STATEMENT FROM REGENTS CHAIR BILL FEUERBORN ON WICHITA STATE UNIVERSITY

(Topeka, Kan.) - Kansas Board of Regents Chair Bill Feuerborn has issued the following statement:

Wichita State University President Jay Golden has submitted his resignation to the Kansas Board of Regents. The Board is thankful for his service. We are appreciative of his hard work and dedication to the university and are grateful for his commitment to serving students. We wish him well in all his future endeavors.

Wichita State Provost Rick Muma will serve as acting president while the Board considers options for an interim president. We are thankful that Rick is willing to step into this role. For more information, please contact Matt Keith at mkeith@ksbor.org.

About the Kansas Board of Regents

The nine-member Kansas Board of Regents is the governing board of the state's six universities and the statewide coordinating board for the state's 32 public higher education institutions (six state universities, one municipal university, nineteen community colleges, and six technical colleges). In addition, the Board administers the state's student financial aid, adult education, high school equivalency, and career and technical education programs. Private proprietary schools and out-of-state institutions are authorized by the Kansas Board of Regents to operate in Kansas.
