PRE-REGISTRATION WILL BEGIN TODAY

Faculty and Class Schedules for Second Semester Here are Now Completed and Available at Registrar's Office.

Class and faculty schedules for the second semester at Wichita University have been practically completed and are now available. The new lists may be obtained at the office of Lambertus Hekhuis, registrar, as well as advice regarding the arranging of the courses of study. To help the students prepare the new schedules, all the faculty members will serve as advisers. The next semester will begin January 28.

The December issue of the University Bulletin is now being distributed through the office of the registrar. The tentative schedule of each student must receive the approval of the dean of his college when completed. All schedules for new students or those that are enrolling this semester should be completed before January 19.

Each student must consult with his adviser and arrange a schedule for the following semester. The office hours of the various professors are given below. Announcements will also be found on the bulletin boards. The following is the faculty schedule for pre-registration January 7-19, listed alphabetically:

Aley, Ruth—On Monday, Wednesday and Friday in room 45U during hours of 12:00-12:30. Tuesday and Thursday in room 46U during hours of 1:00-3:00.

Ayres, H. D.—On Monday and Wednesday in room 14U during hours 9:30-10:00, 2:00. Thursday in room 14U 2:00. Friday 14U during hours of 9:30-10:00, 3:00.

Bakkum, Glenn—On Monday in Library N. E. during hours of 10:00-11:00. Tuesday and Thursday in Library N. E. 10:00-12:00. Other times by appointment.

Branch, Hazel E.—On Monday and

Wichita U. On the Air

Many students and faculty members of the University of Wichita have appeared before the microphone of the Wichita Radio Station KFJ since the opening of the college semester this year. Others connected with the university are expected to be scheduled in the near future.

W. C. Folley, of the journalism department, was guest announcer at KFJ, the Hotel Lassen radio station, Wednesday, December 26.

The string choir, under the direction of Dean Lieurance, has appeared several times this year. Members of the choir are: violins, Beatrice Sanford, Dorothy Martin, Bessie Howse, and Valoise Davis, cello, Charles Stillwell, Modena Hope, Elinor Moore, and Lois Ayres, viola, Weldon Wilber, string bass, Wilbur Schowalter, piano, Margaret Cadwell.

The University quartette composed of Ernest Gilyeat, Cecil McKee, Galen Graham, and Sam Willis sang on the program during December. Frances Diers of the Fine Arts department, appeared as soloist.

"We have no programs scheduled with University students at present," J. L. Fox, program director of KFJ, told the Sunflower, "but we want to arrange some more."

TELLS OF FIRST COMPOSITION

"There is a long road between that piece, which was my first, and the 'Waters of Minnetonka,'" said Dean Thurlow Lieurance, to his music appreciation class last week, after he had concluded playing his very first composition, "but my father still thinks that it is the best piece I ever wrote," he added.

The piece, "Some Time", was published when he was eleven years old. The Wichita University dean of music has since composed scores of well-known pieces. He has published a series of new compositions annually for the last several years.

Begin Photography For Yearbook Today

Frank Cohen Erects Studio in Fiske Hall and Will Take Junior Pictures First

With a studio in room 36, Fiske Hall, Frank Cohen, photographer, started taking pictures for the 1929 Parnassus this morning. The juniors, seniors, and sophomores, respectively, are scheduled to have their photos taken by Friday, January 18. The freshmen pictures are to be taken immediately after the semester examinations.

Each student has been assigned to a definite day and hour to have his picture taken. A student having a class at this hour will be given a slip excusing him for the time required to take the photograph. Slips will be found in the student mail boxes in University Hall. If for some reason a student cannot keep his appointment, a change can be made by notifying Elizabeth Chaney, picture editor.

Following is a copy of the Parnassus picture schedule that is posted on the bulletin board in University Hall:

Y. W. C. A. DRIVE

I wish to assure the student body that the share of the College Chest which the Y. W. C. A. will receive will be devoted whole heartedly and beneficially toward the improving of the University Y. W. With an adequate budget I am sure that the Y. W. of the future will benefit every girl on the campus and Wichita University to a greater extent than it has been able to in the past. One financial drive will benefit the entire student body more than many different campaigns. All I can ask of the students in their honest cooperation in this worthy campaign.

SPOKE ON JAPAN

There are almost no spinsters in Japan and very few bachelors was the amazing statement of Enid Clark, of Kotoko, Japan, who with her sister, Sylvia, recently told the Alpha Tau girls about Japan and their experiences there. "The art of pouring tea, which is learned only after years of practice, and that of arranging every kind of flower beautifully, are things which every Japanese girl must know," Miss Clark said.

Pageant Committees Have Been Appointed Chairmen Selected

Members of Six Groups Chosen To Help With Work Which Lasts Until Spring.

Committees have been appointed and work is about to begin on the Parnassus Pageant which is to be given here in the spring. The six committees which are in charge are; decoration, business, lighting and stage, orchestra, costuming, and advisory committees.

The members of the decoration committee are; Arnold McClintock, chairman, Mary Webb, Zelma Beaman, Edwarda Misener, Douglas Gwinn, Mary Virginia Hadler, Eugene Probst, Addison Rose, Lucille Hall, Ed Peek, Charlotte Lee, Alice Whittaker, Leslie Bosworth, John Malone, Fred McComb, and Gilbert Melcher.

Frank Salisbury will have charge of the business; Weldon Wilber is chairman of the orchestra committee. Jack Lewis, chairman of the lighting and stage, will choose his assistants. The other groups are the costuming committee, Miss Edith Fultz, chairman, and student assistants; and the advisory committee with Dr. W. C. Folley as general chairman; Mr. G. D. Wilner, dramatics and staging; Mr. Francis Diers, singing; Dean Thurlow Lieurance, music; Miss Edith Fultz, costuming; and Miss Irene Tihen, dancing.

Plans for the pageant are completed and work will probably begin in a short time. This pageant is to take the place of the annual May fete and is scheduled to be played at least four nights, with the possibility of an afternoon performance for school children.

Reporters Receive Prized Photographs

Autographed pictures of Marian Talley were received last Thursday by Elizabeth Lill and Jane Ann Gates, members of the host committee of the Press Club, who interviewed the celebrated singer when she was here three weeks ago, at the Lassen Hotel. At the same time they met Mrs. Talley, Mr. Talley, and Miss Florence Talley.

The pictures were full length portraits of Miss Talley in the costume she wore in the opera "Rigoletto." The autographs were, "To Elizabeth Lill from Marian Talley" and "To Jane Ann Gates from Marian Talley."

As representatives of the Press Club, the girls have interviewed E. H. Sothern, Will Durant, the Freiburg Players, and Marian Talley. Many of the Sunflower interviews have been used in part or in whole in other papers.

RECEIVE OUTSIDE RECOGNITION

The complete interview by Jane Ann Gates with the Freiburg Players, for the Sunflower, was republished in the Dodge City Journal on December 20. A full column was given to the interview and credit was given to the University paper as well as to its reporter.

Miss Gates last year wrote the winning interview of the year in the state high school scholastic publication contest. At the time of her first place victory she was a reporter on The Messenger, the official student paper of Wichita Senior High.

CHEST DRIVE WILL OPEN NEW ANNEX

GIVES LARGE PHOTOGRAPH

Mrs. R. N. Gouldner, well known friend of the University of Wichita, has presented the Fine Arts department with a large photograph of Mrs. Thurlow Lieurance under which is inscribed "The whole record of her life is that of unselfish generosity. She is your friend and has the highest ideal of fine, clean, strong womanhood which is expressed in her glorious singing—Edna Lieurance."

Number of Faculty Attend Conventions

Six W. U. Professors Go To Chicago Educational Meetings During Holidays

During the holidays various faculty members of the University of Wichita attended educational conferences throughout the country, six going to conventions in Chicago December 26-29. The usual number spent the vacation visiting friends and relatives out-of-town, and the rest remained in Wichita.

Dr. Glenn A. Bakkum attended the American Sociological meeting at Chicago. Mrs. G. A. Bakkum also attended this meeting.

Mr. George D. Wilner, and John Cowley attended a meeting for teachers of speech at Northwestern University.

Mr. Samuel Hill went to a coaches' meeting in New Orleans.

Mr. John Piffner attended an American Political Science meeting.

Mr. F. M. Gracey, director of the Art Department, visited with his family and friends in Winterhill, Mass.

Miss Gladys Taggart spent the vacation at her home in Spencer, Iowa.

Miss Jean Fraser, Assistant Professor of English was the guest of Miss Irene Tihen at her father's home in Andale.

Y. M. C. A. DRIVE

We feel that the work of the Y. M. C. A. justifies our asking the support of the student body in the Campus Chest Drive. The Y. M. C. A. endeavors to create within the student body a vital Christian spirit, by bringing speakers upon the campus, securing the aid and advice of the Regional and National secretaries, and by sending men to various conferences. The "Y" also sponsors the annual "Mixers" and the Football Banquet. With your support of the "Chest" this program will be possible.

PLAN FRENCH CLUB PLAY

The cast for the French Club play was announced just before the holidays and practice and arrangements for the play which will be given at the French Club meeting a week from tonight are under way.

"L'Ete de la Saint-Martin" by Meilbac is a one act comedy with four characters. Weldon Wilber will appear as Briqueville, Frank Salisbury as Noel, Mildred Kelly as Adrienne, and Virginia Kurt as Madame Lebreton.

Combined Campus Charity Program To Be Outlined This Wednesday at First Convocation in Recently Completed Auditorium.

On Wednesday at 10 o'clock the student body will assemble for the first time in the new auditorium annex and the initial program will be in the hands of a group of students. Money and pledges to the total of $1600 will be asked for from the assembled faculty and students.

Three students will appear on the program. Arnold McClintock will act as chairman. Veryl Pitts will speak on the need for the money and will be followed by Lois McIntyre who will explain in detail what the money is to be used for.

Following these talks others on the committee will pass through assigned sections taking up pledges marked on special envelopes which have been distributed at the door as the students enter.

Nine hundred dollars of the fund is to go to Wichita-in-Turkey, a mission college being run by the Merrill Iselys in Aintab, Turkey. They are graduates of Fairmount and are helped in their work each year by students attending their Alma Mater.

The Y.M. and Y.W. are to get $350 each to further their work both here on the campus and in the state.

Circulars sent out to the presidents of the thirty-three organizations on the campus by Mary Webb, secretary of the promotion committee, have been posted and pledges are being taken at the various club meetings. Pledges taken Wednesday do not have to be paid all at once, but can be paid in installments up to March 1.

Those who are not reached at convocation will be seen personally in order that everyone enrolled will be given a chance to subscribe.

The question which has been raised by new students on the campus, relative to the use of the money, has appeared in the editorial columns of today's Sunflower. The budgets of both campus organizations to derive benefit from the drive have been obtained and will be carefully explained in convocation Wednesday.

In addition an itemized account will be made of the expenditures used in serving the college-in-Turkey.

This same type of student project is carried out in many other colleges, especially in the eastern universities.

To Have New Walks

"Approximately one thousand dollars is being spent now for sidewalks on the campus", according to Roy W. Elliott, bursar of the University of Wichita. The walks will be completed about January 4, if the weather is warm enough to permit.

From the west front of the Science building which will be paved twenty feet out from the building, a walk extending to both entrances will curve down in front of Fiske Hall to the gymnasium, and down the north side of the gym to the main entrance. From the front of the Science Hall a narrow four foot walk will extend to the front of the Library and another walk will go from the front of the Science building around to the east side.

Look in the student mail boxes for your Parnassus picture schedule.

Add Forty-Seven To List Past Two Weeks

With Total Now Around 500, Parnassus Has Sold Only Half of Required Subscriptions

Below is a list of the purchasers of the 1929 Parnassus, issued Wednesday evening by Frank Salisbury, campaign manager of the year book. The faculty have not yet been solicited, but will be asked to subscribe shortly, Salisbury says. The Sunflower will publish weekly lists of additional buyers of the book. Following is the list, including 449 purchasers to date:

Theatre Guild Cast Is To Appear Here

On Friday and Saturday nights, January 11 and 12, and on Saturday afternoon, a cast from the New York Theater Guild will appear in a program of plays at the Wichita High School. Friday night the offering will be Wallace Irvin's "John Ferguson;" Saturday afternoon, Sir Sidney Howard's "Ned McCobb's Daughter"; and Saturday night, Bernard Shaw's "The Doctor's Dilemma."

The troupe is being brought here by the efforts of the League of Women Voters and Mrs. L. K. Brown. Mrs. Florence A. Bakkum, wife of Dr. Glenn A. Bakkum, is president of the League of Women Voters. A college branch of the League exists at Wichita University. This group will meet at the home of Principal L. W. Brooks, 119 S. Estelle at 10:00 A. M. Tuesday, to discuss the arrangements for these entertainments, and Professor George D. Wilner will speak on the history of the Theater Guild.

Tickets are now on sale at the College Bursar's office in Fiske Hall and may be secured from Sam Willis, student assistant under Mr. Roy W. Elliott.

Comedy Given Soon

"Mrs. Bumpstead-Leigh", a three-act comedy under the direction of Professor Wilner, will be presented in the new auditorium on January 17 and 18. This play was written primarily for the talent of Mrs. Fiske the famous character actress. Not all of the members of the cast have been definitely decided upon as yet, but they will be chosen this week.

Mrs. Bumpstead-Leigh is the oldest daughter of an average middle-western family who suddenly become rich. In their efforts to acquire a social position compatible with their income the family marries the daughter to an Englishman, and she becomes the elegant and haughty Mrs. Bumpstead-Leigh. The humor of the play lies in her occasional lapses back to her small-town character.

This is the second of a series of four plays to be presented by the Dramatics department. Season tickets to the remaining three plays will be sold for seventy-five cents which is less than any of the neighboring universities are asking for their entertainments. The profits from these plays will go to buy a curtain for the new auditorium. So when you buy a ticket, you not only buy three evenings of good entertainment but also a part of an important addition to the new building.

LET CONTRACTS

Hays, Kans., Dec. 15.—Contracts for $10,000 worth of special laboratory equipment for the new $150,000 science hall at K.S.T.C. here were let today by H. E. Shrack, state business manager at Topeka.

CAPTAINS HAYS TEAM

Hays, Kans., Dec. 15.—Joe Mahoney, Bunkerhill, president of the junior class at K.S.T.C. here and a 214 pound tackle, was appointed captain of the 1929 Tiger football team by W. D. Weidlein, director of athletics and head football coach.

Ernest Bearg, coach of Nebraska's Big Six grid champions, will be at Washburn next year as football coach and director of athletics.

Profs Give Lectures

Dr. Lambertus Hekhuis of the religious education department, spoke last Thursday on "Religions and the Home" at a meeting of the Y. W. C. A. This is one of a series of lectures on "The Family" sponsored by the sociology department of the university and the city Y. W. C. A.

Dr. G. A. Bakkum of the sociology department has been active in sponsoring these lectures and delivered several of the series.

The next lecture will be Thursday evening, January 10. The class is open to both men and women and is conducted especially for the young people of college age and young married people.

Look in the student mail boxes for your Parnassus picture schedule.

Faculty Men Play

Following the example set by their robust students the faculty have decided to try their hands at caging the ball. There are ten men interested in the game, each considered about as good as the other.

While a first string has not been definitely decided upon it is thought that coaches Gene Johnson, Sam Hill, Cliff Gallagher, Dr. Walter C. Folley and Dean Oliver L. Troxel show up best.

Close behind, pushing the leaders for a place on the bench of the first five are Lt. Fred Gaillard, Dr. Lambertus Hekhuis, Dr. John Rydjord, Mr. Francis Diers and Dr. Clinton C. McDonald.

Some fierce games are promised in the offing, as Hekhuis and Troxel have not forgotten the days when they played on rival college teams "back home in Illinois."

Practice Thursday night revealed the cagers are not in the best of shape but they think they will be ready for competition soon.

EMM: The following document met the gaze of this gawking reporter on entering the Brig not so long ago:

I, K. K. Friedel, being in my right mind and of legal age before the law, hereby announce that over the holidays I shall invest the sum of $1.50 in an electric grill to be used for the purpose of making hot chocolate and tea and sundry other pabulum for fleshly consumption which the slaves who get out the vulgar sheet familiarly known as the Sunflower may consume at their leisure on the cold winter days which nobody can persuade me aren't ahead.

I also, being in my right mind, although I can't vouch for it after publication of this notice, hereby appoint Mlle. Mehitabel as Chief Washerup-ofanyandallmesseswemake. She is empowered to designate any assistants she may need. Contributions of sugar, chocolate, and coffee and cups, spoons, and other instruments we may use.

Signed,
K. K. Friedel.

As if this wasn't enough, the following names and contributions, appeared in the midst of a few serious attempts to be helpful:

Arnold McClintock—1 lb. meat loaf, and 1 mince pie.

Gilbert Melcher—1 sugar (one) and 1 pt. "preserves" (waxed tight).

W. C. Folley—1 tin cup.

Leon Lambert—matches for grill.

Ed. Peek—one corkscrew and ash tray.

What we are trying to figure out is, was Editor Friedel serious?

Personally we don't believe so, our reason, however, being only circumstantial: We don't think he had $1.50 at the time the fatal manuscript was written. Be that as it may, we know that the absent Editor will go into fits of joy, or at least some kind of fits when he sees the contribution offered by Mr. McClintock.

LORD HOWE-GREENE.

P. S. The above dirt is published without fear from that editor man—'cause he aint here—he went down to Are-can-saw, or some place to see the New Year in—he musta celebrated too much—he hasn't come back yet.

—L. H.-G.

It was midnight! The ground was covered with snow. The wind whistled through the trees. I had my trusty flashlight out. It was one article I was able to keep from them. The centery appeared in the distance. I began looking for the name of Foster on the stones. I found it—And my initiation for that night was over. I hurried home—shivering in every limb—and hung the covers over my withering body. Never again ooh!

Dear EMM: This is all rather late of course, but have you heard about: The W.U. fellow who in his enthusiastic comments on Queen Petrolia got mixed up and referred to her as "Queen Gusher"? And about the dumbest person who thought that the Press Club was a campus organization to eliminate dry cleaning bills? And the girl who went downtown to get a "personality bob" and was offended because it was cut crooked?

Helpfully,

Mr. Gregory Mazer, professor of classical languages, has been chosen by Mr. Kirk Meecham, author and director of "Prince Dimitri," a three-act drama to be presented by the Prairie Players in February.

Mrs. Amy Mahin will speak to two groups this week on character training—on Tuesday, to the Jewish Sisterhood of Temple Emanuel and on Wednesday, to the women of the Messenger Philathea class of the Baptist church.

Miss Haymaker, who has been absent from her classes on account of an operation which she underwent last Monday, returned to school Monday.

A light snow did not keep the local unit of the R. O. T. C. from doing their semi-weekly drill last week. From the library one could see the boys doing their stuff on the frozen and snow swept football field to the north.

Miss Geraldine Sauer, of the Fine Arts School had as her vacation guest Miss Hazel Church of El Reno, Okla. Miss Church is a senior in Oklahoma Women's College at Chickasha.

Now the pledges of Delta Omega understand what the members were trying to keep up their sleeves so long ago. Have you seen the slave bracelets Santa brought them all?

Miss Beatrice Cunradi spent Christmas with friends in Wichita. Never having before, in the course of her peregrinations, penetrated so far west, she was particularly interested to note two characteristic methods whereby the city expresses the sentiment of "Good will to all men"—first, by the gorgeousness of the garden and downtown illuminations, and secondly by the invisibility of the mail carriers on Christmas Day.

German Club members learned some new Austrian folk songs and heard an illustrated lecture on the "Modern German Home" at the last meeting of the club which was held before the holidays.

Miss Jacquetta Downing of the Romance Language department spent the Christmas holidays with her parents at her home in Stratford, Kansas.

"Changes in German Home Construction and Interior Decoration" will be the subject of Dr. Kurt Sepmeier's talk before the Twentieth Century Club, Tuesday, January 8.

Miss Louise Blake was a holiday visitor in Blackwell.

Charles Snackard spent the holiday week in Tulsa as the guest of relatives.

Misses Irene Tihen and Jean Fraser were the guests of Miss Tihen's parents at Andale over the holidays.

Nina and Helen Satterthwaite were at home in Mulvane over the vacation.

Geraldine Sauer, Kenneth Sauer and Gilbert Melcher visited several days in Arkansas City during the holidays. One evening was spent at the Baylis Ranch near Grainola, Oklahoma.

Ernest Gilyeat alternated in visiting between friends in Wellington and Wichita during the holidays. He appeared at the Uptown Theatre, three days of last week, in the Singer's Popularity Contest.

Bulletin!

The new auditorium annex will not be ready for occupancy Wednesday morning, it was announced late yesterday by President H. W. Focht, as was previously given out to The Sunflower in the following story. The Campus Chest chapel will therefore be held in the old gymnasium.

Unforeseen delays were responsible for the postponement, and Dr. Focht hopes that the hall will be ready for next week's convocation.

REMEMBER THE BUILDER

Wichita University students will sit Wednesday morning in the first of the great group of new buildings that will one day make this institution one of the most powerful in the state. We trust that they will pause for a moment, when they are assembled, and give a thought to the man who is responsible for the change that is making a new school out of old shambles—President Harold W. Foght.

That change is so natural that its manifestations actually occur almost overnight. And we need only to study the stupendous program that has been outlined for succeeding years, and of which this is only the beginning, to experience something akin to a thrill over the prospects of that program.

As an organ The Sunflower is proud to be a part of the administration of President Foght, and it voices the opinion of the students when it quotes its management as being proud to be students while this man is at the helm.

SIXTEEN HUNDRED DOLLARS?

One of the chief obstacles in the way of meeting and passing a mark set in a financial drive is that people seldom understand just where their contributions are going.

That is one of the difficulties, we believe, that the promoters of the Campus Chest are facing, and we feel safe in advising them that it is worth their most careful attention. We suggest further that they give a full exposition of the disposing of the $1600.00 they are seeking to get. That is no small sum to ask of 950 students. According to news stories, two student speakers will appear on the program Wednesday morning in convocation. For the sake of their cause let them go into detail. They will then silence a great number of their opposing critics.

WE HAVE THE JUMP

The gathering here in the spring of faculty and student representatives from all the colleges of Kansas for the formation of an all-state collegiate press association is gradually passing from the proposed stage to that of the assured. The idea for the first press formation for Kansas colleges originated in the Shocker camp.

Early this fall a press gathering—consisting of journalism instructors and student publication editors from seven neighboring colleges—was held on our campus and the Central Conference Press Association was the outgrowth. This association now has a press service that is functioning regularly and serving the member colleges and the national news bureaus. One of the visiting faculty representatives remarked that the idea behind this pioneer formation was such a worthy one that he only wished his college could have originated the idea and sponsored the movement.

At this first meeting Wichita was selected as the permanent headquarters of the C. C. P. A. and Kenneth Friedel, editor-in-chief of The Sunflower, was elected its first president. The city merely received honors of which it was deserving.

The proposed state-wide association is merely the outgrowth of this first convention. No doubt this is slightly irritating to the two largest universities of Kansas—the University of Kansas and the Kansas State Agricultural College—both possess strong and long-established journalism departments. However, the largest municipal-supported college in the state—it is the only city owned Kansas university offering four year courses and graduate work—has a number of advantages, that cannot be denied, over the above mentioned institutions—the two largest state supported universities.

The "air capital of the world" can also claim the journalism supremacy of the state. Wichita is the only Kansas metropolis possessing bureau agencies of the country's three largest press services: the Associated Press, the United Press, and the International News Service. The three greatest daily newspapers of Kansas are located here. Also this city is the home of several of the leading journalists of this section of the country—not excepting, in the estimation of The Sunflower staff, the name of the dean of the journalism department of the Municipal University. (He likewise has nothing to do with our statements in this editorial—but probably will offer severe criticism. However, we are wholly sincere in all our writing.)

Kansas high schools as a whole rank third in the nation in regard to their scholastic publication ratings. A state high school press association also exists, and has existed for a number of years. No such organization has ever been formed in college circles of the state. There is a need for one. College press associations now exist in most of the other states of the nation. Kansas will soon have one.

"The Peerless Princess of the Plains," as Victor Murdock has termed the city, is the ideal location for the headquarters of the Kansas state collegiate press association. The place best fitted to house such an organization and the men necessary to successfully back such a course are here in Wichita.

We have never paid much attention to the jibes about Friend's students and their bicycles, but we simply broke down the other day when one of them, evidently a journalism student, passed us pulling a little wagon loaded with old papers.

"Henry Flaherty, 50, beaten into unconscious and robbed"—The Evening Eagle. Probably an hour before he regained conscience.

Inasmuch as the debate squads are working on the question of jury abolition, we hasten to refer the negative to the Hon. Henry F. Sinclair and the M. George Remus, who probably will be more than glad to assist in any way they can.

We hope there is never as much publicity given to some of our love letters as has recently been given to Abraham Lincoln's.

DISCUSSION

THE NEW TYPE OF COLLEGE FRESHMAN

By EARL K. HILLBRAND

Dean the Graduate School Municipal University of Wichita

Ten years ago the college freshman initiated to campus life by one grand brawl. He was treated like a savage by savages and came to the natural conclusion that a freshman at college was the least desirable of mankind. Arriving in the college town, he was greeted in a far less hospitable manner than was Columbus. Through the chasms between the mountains of trunks he heard the wild cries of the taxi drivers. He had no place to pitch his tent, no guide to help him. The process of registration was discouraging. It was nearly impossible to find any one who would accept his tuition money. Homesick, he signed his name and the name of his home town nearly fifty times during registration and longed for that home town each time he wrote its name upon the card. As he was shunted from the gymnasium to the recorder's office, from the athletic office to the classification committee, the sophomores turned his coat inside out, fastened his garters around his neck, rolled up his trousers and made life altogether miserable.

Now much if not all of this has changed. There has appeared something new under the sun—a new type of college freshman. This has come about largely on account of what is known as freshman week.

Though still a lusty infant of only five years, the idea of freshman week, which first saw the light of day at the University of Maine, has rapidly been adopted by more than a hundred colleges and universities throughout the land.

In most colleges where the plan is being tried the freshmen are invited to make their appearance a few days before the opening of the fall term. The freshmen have the entire campus to themselves. Only a few selected upper classmen are on hand and make it their business to supplement the activities of the administration in relieving the incoming freshmen of the most severe trials of the campus. The freshmen are given a royal welcome and made to feel at home at once. In fact the freshmen are treated as the most popular persons at the university. They are welcomed by the president and the deans, the churches make them feel at home and the fraternities prize their friendship.

Before leaving their homes each freshman has received a freshman week bulletin, giving in detail the program of activities. Having been met at the train, he soon finds himself in the college chapel for his first general assembly. Here he gets acquainted with the faculty members who have freshman week in charge and with the various group leaders. He quickly discovers that the purpose of freshman week is to help initiate him into the life of the university and to acquaint him with his various duties and privileges.

In a remarkably short time, and without a great deal of fuss, he finds that he has passed through a physical examination, the usual routine of registration, a series of library lectures, and has made the acquaintance of several faculty members in the process. In the general assemblies he begins to learn the college songs and yells, and unconsciously acquires the school spirit.

He soon gets acquainted with the deans, who lecture to him on the general rules, regulations, customs, traditions, and so on, of the institution. Through the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. "mixers," "pep" and song festivals, picnics and moving picture shows he gets well acquainted with the other entering freshmen.

The freshmen, by this time, are becoming quite class-conscious. Arrangements are made to hold the first meeting of the freshman class for purposes of organization. At this meeting they choose their officers. Class spirit begins to blossom. This being an appropriate time, the freshmen are photographed, and their photographs are filed in the personal office for use by the administration.

Having arrived early, the new freshman finds it easier than he had imagined to bridge the gap between the high school and college. He is kept so busy that he finds little time for the usual fit of homesickness. He comes in closer contact with the faculty and students, and acquires, in a short period of time, a larger insight into the university life which is to be his. He has a much better opportunity to choose the proper course of study and to locate his rooming and boarding place. He has lost his verdant hue. He is already enrolled in the university, and has all the advantages of a few days experience as a college student by the time the larger proportion of upper classmen arrive.

This new type of college freshman is in a much more receptive frame of mind than was the freshman of ten years ago. Instead of carrying a bruise in his heart he has thankfulness toward his newly made home; instead of being made to perform for the others' amusement, he is made a prince in a strange principality.—School and Society.

California has started a public movement against swearing. One way would be just to forget about Florida.—New York Evening Post.

Mr. William Randolph Hearst has offered a prize of $25,000 for the best plan for the repeal of the 18th amendment. Mr. Hearst is wasting his money except for the publicity he may get out of it. All that is required for the repeal of the 18th amendment is two-thirds majority in each house of Congress, and the subsequent approval of three-fourths of the states. Give us the $25,000.—Hutchinson Herald.

It is said that they now train detectives in New York by sending them out to find a parking place for an automobile. When the applicant finds one he gets a badge.

Danny, the printer's devil, says he has resolved to make no more New Year's resolutions.

There are ways and means, and then there are some mean ways.

All treasurers of the various organizations on the campus MUST have their books balanced and in the hands of Mr. Wright before the close of the semester so that they may be audited before the new treasurer accepts them. In addition to the cash book, journal, and ledger, the bank pass book and all paid checks should be handed in also. Be sure to have the bank book balanced just before the books are audited. For long columns of figures adding machine slips should be attached so as to lighten the work of the auditor as much as possible.

CHATTERINGS

By ELIZABETH LILL

The many friends of Ralph Camp, president of the Student Council last year, will be interested to know that his average was among the twenty-three highest at Harvard.

Ruth Roberts who is attending Oklahoma University, visited at the University of Wichita last Thursday and Friday.

Jack Robinson, student here last year, was also a visitor last week. He is attending Northwestern University this year.

Ernest Yu Ping Shi was the guest of Dr. Ho Ly-yuen at his home in Kansas City during the Christmas vacation. Dr. Ho Ly-yuen also entertained a Japanese student from Iowa and one from Wisconsin. During their stay they visited in St. Louis.

Anyone interested in having trees pulled is requested to report to Arnold McClintock. A certain tree on Thirteenth and Hillside is an excellent example of his work.

Mrs. Elsa Lou Graham is taking the place of Miss Edith Jacobs, President H. W. Foght's secretary, who is on a vacation.

Miss Biona Hull is Mr. R. W. Elliott's new secretary. She takes the place of Mrs. Elsa Lou Graham who is moving to Kansas City.

Epsilon Kappa Rho pledges will hold their regular meeting this afternoon at one o'clock. Campus activities will be discussed.

Here is something new along the line of lost articles. Epsilon Kappa Rho report the sudden and mysterious disappearance of their sign. It was a yellow EKP on a blue back ground.

Carolyn Kirkwood and Sue Wallace visited at W.U. last week.

The army of fur coats and their owners is swelled by the following additions. Hortense Rhodes, Roberta Alexandra, Elinor Brown, Billie Field, Opal Fogelberg, Isabel Nevins, and Marcia Bradford.

Dean Thurlow Lieurance asked Frances Obrist to sing the solo part in sight singing class last Thursday. Francis Diers apparently was not paying the strictest of attention, and immediately started singing, much to the amusement of the class.

Chrystal Williams moved from the dormitory last week.

Frances Greenman has quit school because of illness.

All of the Holyoke Hall girls returned after vacation except Berniece Cheatman and Bertha Achelpohl. They are delated victims of the flu.

Ernestine Smith received a dozen beautiful roses on her birthday last week. The dormitory girls certainly appreciate them.

The mice at Holyoke Hall are unusually smart. Now the girls have to tie bait on the traps to catch them.

Mrs. M. L. Cope, matron of Holyoke Hall, has started the New Year right. Always soft spoken, she now barely speaks above a whisper. Flu seems to have been the reformer.

Jane Evans has resolved not to study and not to speak an unkind word this year. This will probably be about fifty per cent successful.

Buck Buchanan of New Mexico is visiting his parents in Wichita.

Lights that Fill

Skies with Commerce

THE air map of America is now in the making—on the ground.

Ten years ago, there were 218 miles of air mail routes with two station stops; to-day, a network of sky roads bridges the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico.

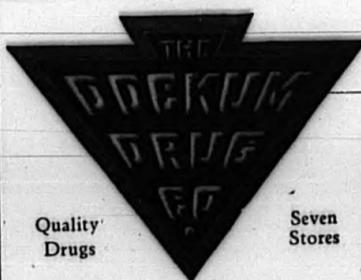

Can you imagine this growth without electricity—without illuminated airports—without trunk lines studded with electric beacons?

Men of vision are building for increasing traffic of the air. Soon, the skies will be filled with commerce.

Just as electricity is helping to conquer the air, the land, and the sea to-day, so to-morrow it will lead to greater accomplishments in aviation and in every human activity.

A majority of the beacon lights used in airport and airway illumination have been designed and manufactured by the General Electric Company, whose specialists have the benefit of a generation's experience in the solution of lighting problems.

Letters of Anguish

Dear Barb:

What a nice feeling now that all the holidays are over and I can get some sleep. I feel the need of it; don't you? Of course you've seen all the new ties, fountain pens, scarfs, and handkerchiefs. And then too there were some unusual presents such as the new fur coats that Mary Jane Figgemeier and Roberta Alexander got. And, my dear, you should see the gorgeous new diamond that Adeline Paddock is sporting. It's a whiz. And, of course, you've heard about the new Dodge Six Coupe that Santa Claus gave Jack Murray. That wouldn't be hard to take; would it?

Just before Christmas I saw some of our illustrious Alpha Gam's and Pi Alph's playing bridge at the Wesley Pharmacy, working hard at it, and not at all worried about the lessons they should have been getting. I hear that Clewell Murphy, who was one of them, and should have known better, has decided not to make any New Year's resolutions because he has so many left over from last year that he hasn't been able to use yet. I always knew that Murphy was a Scotch name.

Romances? My dear, didn't I say that they'd improve with the holidays? Of course you must know about little Vivian Engstrom wearing Ray Reynolds's Webster pin. That really wasn't such a surprise because Vivian and Ray have been together quite a bit during the last few months. And then too Lorraine Lawson is now wearing Sam Hill's pin, which isn't any surprise at all. We were all expecting it all along. And rumor has it, that as soon as the semester is over a popular Alpha Tau will be wearing a Pi K. A. pin from the University of New Mexico.

Doesn't it seem to be just W.U. again, without all the additions from K.U. I hardly knew the old school just before the holidays. Oh, well, we should care.

We did learn a few things from the parties, in spite of everything, and one of the outstanding things was that there are several W.U. fraternity men just more than well qualified to give lessons on "How to Hold Your Liquor Well." And we know of one co-ed who has six evening dresses that we know of—that is, we saw her wear them, at different times, too. Must be nice.

Olive Ann Kuhlman who has recently under gone a severe operation at Wichita Hospital and Clyde Pate, who has faced an equally difficult ordeal at Wesley are both improving and expected to be home in a few days. We're certainly glad they're both better, and sorry they had to be ill over the holidays.

What to do the next semester seems to be a great question with a number of students just now. Louise Blake is going to K.U., C. J. Crum may go to New York, and Betty Stewart is going to be a lady of leisure and stay at home.

Just one more thing and then I must quit. A well known Phi Sig, I wouldn't dare mention his name, but I think the first part of it is Allen, after a little tilt with the girl friend the other day, called a former flame for a date, only to find out that said girl had been married several days, and that she thought he might read the papers once in a while.

That's all,
Pledge.

FORMAL AND INFORMAL

MANY SOCIAL EVENTS OVER HOLIDAYS

Six Local Social Organizations Hold Dances During Brief Vacation Period

The Yuletide season during which many social functions were calendared at W. U. was ushered in when Sorosis entertained at its annual Christmas formal in the form of a Yuletide Banquet at the Crestview Country Club on December 21. The ballroom was converted into a wjntny forest and Christmas trees hung with glistening tinsel lent a note of warmth and gaiety to the setting. The party souvenirs to the boys were boxes of monogrammed stationery.

Alpha Gamma Gamma fraternity made merry at a dance on December 22, while the Pi Alph's and Phi Sig's were co-hosts at an informal party in the Wichita Country Club. The Pi Alph-Phi Sig dance was an originally detailed party. The club ballroom was the scene of the interior of an ice cave. The walls were draped with strips of paper which was suggestive of crystal icicles and a profusion of white balloons formed a canopied ceiling over the dancers. The only illumination in the room was colored flood lights which cast a ray of warmth over the suggestive icicles. A feature of the evening's entertainment was a favor dance for which each girl received a miniature Santa Claus.

The holiday dances were brought to a close when Alpha Tau Sigma held a Christmas Eve party at the Crestview Country Club. The club ballroom which was gay with brilliantly lighted Christmas trees typified the holiday atmosphere.

The members of Alpha Tau Sigma, Pi Kappa Psi and Sorosis met with their respective groups for luncheon at the Innes Tea Room on Thursday of the holiday week.

SYLVIA SMULIAN MARRIED

Miss Sylvia Smulian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Smulian became the bride of Mr. Saul J. Cohen of Ft. Worth at a ceremony in the Spanish ballroom at the Hotel Lassen, December 30. Mrs. Cohen was formerly a student in the University of Wichita, and was affiliated with Alpha Tau Sigma Sorority.

LAVENDAR-FRENCH

An announcement which is of interest to their many friends in the university is that of the marriage of Miss Louise Lavendar to John French on December 28, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Lavendar of 1100 North Emporia. Mr. French is a student at the University of Wichita.

Pi Kap Pledges Act As Hosts at Dance

The members of Pi Kappa Psi were guests of their pledges at a dance in the Twentieth Century Club, Friday night, January 4. A color scheme of blue and rose was carried out in the decorations which were bowls of cut flowers and brilliant flood lights. Features of the entertainment were favor dances for which the girls received crepe paper fans and the boys were given novelty horns.

The pledges and their guests included:

To Publish Menu

Beginning with this issue, the Sunflower will publish weekly the menu of the University Cafeteria. This list will include the menu for Monday, the day on which the paper comes out, and following with the other four school days of the week. Each issue of The Sunflower will contain such a menu, corresponding to the week in which the paper is published.

All that is possible to increase the facilities of the cafeteria is being done. It is believed that such a means of getting the daily menus before the student body will tend to add to the patronage of the cafeteria and be more convenient for the students. Price lists will be displayed in conspicuous places back of the food counter.

A Lesson You Learn Outside of the Classroom

EVERY lesson is not learned in the classroom as you students of today have found out. Some of the most important are completely outside of your courses of study. Let us take a look at your basket-ball team, for instance. Does it teach you a lesson? It certainly does!

Watch those five players as the ball shoots back and forth across the floor—zip, zip—until finally, with a spontaneous roar of applause from the crowd, it swishes thru the netted hoop for a score. Nobody who is a student of basketball will fail to realize that the score came thru a pretty exhibition of team-work.

TEAM-WORK! That's the lesson you learn from your sports. The young man or young woman who takes part in athletics, or even watches them, soon learns that little can be done by individual effort alone. You must cooperate with the others to bring success to yourself and them.

And that is a lesson which you carry with you outside of school. In later life, you will find it just as true as in school. Cooperate—work with your fellows—use team-work.

Kansas Gas and Electric Company has always advocated team-work in the communities of which it is a part. This company strives always to help in everything which will benefit those communities. We believe in it and we ask that you cooperate with us. Together, thru TEAM-WORK, everyone will be happier, more prosperous, and of greater service.

Wichita Noses Out Alva by 3 Points

Game Featured by Long Shots Won by Shockers in Thrilling Finish 36-33

Led in scoring by Don Morris, husky frosh forward, Wichita University nosed out the Alva Teachers by a score of 36-33.

Although Wichita led after the first few moments of play, the game was thrilling at times when the score became close.

The game was rough at all times and was featured by long shots being looped by members of both teams. Coffman of Alva got hot on side shots, slipping in three from the corner of the court.

The half ended with the Shockers on the long end of the 23-15 count. This lead was maintained until there was but about five minutes left to play. Blue and Coffman parked a couple counters and two free throws, bringing the Rangers within two points of tying the score.

Morris got the ball, fumbled, recovered it and tossed a one hand flip through the hoop, tucking the game away safely.

The Shocker's offense looked good but they were weak on defense, Alva slipping in for numerous set-ups.

Myers and Morris seems to be the best scoring combination Coach Johnson has used.

Shockers Again Win From Alva Teachers

Myers and McBurney Make 11 Points Each in Rough Game—Score 43-27

With Booth Myers and Ross McBurney both "hot," Wichita repeated her victory over Alva Teachers Saturday night by a score of 43-27.

In the first half Myers was sinking them from every angle. The former Cathedral star looped four field goals and three charity throws the first half.

Although McBurney was closely guarded he accounted for 11 points before the final whistle.

Morris, star of Friday night's encounter was being carefully watched. He injured his elbow in one of the game's numerous flying tackles and was replaced by Roscoe Johnson. Johnson played a nice game, making three field goals in the time he was in the game.

Rough Game

The game was very rough all the way through but the last half resembled a cross between football and hockey. In fact, one of the coaches

Washburn Here To Start Conference

Neither Team Has Been Defeated in Pre-Season Contests

Thursday night will see the Central Conference basket ball season open officially. Wichita will start against Washburn of Topeka. The game will be played at the Wichita high school gym, starting at 8 o'clock.

The strength of the Shockers can not be judged against Central Conference material. Three games have been won from Oklahoma aggregations in pre-season contests.

Alva was defeated twice and Edmond Teachers took the small end of Johnson will start with a comparatively new team while the Ichabods have a string of veterans.

Washburn has played two games so far, winning both of them. The Ichabods defeated K. U. by a single point margin on the event of dedicating the new Washburn field house. Saturday night K. U. nosed out the strong U. of California five in a sectional contest at Oakland, Calif.

On Wednesday night Washburn defeated Baker U. of the Kansas conference 45-27.

It promises to be a real contest until the final gun.

Coach Johnson probably will start Myers and Morris as forwards, McBurney at center and Captain Moffat and Olmstead at guards.

To Hold Mat Meet

Coach Cliff Gallagher wants to see all those interested in intra-mural mat tournament. The meet will be held on the 17 and 18 of January.

A team trophy will be given as well as medals to individual winners in each class. This is offered as a try-out and an added inducement for the men to come out and try for places on the wrestling team.

There will be competition in light weights, the schedule is to be completed as soon as all names are turned in.

Wichita entertains the Central conference teams, and the conference meet here March 6 and 7.

wanted to arm his men with police clubs.

During the fray a total of 34 fouls was called. Two Oklahomans and a Shocker were eliminated from the game on personals, while four more had three fouls on them.

Numerous substitutions were made by both coaches and the passing and shooting was more erratic in the last half.

Personal Fouls

The boys got back into uniform New Year's day to get in shape for Alva's Rangers.

Pittsburg Teachers won a rather slow, uninteresting game from Drury College, Wednesday night at Pittsburg by a score of 30-20.

Breithaupt accounted for half of the Gorilla's 14 field goals. Someone else for Captain Moffat to take in charge.

SOUTHWESTERN CAGERS DEFEATED STERLING'S FIVE ON THE NIGHT OF JANUARY 2 BY A COUNT OF 27-10.

Ball and Okerberg former Ark Valley stars from Newton played a consistent floor game.

It is rumored that Harold Grove of Newton may return here next semester. If he does the Shocker scoring threat will be materially strengthened.

Morris and Myers form the new scoring combination which seems to work very well.

BILL HENNIGH HAS BEEN SHIFTED TO GUARD. BILL MUST BE A VERY VERSATILE PLAYER, HAVING PREVIOUSLY STARRED IN BOTH FORWARD AND PIVOT POSITIONS.

Will Durant says, "If you can run you can get a Ph D." This explains something that has always been a mystery to me, how mediocre and failing students are seldom ineligible for intercollegiate athletic competition.

Next in line is Washburn who comes here on Thursday night.
