SHAPE PLANS FOR OMNIBUS SUMMER TOUR

University Professors Are to Instruct During Trips

STARTS JUNE 4

Enrollment Large Despite Financial Difficulties of United States.

The Omnibus College, objective education unit of the University of Wichita, which each summer tours America with its enrollment of teachers from states throughout the nation, is rapidly shaping its first tour to begin June 4.

University faculty members who will teach on the tour are preparing their courses. Leslie B. Stipple, dean of education, who will be professor of education with the Omnibus College, has sent out letters to the school superintendents of cities and districts to be visited by the Omnibus College this summer asking for information regarding the schools of these districts.

Included in the information desired, Dean Stipple asks for history of the schools, organization, architecture, personnel of teaching force, curricula, standards, and racial groups.

Cyril Grace, assistant professor in history and social sciences at the University, who will conduct sociology courses with the Omnibus College, is formulating his lectures to include such topics as the race problem of the South, Harlem, the Ghetto, Little Italy in Boston, industrial New England and manners and customs of Quebec.

We and the World

Roosevelt Meets Opposition The President's plans for the development of Muscle Shoals, when announced, met with opposition on the part of the United States Chamber of Commerce as being contrary to the policies of that body.

Many fraternities have escaped state property taxes because of their rating as educational property. Recent legislation classifies them as non-educational and subject to taxation.

School Teachers Parade Chicago's 19,000 unpaid school teachers continue their demands for money by parading through Chicago streets carrying banners which accuse officials of quibbling while teachers go unpaid.

MacDonald and Roosevelt Confer J. Ramsey MacDonald and President Roosevelt met in Washington last week to discuss problems of the world. It was reported that they were making an attempt to bring the two countries in closer harmony.

JAPANESE LEADER ASKS AMERICA TO TRUST HIS NATION

Claims That China Desires to Throw Japan and U. S. into War JAPAN WANTS PEACE (By College News Service) EUGENE, ORE., April 19.—China would like nothing better than to precipitate a war between Japan and the United States.

This did Yosuke Matsuoka, who led the Japanese delegation from the halls of the League of Nations, this week express his opinion of the international situation in the Far East.

"China has played one power off against another," he said. "She played Russia off against Japan during Manchuria over to her in order to make trouble for us. And since the Russo-Japanese war, what has she been trying to do? She has been playing off America against Japan. She wants you Americans to fight us Japanese. Don't make any mistake about that. I give you this warning."

Matsuoka was speaking to students of the University of Oregon, his alma mater, and indirectly to the people of the United States. Years ago he was a law student at the university; where he obtained much of the technical training which now serves him in such good order as one of the world's leading diplomats.

COEDS HUNT FOR BETTER ESCORTS

CLEVELAND, April 19.—A new "back fence" feud evolved on university circle here, contending between the men of the Case School of Applied Science to find their escorts.

Ald of the Harvard Observatory in an unemployment relief program this week was promised by Dr. Harlow Shapley, director.

Helen Wittman

R. O. T. C. BAND APPEARS FOR CONVOCAION

Program Consists of Varied Numbers, Novelty Selections PROGRAMS WELL LIKED

Band Planning to Present Concert in Football Stadium Early in May

The University Reserve Officers' Training Corps Band furnished a program of varied music for the regular convocation program today which included several novelty numbers. Included in the program was a trumpet trio composed of Lawrence Pacher, Harlin Bond and Elwood Stanley.

A saxophone quartette of James Wilber, Claude Neal, Aris Wright, and Arlo Mitchell played for the convocation, and Cecil Eiloer, tenor soloist, sang two numbers.

An arrangement of "Sylvia" by Speaks proved popular. The entire band was converted into a male chorus of 55 men for the number.

SCIENCE CONCLAVE ELECTS MARTEN

Dr. Branch Is Re-elected Head of Department at Convention

Dr. Eidor A. Marten, professor of bacteriology and chemistry at the University was elected Second vice-president of the Senior division of the Kansas Academy of Science, at conference of the society held at the Manhattan Hotel, April 15 and 16.

STANDARDS FOR SCIENCE NAMED

McKinley Recommends Students Study Requirements

Dr. Lloyd McKinley recommends that chemistry students who plan to continue in chemistry next year plan their summer school course of study with these ideas in mind:

Those who are now taking general chemistry should enroll in Chemistry 114A, qualitative analysis, in order that next fall they may take course 223A which is quantitative analysis and will not be offered in the spring term of next year. Number 223A is a continuation of 223B and will be offered only in the spring.

WALCROFT GROUP PLANS ACTIVITIES

Mary Malone Heads Social Committee; Settle Controversy Over Name

Increased interest was shown in "Walcroft," new barb organization on the campus, which met last week with a greatly enlarged membership in a mass meeting at the Ingalls Room of the Allis Hotel.

A social committee headed by Miss Mary Malone was elected to be in charge of a barb dinner and also a barb dance both of which will be held before the spring Student Council election.

FACULTY MEMBERS TO COMMERCE BODY

Several members of the University of Wichita faculty have recently taken out membership in the Wichita Chamber of Commerce.

This active interest in the local Chamber of Commerce, according to H. W. Focht, president of the University, has been taken because of the recent loyalty shown by the University by the Chamber of Commerce in the recent struggle with the state legislature over educational appropriations.

Elimination of Latin and Greek as requirements for the bachelor of arts degree at the New York University, Washington Square College was announced by college authorities this week. The change will become effective next fall.

The Board of Regents, in an effort to keep within the bounds of economy measures recently adopted, announced last week that several University instructors would not be hired back next year. At the same time considerable reorganization for the University was considered.

The most striking economy move the Board made was the dropping of the University aeronautical department, which they announced, would be re-established at the first opportunity.

PUPILS EXPRESS DISLIKE FOR WAR

Manchester, England, Students Refuse to Go to War for Country

NEW YORK, April 19.—Dispatches from England this week indicated a growing militant peace movement in British universities which has crystallized in the form of announcements by students that they would refuse to bear arms for king or country.

The most recent instance, it is reported, was the action of students of the University of Glasgow, who voted 64 to 568 in favor of a declaration that they would not take up arms for Britain or King George.

Previously, it was said, students of Oxford Union and the University of Manchester had voted in favor of similar declarations. The student actions are declared to be causing widespread comment throughout the empire.

R.O.T.C. UNIT INSPECTED IN ANNUAL DRILL

Practical Work Theory Problems Included in Review

McMASTERS INSPECTS

Companies Begin Polish-ing Drill Tactics for Competition

Nearly two hundred men took part in the annual efficiency drill of the University's Reserve Officers Training Corps which was completed today. Colonel R. H. McMaster, of the Seventh Corps Area Headquarters, Omaha, Neb., was assisted during the inspection by Major J. Moore Murphy, training inspector on duty with the organized reserve of Wichita.

Tuesday's drill consisted of practical work, and Wednesday's work consisted of theoretical problems. The inspection included a test in the handling and functions of weapons and combat principles from squad to war strength company. The weapon test was held on the football field and the field work on the campus near the memorial bridge.

Test Unit's Efficiency This inspection is an annual event and is for the purpose of testing the efficiency of this University's R. O. T. C. unit. For the last two years, this unit has received a rating as "excellent" which entitled the unit to wear a blue star on their right neck. All have worked hard this year to retain the blue star, according to Major George W. Price, professor of military science and tactics.

Now that the annual efficiency drill is past, Major Price announced that work would be started on the annual competition drill which will be held about the middle of May. In order to promote a greater interest in this drill, the Sedgwick County Chapter of the Reserve Officers Association and the alumni of Scabard and Blade, national military fraternity, have donated the following awards which are to be presented at the close of the drill:

A Few Extra Nickels

A group of American Farmers announce plans to starve people in American cities unless currency is inflated and a minimum price is fixed upon farm produce. They are attempting to organize all farming sections and so cut off the flow of food into cities unless they obtain more money for their produce.

They base their fight upon the theory that farmers will destroy perishable food produce, while men, children, and women starve, unless they get their few added cents. Such a strike, if carried out, would make every farmer who participated a traitor not only to his country but to all humanity! He would be selling lives of millions of innocent people for a few miserable cents as blood-red as the one he obtained them as the gold Judas got for his treachery.

The Automobile or War?

Firearms are known to be dangerous, but when correctly used they have been a benefit to humanity. The automobile has never been looked upon as anything other than the most beneficial of modern conveniences. The two implements have been in such widely differing fields that they have not even been compared. Yet, there is a definite and astonishing comparison to be made.

In the six wars which the United States has entered there has been a loss of less than 300,000 men, and these wars have applied every known type of gun. This includes the total number of Americans killed in the World War in which fronts bristled with gun muzzles of all sizes. And yet, during the past 15 years 325,000 people have died in the United States because of automobile accidents.

The common-place automobile takes a new position in our estimation. In this new light it appears to be something of a Frankenstein. But the automobile is no more responsible for accidents than the improved gun is for war. Records show that 35 per cent of all accidents result from speeding. Wars result from misunderstandings. So it is that man is responsible, by his irrational conduct, for both automobile accidents and war.

Campus politicians have a new gleam in their eyes; grass is green; wind is blowing; romance is blossoming; loafing students moving to lawns from the Bucket; topcoats going to corner hooks in wardrobes; brilliant colored sleeveless sweaters dot the campus; professors talk absent mindedly while gazing out of class-room windows; and dust blows in swirling gusts.

Clothing refuses to keep a press; oxfords replacing high heeled slippers; students' necks snapping as they reach the bottom of the nod at the end of class dose; mysterious poems of romance being composed; class attendance unaccountably slim; tennis courts busy; and track men working-out on the athletic field.

Nature discussions replacing economic and religious arguments, and even the most energetic students forgetting assignments. IT MAY be Spring, but then again, it may be that Spring is merely an excuse for everything.

Love Ranks Last in Good's Thots. Despite popular allegations, there are a few persons in the world being college students worry. A study by a psychology class at Purdue university conducted over a period of years revealed that 56 per cent of the students were worried about their studies. Furthermore, 40 per cent of them are reported worried about money. Family affairs have 21 per cent of the undergraduates perplexed; social affairs, 17 per cent, and religion, 5 per cent. The report shows only 12 per cent of the students are worried about affairs of the heart.

National Magazine Conducts Contest

"Hound and Horn" national literary publication has extended the time limit on its contest short story and poetry contest to June 1, according to a recent letter from the publishers. The time limit has been extended from April 1 because they feel that they do not have a representative collection of collegiate manuscripts.

An award of $100 will be paid for the best short story of less than 5,000 words, and $50 for the best poem, not to exceed five pages. Collegians from 37 states have submitted manuscripts, but the publishers have considered only two of them worthy of consideration to date. The address of Hound and Horn is 545 Fifth Avenue, New York.

"Why not go to college? You can't get a job anyway," Will Rogers came back with a grin and a scratch of his ear at the query as to the advisability of a college education, put to him by Sunflower reporters. "It takes up just that much more time."

"Hairpin Corner" Could Tell Many a Romantic Tale

Trysting Spot of Old Fairmount Was Once Scene of Lovers' Meetings

Present-day Shockers look upon myths of Old Fairmount with good natured disdain. Fairmount Hall was, after all, just another little red school house in the minds of moderns, with a past full of buggies, sewing classes, and bustles to outlive.

Yet on today's campus, it would be hard to find a good substitute for old "Hairpin Corner" which used to be located in the basement of Fairmount Hall. The fact that this sequestered celler nook was entirely too near the chemistry laboratory to be suggestive of spring perfumes made little difference to its patrons. Scores of Shocker duo's used to hold rendezvous there, leaving a metal trussard or two to increase the collection that lay scattered in the shadows.

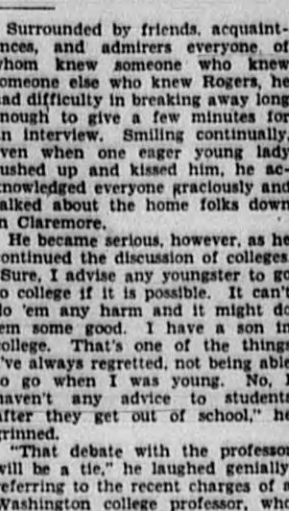

The college custodian's searching mopsieck used to bring forth 37 different varieties of hairpins during his weekly explorations of the neglected nook. Here would be a dainty, twisted hooklet of metal, which could have fallen from none but the coy ringlets of a fragile brunette. Close beside it might lie a package of hairpins last over six weeks term. And at that, the janitor's yield did not include the few deserters of the ranks which, according to rumor, occasionally found their way into buttonholes and vest pockets.

So, perhaps University of Wichita with all its modern equipment, and efficient architecture, has moments when it looks back wistfully upon the unwritten history of its Victorian past!

An inquiring news noser made the rounds of a number of old grads, including prominent faculty members and Wichita citizens. Each recalled something about a "Hairpin Corner" at old Fairmount. But none were overwilling to vouchsafe exact details. And though several charming matrons pleaded comparative ignorance of any actual instances, few of them used to be able to make a package of hairpins last over six weeks term. And at that, the janitor's yield did not include the few deserters of the ranks which, according to rumor, occasionally found their way into buttonholes and vest pockets.

"Spectator" Keeping Columbia on Map

NEW YORK, April 19.—The Columbia university student board this week set itself up as a permanent court of law to try any charges of libel or "misrepresentation of fact" which might be brought against any student publication, including the Columbia Daily Spectator.

The board gave itself power to demand editorial recantation of factual errors.

Texas School Heads Fight Law Change

AUSTIN, TEX., April 19.—Presidents of state teachers colleges in Texas are organizing their forces to oppose a bill under consideration by the state legislature which would reorganize the college system.

Under the proposed reorganization, a number of the teachers colleges would be reduced to the status of junior colleges. This, the presidents contend, would constitute false economy.

Australia has 60,000 Aborigines, the same number as in 1921, according to census figures just made public.

Political Battles of Past Were Highlights of Campus

Barnabas, Former Political Leader at University, Recalls Stirring Elections of College Days

Recent political upheavals on the campus bring scornful derision from old grads. Politics were politics in the days of the "Wheatshocker," political party of 1928-29, according to Bently Barnabas, former campus "boss."

"In 1925-26," said Barnabas, "Students used to kid themselves into believing they voted for the man, but coalitions carried the day."

It was in 1928 that certain students set about organizing a political machine on the campus.

"We had a regular party constitution," relates Barnabas. "Two fraternities, Phi Upsilon Sigma and Pi Alpha Pi, and two sororities; Alpha Tau Omega and Pi Kappa Psi comprised the party."

Each organization had three votes in the party organization and before each election the party held a caucus. Every member of the "Wheatshockers" was bound to the party by an agreement providing that they must stick whether or not the candidate selected in caucus was elected.

As nearly as possible the "Wheatshockers" followed the pattern of the national parties. The candidates were run as a ticket and the campaigns were financed from the treasuries of the member organizations. Alternate candidates from the member fraternities and sororities were selected. Patronage was distributed by the spoils system in the ranks of the "Wheatshockers."

In 1929 Bill Chastain Phi Upsilon Sigma was nominated for president of the Student-Council by the "Wheatshockers," recounted Barnabas. "There followed one of the dirtiest campaigns ever found on the hill. Veryl Pitts, Webster, decided to oppose Chastain, but the Alpha Gams, then aligned with Webster, refused to support his nomination."

Pitts determined to run, announced that he was a candidate whether he was supported by his fraternity or not. He was nominated by the Webster-Alpha Gams coalition and won by about 13 votes in an election in which practically every student voted.

"On the election day," chuckled Barnabas, "The Websters distributed handbills cautioning every student not to vote for 'Blah-blah' Barnabas. In those days students took their politics seriously."

If when in your endeavor to achieve a high purpose you meet with misunderstanding and apparent defeat, let your solace be found in the memory of Him whose mission on earth culminated in Calvary.

Glass Blowing Class Started at University

Students Try Luck at Making Their Own Laboratory Equipment

A ten-dollar piece of apparatus for three-dollars—that is one of the ways Fred Rustenbach, custodian of the stockroom is beating the depression. He does it by blowing his own apparatus.

He is now conducting a class to teach others the art of turning simple glass tubes into spirals, rings, and letters of the alphabet, T's, U's, and Y's. The class, which meets every Monday and Wednesday at 4 o'clock, is the first of its kind to be instituted on the University of Wichita campus.

Six students, one of them a girl, have enrolled and are now doing their first work, making rings, flanging, and closing the ends of the tubes. When the class has mastered sufficiently the first principles, it will try joining two tubes, to form letters.

Glass Memorial Fountain to Be Installed Soon

Seniors of 1932 Will Donate Drinking Fountain as Gift to University

After a delay of nearly a year, the proposed memorial fountain voted by the university class of 1932 is to be installed in the near future, according to Leon Barnes, president of the class. Barnes says the plans for the fountain have been drawn by Ed Forsblom, architect, who drew the plans for the Administration building, and that final arrangements await the return of the architect to the city.

Seniors of last year voted to leave a part of the return fee on cap and gown on deposit with the university, to be used in paying for a class memorial. The fountain, which the class voted to donate to the university is to be placed in the center of the Administration building, on the wall where the bulletin board now rests.

According to Barnes, plans for the fountain call for a seven-foot marble affair, with designs and sand-blasted into the surface. A refrigerating plant in connection would provide ice water at all times, he said, and in addition to its ornamental qualities, it would be practical because of its central location. Barnes estimates the cost of the fountain at about $250.

NEW YORK, April 19.—Fourteen New York City college students, who were suspended for more than a month for taking part in a mock trial of President Frederick B. Robinson, were back in classes this week. Norman Schrank, senior, who completed all of his undergraduate work, has been refused a degree, however, for taking part in the trial, during which Dr. Robinson was charged with being a reactionary.

Roundabout

CAMPUS again bustling after but there's no cure for spring fever — this weather causing young men's hearts (the gals alike) to do flip-flops and turn abruptly from thoughts of books — a tall Webster and a "smoothie" kodak queen with considerable common — "open houses" galore — "Miss University," Geraldine Landow, being featured in the New York Mirror with Big Bill Tilden and her million dollar smile... but the prize strip is her sporting a swell new Phi Sig pin — Julia Miller in a straight-jacket from directing the Webster play — Big Bill back... but not to pick a queen. AND SO WAS THE CAMPUS AND THE GRASSES GETTING GREENER ALL THE TIME. B. C.

A CAVALRYMAN took great pains with his horse throughout the duration of the war. Then he took him home and refused to feed him well and made him do heavy work unfitted for a charger, giving him heavy loads of wood to haul and taught but chaff to eat. When war was proclaimed again the horse fell down under the weight of the cavalryman and his heavy trappings and proved unfit for his true purpose. By his refusal to care for his horse the cavalryman destroyed his worth.

Tilden's Pro Tennis Stars in Exhibition on W. U. Courts

PLAYS BARNES SINGLES TODAY

Different Schedule for Old Master of Game for His Second Appearance

Bill Tilden and his troupe of tennis stars stage an exhibition tennis match Wednesday on the outdoor courts at the University of Wichita. The feature of the matches will be a doubles performance in which Tilden and Nusslein will meet Pare and Barnes.

Tilden and Nusslein have met Barnes and Pare but once since their sensational match here last month. They were defeated by Barnes' brilliant play here in the Forum, but they turned back Barnes and Pare last Sunday in Birmingham. The match here Wednesday will be the rubber match between these rivals, and it is known that Hans and Big are out to win two straight sets from the flashy Texan and the cool stroking Chicagoan.

It has been tentatively arranged for Barnes to play Tilden in singles. However if Big Bill takes the first set from Bruce, Nusslein will get a chance to prove that he can beat Tilden, and thereby show his true ability to his many friends here. Nusslein and his engaging personality made him many friends here during his last visit and he may upset Tilden in the singles match here just to prove that he can do it.

One of the center courts at Wichita university is being put into condition and 1,000 bleacher seats are being erected to handle the large crowd that is anticipated if the weather remains fair. The seats facing the east will be reserved and due to the limited seating capacity it is urged that tennis fans get their seats early Monday at Dockum No. 1. The seat sale will run Monday, Tuesday and until Wednesday noon. Popular prices will again prevail for the matches.

Many conditions point to a large crowd at these matches. There were many sports fans who were unable to attend the previous match here and have regretted it ever since. There will be a large number of high school and college tennis players here for this match also. It is probable that Tilden will give a talk on fundamentals for the benefit of the many youngsters who will be present and this will amount to a tennis lesson by the old maestro himself.

COLUMBIA PAPER INDICTS ATHLETICS

Investigation Group Sustains Three Charges; Disproves Three

NEW YORK, April 18.—Charges made by the Columbia Daily Spectator against Columbia University's athletic department were partially sustained and partially disproved this week in the report of a special faculty-student-alumni committee, which was appointed to investigate the department.

After calling 19 witnesses, including university officials and football players, the committee filed its report with President Nicholas Murray Butler. The report stated that three of the charges made by the student paper were justified, namely: That proselyting of athletes was carried on by the Athletic Association and "friends" of the university. That favoritism was shown in the allotment of jobs to football players by the building and grounds department.

That the football coach received an unusually "high" salary, as compared with the remuneration of academic instructors. Charges of favoritism in the admission of athletes to the university, leniency of instructors in allowing athletes better marks than they deserved and partially on the part of the Bureau of Appointments in making assignments to jobs were disproved, the committee reported.

The investigators recommended that Columbia come to some agreement with other colleges and universities "so that hours of training will be cut to a minimum for safe playing of football."

They also recommended that athletes, to be eligible for competition, be required to show passing grades in at least 12 units of academic work.

HAROLD MANNING TO ENTER K. U. RELAYS

Kansas Relays, to be staged next Saturday at Lawrence, will see Harold Manning of the University of Wichita again competing against Glenn Cunningham of the University of Kansas and Glen Dawson of the Tulsa Athletic Association. Manning has run against both men in the 1500-meter at many of the larger cities of the United States. His recent performance was at Madison Square Garden in New York during the early part of March.

The Saturday meet will have as its prelude Friday the annual inter-scholastic relay meet. Coach Harry T. Goerger of the University will send John Burris, R. Frawley, Solter, and R. Goeller to represent the home team in the half mile event on Friday.

Oklahoma Star Sets New Javelin Record at W. U.

Men's Sports

By CEC SCHULTE

By CHARLES BAILEY

The advance dope about the strength of the Oklahoma Aggie track team was well borne out by the records hung up by the athletes last Saturday. The fact that the Shockers could garner only three first places shows the well balanced power of the Aggs. Rigney, Glass, and Littlejohn all turned in some fine marks, the outstanding probably being Rigney's 197-foot toss with the javelin.

The return of "Big Bill" Tilden and his troupe of tennis stars will be a welcome addition to the sports program of the week. The group made a hit with Wichita fans in their appearance at the Forum last month and a large crowd will be on hand Wednesday to see the matches on the W. U. courts.

Basketball fans can not expect the Shockers to have an outstanding cage team next year. A new system rarely shows results until after the first year and this would be especially true of the Shockers who heretofore have employed a system unique in both offense and defense. Also a successful team depends in a large measure upon veteran material and from present indications returning veterans are going to be as scarce next year as the proverbial "hens teeth."

Spectators at the Kansas Relays are scheduled to see one of the greatest races of the track year when Glenn Cunningham of K. U. Glenn Dawson, the Oklahoma distance star, and Harold Manning, former national collegiate two-mile champion, meet over the 1500 meter route. Many will remember the race between Dawson and Manning here a year ago which Dawson won by a great finishing drive and W. U. patrons would like nothing better than to see the former Shocker humble both the Jayhawk and the Sooner at the Relays next Saturday.

Chances of the University of Wichita standing high in the Central Conference Track meet do not appear to be so bright this year. Pittsburg, champions since the loop has been formed, has the answer to a track coaches prayer, Emporia Teachers have the strongest team at that school since the days of Coach Bill Hargis, and Washburn is well equipped with track stars. The one boy on the Shocker team who has a good chance to win a conference championship is Gerald Kepner whose mark in the broad jump has been far ahead of the rest of the conference.

The Pittsburg Gorillas continue merrily on their way cracking relay records at most of the meets they attend and taking their share of the individual events. With probably the greatest collection of relay teams in the Middle West they should go far in the Kansas Relays this week. At the Hastings Relays last week the Gorillas set five records, sweeping the college relays and winning nine individual events. In the two mile relay the average time for the four Pittsburg runners was 1:37.4 which is really stepping stones to the approaching triangular track meet, with W. U., Southwestern, and Friends participating, will have the closest competition of recent years. Southwestern is reported to be strong this year and Friends has some good boys. Wichita has weak spots in its team which may prove

WICHITA LOSES TO OKLAHOMA A & M

Three Records Broken by Cowboys During Meet on Saturday

Oklahoma A and M College track team triumphed at the University of Wichita track meet here last Saturday 98.5 to 32.5. Wichita won only three events, one of which was a forfeit. The events were broad jump, shot put, and the mile relay.

The weather conditions were like those at the last local meet. A loose track made the going slow, and a gale kept both teams from doing their best.

HIGH SCHOOL CAGERS BATTLE AT TOPEKA

Matchings for the opening rounds of the State High School Basketball tournament, scheduled to start at Topeka Thursday, March 23, were drawn up Tuesday by E. A. Thomas, secretary of the Kansas High School Athletic Association, and are now ready for complete operation. In addition to the winners of the regional elimination tournaments, five teams will be added to both Class A and Class B groups to make complete brackets. The five additional teams to be chosen, will be picked strictly on their previous showing.

A. V. I. TRACK MEET

April 29 will see the annual A. V. I. Track meet at the University of Wichita. Already 34 high schools have entered the meet in class B. Class A will find at least 14 schools competing. The meet will last through the entire day with a football game scheduled between the two periods. Teams will be chosen from the University of Wichita squad to furnish this part of the entertainment. Some good competition is promised since there are reports to the effect that one school has a man doing the 100 yard dash in 16.1. Another entry has a man running the quarter in 59 seconds.

DEFEAT QUAKER TRACK ATHLETES

Intramural Track to Begin Soon; Several Men to Attend the K. U. Relays

Shocker trackmen once more swept their way to victory on the home field Tuesday afternoon when they beat Friends in the annual grudge battle 92 to 38. The University athletes carried away 11 of the 15 possible firsts, and 10 of the possible seconds. Moore was high point man with 12 points to his credit.

Seedle easily led both the low and the high hurdles with a time of 27.4 and 16.4 in them, respectively. Kepper again took the broad jump with a distance of 22 feet, six inches.

A combination of heat, wind, and loose cinders made things difficult for the distance men, as well as some of the other contestants.

Intramural track will have its beginning on May 3, according to Coach Harry T. Goerger. The Kansas Relays will take the attention of several of the trackmen Saturday when Coach Goerger leaves with Kepper, Manning, Davis, Dack, Wieland, Goeller, Solter, Stukey, Frawley, Burris, and McLaughlin. Solter, Frawley, Burris, and Goeller will make up the mile team, while McLaughlin, Stukey, Solter, and Goeller make up the half mile.

The next, and last, meet on the home track will be held next Tuesday. The meet will be a triangular affair with Southwestern, Friends, and the University of Wichita competing. Southwestern is slated to push the Shockers for a hard battle.

How they placed:

Women's Sports

By IDA BANTA

Tennis enthusiasts are cheering the return of Big Bill Tilden and are awaiting with suspense and interest the inter-society tennis tournament which has been postponed because of other tennis activities, mainly the Tilden match. There's going to be some real interest and excitement in those games when the Greeks and Barbs get together.

Miss Bernice Wysesback, and Miss Helen Wittman, judging from a card received from Norman, Oklahoma, Monday are evidently having a merry time. They are attending the A. C. A. C. W. at Austin, Texas, as representatives of the W. A. A. Miss Gladys Taggart is accompanying them.

As a final touch to a successful rifle year, we hear that an award is to be given the high scorer on the team. It sounds reasonable and interesting. We'll tell you more about it later.

Ever smoke "Whittle" tobacco?

Well... here it is... already whittled FOR you. Granger Rough Cut is tobacco whittled right... that's one reason why it burns so slow and cool.

WHEN we started to make Granger Rough Cut we knew that fine tobacco burnt hot because it burnt so fast. It kept your pipe hot. You could hardly hold your pipe in your hand, it got so hot at times.

Then we remembered that some folks back yonder used to "whittle" their tobacco. So we made GRANGER just like "whittle" tobacco — "Rough Cut." It smokes cooler and lasts a lot longer. And also, you'll find it never gums the pipe.

So far, so good. Now we wanted to sell this tobacco for 10c. Good tobacco—right process—cut right. It was a question of how to do it for the price.

So we put GRANGER in a sensible soft foil pouch instead of an expensive package, knowing that a man can't smoke a package. We gave smokers this good GRANGER tobacco in a common-sense pouch for 10c.

GRANGER has not been on sale very long, but it has grown to be a popular smoke. And there is this much about it—we have yet to know of a man who started to smoke it, who didn't keep on. Folks seem to like it.
