No Farming

The University of Wichita is now the owner of a 100-acre farm that is located five miles south of Peabody, Kan. The farm has changed ownership as the result of a mortgage foreclosure in behalf of the Religious Educational Foundation. "The University of Wichita is in the educational business and does not intend to enter the farm business," says Roy W. Elliott, bursar. "We will receive the title in a few days and we expect to sell the farm as soon as possible."

CAST FOR NEXT BIG DRAMATICS EVENT OF YEAR IS CHOSEN

Large Cast for "Bonds of Interest" Start Rehearsals; Date May Be Changed, Due to Numerous School Conflicts

Although there have been rumors to the effect that "Bonds and Interest," Benevise's Spanish-comedy of the power of the press, will not be presented on February 12 and 13 because of numerous school conflicts, the cast, which was selected before the Christmas holidays, have already begun rehearsals. Paul Becker, as Crispin, one of the "free-born" subjects of the Kingdom of Roquary, has the leading role. "Bonds and Interest," the title of this three-act play, is derived from the fact that Crispin and his companion, Roger, Leander, which part will be played by Charles Ellis, go about the country. They tie up with other people and become entangled in promises which necessitate the combined interests of all to work out. According to Prof. George D. Wilner, head of the department of dramatic expression at the University of Wichita and director of the piece, the theme of the play may be summed up in the statement, "If a fellow has a good press-agent, he can make himself famous." Benevise and Leander, the other members of the cast, are "Inkeeper and Interest" are: Inkeeper, to be played by Luis Stevens; Harlequin, Eugene Myers; Captain, Milton Lamp; Dona Serina, Anita Brown; Colombine, Mary Louise Parker; Laura, Maxine Ray; Rissella, Naomi Edgerton; Signor Polichinello, Ed Peak; Senora Polichinello, Mary Shipple; Silvia, Geraldine Hite, Pantaloon, Alden Brooks and Doctor, John Tidwell.

IMPROVED SERVICE PROMISED AT INN

Popular Demand for Fountain and Other Downtown Features

Because of a popular demand for a cafeteria in a fountain and other downtown innovations, the Shocker Inn became the official cafeteria of the University of Wichita, January 1, 1931. T. J. Van Arsdal, owner and manager of the Boston Lunch and the Innes Green Fountain, leased the building for one year. Slight change will be made in the policies of the cafeteria, with the exception of a few necessary changes in price, according to Mr. Van Arsdal. Mr. Van Arsdal says he hopes to serve the students in a superior way and thus gain the patronage of those desiring to eat near the campus. "After all," he remarked, "running a cafeteria is strictly a business proposition. We hope to establish a profitable business at the Shocker Inn which will receive the approval of all who eat there. According to the board of regents found it impossible to shoulder the deficit of the cafeteria as it has not been a very successful business proposition for the school. Realizing that the students desired a cafeteria fountain and downtown management, the board of regents agreed to lease the cafeteria to T. J. Van Arsdal, who makes a business of running large cafeterias. The University of Wichita has been responsible for the cafeteria for the last four years. The building now used for the book store housed the cafeteria in 1927. Because of crowded conditions, it was necessary to move into the present building upon its completion in 1928.

TO BE OR NOT TO BE?--STAGS HAVE LEADERS OF SOCIAL LIFE AS WELL AS COUNCIL WORRIED AS TO FATE

Will stag lines survive at the University of Wichita? Sororities as a group would have them do so, although Delta Omega voted twenty to six against them. The other sororities voted in favor of stags by a large majority except in the case of one or two. The votes were taken, however, before the variety last Friday night. From the Pi Kappa Psi house we heard the remarks: "The more stags that attend the less girls get to go." Letitia Chowning: "All large schools have stags at their varieties and since the University of Wichita is endeavoring to become a large school, I think they should include stags at varieties." The Pi Kaps are for stags at varieties by a large majority, although they have eliminated them at their own parties because of "uninvited" guests. From Alpha Tau Sigmas such comments as these were reported: Marion Warren: "Girls usually don't care

WALL IS HOME FROM MEET IN CLEVELAND

About 300 Scientists Discuss Government Problems in Colleges

Dr. Hugo Wall returned January 3, from Cleveland, Ohio, where he attended a meeting of the American Political Science convention which was held December 29, 30 and 31. Dr. Wall stated that there were about 300 political scientists at the meeting. Some of the topics discussed were training of public administrators, the public utility question, propaganda in school, behavior of voters, and teaching of American government in the colleges. "I had a very enjoyable trip there being only one thing wrong and that was the weather. The main reason for going to these conventions is not especially for the meetings but for the chance to meet the great political scientists who gather there," says Dr. Wall.

CHEMICAL ENGINEERS ARE TO VIEW MOVIE

An industrial film, "Making It Tough" is to be shown next Thursday, January 15 at 7:30 in the evening in room 119 science hall. The showing of the picture is being sponsored by the class in chemical engineering at the University of Wichita under the direction of Dr. E. A. Marten, associate professor of bacteriology and chemistry at the university. The film takes up the manufacture and tempering of steel rails and other manufactures.

NEW COURSE OFFERED

The home economics department of the University of Wichita is offering a new course in nutrition for those who are not majoring in home economics but are interested in a general knowledge of foods, general composition, and food value. The course will not count on a major. It will be given from 9:00 to 10:00 Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Publication Suspended

With this issue of the Sunflower, publication will be suspended for one issue so that editors and reporters can take the mark and get off to an equal start with the rest of the student body in this proposition of final semester examinations which start next week.

In this issue of the publication will be found two items we refer to students. A complete schedule for final examinations is printed and students may figure from it the day and time to report for examination in each of their subjects. Included also is a complete schedule for the downtown division of the university which may interest some acquaintances; thus the loyal Shocker can save this schedule and give it to some interested person.

SALISBURY TELLS OF PROBLEMS DISCUSSED AT STUDENT MEET

Makes Recommendation for More Student Activities, Student Representation on Athletic Board

National and International as well as school problems were discussed at the convention of the National Federation of the Students of America, it was reported to the student-council of the University of Wichita Monday night by Frank Salisbury, president, who attended the conference. The meetings were held for five days during the Christmas holidays at Atlanta, Georgia, and representatives of more than 250 schools were present. The congress was composed entirely of student. The only faculty members present were the advisory board. As a result of the conference, Salisbury made the following recommendation to the student council for consideration: first, that the activity system be limited to one major and one minor office a person, thus providing a wider scope of training; second, that student representation on the athletic board be considered; third, that the student activity committees consist of half of students, half of faculty members; and last, that two holidays be placed at the disposal of the council. The federation works out of central office in New York City. They sponsor debate teams from foreign countries each year in order to spread international good will. Those last year were from Scotland, Germany, and England. A weekly news service for school papers is maintained. In addition the organization sponsors famous speakers, radio programs, and student guides. Salisbury was nearly elected South-west district representative, missing election by only one vote. This district includes Minnesota, the Dakotas, Nebraska, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma. The conference was invited to Wichita for its next meeting, but will be held next year at Toledo, Ohio. Among the famous speakers who addressed the congress were Mrs. Nellie Ross, Indiana, the socialist leader, and H. W. Davis, governor of Idaho. Discussions were held and straw votes taken on the leading political problems of the day such as prohibition, tariff, cancellation of debts, world court, and disarmament. School problems are much the same all over the country, Salisbury found. Pep is generally low in all school events, except in some few California schools. Student enterprise has been found successful by many schools in putting out the year book. The board of publications of the University of Wichita is rather unique and functions well. Assemblies are compulsory events, except in some few schools. Hazing is practically extinct but when it is still practised it is very stringent. The first meeting of the organization was at Princeton in 1925. The University of Wichita did not become a member until the second meeting.

MANY AWARDS TO BE GIVEN TO R. O. T. C.

Judging to Be More Strict This Year Due to Increase in Number of Prizes

The prizes in this annual drill are given under the auspices of the Sedgewick County Debate Team association. According to Major Price, the judging of the various companies will be more strict this year due to the increase in the number of prizes and the conditions under which they must be won.

HARBISON TO CONDUCT DEBATE TOURNAMENT

Representatives from Five Towns Will Be Here to Participate

C. C. Harbison, professor of public speaking and debate at the University of Wichita, at the request of the Sedgewick County Debate Team association, has consented to take over the tournament which will be held in the Administration building from 1 to 10 p. m. Miss Kathleen Grossman, sophomore at the University, spent the week-end at her home in Augusta, Kan.

Tours Are Taken in Summer and Include 500 Students

Dr. William M. Goldsmith, who will arrive in Wichita soon to take up his work in the department of zoology in the University of Wichita, brings to the university the Omnibus College, an educational institution which is probably the only one of its kind in the United States. This college was founded by Dr. Goldsmith in 1922, and has received much favorable recognition in nearly every state in the union since that time. Every summer this college on wheels enrolls 500 students and teachers who wish to receive all the benefits of travel and study at the same time. Huge buses are used to transport the students. Twenty-five states and two Canadian provinces are visited. Accredited college hours are given to students who complete the course of study on the tour. On the 1930 tour the personnel of the college represented 24 states and approximately 250 educational institutions. Dr. Goldsmith is the director of the college. The record of Dr. Goldsmith's achievements as an author, educator and biologist has received recognition in "Who's Who in America," "American Men of Science" and "The International Encyclopedia of American Biography." Dr. Goldsmith received his Ph.D. degree from the University of Indiana in 1920, and did special research work at Johns Hopkins and the Marine Biological Laboratory. For the past 10 years he has been head of the department of biology at Southwestern college in Winfield. He is national president of Beta Beta Beta, which is a national biological honor society. Dr. Goldsmith is the author of several books, including "The Laws of Life," "Evolution and Christianity," "Guide to Biological Principles," "Human Poison," and also many research articles and papers on biological subjects. Mr. Goldsmith and his two children will accompany Dr. Goldsmith to Wichita to establish their home.

FOGHT CHAMPIONS CAUSE OF RESERVE OFFICER TRAINING

Former Cadet Under Pershing at Nebraska, President States That Reserve Course Benefits Young Men

"I believe in the R. O. T. C.," said Dr. H. W. Foght, president of the University of Wichita in discussing the question of military training in the school systems. "I think that it is the best form of physical education for young men. It makes them manly, upright, alert and ready to obey commands." At the present there is a bill before congress for the curtailment of R. O. T. C. activities in the schools, so consequently the matter is of some importance and interest to colleges and universities, he said. Dr. Foght took military training for three years under General Pershing at the University of Nebraska and was in the battalion which General Pershing commanded and which, due to the excellence of his training was entered in competition with the best battalions of the country. Later Dr. Foght was in command of a battalion at Midland college, Atchison, Kan., making a period of six or seven years of which he was in direct contact with military training. "Military training does not teach the people aggressive warfare but only the knowledge of defending lives and property in time of war," continued Dr. Foght. They would be just as sorry, he declared, if we were as anyone else, because they really know the hardness and the dangers that modern warfare and weapons bring. Because you believe in R. O. T. C. does not indicate that you are blood-thirsty and desire war.

GEBERT IS TO TAKE BAR EXAMINATIONS

Football Coach Here Hopes to Get Kansas License Next June

Albert J. Gebert, present head football coach at the University of Wichita, announced yesterday that he will take an examination to enter the bar next June. Gebert formerly planned to take the exams next Monday, but when he found that his application had to be in at least 30 days before the tests, he decided to wait until next spring. Gebert, previous to his present position, attended the University of Notre Dame where he received his degree in law, and was assistant to Knute Rockne.

BIGGER AND BETTER FRESHMAN GAZETTE IS ISSUED THIS YEAR

Fern Worden Receives First Place in Poetry Contest; 18 Representatives from Class Featured

With a greater number of students represented in it than ever before, "The Green Gazette," freshman English publication of the University of Wichita, is being distributed this week on the campus. According to Miss Rachel Maddux, editor, the issue contains a number of features not heretofore included in freshman magazines. "Me and Webster" is a four-page section in which original and opinionated essays, and "Word Portraits" are short sketches of members of the freshman class, compiled by Marjorie Jones, associate editor, from classroom material. Feature stories in the issue of "The Green Gazette" are "Bobo," a sequel to "Just Imagine," written by Virginia Horton. "What! No Ovaltine?" a dream tale by Marjorie Morrison, and "The Private from Company A," which is Mary Neff's account of life on the University of Wichita. The "Green Gazette" was selected for publication as Frank Kruske's "Barbed Wire" and Margaret Wilkinson's "The Hanging of Hardbilled Hunter." "Rain-in-the-Face," an essay by Margaret Jennings, walking in the rain, and "Dog Days," an account of several canines he has known, by Charles Ellis, are the remaining two articles in "The Green Gazette." First place in "The Green Gazette" poetry contest was awarded Fern Worden's "If Lena Wolley's 'Conspiration,' 'The Sound of the Sea,' by Carol Bryan, 'A Love Poet's Lament' by Charles Whitaker, and Marguerite Munsell's 'Water Flowers,' is found in this freshman magazine. For the first time in the history of "The Green Gazette," inoleum block illustrations are used in the issue. These illustrations, which appear with "The Hanging of Hardbilled Hunter," "Rain-in-the-Face," and "What! No Ovaltine?" are the work of Bettina Bowman. The "Green Gazette" also introduces a different type of print than what has been used previously and a darker, heavier back covers the book. "The Green Gazette" is a magazine published semi-annually by the freshman English composition classes at the University of Wichita. Eighteen representatives elected from the various classes aided in the publication. DELEGATES TELL OF TRIP TO DETROIT

DELEGATES TELL OF TRIP TO DETROIT

A general exchange of ideas, better student and faculty relations and the relationship of religion to the college campus were the achievements of a group of University of Wichita students who recently returned from a student-faculty conference at Detroit, Mich.

The first time in the history of the United States and lasted from December 27 until the 31st. ## FACULTY VOTE REVEALS AN OLD STRUGGLE OF SENIORS WITH FACULTY OVER EXAMS

Seniors will take final examinations as decreed by the unanimous vote of the faculty of the University of Wichita in the regular meeting held January 5. Senior final examinations and faculty feuds will always be associated with Fairmount traditions. Petitions in the early days, rising to the heights of ultimatums were signed by upperclassmen demanding the faculty to exempt seniors from the finals. A petition of this nature was signed on the month days the class day during commencement week was the outstanding day of the school year. Student leaders believed that this motto would move the faculty to actions of exemption. Evidently the "higher power" were unmoved and no class day was recorded. Seniors continued to take the finals, but did not let-up the campaign against the faculty ruling. In connection with the feud another tradition was established in which the president of the senior class handed down the "lamp of knowledge" to the president of the junior class. This "lamp of knowledge" was a Grecian grease lamp in which a flame burned as the rite was performed. The ceremony took place in convocation or on the steps of the library.

GIRLS' DRILL TEAM ENTERTAINS 55 KIDS

Fifty-five children from the Wichita Children's Home were made happy when they were entertained by the girls' drill team of the University of Wichita, on December 18. Their presence was made possible by students and friends of the Drill Team who bought complimentary tickets. A profit of $17 was made to start a fund for the drill team's trip to Kansas City in the spring to the R. O. T. C. circus which is held each year. The team attended last year and received a letter a short time ago expressing requesting them to come back this year.

ANOTHER STEP TAKEN With the addition of Dr. W. M. Goldsmith and his Omnibus college to the University of Wichita another step is taken toward a greater University.

Every year sees more advantages for the students of the school. The coming of the Omnibus college which is personally conducted by Dr. Goldsmith gives an opportunity, at a minimum cost, to tour America with a large group of students from universities all over the country, and at the same time do work toward a college degree.

The tour lasts for seven weeks covering six thousand miles through twenty-five states and two Canadian provinces. A wide variety of interesting subjects from which to gather first hand information is offered by the Omnibus college. These include natural science, history, literature and art, social problems, and commerce.

The students are transported in comfortable buses, housed in tents and fed from completely equipped field cafeterias. The personnel includes a lecture staff, a nurse, skilled mechanics and cooks.

Dr. Goldsmith is a man with a great understanding of young people and their problems. The Omnibus college education is made doubly valuable because of his able supervision.

SERVICE

One Christmas present given students of the University of Wichita during vacation was the service extended by the library. Clinton H. Collette, librarian, with his able staff of assistants, was able to help more than one hard pressed student with material for term papers at a time when some of the laboratories here were not even available for students.

At this time of the year when each professor seems to be saying, "my, my, I didn't realize that we had neglected to do so much work. We'll have to double our efforts during the next two weeks..." at this time, we say the library service was doubly welcome. It was very handy to drop in some morning and ask for material on file that the library staff has been collecting all year, and required little superfluous effort on the student's part to whip into shape for a term report.

When we realize that this service is continuous throughout the year, we are apt to nod our heads approvingly; but the real measure of appreciation is felt only by the poor devil with two days to get a 3,000 word report.

CARRIERS IN GOVERNOR'S PARADE Seret, Manning L. Euthon of the R. O. T. C. department of the University of Wichita left last week for Topeka, Kan. where he took part in the inaugural parade of Harry Woodring, newly elected governor of Kansas.

Due to Sergeant Euthon's active work in the Wichita chapter of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, he was chosen to be one of the color bearers in the parade. Sergeant Euthon acted in the same capacity at the inauguration of Governor Clyde M. Reed two years ago.

CHIEF WILSON LIVES ON HELP OF UNIVERSITY TO POLICE

Sociology, Chemistry, Psychology and Debate Departments Have Given Assistance

"I'm 100 per cent in favor of the University of Wichita supplying experts, accurate information and technical advice in assisting the police department of Wichita," answered Chief O. W. Wilson of the police department when questioned on this point in an interview given to me recently.

"We hold a police school here every year. Last year we had ten new members of the police force and we conducted classes which would prepare them for service. This year our police school course consists of thirty-three sessions from October, 1930, to May 26, of this year. We study the police departments, history, organization and functions, penal theories and practices, national, state and municipal governments in the United States, state and local court systems, and laws and ordinances. The present classes are attended by all members of the force. Two identical lectures are given once a week. This allows part of the force to be on duty at a time," continued Chief Wilson.

"The University of Wichita has cooperated in every way with the police department. The sociology department has had a speaker's station before the police school and the men are very interested in his speeches. I recalled one afternoon I attended the police school to hear a professor of sociology speak. The policemen crowded around him after the lecture and asked questions that the lecturer, 'Problems and Practices of Our Present Day Penal and Correctional Institutions,' had brought to their minds. They were enthusiastic and very sincere in their search for knowledge. That gentlemen who spoke told them clearly about their questions, illustrating with a blackboard the theories and practices that sociology advances. That those men admired him and that his lectures are an event on the program seemed the general opinion.

Chief Wilson continued, "These lectures and scientific researches have been a great help to the police department of Wichita. The University of Wichita has given to the police department. It would be impossible to recall each one."

"The chemistry department helped us to obtain a clear finger proof on a safe. With their technical knowledge we made the print visible. The psychology department has assisted us in psychological tests upon prisoners. The department of public speaking and debate taught the school one night a week for four months during the summer. Valuable information has been furnished by the department of political science. There are a number of other incidents, but these stand out in memory."

"My men appreciate and have secured immense knowledge from the University of Wichita. The relation has been a great help to the police department. The people are responsible for the school, the school responsible to the people in all possible service lines. There are three: develop intelligent and efficient citizenship, supply accurate information, and technical advice. Beneath the third division is written: 'The university mind is becoming the city mind' and 'the city itself is becoming a university for training its servants.'"

as the orchestra played. "I wondered if college students wouldn't thrill, too, at it if they had been active and if the old aphorism 'Joy in Giving' wouldn't have worked if, in your own fraternity or sorority house you had entertained the needy children."

WEBSTERS FIND USE FOR STONES FROM FAIRMOUNT HALL

Plan to Make Charter Room and Construct Fireplace from Rocks Found in Ruins

The ruins of old Fairmount hall are at last being put to use! And it was the men of Webster of the University of Wichita who thought of this way of preservation.

In the basement of the Webster house at 1623 N. Hillside, the pledges are turning one of the rooms into a charter room. The floor and walls have been given several coats of paint and pictures, which were donated to the cause by the alumni, have been hung.

But the fireplace is the real attraction. The stone for this was selected from the remains of the Fairmount fire and a truckful hauled down to the Webster house. The fireplace is roughly constructed and the top which is finished by a broad mantel, is in reality, a stone step which enhanced one of the entrances to the old building.

EXACT MODEL OF THE FIRST REAPER SHOWN S. W. Wright Gets Machine for Exhibition in Ad. Building

An exact model of the first reaper, invented by Cyrus McCormick, 25 years ago this May, was on exhibition in the rotunda of the Administration hall of the University of Wichita last week. The model was secured for exhibition purposes by S. W. Wright, professor of business administration.

The reaper was one of several sent out from the factory of the International Harvester company of America, Inc. in celebration of their one hundredth anniversary in May of this year. Mr. Wright secured the model from the Wichita division of the harvester company.

The reaper is a one horse drawn machine, using a slashing serrated blade and a reel. A reaper similar to the one on exhibition was invented by Robert McCormick, father of Cyrus, in 1830, but it had a straight, stationary blade which would not cut the grain. The next year, Cyrus, then only 22 years old, discovered the defect in his father's creation and remedied it, and so to him goes the credit for having invented the first successful reaper which is still the property of the International Harvester company.

In addition to his own class, Mr. Wright gave lectures on the reaper to the one on exhibition was invented by Robert McCormick, father of Cyrus, in 1830, but it had a straight, stationary blade which would not cut the grain.

SOROSIS PRESIDENT SMASHES SALOONS!

Armed with Hat Pins, X-ray Machine's and Football Shoes, Army of Three Wrought Havoc

Women Smash Saloons in Anthony's would be the headlines in today's newspapers if the story that is told in the Sunflower published in February of 1901 would be reprinted. Written in strict English terms the story is related in detail by a reporter, and the story is headed:

GRAND JOINTS SMASHED! Anthony's Fair, One's Take the Law Into Their Own Hands—Appalling Riot—The Blood of Heroin Flows in the Streets of Our Lovely Bufo.

Then comes this interesting detail: "Special Dispatch to the Sunflower. Transportation was slow in 1901 compared to 1931. Miss Helen Reilly was president of Sorosis Literary Society that year. According to the story she had received her training in Wichita where Mrs. Nation started her heroic work. Mrs. Nation, you will recall, became famous overnight and Carrie Nation was the by-word over the nation because she chopped up several whiskey barrels. Imagine that in 1931, Miss Reilly with Miss Nina Miller and Miss Maude Merrell started early this morning to smash every saloon in town, leaving their footprints on an early hour so nobody might suspect their purpose and be prepared for them. Evidently it was something to beware of in that day, getting up early. Perhaps the old aphorism, 'Give me the good days' has a lot of truth in it."

Miss Reilly had on a pair of football shoes and announced in firm accents her intention of 'kicking the head in every barrel of fire-water in Anthony.' Miss Miller had a hat-pin which was destined to figure later in the story. But Miss Kerrell was the humorist; she carried an x-ray machine, she planned the dispatch with her from putting out the 'light.' 'Jointists' was the term used for dealers in intoxicating liquor, and the 'light' was the general term used by workers of the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

My, my, you say as you read the article. They mix the society page with the straight news in 1901. Listen! Miss Reilly had on a lovely chevron-dress of purple, trimmed with gold-grain cut on the 'blue' while Miss Merrell was superbly gowned in a milliner of red basinet, trimmed with mauve lace shirred and gathered.

Picture the elaborate costumes for busting beer barrels. They "sallied" forth at 7 that morning of January 30 and at the saloons of James and Tichner they were met by the bartender "who threatened to knock down any woman who came into his establishment." Miss Miller ignored him and walked on to the saloon, the barkeep retreating behind the bar, with the words "Piker, piker, ruffin' in his ears."

The ladies cleaned the place out, covering the floor with broken glass, liquor and fragments of wood. "The joint was completely demolished, every bottle, every mirror, and even the cash register being broken to pieces."

Every saloon in town was visited and the same scene enacted. The only liquor left in town that night was that which consisted of cellar stock. The report says that no one was injured, and he "only casualties occurred when Miss Miller tried to stick her hat-pin into a barrel of whiskey and cracked her thumb, through the double wall; Miss Merrell tried to throw a billiard ball through a big mirror and in consequence Miss Reilly, who was around the corner breaking up a big refrigerator, received a slight contusion of the cheek."

A reporter who witnessed the scene said that he was only able to interview three of the ladies, although a number participated in the "riot." "Miss Miller remarked privately: 'The only thing I regret is that that place got away.'"

Miss Merrell remarked indignantly: "It was just too lovely for anything. Is my hat on straight?" which was a quite common expression in that day. "Miss Reilly said: 'It is lots more fun than playing basketball.'"

ASSEMBLY SET OF BOOKS A set of the Parnassus, annual of the University of Wichita, dating from 1902 until the present time, is being assembled in the Morrison Library by Miss Alice Isely, reference complete and used by workers of Miss Flora Clough Clough, professor of English literature, who donated 10 copies to the library, according to Miss Isely. Only three copies, those of 1907, 1908, and 1922 are now lacking.

NEW VALUABLE BOOKS ADDED TO LIBRARY

Hundred Dollar Collection Is Given by The Intercollegiate Prohibition Association

A collection of literature, dealing with prohibition and temperance and valued at more than a hundred dollars, has been given to the Morrison Library of the University of Wichita by the intercollegiate prohibition association. In speaking of the value of this material, Clinton H. Colletter, librarian, said: "While, as it is expected, the opinions expressed in this material are in accordance with nature of the organization publishing them, an accurate view of the prohibition situation can be obtained by the reading of this material, since they have given many reliable statistics."

"The Smithsonian Series," a set of books dealing with the various fields of knowledge which may be found in the Smithsonian Institute is another addition to the Morrison Library. Most of the material found in this set of books has been available for a number of years in free pamphlets issued by the institute, but this is the first time all of the material has been incorporated in one series of volumes. Two sets of books have recently been imported from England for the Morrison Library. One of them is Smith's "Dictionary of the Bible." The other is Hallan's "Literature of Europe," a well known classic on the subject. An inscription in this particular set of books shows that it was at one time the property of an English baronet.

LOCAL CHAPTER, PI KAPPA DELTA, ADDS EIGHT MEMBERS

Lewis Declares Wichita Has Large Forensic Group as Compared to Other Universities of Like Size

Formal initiation of eight students of the University of Wichita into the local chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, national honorary forensic fraternity, was held Wednesday evening, January 7, at Borosis house. The new members are Alden Brooks, Tom Croft, Miss Razelza Klepper, Miss Mary Neff, Adolph Orhwall, Oliver Witterman and Miss Helen Thornton.

Planned by Leroy Lewis, Francis Brush, and Miss Lois McIntire, president of the local chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, the initiation ceremony was supervised by C. C. Harbison, professor of public speaking and debate at the university. George Squibb and Clayton Walton, who also are eligible for membership in the organization, were unable to be present last week and special services will be held for them some time in the future, according to Leroy Lewis, debate coach. Squibb has been ill.

In order to be eligible for membership in Pi Kappa Delta, one must participate in at least three recognized intercollegiate debates. Lewis says that the local chapter of 14 members is a comparatively large one for an institution of the size of the University of Wichita, the average chapter in small schools generally having only six or seven members.

What? No Harmonica Player?

Do you know anyone who might qualify as an harmonica artist? The man or woman who can play "Old Black Joe" and make you think of the days of the old south is just the man that the sociology department of the University of Wichita is looking for. If such a person is found soon the boys at the Wichita Children's home, 590 North Holyoke will receive instruction on the harmonica, for the person that can qualify as teacher is still at large. Those whom you know who play the harmonica, or if you play one, should communicate with the sociology department.

WORK ON PARNASSUS PROGRESSING RAPIDLY

Shocker Beauty Section Is New Feature of Book This Year

Progress on the Parnassus Junior and Senior annual publication of the University of Wichita is exceeding all previous records, according to Miss Geraldine Hammond, editor of this year's Parnassus.

The pictures of all classes and faculty have been completed in the section devoted to them, and work on the fraternity and sorority sections is due to start immediately. The kodak contest which is now in the final stages will be decided shortly. The sales have been very good and the installment plan is being carried forward successfully by a few hard-working members of the business staff. Subscriptions to the Parnassus by fraternities and sororities have been exceptionally good, as compared with past years. From all indications the Parnassus will be the best in years.

Shockers Win Conference Game From C. of E. Tuesday Night.

FLOOR GAME OF 2 FIVES IS ERRATIC; FINAL SCORE 29-24

Beaman Scores for Wichita to Break Tie and End Game

MANY FOULS CALLED

Breaking a 24 to 24 deadlock in the last few minutes of play, the University of Wichita Wheatshockers emerged victorious in their third conference tilt of the season over the College of Emporia tonight last night at the North Hi gym. The final score was 29 to 24.

The score was close throughout and both teams were fighting hard for baskets all the way. The floor game of both fives was erratic. The game was inclined to be rough and numerous fouls were called.

With ten minutes left to play the count stood 24 to 22 in favor of Emporia. Wichita settled down and Moffat made a pretty shot tying the score. Emporia tried valiantly to put in a basket, but the Shockers found their stride and ran circles around the collegians. Beaman sank a basket and made good a charity toss to end the scoring and the game.

Brown played a notable game for the Shockers making nine of his team's points. Barnes played a good defensive game. For Wichita the uncanon playing of Beaman and Grove stood out, both making ten points apiece. Moffat played a whole of a defensive game. This was his first conference competition this season.

WICHITA	EMPORIA
Grove 10	Brown 10
Beaman 7	Harvey 7
Moffat 7	Ward 7
Ward 4	Harvey 4
Barnes 4	Ward 4

WICHITA NOSES OUT ICHABOD BASKETEERS

Beeman, Arnold and Grove Are Sharpshooting Trio

The University of Wichita Wheatshockers opened up their 1930-31 Central Conference schedule with a win Friday evening, January 9, over the Washburn Ichabods at Topeka, the capital city.

The first half of the contest nearly ended in a draw, the count being 12-11 against the Washburnites, with neither team showing a decided superiority.

Soon after the second half was under way, Percy Arnold, substitute Shocker forward, relieved Matson and soon killed most of the Ichabod hopes of a win by ringing in three field goals in rapid fire order. Another goal or two was soon made by Shocker comrades and the Wichita quintet maintained a lead of from five to nine points until the end.

Beeman, Arnold, and the "sharpshooting" Grove proved to be the big Shocker guns by leading both the offensive and defensive thrusts. Wichita was rather handicapped by the absence of "Big Bill" Hennigh, guard, and Red Pomeroy, center, both of whom were regulars. Red Moffat, captain and guard, saw but little service in the game as he has not fully recovered from a back injury.

Gene Johnson, Shocker basketball mentor, appeared rather gloomy before the contest but that revamped lineup worked smoothly at times, presenting him with a win and putting in a cheerful mood for the game with Hays the following evening.

Percy Arnold, our own little boy, is doing himself proud by really saving the Shockers on the long end of the score.

This also gave the Shockers the lead in the Central Conference. "Red" Pomeroy gave up a brilliant college career for matrimony. Sometimes these men fall and how. Last year we lost Dave Stout by a similar route.

By KAYL
The University of Wichita freshman basketball team maintained their perfect record this season with a win over the Tonkawa Junior college, 50 to 30. The frosh led all the way and were only threatened in the last half when the Mavericks rained in seven baskets in a row. Wichita however, came back and by the hot shooting of "Wild Bill" Volkman who suffered a bad case of basketitis and sank six field goals with nary a miss.

WICHITA RANKING FIRST IN RACE BY HER VICTORIES

Strong Pittsburg Team also in Top Rung of Ladder

MOFFAT READY TO GO

Gene Johnson's Basketballing Wheatshockers from the University of Wichita started the new year right by emerging victorious in two Central Conference clashes to lead in the conference standings.

Pittsburg also ranks at the top with a percentage of one thousand but she has only one victory while Wichita is credited with two. The Pittsburg Gorillas downed the Hays Teachers by a score of 29-21, while Wichita beat the same bunch by a one-point margin, 24-23, and also the Ichabods from Washburn, 29-22.

Wichita will undergo a strenuous schedule this week when she meets the College of Emporia, Tuesday night, Bethany at Bethany, Wednesday night, and Tulsa at Tulsa, Thursday night.

Red Moffat has fully recovered from his back injury and is ready to do service. Then, Beeman, a frosh, has shown up exceptionally well as the pivot position, should aid the quintet considerably. He played a great game in the Washburn and Hays contests. Percy Arnold, substitute offensive agent, has improved and will run as a regular in Matson's place in the next contest.

The Shockers have not shown the strength that they should. At times, they have presented a smooth and fast breaking offensive game and also have shown a tight defense, while at other times both the defense, and offense has been very ragged.

It now appears that Johnson has made his last change in the lineup and is ready to meet all Conference foes in the future.

So far this season Wichita has played two conference games and four non-conference games, beating McPherson, Phillips, Hays, and Washburn, and losing to Tulsa by 2 points and to Bethany by one.

Probably the most critical game of the season will be played between Pittsburg and Wichita at Pittsburg January 24, Saturday.

Pittsburg, last year's Conference Champions, has won 29 successive games including this year's classifying. This year's victories have been outstanding and were won over no power team in any way. The Pittsburg squad trounced the Northwest Missouri Teachers of Maryville, 40-33. Prior to this game the Maryville Teachers had won 42 games out of 43.

So far this season Wichita has played two conference games and four non-conference games, beating McPherson, Phillips, Hays, and Washburn, and losing to Tulsa by 2 points and to Bethany by one.

RETAIN LEADERSHIP BY DEFEATING HAYS
Percy Arnold Drops in Goal to Beat the Tigers
Helped considerably by demon shooting of Clark Percy Arnold the University of Wichita Wheatshockers retained the Central Conference leadership with a one-point victory over the Hays Tigers. The final score was 24 to 23 of the Shockers points being the result of free throws.

All the first half was rather slow, with both teams playing a defensive game except for one or two offensive moves by Hays which resulted in free throws. At the half the score stood 15 to 4 for Wichita.

The fireworks started with the second half and the Tigers found the loop for six straight field shots and one charity point, tying the score at 15 all.

The lead changed hands time after time until Arnold in the last minute of play caused in for two points and the game. The tip was controlled by Hays and only their weakness in hitting the basket lost for them. Carter led for the Hays squad while Beaman did most of the point making for the Shockers.

As a tribute to his services, a portrait of Sir Herbert Barker, the bone setter, is to be painted and given to England.

NOTRE DAME WINS ERSKINE AWARD FOR 1930 NATIONAL GRID TITLE FOR SECOND CONSECUTIVE TIME

(Special to The Sunflower)

Notre Dame wins a smashing victory in the final balloting of the country's leading sports writers engaged in selecting the championship football team of 1930 for the Albert Russel Erskine Award. For the second successive year, Rockne's team captures the national gridiron title according to announcement by W. O. McClellan, chairman of the Erskine Committee of Award.

The preliminary ballot, which was completed two weeks ago, resulted in re-submitting to the jurors the names of Notre Dame, Southern California, and Alabama for the final vote. This final vote tallies 261 for the South Bend team and 5 for Alabama. It includes the votes of the sports writers who compose the jury, plus the votes of the 20 members of the award committee. Theodore Roosevelt's selection was called from Porto Rico by way of the War Department in Washington.

The Notre Dame team will be entitled to hold for another year the huge silver cup which is the emblem of victory. The formal presentation of this cup, as well as the presentation of a parchment scroll and a Studebaker car to Rockne, will take place in New York on January 2, 1931.

The balloting affords interesting comparisons with that of 1929. The final vote last year showed Notre Dame leading with 179, Pittsburgh second with 41, and Purdue third with 2 votes. This year neither Pitt nor Purdue figured in the selection, and the Irish lead was so great that there was no third place team at all.

Analysis of the votes by states shows an almost unanimous and thoroughly nationwide conviction that Notre Dame deserves the title. The five dissenting votes came one each from Alabama, Tennessee, New Mexico, Illinois and Mississippi.

The Erskine Award, according to Mr. McClellan, has established itself this year as the ideal method and institution for selecting a championship football eleven. Comment from experts all over the country, in sports, indicates general satisfaction with the Award and its work.

SILVER LOVING CUP TO BE PRESENTED TO CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM
A silver loving cup is to be presented to the winner of this year's intramural basketball tourney, said Harry T. Goerger, head track coach and director of physical education at the University of Wichita, last night. The trophy is given by the school and will remain in possession of the winning team for one year. In order to get permanent ownership of the cup a team must win the championship three times, not necessarily consecutively.

The tournament this year is to be sponsored again this year by the Sunflower sports department and will be under the direction of Mr. Goerger. One variation from last year's tourney will be the maintenance of only one league instead of two. Both the Barb and fraternities will play each other this year in the single league thus eliminating the necessity of a playoff at the end of the season.

The Eagles club, last year's champions and all the fraternities on the Hill have already signified their intention of entering teams. There will also probably be several independent squads and possibly a group of faculty stars. However, all teams wishing to play this year must have their lists in by next Wednesday, January 21.

All games will be played on either Tuesday or Thursday night from seven to ten. Teams must have at least three men ready to play by not more than ten minutes after the scheduled time. Three games will be played an evening.

With the exception of two men all of last year's star selections will be back in uniform only Volkman and Scheussler being ineligible. Both Merrill and Les Bosworth are sure to play on their old squads while "Big" Pete Gallagher will be back in his old position at guard for the Eagles.

If present plans are followed the first games will be played Tuesday, January 27, in the gym. All men who wish to enter teams should leave their lists at the gym office or at the brick in care of Kenneth Hays.

AMAZONS TRIUMPH OVER TARTARS BY SCORE OF 26 TO 21

Bainbridge Leads Team to Victory in Volley Ball Tournament

The volleyball tournament between the four W. A. A. teams, Amazons, Tartars, Indians, and Vikings, was played off Friday, January 9. The Amazons won the championship by defeating the Tartars, 26-21. Team captain for the winning Amazons was Alberta Bainbridge and for the Tartars, Pauline Folkler.

Each team was given the opportunity of playing three games apiece, and all members playing in the tournament received 10 points credit on the W. A. A. sweaters. Two games were played off at a time, the first two being walkaways for the Tartars and Amazons. The Tartars defeated the Indians 6-9 while the Amazons were victors over the Vikings by a score of 23-8. The second group of games in which the victors and vanquished of opposite teams in the first two games played, ended by the Tartars defeating the Vikings 27-16 and the Indians losing to the Amazons, 30-13.

The game for the championship was a close one until the last. The Tartars led 13-12 at the half but were unable to break the jinx "13" until after several serves had passed from the opposite side. Members of the champion team were L. Kirk, L. Schaefer, B. Wyssbeck, A. Campbell, A. Bainbridge, D. Martin, and B. Thayer.

The next volley ball games scheduled will be Friday at 3:00. At this time class teams will meet for deciding the school championship in volleyball.

TRACK SQUAD TRAINS FOR K. C. A. C. MEET

Preparing Entry in Mile Relay Contest

The University of Wichita relay squad is working out daily at the Wichita Athletic Club gymnasium in preparation for the annual indoor meet of the Kansas City Athletic Club to be held February 14 in Kansas City. Most of the colleges in the Middle West will be represented in this meet.

Under the direction of Harry T. Goerger, head track coach, the candidates are preparing particularly for the mile relay contest. Their opponent in this event is to be chosen by the management of the K. C. A. C. and is to be one of the outstanding teams of the Middle West. Harold Manning, Shocker distance star, will probably be entered in the open mile run.

According to Mr. Goerger, the prospects for a winning relay team are just fair this year.

Candidates that have reported so far are Manning, Bosworth, Widney Terry, Pile, Walker, Forward, Cenna Taylor, Arnett, Nagel and Rennick.

FORMER WICHITA U. GRID PLAYER DIES

Homer Rowan, former University of Wichita football player, is dead.

Rowan died Saturday morning, January 10. Rowan was injured in a New Year's rabbit hunt accident when his horse and another hunter's mount collided. He was rushed to a Wichita Hospital but never regained consciousness.

Rowan was an outstanding star of the teams of Milton high school, coached by Lindsay Austin, a former Shocker star and present football coach at Wichita high school. He entered the University of Wichita in 1927 and was regarded as a valuable prospect but was forced to leave school near the end of the football season.

HURRICANES DEFEAT SHOCKERS, 32-30

Showing superiority in all departments of the game, the University of Wichita basketers lost a close decision to the Golden Hurricanes from Tulsa, 32 to 30, last week. In the closing minutes of the game the count was tied 27 all, but several set ups by the Tulsa forwards brought them victory. The Shockers stalling game failed in the last minute.

The game was raged throughout the Tulsa tactics of both squads were sloppy. Tulsa threw baskets from all angles and made many seemingly impossible shots. Wichita missed the openings of Bill Hennigh and Capt. Red Moffat, both out with injuries.

Several Shocker freshmen received their baptism of fire in this encounter. Beeman, towheaded youth from Pratt, held down the pivot position. He played a good floor game. Ragland, east high man of last year, showed possibilities in this game. Robertson from Cathedral high played part of the time but showed lack of experience.

Coach Johnson used Forney and Grove at forwards and Robert Shadown, at guards to complete the starting squad. Matson played a part of the game, but did not show much of his usual brilliant playing. Grove was a sensation with his basket hitting ability and his fast floor game. Pickington and Dible did good work for the Tulsa squad accounting for most of their team's points. With eight minutes left to play, the Tulsaans played a stalling game and drove many boxes and hits. The game was exciting, close and kept the crowd on their toes in the last half of the clash. A return game will be played at Tulsa Thursday.
