Wichita To Get New Newspaper

Formation of a new daily newspaper in Wichita was announced Wednesday by Barry Paris, former reporter and performing arts critic for the Wichita Eagle and WSU instructor.

Paris, who resigned his position with the Eagle about two weeks ago, announced plans for the paper in a speech at the Wichita Public Library.

The new newspaper is to be non-profit in nature and progressively moderate in tone, philosophy and outlook. Target date for first publication is January 1, 1973.

Paris left the Eagle after Harry B. (Britt) Brown was named publisher of the paper by its board of directors.

Paris said he felt the newspaper was returning to status quo journalism, and cited "severe restrictions" on his own writing as reasons for his resignation.

"It was philosophically and ethically impossible for me to remain any longer," Paris said.

About $2½ to $3 million will be needed to start the new daily. Paris intends to apply for grants from non-profit lending institutions. The rest of the necessary cash is to be raised through local business investors and through a public stock option.

Investors will receive interest on their investments, but will not

Publications Board Selects New Editors for Sunflower

Four students were appointed to fill Sunflower editorial and advertising positions by the Board of Student Publications Wednesday for the 1972-73 academic year.

Andy Fields, UC freshman, was selected editor to serve through the spring 1973 semester. Fields, a journalism major, has worked as acting news editor and news editor on The Sunflower during the current semester and served as a production worker and staff writer last semester when he entered WSU.

Appointed to the positions of managing editor and news editor, respectively, were Steven Hershberger, LA junior, and Max Evans, LA junior. Later Wednesday evening, Hershberger and Evans were elected to positions of treasurer and president, respectively, of the WSU chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalistic society.

Hershberger, a journalism major, will hold his position through the fall semester. He has written articles for The Sunflower during the current semester and has worked for KMWU-FM radio for two years.

Evans, also a journalism major, will work as news editor through the fall semester. He has been a staff writer on The Sunflower since first attending WSU last semester.

In 1968, Evans worked as a special investigative reporter for the Herald Tribune in Paris. While in Paris, he also handled translations of such American movies as "Funny Girl" and "Bob and Carol and Ted and Alice."

Evans has worked in creative writing for the last few years and is currently writing a book about his experiences in the French Foreign Legion, in which he served from 1956 to 1961.

Kelly Pinkham, LA junior and political science major, was selected to the post of Sunflower advertising manager. Pinkham was SGA Treasurer this year and has worked for the "Dark Horse" newspaper. Pinkham will serve in his post throughout the 1972-73 academic year.

Coalition Collects Top SGA Positions

Coalition party candidates Mike Meacham, Adib Farha and Wil Goering captured the top three SGA executive offices in SGA elections this week.

The Coalition ticket took most SGA seats and defeated Apathy presidential contender Rick Wagner.

Meacham defeated Wagner 518 to 118. Adib Farha beat out contender Sonya Aloseike 501 to 179. In the treasurer's race, Wil Goering took 445 votes, John Dickerson garnered 121 and Vicky Caviness received 119.

About 700 students voted in the election, making it one of the poorest turnouts in recent history, according to SGA President John Morse.

Morse told The Sunflower Thursday he is suggesting that the membership of Student Senate be cut from 39 to 23 in order to increase its productivity.

The positions of Liberal Arts and Education representatives are being contested because two candidates, one in each position, were inadvertently left off the ballot. Reelections for those positions will be held in the near future.

The new executive officers will begin duties Tuesday, April

25. A meeting is scheduled following the annual SGA banquet that night.

Mike Meacham

Following are the new SGA representatives:

Former Look Senior Editor Takes Place of Scheduled Guest Speaker

A former senior editor of Look Magazine, Ernest Dunbar, will replace Dr. Charles Hurst as the guest speaker for WSU's Black Heritage Week.

Dunbar will speak at 9:30 a.m. today in Wilner Auditorium, the same time Dr. Hurst, president of Malcolm X College, Chicago, was scheduled to speak.

The talk will close Black Heritage Week activities at WSU.

A senior editor of Look Magazine until that publication folded last year, Dunbar specialized in the black movement and is considered an authority on the minority studies movement on U.S. college campuses.

A graduate of the School of Journalism at Temple University, Philadelphia, he was editor-in-chief of the student newspaper there and won the Sigma Delta Chi award as the outstanding journalism graduate of 1954.

Beside his work with Look, he has done television news analysis.

He was the winner of two Overseas Press-Club Awards, one in 1965 for a story on African students in the Soviet Union and one in 1968 for a story published in Look on the agricultural revolution in India.

Recent writings include articles published in Look, including "The Black Revolt Hits the White Campus" and "The Rev. Jesse Jackson: A New Kind of Black Cat," and a book published in 1971 and recently republished in paperback, "The Black Expatriates."

Dunbar is chairman of Black Perspective, an organization of blacks in the news media in New York.

Blood Donations High

At least 100 WSU students learned what it is like to give blood for the first time. They were among the 259 people who gave during the WSU-Red Cross Blood Drive held on Tuesday and Wednesday this week.

Although rain dampened the turnout Wednesday, the donations boosted the number of pints collected during the school year to 548. This exceeds a record of 425 pints collected last year, according to Tom Denesia, blood drive coordinator.

Over 4,500 pints of blood have been given through WSU drives since 1949, Red Cross officials reported. In recent years, the drives have been sponsored by the school's Arnold Air Society.

According to Red Cross officials, some students experienced mild reactions, such as dizziness. Reactions are frequent among students, especially among those who give their first time. Students don't eat enough or get the rest they should the night before giving, they said.

"I figure it's not hurting me much, even if I do faint," said first-time donor Carolyn Voss, ED junior. "And I can help someone else."

Giving blood takes courage, she admitted. Some of her friends didn't come because "they were worried about the sight of blood or the pain," Voss said. "I had been trying to get my courage up all day. I was afraid I might get sick and be embarrassed," she said. "It went alot faster than I thought it would."

Orion lands on the moon

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) Two American astronauts landed safely on the moon Thursday night to begin an expedition that was temporarily threatened by a failure in the main engine of the Apollo 16 command ship, Casper.

Astronauts John W. Young and Charles M. Duke Jr. thus achieved man's fifth landing on the moon and began a three day scientific exploration on a plateau high in the lunar mountains.

They were the 9th and 10th Americans to make a lunar landing but the first to do so in a mountain region.

The third Apollo 16 astronaut, Thomas K. Mattingly II, remained in lunar orbit aboard the command ship.

The main rocket engine problem in his ship had been isolated in a back-up steering motor, and Mission Control ordered the moon landing delayed while the problem could be studied.

The astronauts' planned first moon excursion was delayed until 11:30 a.m. Friday.

FBI probes meat industry crime

WASHINGTON (AP) A special assistant U.S. attorney in New York reported Thursday that an investigation into organized crime's involvement with the meat industry has been extended to Kansas, New Jersey, Wisconsin and Pennsylvania.

Nichol Scoppetta told a House Agriculture subcommittee that "there is evidence to indicate certain persons are controlling large segments of the market and they are inflating the prices in New York."

Scoppetta said the four states, in addition to New York are involved because the meats originated there and were shipped to the Eastern markets.

Scoppetta said the New York County District Attorney's Office which is conducting the probe with the Federal Bureau of Investigation plans to take the case before a grand jury "very soon."

North Vietnamese repeal demand

PARIS (AP) North Vietnam withdrew on Thursday its demand that the United States cease bombing the North before regular and secret sessions of the Vietnam peace conference resume.

At the same time, North Vietnam made public its hitherto secret record of 1968 negotiations with the United States under which bombing of the North ceased, leading to the start of the peace conference in early 1969.

China fails to return

UNIONDALE, N.Y. (AP) The U.S. ping-pongers lined up to swap gifts with their guests from Communist China Thursday. The red-suited Chinese blinked, but showed no emotion.

The U.S. gifts were ornamental cigarette trays. The Chinese don't smoke. The Chinese had nothing to give in return. They had run out of buttons.

The green, yard-high canvas that surrounded the metal table on which another in the series of good-will matches was played, carried the label: "Made in Japan."

Tax credit for tuition urged

WASHINGTON (AP) President Nixon was urged Thursday to seek $500 million a year in income tax credits for parents who make tuition payments to parochial and other nonpublic schools.

This was a key feature in a 58-page report formally presented to Nixon by his four-member President's Panel on Nonpublic Education.

The group was set up under the chairmanship of Clarence C. Walton, president of Catholic University, as part of an effort to redeem a Nixon pledge to help save troubled parochial schools from potential extinction.

Walton emerged from a meeting to express belief that the tax credit plan-which would directly reduce a tax-payer's annual levy-represents an idea "acceptable to the President."

In essence, the presidential panel said it would be cheaper to aid nonpublic schools than to bring the five-million-plus youngsters into the public school system-a possibility estimated to cost perhaps as much as $7.7 billion.

Challenge for Wichita Citizens

But Wichita newspaper readers have been cut off from that freedom since 1960, the year that The Wichita Eagle bought out The Wichita Beacon and combined the two.

Since then, the newspaper has enjoyed a print monopoly which has gone virtually unchallenged until now.

Barry Paris, former reporter and performing arts critic for The Eagle, has announced his intention to start a new daily newspaper in Wichita.

Paris' efforts to end The Eagle-Beacon monopoly are highly commendable. Advertisers and subscribers have been subject to the policies of one newspaper for too long.

Editor:
 According to the editorial by Andy Fields, which was printed in the April 14, 1972, issue of The Sunflower, an education is based on nothing but finances. "Stop" and "think" about the GI benefits, is what the editorial stressed.

First off, the main reason many veterans return to college after active duty is that they have no skills which can be applied in civilian life. What kind of work can a mortarman or basic infantryman find when he is released from the service?

Maybe these types of people have dreams of becoming something which would add to our society, not destroy portions of society. So, returning to college immediately is the only way an education can be afforded him.

In my own case I know there would be no other way to obtain a college education if it was not for the educational benefits offered by the Veterans Administration. But this gracious supplementation is by no means sufficient when it comes to meeting my every day needs.

I have not purchased "the latest car from Detroit" (mine was paid for 13 months before I got out of the service), the very latest "in" clothing or "two fifths of liquor a week." Even with an additional source of income, namely a part-time job, I still find it difficult at times to make ends meet.

Therefore Fields, what I actually have to say to you is to stop trying to stab your fellow veterans in the back and try to be of some assistance for their cause. Maybe everyone won't know who you are if you do but you will surely be more appreciated for the effort you put forth.

Editor's Note: The following comment was submitted in regard to the Hippodrome semifinals on April 13. There was a misunderstanding among the judges as they rated the various entrants. Due to this, certain participants felt the rating system was not fair. The points awarded to each participant were to be accumulative over Thursday and Friday judging. To be fair it was decided that Thursday's scores would be eliminated and winners would be judged solely on Friday's performance.

Editor:

What is Hippodrome? Is it a time to have fun or is it a cut-throat competition for a trophy? Is it a Broadway production or a school orientated skit?

We think it should be made clear just what Hippodrome is meant to be. It is too bad that some organizations have forgotten the original purpose of Hippodrome—a time to have fun and enjoy putting on a skit without the pressure of winning a trophy as their only purpose.

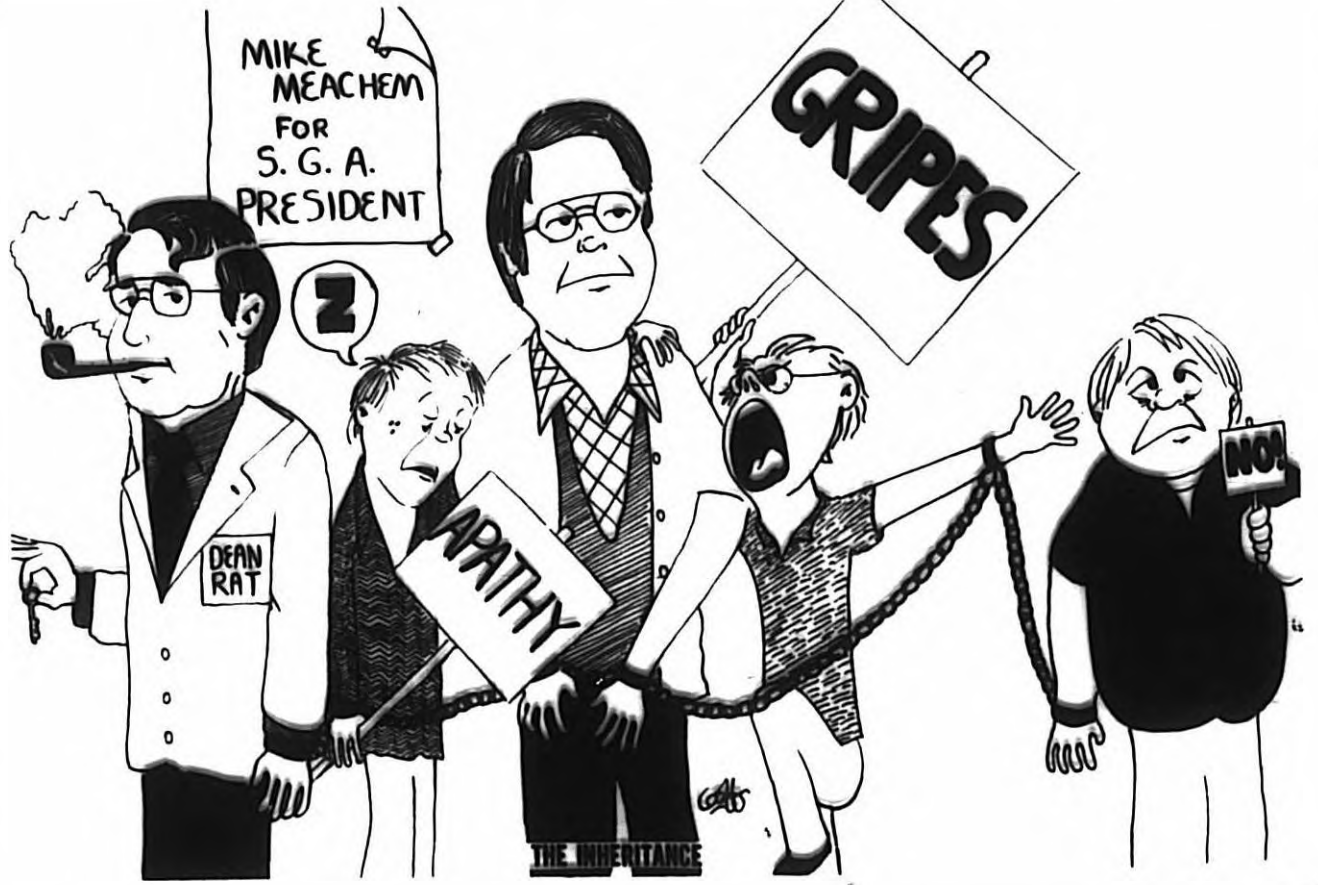

It never ceases to amaze us the lengths some organizations will go to make sure they win a trophy. We're sure they fail to realize how foolish and immature it all is. How could any organization truly appreciate winning a trophy after changing rules mid-stream to win it?

Why have judges, when they are not even permitted to do their job without interference?

It seems a shame that pettiness has ruined Hippodrome.

The Greatest Show On Earth

By Kevin Cook and Doug King

Rep. William Roy, the only Kansas Democrat in Washington who isn't just visiting, has been openly making eyes at the Democratic U.S. Senate nomination this year.

In private, he is making stronger moves. Roy hasn't yet said when he will announce, but he can't put it off much longer.

Roy is a genuine, certified liberal. He was an early backer of Indiana Sen. Birch Bayh's now long dead presidential hopes. Roy did not run for a delegate post in his local unit two weeks ago, but his wife, daughter and administrative assistant were elected. All are pledged to Sen. George McGovern.

Roy, a freshman in his current office, was a politically unknown Topeka physician-lawyer until he defeated an entrenched Republican for his House spot.

He is the clear choice to run a strong race against incumbent Republican Sen. James Pearson. Roy can bank on his legislative record, and can say he knows the Washington ropes.

Pearson, a moderate-liberal, has mended fences within his own party and could count on substantial support if he faces Roy in November.

Even though Pearson is to the left of most Republicans in the GOP, they will support him because he has built up seniority on two important Senate committees - the Foreign Relations and Commerce committees.

But Roy has stature as a member of two influential, respected professions and as a legislator, Roy would not lose liberal Democrat support as Atty. Gen. Vern Miller would have. The large swing of weak party identifiers and independents may be up for grabs. Roy pulled it off once and he could do it again.

Republican Calvin A. Strowig

Sit-A-Thon Takes Place Tomorrow

Motorists driving through the intersection of Broadway and Kellogg throughout this weekend will see WSU students atop seven power poles in the second annual Sit-A-Thon.

Conducted by the College Action Program of the March of Dimes, the Sit-A-Thon will last from 6 p.m. today to 8 p.m. Sunday. The sitters will receive money pledged before the event by numerous individuals and business patrons from each hour they sit.

All money collected through hourly pledges and off-the-street donations will go to the March of Dimes for research and educational projects used in the eventual elimination of birth defects.

Bill Ryan, UC freshman, one of the sitters, said, "The majority of pledges are from WSU students. They have a most favorable reaction to the Sit-A-Thon, which is the only stunt of its kind in the national campaign held by the College Action Program."

of Abilene, who served two years in the Kansas House, has announced his bid for the GOP nomination as lieutenant governor.

He served two years as majority floor leader and was speaker for the last four years. Also in the Republican race is State Sen. Dave Owen, Overland Park.

The lieutenant governor's job isn't considered very important in terms of authority and at first glance one wonders why anyone would run for the position.

But Owen and Strowig obviously have future political ambitions. The job will give them statewide exposure, and will keep them in the news until the 1974 race.

At that time, they probably will make bids for either Kansas governor or attorney general. The lieutenant governor's job, which pays only $8,000 a year and is considered a figurehead position, is most important for the publicity it receives.

Seven Hour Movie Hits WSU Monday

Promising thrills, savagery, nostalgia and eyestrain, "The All-Night-Once-In-A-Lifetime Atomic Movie Orgy" will begin a seven-hour extravaganza at 6 p.m. Monday, April 24, in the CAC Theater. Admission is free.

Sponsored by the Joseph Schlitz Brewing Company, the film features clips of such old-time favorites as the Lone Ranger, Hopalong Cassidy, Mighty Mouse and The Happy Tooth.

Especially geared for the television and film addict of the 50's, the mind boggling barrage of hysteria brings back to the screen scenes from not only spectacular film successes, but also some of the biggest flops and bits of old television programs and funny commercials.

The Movie Orgy is touring a select group of college campuses across the country and is being brought to WSU under the auspices of the CAC.

New Newspaper to Begin

be purchasing ownership in the paper. Eventual profits will be distributed equally among all employees.

Public stock will sell for about $25 per share, Paris told The Sunflower, in order to keep it within the budget range of average Wichitans.

The newspaper will put special emphasis on national and local news as well as government, social relations, sports, the arts, religion and politics.

A weekly magazine supplement containing in-depth commentary, local, national and international features plus news analysis, arts criticism, book reviews and "conceivably fiction and poetry" will be offered in each Sunday edition.

Manuscripts for that supplement will be solicited both locally and nationally. Other planned features of the paper include a bilingual column in both English and Spanish, and emphasis on consumer protection affairs.

Advertising and subscription rates are to be kept minimal, Paris said. "The objective is not to make large profits from advertisers and subscribers. We must be financially sound, but more important, we must be responsible and provocative."

The new paper will be the first attempt at competition with the city's 100-year old Wichita Eagle and Beacon, which has monopolized Wichita print journalism since the Eagle purchased the Beacon in 1960.

Paris said the Eagle and Beacon is not living up to its obligations to the community, but stressed that the new paper is not an attempt to "get back" at that paper.

"We will not allow ourselves to become embroiled in any hate exchanges," he said. "It will be our firm policy that all operations of the new paper will be open to public scrutiny via public reports published regularly."

An editor for the new paper has been selected pending the formation of and approval by a board of directors. Paris would not disclose the name of the editor, but said it would be announced at the earliest possible moment.

Persons interested in expressing support for the new venture or in pledging an advance subscription may write "The New Newspaper," P.O. Box 4203, Wichita, Kan. 67204.

Greb Team Captures First Place In Annual College Bowl Contest

G.F.B.S., or Greb for short, took first place in the second annual college bowl competition beating the Phi Beta Oregon team in the last double elimination match Thursday.

The college bowl is a scholastic competition conducted much like the nationally televised General Electric College Bowl.

The Greb team, captained by Davis Greb, included players Tim Finnelly, Gregory Buehne and John Sommers. The first place team won a traveling trophy and received individual medals.

Second place went to Phi Beta Oregon captained by J. Paul Porter. The team was defeated twice, 295 to 220 and 254 to 190 by Greb. Other Phi Beta members included Brad Clark, Richard Maliszewski and Michael Patton.

Captained by Gary Davis, the Theater team was dropped to third place when outscored by Greb 275 to 245. Other Theater team members playing were Phil Speary, Laura Livingston and Bill Hanshaw.

The faculty officials included: Alvin Gregg, assistant professor of English; Jeff Neill, instructor of English; Dwight Murphey, assistant professor of business administration; Rushworth Kidder, assistant professor of English, and Robert Lautz, assistant professor and director of testing.

Shockers Compete at Kansas

Wichita State will be one of 35 universities participating in the annual University of Kansas Relays held at Lawrence today and Saturday.

The KU Relays are annually one of the largest in the nation, with many world class performers attending.

This year's field includes Jim Ryun, world record holder in the mile and half-mile.

Shock Track Coach Herm Wilson said he is optimistic about this year's meet, particularly with the chances of some of his relay teams. "We hope to get excellent performances out of our distance medley and 880-yard relay teams," he said. "They have run well enough to be among the best around. I hope this weekend they put it all together and win a big one."

The 880 team will be composed of Charlie Robinson, Billy Ray, Dale Jordan and Roscoe Givens. They have a best time of 1:26.4, one tenth of a second off the school record.

The distance medley team of Dennis McAllister (880), Ray (440), Randy Smith (1,320) and Alan Walker (mile), have a top time of 9:51, run on an indoor track. Their time is a WSU record.

Bruce Cooper and Rick Henson will be alternates on the 880-yard team. Steve Lee will join Henson as alternates on the medley team.

Walker and Smith will again enter the mile run for the Shockers. They finished first and second in the WSU relays with Walker setting a new record.

Robinson, Ray, Jordan and Givens will also run the 440-relay. The quartet has a best time of 41.5, only two tenths of a second off the Shocker record.

The mile relay team of Jordan, Ray, McAllister and Henson will attempt to better their WSU record setting time of 3:13.5. Their time ties the current Missouri Valley record.

Walker and Smith will join Brad Smisor and Mark Jackson in the two-mile relay.

Lee, Leon Brown, Billy Page and Hal Hays will try to better the four-mile relay school record of 16:48.9 set earlier this year. Bob Ream will act as alternate.

Keith Pharr will enter the three-and six-mile runs for the Shockers. He holds the school record for the three mile, and has consistently been under the MoValley record of 14:15.

Brown, who set a new school record of 9:15.4 in the 3000 meter steeplechase last weekend, will be joined in the event by Hays and Lee. Hays currently has a 9:28.7 record, the third best time in Shocker history.

Vic Wheeler will enter the high jump competition for the Shockers. His jump of 6'6" is the second WSU all time best.

Ken LeBlanc, will enter the javelin throw, his specialty. He has bettered the MoValley record of 199 feet by 25 feet.

Wichita Distance Stars Impress Shock Runner

by gary owen
sports editor

Wichita State steeplechase runner Leon Brown is not really an idol worshiper, but he comes close to being one when he talks about the middle distance runners produced from the Wichita area.

Brown, who holds the Shocker school record for the steeplechase of 9:15.4, said what impress him about Wichita are its runners. "The thing that impresses me most is running in the city where Jim Ryun came from," he said. "I am continually impressed with guys like Alar Walker, Randy Smith and Steve Lee who are so good and all from the same area."

"I am really impressed with the competition we have every day in practice," Brown continued, "everyone makes each other work hard to improve. All the guys are great to work with, I guess you could say we really enjoy practice."

Brown was a member of the Shock four-mile relay team which set a school record of 18:48 in the Texas Relays and one of the Cross Country Gold Five that won the MoValley Championship last fall.

"The members of the cross country team are really an inspiration to work with," he said. "You can't pick out just one leader, they all inspire you to improve."

Brown came to Wichita State from Lowville, N.Y., where he was primarily a cross country runner and basketball player. His matriculation to WSU came because he wanted to run.

"When I graduated from high school, I really wanted to continue running," he said. "My coach in my senior year was John Hayes, a WSU grad who knew Coach Wilson. We came out for a visit, I liked what I saw and stayed."

Brown said he is happy to be running here, but wants to go back east when he graduates.

"The wind and hot weather bother me," the physical education major said. "After graduation I want to teach and coach in a junior or senior high back east. I like the cool weather with lots of snow."

Lowville is in the Adirondak Mountains where there is plenty of snow for one of Brown's favorite pastimes—driving snowmobiles. "Our family has three snowmobiles," he said. "On Sunday afternoons we take them on four or five hour trips through the mountains."

Unlike many athletes, Brown said he feels that the athlete should involve himself in many areas of campus life. "College life is a way of preparing yourself for the future," he said. "Therefore, you should involve yourself in a variety of activities and still maintain your studies."

Brown said he felt his running makes him more aware of his academic commitments. "Being an athlete makes you very time conscious," he said. "You are on the go all the time and learn to use your time to the best advantage."

He will be running the steeplechase Saturday at the KU Relays against some of the best in the country, including American record holder Sid Sink, Olympian Conrad Nightingale and Wichitan Jon Callen.

"I would like to break nine minutes in the steeplechase," he said. "Running against these guys will give me a good chance to do that. I will try to stay with them as long as I can in order to get a good time."

State Berth Goal Of Softball Team

The Wichita State softball team will take on Kansas Wesleyan at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at Salina in an attempt to gain a spot in the state tournament to be held April 29.

A victory in Saturday's game will assure the Shockers a second place finish in the western half of the Kansas Women's Intercollegiate Conference.

Coach Sue Bair will start righthander Kathy Mustoe as pitcher. Vicki Nyquist will again be behind the plate.

Second baseman Judy Claswen will be moved to the second position in the batting order to give the Shockers some extra punch. Dana Mason will drop to the fifth spot with Nyquist dropping from fifth to sixth.

Ticket Manager Quits

Mike Russell, WSU athletic manager for the past year, announced his resignation Wednesday, April 19, from the administrative staff of the WSU athletic department. He will become Director of Marketing of the Operations Division of Jack P. DeBoer Associates, Inc., of Wichita.

Russell, a 1966 graduate of WSU, joined the WSU athletic staff June 1, 1971, and assumed responsibility for purchasing, ticket program, travel arrangements and overall program promotions.

Tremendous Job

"I hate to see Mike leave us at this time," Cecil Coleman, athletic director, said. "He's done a tremendous job for us over the past year, and I'm extremely pleased we had him for that long.

He is a super salesman and did wonders for our ticket program."

The 33-year-old Russell directed the most highly successful ticket campaign in recent years at WSU when he advanced season ticket sales to 7,835. That constituted an increase of 3,500 new sales for 1971-72 in football.

Primarily a promotions-oriented manager, Russell established a new approach to season ticket sales and set up the start of a highly successful ticket unit.

"I hate to leave Wichita State," Russell said, "but I couldn't refuse the opportunity. I feel it is an advancement with an increase in activity in my major field, marketing and sales. I hope I have helped my alma mater in some small way by being at Wichita State University."

SENIOR RUNNING BACK Don Gilley (black jersey) stiff arms John Yeros in Shocker intra-squad Wednesday. Gilley rushed for 69 yards, caught three passes and scored a touchdown as the black team, composed of the first team offense and defense, blanked the white team 13 to zero.
