Editor

The Wichita State University football squad has been practicing twice a day, rain or shine the past two weeks under the direction of Chelo Huerta and his staff, which includes some familiar faces and two new ones.

Charles McCullers and Y. C. McNease are the new coaches that have been contracted for the 1964 season.

McCullers will be working as the offensive backfield coach, the position he held at the University of Tampa the past three years. McCullers is 24 years old and played his four years of college ball under coach Huerta at Tampa.

While attending Tampa McCullers received the honors of Who's Who in American College, was president of the Tampa Lettermen's Club, and during his senior year he was captain of the football squad. He also received the Most-Valuable-Player award, and was selected as the best back.

When announcing the appointment of McCullers, Coach Huerta commented, "I am very happy to have been able to obtain the services of such a fine young coach. I consider him to be one of the most outstanding young college coaches in the profession."

Huerta said further, "I have known Charles since he was a junior in high school. He will definitely be a great asset to our coaching staff."

Y. C. McNease will be heading the "elbows-and-dirt" campaign as defensive line coach. McNease, 28, was an assistant coach at Florida State for the past two years. He played college ball at Florida and received his degree in 1962.

While pursuing his athletic interest McNease also was vice president of the Florida State Physical Education Club.

Former shocker football assistant Don Powell, now at Florida State recommended McNease very highly as a defensive coach.

Head Coach Huerta remarked, "Florida State is one of the highest ranking defense teams in the nation and I feel Wichita is fortunate to have McNease on the staff."

The remainder of staff members are very familiar to most Shocker fans. They are Bill Barger, Gary Wyant and Charles Wright.

Barger, 25, is going into his second full year on the WSU grid staff and is starting his first season as offensive line coach. In 1963 he tutored the freshman team.

Lettering three years at a starting tackle position, Bill was a member of the 1960 team which won the Missouri Valley Conference title. Barger received his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University in 1962.

Gary Wyant, a native of Wichita, is in his second year as coach of the defensive backfield. Wyant, 24, was a three sport letterman at Wichita East before he accepted a Scholar scholarship in 1958. He was a member of the Shocker squads that won the Missouri Valley Conference in 1960 and 1961. He also played in the Sun Bowl of 1961.

Coach Wyant started his coaching career in 1962 as a student assistant helping the freshmen backs. Wyant received his Bachelor of Arts in January 1963.

Another new addition to the staff will be Charles Wright who is by no means a new personality on the WSU campus. Wright lettered three straight years for the Shockers, earning All Missouri Valley honors in 1961 and 1962 as a guard. He also lead the team as co-captain.

Coach Wright, 22, and a grad of Wichita will be serving as freshman football coach for the first time this fall. Charley's home is in Enid, Okla., where he was an outstanding high school player.

Assisting coach Wright will be Butch Bartlett, Reazy Stephens and Alex Zyskowski, all former Shocker players.

As I see it, the Shocker behemoths will have a hard time achieving last year's record-breaking season, but with the talented experience and the winning desire these men have we will be just that much closer to victory.

Kansas City Team Sign Local Pitcher

John Cunneen, a 190-pound right handed pitcher from Kansas City, has been signed for a 1965 contract by the Detroit Tigers, club officials announced Tuesday, Sept. 1.

Cunneen, a junior at the University, pitched this summer for Springfield of the Central Ill. League, a summer league for college ballplayers.

THE 1964 FOOTBALL season opens at Wichita State tomorrow night with coaching staff Charles McCullers, Charles Wright, Gary Wyant, Bill Barger, Y. C. McNease, and Head Coach Chelo Huerta.

Shocks to Face Bobcats In Grid Tilt Tomorrow

The University Shockers will tangle with the Montana State Bobcats at 8 p.m. tomorrow under the Veteran Field lights to open the 1964 football season.

Montana State's football teams have had the winning habit for 10 years, but over the last five seasons, another pattern developed. They've lost three games each year since 1959.

The Bobcats won 6 and lost 3 last four games of 1963, averaging more than 100 yard rushing.

The 5-10, 175-pounder gained 117 yards against Arizona State College, 100 against Idaho State, 92 against North Dakota and 144 against Montana University.

That's an overall record of 28 wins, 15 losses and 2 ties.

Coach Jim Sweeney would like to break the pattern this fall on the plus side. He readily admits, however, that the club will have trouble duplicating last year's 6-3 mark.

The first month of the season is as difficult as any the Bobcats have ever faced—South Dakota State, which they won last Saturday afternoon 46-14, and Wichita Jose State at Bozeman, Mont.

Dan Sundling, Montana State's senior left halfback from Glendive, any indication, the Shocker's descent a torrid pace in the Bobcats' fense had better be ready.

Coach Chelo Huerta Praises Montana State Grid Team

By RICK LANE, Sports Editor

"Montana State has the finest team it has had in seven years."

This was the comment of Wichita State University's head football coach Chelo Huerta regarding the Shocker's first opponent at Veterans Field Saturday night.

"The scouts reported MSU has good speed, size and good overall team balance," Huerta went on to say.

"The main trouble spots in the Bobcat's lineup will be Ray Foley, 6'2", 182 lb. quarterback, Dan Sundling at halfback and four good senior tackles," he said.

When interviewing coach Huerta Tuesday the following question and answer period took place:

Q. Coach, how does the 1964 Wichita State squad compare with last year's team which had a 7-2 record and were tied with Cincinnati for the Missouri Valley Championship?

A. The Shockers this year don't have the depth of last year, or the speed, due to Miller Farr being scholastically ineligible, but we are real happy with the progression of the squad.

Q. Would you say that All-American candidate Jim Waskiewicz is the best lineman you have coached?

A. I would say this: Jim is the finest center in the college ranks today. He is fast, agile, and tough. Jim still has a lot to learn, but has great potential.

Q. How does the Mo-Valley compare in football strength for this season—with the 1963 campaign?

A. It's a lot tougher. Cincinnati has the same strong team that it had last year, with the exception of Carey. Tulsa last year had the top passing team in the nation, this year it has the same backs and receivers with the great passing of Rhome.

Q. What are the Shockers' chief problems for 1964?

A. Lack of depth, and the positioning of a quarterback who will lead the team. We want a quarterback who can give us a 1000 yards in the air. Some good candidates for the position are Gene Burelson, Lou Confessori, and Sam LoFaso, but as of right now I don't know who will be starting.

Q. What about your kicking specialists?

A. Floyd Beardsley's extra point kicking is very accurate, and he is scoring field goals from 25 yards or better. LoFaso, Dick Alexander, and Jim Siekler are punting for us and are in real good shape.

Q. Will any passer and receiver be able to fill the shoes of Henry Schichtle and Bob Long who are now with the New York Giants, and the Greenbay Packers respectively?

A. Two greats like Henry and Bob don't come around every year. But Bob Wilson and Julious Guy are doing a real fine job at the end position.

Q. Does the squad have any injuries?

A. Dick Klein, who was a starting tackle, is out for at least the first game with a sprained knee. Other injuries are minor.

Q. How are ticket sales going?

A. Ticket sales are breaking the all-time record. This concluded the talk with head mentor Chelo Huerta.

During the 40th class anniversary in 1936 the school presented Miss Sprague with a summa cum laude diploma in honor of her many contributions to the University. She was stricken and died while returning to her seat after accepting the honor.
