NEW STADIUM INVESTIGATED BY REGENTS

University Alumni Want Structure Located On North Side

University regents "continue to investigate" possibilities of a new stadium, it was announced officially following a special luncheon meeting last Friday. These are the only words that have been presented for publication.

Alumni are hard at work on the possibility of a new stadium. They want an entirely new structure constructed north of the campus near Twenty-first street. This land is already the property of the University. With an entirely new set-up, the present stadium could be devoted to the growing needs of the intramural program, it is said.

Wooden stands formerly east of the present field have been dismantled as a safety move, and the erection of any new wooden structure is declared impractical and certainly impossible. A new stadium at the north end of the campus would be more accessible to spectators, and therefore more practical for the school's football program, according to many fans.

Larger Teams Scheduled Since the University's recent withdrawal from the Central Conference, negotiations with several large universities have been made. Consistent future football schedules for the school will create a demand for a larger stadium with easier entry and exit for fans, some boosters point out.

It is the belief of most concerned that the school could raise a sufficient amount, when supplemented with possible government assistance and student and alumni contributions, to finance the program.

The next regular meeting of the Board of Regents is Feb. 2.

COURSES IN TWO SUBJECTS TO BE INSTITUTED HERE

Principles of Stratigraphy and Social Control Are Offered

Courses in the principles of stratigraphy and social control are being offered by the University next semester for the first time, according to Dr. L. Hechhus, dean of the College of Liberal Arts.

Principles of stratigraphy in two and three-hour courses will be taught by Dr. Byron Cooper, assistant professor of geology. The course will cover the various methods of description, classification, correlation, and interpretation of sedimentary rocks. The study was instituted to help students gain a proper appreciation and understanding of the technique by which geology history is derived from rock records. The work will consist of lectures and assigned readings.

Social control requires sociology 222 as a prerequisite. It will be taught by Dr. Albert E. Croft, head of the sociology department. The fields and methods of social control will be covered and a study made of constructive and social controls and personal adequacy.

Endocrine Glands Are Subject of Research

Zoology course in minor problems, Catalogue No. 440, to be offered next semester, will be concerned with the study of the endocrine glands, according to Dr. Hazel Branch, head of the Zoology department.

Only students with 20 hours of work in the department will be permitted to take the course. The study of the internal secretion of the ductless glands will be the object of research and class experiments.

PROFESSORS WILL ATTEND MEETINGS

College Teacher Placement Officers Hold Meet

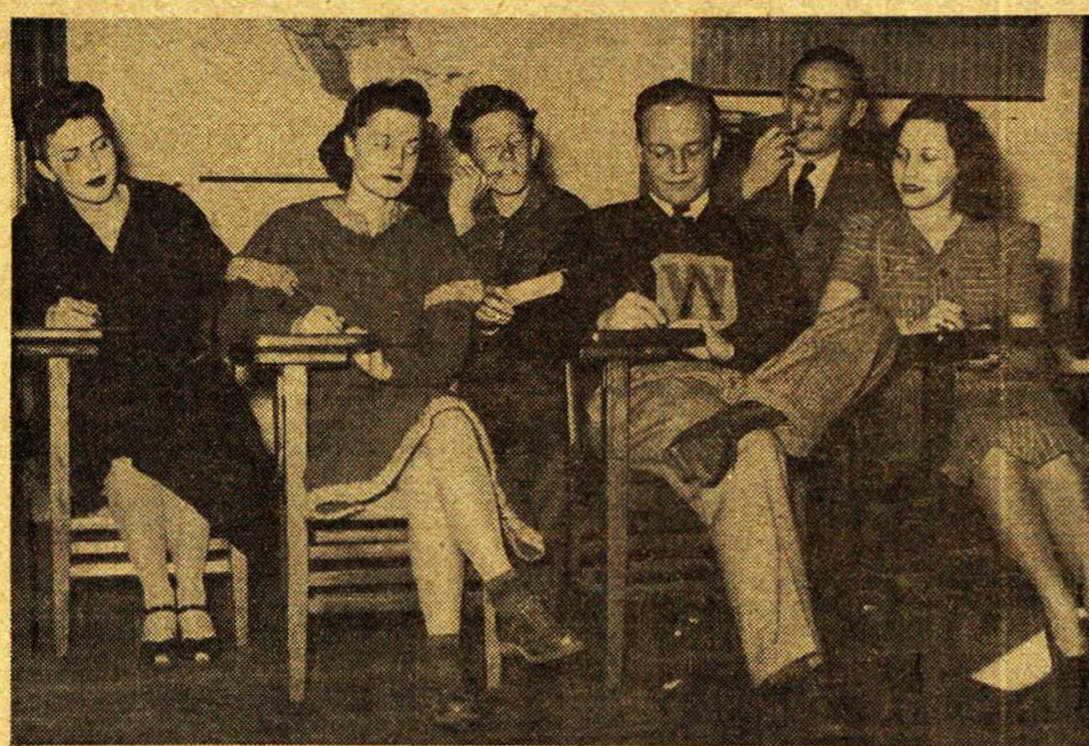

Three teachers' conventions, meeting in Topeka on Feb. 1, 2, and 3, will be attended by four members of the University faculty. Leslie E. Sipple, dean of the College of Education, announced this week.

Dean Sipple is president of the Kansas Association of College Teacher Placement Officers, which will hold a luncheon meeting at the Hotel Jayhawk on Feb. 2. Invitations have been sent to all Kansas colleges, and 30 officers are expected to attend.

Pate Criswell, supervisor of practice teaching, and Prof. Gordon C. Hanson will go to the annual session of the Kansas Association of Teachers of Education. Miss Criswell is secretary of the group. Professor Hanson is scheduled to speak on teacher examinations.

Dr. Earl K. Hillbrand, dean of the Extension Division, will attend the Administrative Council of the Kansas Parent-Teacher Association. Phi Delta Kappa, national education fraternity of which Dean Hillbrand is state coordinator, will meet in Topeka at the same time.

There're Three More Days Till 'Bogey Week'

"Wish We Were Smart," the five sitting about Jack Jackson (center) must think as they find themselves in the midst of one of next week's more difficult exams. Blanche McGlade has rolled her eyes around for a peek and Betty

Colin "takes a gander" from the other side. Alice Bacon, Jimmy Kiefner, and Tommy Orr peer from behind, seeking answers to terrifying questions. This, professors say, is an exhibition of what not to do during final week.

PRE-REGISTRATION PERIOD ENROLLS MANY STUDENTS

Students Seem Anxious To Get Vacation By Enrolling Early

Pre-registration period is running smoothly with 175 enrollments for second semester filed in the office at the present time, according to Laura M. Cross, assistant registrar. Students seem to be interested in the two-day vacation they get if enrolled before Jan. 26, Mrs. Cross continued.

Registration day has been set for Jan. 30, and during the next two weeks students must prepare their schedules for the next semester. Deans of any of the Colleges and heads and professors of various departments are willing to assist students in arranging schedules.

The University bulletin which gives the schedule of all courses

SCHEDULES MUST BE MADE SATURDAY

All members of the present student body who plan to enroll for the second semester must have their tentative schedules made out by Saturday noon, Jan. 20, according to Dr. Worth A. Fletcher, registrar.

offer may be obtained in the registrar's office, located on the first floor of the Administration Building. After the schedule has been made out from this bulletin, the dean of the college in which the student is enrolled must sign the tentative arrangement.

All accounts must be cleared before payment for the second semester can be made. Students desiring deferred payments must discuss them with Roy W. Elliott, comptroller.

Foreign Students Give Views on Present War Situation in Relation to Homelands

Afghanistan, Siam, Canada Are Represented On Campus

Optimism for the safety of their native countries in the European war was expressed this week by three of the University's foreign students, Abdul Ghafur Ghaznawi and Faqui Mohammed and Chamrat Follett from Siam. Merrill Botham from Canada expressed the belief that the Allies will win the current war.

"I do not believe that I shall ever be called to defend my country," Mr. Ghaznawi declared. "Afghanistan's policy is one of peace, both at home and abroad." A peace and non-aggression pact signed with Turkey, Persia, Iraq, and Egypt creates a bloc of 120,000,000 people massed along 2,000 miles of border from the Danube to India.

The tiny state's most potent protective force, he explained, lies in seven ranges of mountains within its borders, including the Himalayas, highest in the world. The mountain crags are credited with stopping three great empire builders in Afghanistan's history, including Alexander the Great, the Arabians, and England in the nineteenth century.

"If my country is attacked," Mr. Ghaznawi continued, "it will be by an enemy driving at England through India. In this event, we are sure that England will assist us. One factor which makes England and us certain that an attack on Afghanistan is no easy thing is England's failure to subdue us in the World War. England is the only

UNIVERSITY WOMEN WILL BE ESCORTS

University women will launch their initial leap year attack on the campus male faction tomorrow night when they escort them to the Orpheum Theater to see Deanna Durbin in "First Love."

Harry A. Sefton, Orpheum manager, has completed arrangements with Ross Denison, Student Council president, for the girls to bring dates to the show at a special price. In addition to treating the men to a movie, some sororities are planning functions at their chapter houses preceding theater time.

Student Council members said during their meeting Tuesday that they expect a large per cent of the University women at the show with their men friends.

DANCING TROUPE TO FEATURE TEN

Hanya Holm Will Present Modern Dancers

Hanya Holm, exponent of modern dance, will make her first and only appearance in the state of Kansas in a dance concert in the University Auditorium the night of Feb. 7. Appearing with her will be a group of ten young artists trained under her supervision.

Miss Holm, after studying and performing in Europe, has done just three years of concert work in this country and is already adjudged an artist of unusual sensibility, keenly alive to the American scene, and a great choreographer as well as a great educator.

Mrs. Hildegarde Lewis, director of modern dance at the University, has studied with Miss Holm for four summers. Mrs. Lewis has also studied at the Workshop of the famous Bennington School of Dance of which Miss Holm is one of the leaders.

WORDEN APPOINTS 12 NEW MEMBERS TO BARB COUNCIL

New Members Will Serve During Semester As Advisory Board

Dean Worden, who last week was elected to head the University of Wichita independent students, announces the appointment of 12 students to serve on the Barb council next semester. They were selected Tuesday noon when Barb officials held a meeting.

The Barb council is comprised of three representatives from each class who are active in campus Barb affairs. It is their duty to assist the officers in forming policies, to head committees, and to sponsor projects.

Mr. Worden commented, "We selected the new council on the basis of their past work in the organization."

This one will work until a new one is chosen next fall. Members are Bob Branson, Margot Clothier, John Michaels, Harold Brown, Sue Cope, Jimmy Costello, Clyde Harbison, Edgar Crum, Lena Mae Nyberg, Zora Goldstein, Bob Mateer, and Margie Krueger.

Freshmen will select two members from their class to represent them at the next Barb meeting.

W. U. A CAPELLA CHOIR GIVES RADIO PROGRAM

The University a capella choir, under the direction of James Barrett, presented a broadcast over Radio Station KFJH at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday.

Numbers sung by the choir were: Hymn—"Softly Now the Light of Day" (Von Weber); "Cherubim-Song" (Bartnyanski); "M'a ton a, Lovely Maiden" (Lassus); "Ave Maria" (Vittoria); "The Glory Train" (Cain); Hymn—"Faith of Our Fathers" (Henry). The men's choir sang a special selection, "Let Their Celestial Concerts All Unite," by Handel.

UPPER CLASS COMMITTEES ARE CHOSEN

Hesse Names Dunn, Deck, Craig To Head Senior Activity Groups

Senior committees to make preliminary arrangements for commencement activities to take place in June have been chosen, Joe Hesse, president of the senior class, declared this week.

Charles Dunn has been chosen chairman of the senior announcement committee, other members of which are Robert Baird, Catherine McCarty, and Martha Barrett. The committee has selected a new type of announcement designed especially for this year's University seniors by Charles Elliott & Co. of Philadelphia. Orders have been placed, and the committee will be ready to place the announcements on sale sometime in March.

Class to Meet Personnel of the cap and gown committee includes Bob Deck, chairman; Blanche McGlade, Harold Ottaway, George Scheer, and Mary Olmsted.

The gift committee includes Margaret Craig, chairman; Dorothy Taylor, Barbara Lynch, Jack Jackson, Clyde Harbison, and Mike Shay. The last two committees named have not yet made any detailed plans.

A meeting of the entire senior class has been called for Feb. 7 at 12 noon in the University Auditorium, according to Joe Hesse. Work of the several committees will be discussed at this time, and their plans may be approved by the class at large.

KANSAS EDITORS MEET FOR 1940 CONVENTION HERE

Chamber of Commerce Is To Honor Editors With Dinner

President W. M. Jardine, chief executive of the University, will serve as toastmaster at a dinner in honor of editors and publishers of Kansas newspapers, Saturday evening, Jan. 20, held by the Chamber of Commerce at the Allis Hotel.

The 1940 convention of the Kansas Press Association is being held this year in Wichita. Editors and publishers of numerous Kansas papers will convene here for the three-day convention from Jan. 18 to 20.

In addition to attending executive sessions, delegates to the convention will be feted by various Wichita firms. They will be taken on a personal inspection of the Stearns Aircraft plant and shown the procedure of airplane manufacturing. The Fox theater which will hold a special picture had invited delegates as guests and Continental Air Lines is making arrangements to conduct the editors and publishers on an aerial tour of the city in one of their new luxury liners. The University journalism department will be hosts to the group at a dinner in the Commons Friday. Principal speaker at the convention dinner Saturday night will be James E. Green of New York. Mr. Green is at present a public relations counselor, but has served during his lifetime as a news reporter, constructive columnist, and feature writer for numerous newspapers.

These annual conventions alternate between Wichita and Topeka.

SICKNESS GRASPS W. U. PERSONNEL

Staples, Gouldner, Taggart Show Improvement

Casualties proved numerous but mortalities have been zero as the cold takes its toll and pneumonia threatens.

Serious concern was held for Clayton H. Staples, director of the art department, during his critical period of recent weeks, but rapid improvement is being shown in his condition and no threatening danger is now pending. Professor Staples underwent a major operation prior to the Christmas holidays and was recovering nicely until complications set in. Professor Staples was removed Monday to the Wesley hospital where he expects to remain until taken home.

Mrs. Rene Gouldner is rapidly recovering from an attack of pneumonia contracted during the early cold spell of the season. She is convalescing in St. Frances Hospital.

Gladys Taggart, director of the women's physical education department, has been removed to her home from the St. Frances Hospital where she spent several days in treatment for the flu.

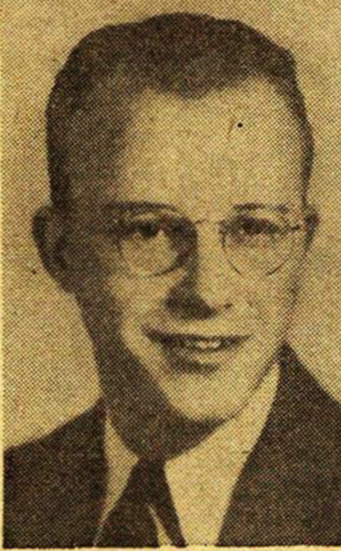

Harold Cox, University senior, is reported doing well. Mr. Cox is in St. Frances Hospital. He is able to travel about in a wheel chair.

Other faculty members forced to miss classes because of colds include Dean Thurlow Leasure, Dr. John Rydjord, Maj. Harry L. Lewis, and Dr. Albert E. Croft.

POEM BY SPAETH APPEARS IN STAR

Professor's Verse Is Published in Kansas City

Published for the first time, "A Finland Reverie," poem by Dr. J. Duncan Spaeth, visiting professor of English, appeared recently on the editorial page of the Kansas City Star.

Dr. Spaeth composed the verses while visiting Finland in the summer of 1938. He adopted for the poem the characteristic meter of "Kalevala," the Finnish national epic. The scheme, consisting of eight-syllabled trochaic lines, was also used by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow in writing "Hiawatha."

An attempt to capture the spirit of Finland, then still at peace, as he sat alone one evening on a rock by the sea, was at the heart of Dr. Spaeth's desire to write the verses.

BLUE KEY SPORTS BANQUET TO HONOR SHOCKER ATHLETES

Lettermen of All Teams Playing Their Final Year Will Be Recognized at Large Dinner Scheduled for Month of April

To honor lettermen of all intercollegiate sports who are playing their last year for the University, a banquet will be sponsored some time in April by Blue Key, national honorary fraternity.

"Giving recognition to athletes in all University sports is an advanced step toward a rounded sports program," declared Ferd Evans, Blue Key president. President W. M. Jardine asserted Monday that he is "very much in favor" of the plan.

Ed Turner is chairman of a Blue Key committee planning the event. Tentative dates are April 3 or 17. Efforts are being made to avoid conflict with a Chamber of Commerce dinner to be given the same month.

Lettermen to Be Honored All lettermen must have completed two years in the University, and must be working for a degree, Mr. Turner said. About 20 men from the football, basketball, track, tennis, golf, and rifle teams will be included. According to present plans, Blue Key will hold the banquet annually, gradually drawing in other teams, such as the women's archery and rifle teams, the debate squad, and the University Players.

The dinner will be held in a downtown hotel, and the public will attend. Tickets will be sold on the campus by members of Blue Key. Business Men Expected The sports banquet is part of Blue Key's projected "year of service plan." Last year the fraternity sponsored the celebration of President Jardine's fifth anniversary in the University.

Business men and other University supporters are expected to back the dinner, which is the first of its kind attempted here. The University will also offer aid in staging the dinner, it was learned.

The banquet has been under consideration since school started, but until this time it has not become definite. The annual football banquet which for the past two years has been promoted through University offices has not taken form this year and it is believed will give precedence to the all-sports banquet which places stress not only upon football, but upon every intercollegiate sport.

Officials have been making a movement in this direction for several years. Since withdrawal from the Central conference it has become more marked, since stronger competition in all fields is desired.

BLUE KEY MAKES PLANS FOR DANCE FRIDAY, JAN. 26

Outstanding W.U. Women Are To Be Honored By Fraternity

Outstanding women of the University will be honored again this year by Blue Key, national honorary fraternity, at a semi-formal "after-finals" dance to be sponsored by the fraternity Friday, Jan. 26, in Henrion Gymnasium.

Vern Nydegger's orchestra will play for dancing from 9 to 12 p. m. in the decorated gymnasium. Bob Baird is chairman of a committee planning the dance.

The Blue Key women are selected annually on the basis of character, scholarship, leadership, and personality from the senior class of the University. Ferd Evans, president of Blue Key, declared, "We do not recognize only those girls who have been elected to class officers, but include those who have given meritorious service to the school." Last year 12 women were so honored.

This year's group will be presented from the gymnasium stage by fraternity members during an intermission. Exact details of the ceremony are being kept secret until the night of the dance.

Tickets will cost 75 cents for either stags or couples, Mr. Baird said. An advance sale will begin next Monday in the University Bookstore. Purchasers should sign a register in the store, so that a guest list may be made. Blue Key members will also sell tickets.

COUNCIL ARRANGES STUDENT PROGRAM

Partial arrangements for the first all-student convocation of the year were made last Tuesday when the Student Council named Fred Partridge, program chairman, and set the date of the event for Feb. 29.

All students who wish to appear on the program are asked to contact Mr. Partridge at an early date so that complete arrangements can be made and practice begun. "The Student Council is especially anxious for the convocation to be a success," Ross Denison, council president, said. "I am sure that an excellent program can be brought off if even a small part of the available talent can be uncovered," he added.

Saluting the President

SIX YEARS AGO this March there came to the University of Wichita campus a man of distinction, known throughout the United States as an agriculturist, and who served under President Coolidge as the secretary of agriculture. He was Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to Egypt in 1930-33, and after his return he became treasurer of the state of Kansas.

This man, Dr. William M. Jardine, now president of the University of Wichita, observed his sixty-first birthday on Tuesday, Jan. 16.

The Sunflower, faculty, and students of this University wish to extend to you, President Jardine, continued health, happiness, and success in your undertakings, and may your future with this University be pleasant and gratifying to you and this community.

Since Dr. Jardine came to this University in 1934, the school has shown marked progress under his able leadership. The building campaign since his presidency has made the Shocker school one of outstanding importance in this state. His diplomatic relations and his genuine "friendliness" have spread the fame of this school over Wichita and the entire Southwest.

Here They Are Again

Finals come but once a year. But what a time when they appear.

WITH FINAL WEEK rapidly approaching on the educational horizon many students begrudgingly consult exam schedules and, much to their dissatisfaction, discover a number of finals falling on the same day.

Why, they ask, didn't I know of this sooner so that I might have prevented it from happening? And of course the only answer is that the finals schedule was only prepared a week ago.

Now, a possible remedy for this may be had by the preparation of final schedules at the same time the catalogue of courses is made prior to enrollment each semester. The back page of each course catalogue could be very easily set aside for the schedule of final examinations and as students selected courses for the ensuing semester they could very easily consult the schedule and select necessary courses that would not create too hard a week for last exams.

Then, too, if it would be impossible to prepare such a schedule so far in advance, another situation may be created whereby students could have more time to prepare for these finals that fall on the same day.

A number of years ago a system was worked out so that students would have a split final week. By this procedure they would have part of their finals on Thursday and Friday and then take the week-end to prepare for the following three days of exams the next week.

With the week-end to prepare for following finals, students managed successfully. This plan could be very easily installed into the present schedule. As the plans are now, a two-day vacation will follow exams provided students enroll early. This two-day period of relaxation could be very easily placed ahead and make the split week.

They say that cramming does no good. Even so, a good strong review of material has never hurt anyone. So, with more than one final on a day a review might easily be transformed into a confused jumble. The sooner such confusion is eliminated, the sooner the student grade average will show the result of concentrated effort.

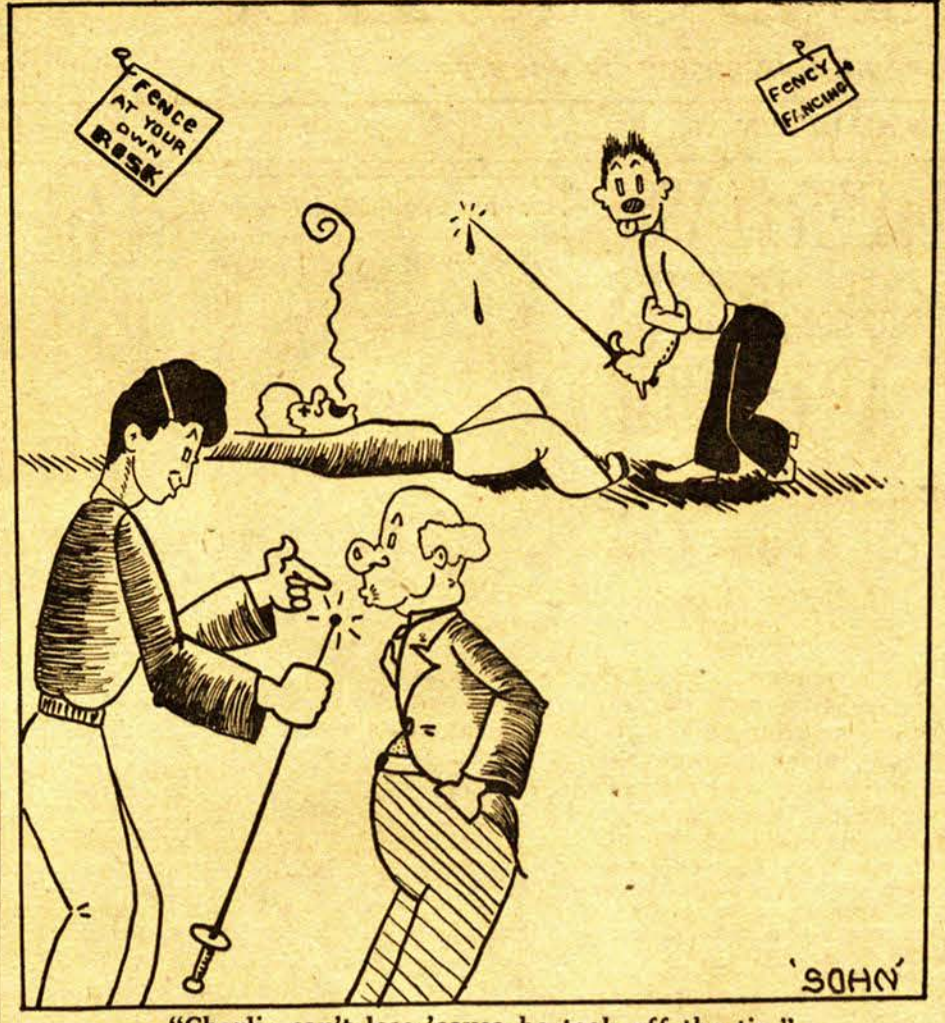

Distress Call Given

SAD-EYED, bewildered, apprehensive, and belligerent—the University freshmen are approaching final week. Some regard the coming examinations in awe, others in fright, but few are indifferent. Our freshmen don't know exactly what to expect of this monstrous thing that is about to bear down upon them. These "neophytic" scholars are wondering if their chances for survival would be improved if they bought some of the mid-night oil that the upperclassmen have said they burn so much of in their all-night preparation for the next day's ordeal. They are wondering which pills will accomplish the most in helping them to digest a whole semester's work in one night. These uninitiated, perplexed freshmen are also speculating on how many gallons of java they must consume if they are to keep their weary eyes in focus.

Not quite four days remain until the freshman can see exactly what advice they did well to heed and what suggestions they could have done without. Freshmen and final week—two things without which a college campus is incomplete. But freshmen query—"Why final week?" And upperclassmen just ask—"Why?"

From Charley Poe's Lookout House Stadium Plans Before Regents... Class Prexies Back Plan... Whock Pantywaists... Blue Key To Pick

FUMBLE! That's what the Board of Regents will do if they decide against constructing the new stadium north of the Ad Building. I've heard that complete plans for building and financing the stadium are now resting in their hands, and the final decision is to come from them.

There is a proposal to secure cement for the structure but until the board accepts or rejects the plans this column cannot print its proposed campaign. Ross Denison, president of the Student Council, and the four classes, represented by prexies Joe Hesse, Fred Wylie, Cliff Connell, and Tom Cannon have all been told of the campaign and are in favor of bringing it before the student body when the regents pass on the building of the stadium.

"JOE COLLEGE" definitely describes the majority of the Whock Club's new members. Such an organization of pantywaists has never been assembled on this hill. Saturday's exhibition during the half at the Bulder-Shocker basketball game was accomplished through the support of the football boys. Most of the "would-be" members of Whock are those freshmen who joined the pep organization to buy a sweater so they can wear it back to their high school and parade up and down the halls. They have no interest in the organization so far as the support of school pep is concerned. So far this is the attitude that has been shown and it can be remedied but I doubt if it will.

Next Friday at the Blue Key prom the boys will endeavor to present ten ideal campus women. What a job they have decided to undertake. I doubt if they can find half that number. I'd almost wager the list includes the ten best-known campus names or leaders—not so much on the ideal side. Anyway the boys of BK will choose them from what they think are the ideal all-around good girls.

This is one situation where BK boys will be required to pool their knowledge as it can be assumed that no one member could vouch for the ideal qualities of ten women.

THIS FINAL EXAM situation gets in everybody's hair each time it comes up. One proposed plan to get away from the tiresome part of it is to start the exams on Thursday and Friday of the usual exam week and to continue them on the first three days of following week. Thus giving the students a "break" over the week-end. That's a noble idea. It especially would be easier on students who have finals starting at 7:30 a. m. and lasting till 3:30 p. m.

The College Parade of Opinion Dewey Is Collegiate Favorite... Students Condemn Roosevelt Third Term... Iowa Hesitates Over Garner

By Associated Collegiate Press

KEEPING PACE with the ever-increasing movements of the Democratic donkey and the Republican elephant, college and university students are gradually taking a more active part in party political activities. As evidenced by the early organizational activities on many campuses, 1940 promises to be a banner year for student participation in a national election.

So far as can be determined at the present time, the winter book rankings of the political horses seems to be: Dewey is the favorite, with McNutt (carrying democratic colors) picked to run second. Hardly a third of the collegians favor a third term for F. D. R., so he seems to be ruled out as a starter at post time.

However, all collegians feel that it is a bit too early to start picking candidates now—they feel that too much can happen between now and convention time to upset many a candidate's chances. They're organizing, yes, but along party lines.

Now let's turn to a cross-section of undergraduate opinion on current political developments as expressed by student editorial writers:

Concerning Thomas Edmund Dewey (Michigan '23), the University of Kansas Daily Kansan says: "This is the day of ear-consciousness and a radio-dominated public. To compete with a swing band, a politician has to be pleasingly vocal. Dewey may or may not write his own speeches, but he can deliver them in a manner to warm a ghost-writer's heart. (He) threatens the Rooseveltian supremacy as America's Number One political bedtime story teller."

But, says the Dartmouth College Daily Dartmouth, "the present campaign will be fought out on some very specific and important problems, the most important of which is America's policy during a European war, and not the least important of which is what to do with twelve million unemployed. The public is pretty well aware of these problems, and so 'Handsome Tom' Dewey will have to be presented to America as something more than a racket-buster if he is to be treated with any more seriousness than the polite amusement with which most people greet him now."

John Nance Garner's announcement of his willingness to accept the nomination from the democrats drew this comment from the University of Iowa Daily Iowan: "There will be many who will hesitate before accepting him. It will be remembered that he is an old line southern democrat, a traditional 'party man' candidate. He is an expert politician, but his qualities as a statesman have not had an adequate test. The feeling still remains that he lacks youth, the statesmanship and the foresight necessary for the presidency at the most critical time in the history of the U. S."

Warning the G. O. P. not to disregard the social advancement made under the New Deal, the University of Michigan Daily says: "It is not much our leanings toward any one party that causes us to express our opposition to such measures as the Republicans are now supporting; what disturbs us more is the callous destruction of reforms which have been established and accepted, and which we believe America needs."

Yes, the political pot is beginning to boil on the nation's campuses. Just what turn the collegians will take can be predicted only after pending developments in national and international affairs are completed.

It Happened This Way--

Editor's Note: When you hear a yarn or see one enacted pass it along to the Sunflower; but don't forget to put your name with it. Happenings in classes and on the campus are often worth breaking print.

HUGO WALL, head of the political science department, was having a little trouble getting logical answers from his government class on a recent "blue" Monday. Tipping his chair back a degree farther than usual, he gave his reason why he would change the customary nick-name for the first week-day. "I'd change it to 'bloody' Monday," he said with a sly grin, "because so many students make stabs on that day."

Quotable Quotes

(By Associated Collegiate Press)

"THE MODERN university in a democracy must be thought of as a true lighthouse which illumines the path of those who may travel in any land. An outstanding tragedy of the years through which we are now living is the disappearance of the true university in countries where it has long been of most distinguished and well-recognized competence. Columbia University's Pres. Nicholas Murray Butler mourns the loss of academic freedom abroad.

of saving or religious and personal interests as individuals." The country will remain absolutely neutral in the present war, he predicted. Contact with Russia is still good, and very little pro-anti-German feeling is evident. Such were conditions when he left his home in Kabul one year ago.

Afghanistan has never had a war with either Russia or Germany, "Mohammedans join with all Christians." Mr. Ghaznavi concluded, "In hoping that the war will be stopped before stagnation and demoralization wreck civilization." Siam's 14,000,000 inhabitants are in relatively no danger of becoming involved in the war, Mr. Follett asserted. The country, the name of which was changed last fall to Thailand, meaning "freeland," is located between the British protectorate, Burma, and French Indo-China. A British naval base is located on the coast line.

"Our only threat lies in the possibility that Japan may attempt to attack India through Thailand and Burma," Mr. Follett declared. "The standing army includes approximately 300,000 men, and a small mechanical force."

Merrill Botham, who left Canada on the day before England entered the war, declared, "No one at home doubts that the Allies will win."

Thompson on Stage—Keith Thompson, former student of the University, appeared in the play, "Love from a Stranger," which was presented as the second Manhattan Theater production this fall in December. The play was given in the Kansas State College auditorium.

Mr. Thompson is a sophomore in agriculture at Kansas State and is appearing before an audience for the second time this semester in this production. While attending the University, he appeared in a number of plays.

Fourth HYM Ball To Be Sponsored By Y. W., Feb. 16

Shaft is General Chairman In Charge of Carnival In Henrion Gym

Dating procedure will be reversed again this year when campus coeds invite the men to the fourth annual HYM ball, to be sponsored Feb. 16 by the University Y. W. C. A. Verne Nydegger's orchestra will play for dancing from 9 until 12 o'clock in the red and white heart setting in Henrion Gymnasium. The ball annually features a date bureau, dance contests, and the selection of Mr. Wichita U. by Y. W. C. A. members. In previous years, admission price has been determined by the height or weight of dancers, and a Heart Throber spin wheel when another novel method is planned.

Mary Jean Shaft is general chairman for the event, and Avanelle Clark is her assistant. Other committee heads are Catherine Dedrick, publicity; Neva Sue Reinhart, date bureau; Jeanne Lewis, dance contest; Norma Webb, decorations; Josephine Rice, check room and refreshments; Shirley Bishop, invitations; Lulu Randall, ticket sales, and Doris DeLaMater, admission.

Proceeds of the ball will be used to send Y. W. C. A. delegates to the annual summer conference at Estes Park, Colo., next June. The HYM group, for which the full name is "Him, You, and Me" was organized four years ago by 21 Y. W. C. A. women who selected and honored 21 outstanding University men at their first Valentine Day Ball. The present carnival dance is an outgrowth of the tradition.

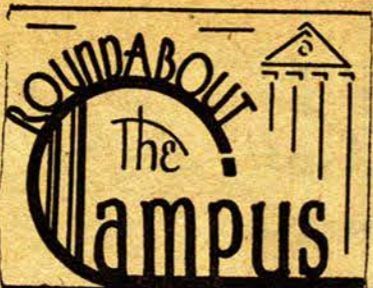

At last year's ball, Ruth Crist and Melvin Radcliffe won the dance contest. Four men were chosen to represent each class as "Mr. Wichita U.," including Stanley Diamond, 39, Meull Curry, Walter Tait, and Jack Coleman. LaVetta Bolan won the title of "Belle of the Ball" for having sold the most tickets.

Dating Problem Survey Helps University Students Answer Their Many Questions

By SUE COPE IN A SURVEY on "dating problems" conducted on the campus last week by Fred Partridge, junior, 60 students representative of every type and group at the University were interviewed. The subject was also discussed at last week's meeting of the Roundtable.

Ten questions were asked. The first was, "Do you take dating seriously?" That is, do you take a date because you honestly enjoy his or her company rather than because it is merely preferable to staying home. To this 91 per cent of the girls said "yes"; 9 per cent said "no." Of the boys, 76 per cent answered in the affirmative while 24 per cent took the negative.

"Are you serious about anyone?" Girls answered this question 46 per cent affirmative and 54 per cent negative. The boys said 48 per cent "yes" and 52 per cent "no."

"When you accept a fraternity pin do you accept it with an air of finality and hopes for the future?" To this question 98 per cent of the girls said yes, with only 4 per cent answering in the negative. In giving up their pins, 92 per cent of the boys have a feeling of finality while 8 per cent do not.

"Are you in favor of going steady?" Girls answered 43 per cent in favor of it, with 57 per cent against it; while the boys said 64 per cent "yes" with 36 per cent "no."

Question number five asked, "Do you condescend to any form of amorosness in payment for a date?" Girls replied 14 per cent yes while 86 per cent said no. Only 4 per cent of the boys expected this payment, and 96 did not. However, the majority of the boys indicated that they would "woo" if the girl permitted.

The next question asked, "How many dates do you have with a boy before you allow him to kiss you?" Eleven per cent of the girls replied that they kissed on the second date; 20 per cent on the third date; 24 per cent on the fourth, while 45 per cent waited until after at least four dates. Of the boys, 4 per cent expected a kiss on the first date; 16 per cent on the second date; 28 per cent on the third date; 16 per cent on the fourth, while 36 per cent waited until after the fourth date.

"Do you object to dates smoking or drinking?" Sixty-four per cent of the girls prefer that their dates not drink; 36 per cent didn't care; none objected to smoking. Twenty per cent of the boys objected to their dates smoking or drinking; 28 per cent objected just to drinking, while 52 per cent didn't care.

The eighth question asked, "How far in advance do you expect a boy to make a date with you?" Fifty-three per cent of the girls said less than a week, 43 per cent said at least a week, while only 4 per cent said two weeks. Boys replied that 44 per cent expected to make a date in less than a week; 52 per cent in one week, and only 4 per cent thought it ought to be made more than a week ahead.

To the question, "Are you in favor of more dutch dating?" girls answered 53 per cent in the affirmative with 47 per cent against it. Boys were 60 per cent in favor of it and 40 per cent were not.

On the last question asked, "Do you like to ask a boy for a date on special occasions?" 53 per cent of the girls said yes, while 47 per cent were against it. Boys were asked if they liked to be asked on special occasions and were unanimous in their approval, for 100 per cent said "YES."

Well, gals, it's Leap Year—here's your big chance!

Scientists Work To Beautify Milady; Coal Is Processed To Create Finery

HAVEN'T you often wondered if there weren't some good use for that excess coal dust flying around your basement and for those inevitable small unusable lumps of coal lying around your basement? Science now has the answer! Yes, there is!

With just the addition of a bucketful of water and some good fresh air, hosiery is now made and manufactured from these basic materials and has been on sale in Wilmington, Del., since Oct. 23.

Sheerness and beauty as well as long-wearing qualities are claimed for these hose sold under the name of Nylon.

Because of the present insufficient supply, the sale of the hose is restricted to Wilmington. A nation-wide introduction in 1940 is planned by the manufacturers and the originators, the Du Pont company. Extensive experimental work is being carried on to perfect the hose by that time.

The limited sale is expected to act as a test of the merits of the hosiery. The yarn is more elastic than that made from wood pulp, and will stand much more rough treatment than rayon hosiery, which is what women ordinarily wear now.

Prices for the hose range from $1.15 a pair to $1.35, depending upon the weight desired.

Interestingly enough, the same materials used in nylon can also be made into bristles for hair-brushes. China and Siberia formerly supplied most of the world's supply of pure hog's bristles, but the war conditions have stopped this trade. Today, chemical discoveries such as these are overcoming the resulting shortage.

FORT HAYS IS NEXT FOE FOR WICHITA

W. U. Travels to Hays To Play First-Place Tigers Team

Traveling to Fort Hays for what may prove to be their toughest game of the season, the Shockers of Wichita will attempt to down the Tigers and place themselves in the top position of the Conference.

This game may be vital as far as Wichita is concerned, because, although at first Fort Hays was not expected to have a strong team, they have suddenly started playing some exceptional basketball. Last week-end they trounced the strong Pittsburg club by a score of 42 to 31. This makes them appear to be a powerful quintet, since Pittsburg already has beaten Southwestern by 10 points previously this season, and the Builders were defending champions for the Conference last year.

Johnson Stands Out
Outstanding on the Fort Hays team is Jack Johnson, senior center of the Tigers, who against Pittsburg made 20 points of his team's 42. Johnson possesses a deadly south-paw hook shot that has kept his team in the running all season. Coach Hennigh expressed the opinion that Johnson would have to be stopped if Wichita expected to win.

Boasting of four fast forwards in Carroll, Robbins, Keller, and Fox, the Hays squad is a veteran club and smooth teamwork is the key to the team's success. Two big guards, Stramel and Loomis, are their regulars at these posts, and both are experienced lettermen.

Wichita will again be depending upon the clever shooting of Ray Kite, Meull Curry, Tom Kinkaid, and Vernon Williams as forwards, and Mel Vice, Walt Lewis, John St. John, and Burt Hayes will also be featured performers for the Shockers. Going smoothly, with a consecutive five-game winning streak behind them, W. U. is determined to stop Johnson, who has continually paced his team this season.

Fort Hays Is First
Fort Hays has won several games this season, and they are at the present time in first place in the Central Conference. Their position has been accomplished by virtue of two victories over Pittsburg and Emporia.

Wichita will again be in excellent shape for the coming game, and the entire varsity squad of 13 men will be available for the trip. Although last-minute changes may be made in the lineups for both teams, the most recent choices for the teams are known.

Probable starting lineup:
WICHITA: Kite, Curry, Kinkaid, Vice, Lewis, Hayes
FORT HAYS: Johnson, Robbins, Keller, Fox, Stramel, Loomis

Advanced Students Will Be Coaches for Class

University students who are desirous of increasing or perfecting their dancing ability will be offered the opportunity to enroll in the social dance class for the ensuing semester.

There is no fee attached to the dance class and the group is formed merely for the mutual benefit of those students interested in improving their dancing.

This past semester, approximately 25 students, both boys and girls, took advantage of the offer. Students were given fundamentals in dancing and then bit by bit taught the various dance steps.

The second semester of this year there will be another class from 12 noon to 1 p. m. each Monday and Friday. The class will be under the direction of Evelyn Hinton, instructor of physical education for women, and the advance students in the class this semester will act as coaches.

PSYCHOLOGIST RAPS DEJECTED COACHES

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.—(AP)—Football coaches who like to play the role of "Gloomy Gus" before every gridiron battle are poor psychologists and invite defeat.

That is the opinion of a University of Minnesota psychologist, Prof. Charles Bird, and he thinks something ought to be done about it.

"After all, football players are like the rest of us," he says. "We do better when we get a little praise, or when we can look ahead to victory."

"Most football players are young and susceptible—about 19 or 20 years old on the average. They feel keenly. I don't believe it does them any good to have a coach point to nothing but defeat. Like the rest of us, they need the 'success motive.'"

BARBS CONTINUE WINNING STREAK IN INTRAMURALS

Webster, Alpha Gam, Phi Sig Wage Three-Way Tie for Second

While the Barbs still retain their lead in intramural bowling, there is a three-way tie for second place between the Websters, Phi Sigs, and Alpha Gam.

This week will be the last of play unless it is decided at the last minute to play another round. Last week the Phi Alpha won two games from the Websters; the Barbs beat the Alpha Gam two games; while the Ramblers and Faculty split with a game apiece.

Individual scoring for the past week in two games gives Gates, Alpha Gam, 352; Davis, Ramblers, 350; and Gensch, Ramblers, 325. In single games the high individual scores are Gates, Alpha Gam, 190; Davis, Ramblers, 187; Gensch, Ramblers, 184.

Individual all-time high scorers are Bob Kirkpatrick, Alpha Gam, 156; Lyman Smith, Webster, 152; Blair, Barbs, 151.

Following the bowling contest, basketball will start. Play will begin on Feb. 1, but the entries must be in by Jan. 30. Dr. Lawrence Rarick, director of intramural sports, hopes that many independents will enter the basketball tourney.

Since the intramural sports program has grown so much, Dr. Rarick feels that several independents will participate. To encourage the entrance of independents it is possible for any group to enter by filing the names of the team members in Dr. Rarick's office.

D.O. TAKES HIGH PLACE IN SHOOT

Runners-Up in Match Are Pi Kaps, Alpha Tau

First of the four inter-sorority shoots was held Dec. 12 with the Delta Omegas having high score. The combined final scores of the four shoots will determine the winner of the competition.

Pi Kap's 372 took second place to D.O.'s 374 with the Alpha Tau's 359 in third place. Jeanne Lewis tied with Ramona Lee Fisher for the honor of high-point girl on the shoot with scores of 99 each.

Others in the high ten were Ann Neff, Alpha Tau, 96; Lois Dobbin, D.O., 96; Jean Hickie, Pi Kap, 95; Vera Ellis, D.O., 94; Shirley Richey, D.O., 94; Betty Blackburn, Vandal, 94; Carolee Wilkins, Pi Kap, 94; and Alice Bacon, Pi Kap, 93.

PHI SIGS IN PLAY FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

Men's intramural badminton championship will be declared tonight in Henrion Gymnasium. Some of the remaining entries are Bob Baird, Joe Mohr, Earl Miller, Bill Anthony, Warren Tomlinson and Art Prophet. All these players are Phi Sigs.

There were 73 entries in the badminton tourney of which 50 per cent were Phi Sigs. Other entries remaining in the tournament are Davis, Ramblers; Morton, Ramblers; Bates, Alpha Gam, and Rarick, Faculty. This is the first men's badminton tourney to be held here.

Marr and Rarick are finalists in the handball singles tournament and also finalists in the doubles against Cope and Schaff. The handball tourney will be completed this week.

CONCESSIONS GAIN MONEY FOR Y. M. M.

Concessions which were granted to the University Y. M. C. A. organization for the football season grossed a total of $435 during that period, according to Dean Warden, president of the Y. M. C. A.

Alpha Gamma Gamma fraternity received $75 for the work which their members did selling in the football stands. Members of the Y. M. C. A. who worked in the concession booth were paid their share of $120. For the use of a popcorn machine $15 was paid.

Sports Writer Observes Personalities of Coaches

W. U. Coaching Staff—Gebert, Hennigh, DeHon, Marr, Rarick—Create Many Favorable Opinions

"WHAT kind of fellows are those coaches, anyway?" That is the most common question asked by students to one, who after a year, has formed a few opinions, whether right or wrong, about our coaching staff.

Taking for granted that all humans have their faults, and all our coaches are human, it's openly admitted that only the many favorable impressions received will be written here.

Albert J. Gebert, director of athletics and head football coach, was a former Knute Rockne graduate of Notre Dame in 1930, where he gained the reputation of being a smart quarterback. "Geb" will surprise you, because, instead of a pleasant-speaking business man, it makes you realize that half of the success of the modern coach depends upon his ability to sell himself to students, alumni, and faculty.

In business-like terms he discusses his football and sports program courteously, but all the time you are in his office you are set for a discussion on insurance or the stock market. On the playing field he knows his football, he criticizes, explains, warns, and threatens, and it is only here that you see the expected coach in action.

Towering Bill Hennigh, line coach in football and basketball coach, is a former University of Wichita graduate of 1932, and under Coach Gebert he played center in football and starred on the cage court. On the football field Bill is tough and words aren't minced over the subject, and no one ever tries any funny stuff with him except at the right time.

Interviewing him is practically impossible until basketball starts, when he cautiously explains exactly what he wants you to know about his team. He is a frank and sincere coach, who will give you the same treatment that he receives from you.

Former Student Tells Experience In Panama Quake

"I FELT MYSELF caught up with a slight jerk, and thought I had just leaned off balance."

That was the reaction of Richard Gavitt, former University sophomore, to an earthquake in the Panama Canal Zone late in the evening of Nov. 27, according to a letter received here.

"Residents of the Isthmus agreed that the quake was fairly strong, but not particularly violent," he wrote. "It lasted longer than most—about 10 seconds—during which the house rolled around a bit, and all the clothes in the closets began swinging. The quake occurred in two 'waves,' and the second portion had hit before I realized what it was."

Earthquakes are frequent in the Canal Zone, where Gavitt is a reporter and Spanish cable translator for the Panama American newspaper. He left Wichita in October, and will return next autumn. He was a Sunflower reporter and a member of Alpha Gamma Gamma fraternity.

BUILDER AND FAL TEAMS BOTH LOSE TO W. U. CAGERS

Shocker Forwards Make Field Goals To Lead Wichita Attack

After the score had been tied at the half at 7-7, the Shockers began to find the basket and easily beat the Builders of Southwestern by a final score of 24 to 14. Playing in Henrion Gymnasium last Saturday night, Wichita had a tough game on their hands every minute of play. On the following Monday night W. U. played the Fal cage team of Mexico City, and easily won 46 to 13.

In the Builder game Meull Curry and Tom Kinkaid were the consistent scorers for Wichita, as they collected ten and eight points respectively. Southwestern scored only three field goals during the game, and two of these were made by Stevens, who was high-point man for Southwestern with six points. The features of the game were the sensational one-handed shots of Meull Curry, and the victory over Southwestern in basketball, which is almost a novelty for Wichita.

Too much height and superior ability in hitting the basket were the important factors on Wichita's side in their easy victory over the Fal team. This year's team from Mexico City was the smallest and weakest to ever represent that team. Two sophomores paced the Shocker squad in the second half, as Vernon Williams and John St. Johns scored twelve and seven points respectively. Meull Curry was again scoring well, making three field goals and two free throws for a total of eight points.

OPPONENTS BEAT FRESHMAN TEAM

Chanute Junior College Emerges Victorious

After winning one game, the freshman basketball team dropped the last two games to Knights of Columbus and Chanute Junior College respectively. Observers attribute the change in luck to the freshman squad's lack of fire on the floor.

Knights of Columbus defeated the freshman team 27-20. In this game McQuillan scored six points to lead the freshman scoring. Burford, also an outstanding guard, scored four points. Three of the Knights of Columbus players, Joe Hesse, Bob Curry, and Mike Shay, attend the University.

The freshman squad lost to Chanute Junior College by a score of 34-18. Also in this game McQuillan was the leading scorer for the freshmen, with Burford following close behind.

The next freshman game, scheduled as a preliminary to the varsity game following final week, will be against either Garden City Junior College or the Friends "B" team.

The Sunflower's Weekly Sports Parade

By OLIVER ELLIOTT
WITH Coach Hennigh taking his boys to play Fort Hays this Saturday, the Central Conference basketball race may be more clearly seen after that game. Wichita and Pittsburg both beat the defending champions, Southwestern, by ten points, but Fort Hays beat Pittsburg by 11 points so the odds are against the Shockers.

Hennigh still insists that Pittsburg will be the toughest for W. U. to take, but he doesn't predict a win for the Wichita club over the Tigers. It isn't an impossible job for the Shockers, however, and if Johnson, lanky senior center for Hays, is stopped the rest should be easy. Johnson is the whole team for Fort Hays, as is plainly shown by the fact that he scored 20 points against Pittsburg.

This column predicted that Meull Curry and Tom Kinkaid would star for the Shockers in coming games, and they played Southwestern and Fal since the last issue, and they—well, didn't do bad. Curry in both games along with Vernon Williams and John St. John in the Fal game displayed some good basketball.

Also while predictions are being considered, it might be noted that, according to reports received, Carlo Harrell, halfback for the Shockers last season, is playing pro football in Los Angeles with great success. This column continually believed that Harrell was a good ball player, but except for the winning kick against Washburn our faith in him was never realized until now. It is said that he plays on the team that Harold Brill is on, and has been playing good pro ball thus far.

TRACK is still being pushed to the front on the campus, and it is worth repeating that more good men are still needed for this sport. Coach Marr is willing to talk over any phase of the sport to those boys who are interested. It's rumored that one must not speak of handball to Dr. Rarick at the present time, since Coach Marr has the jump on him. However, Dr. Rarick has been ill part of this week, and the official finals for the school in handball between these two coaches may not be played until next week.

O'HARRA ANNOUNCES LIBRARY PHONE RULE

Since students have abused the privilege of calling other students to the phone in the University Library, Downing P. O'Harra, librarian, has announced that students will be called to the phone only when the call is necessary. Students are asked to observe this ruling. Please do not call for others unless it is urgent.

FRESHMAN TRACK TEAM TO BE BIG

Numerous State High School Champs Are on Team

While varsity track men in various events continue early indoor workouts, Coach Harry Marr announced that freshman track prospects are the best in years, and the number to come out for track is also expected to be larger.

Although the first official call for freshman men will not be issued until after finals, numerous former state champions in high school will be on hand for the team.

Zimeri Cox, formerly at East High, is one of the main freshmen out this year, he placed first in the 220-yard dash and the 220-yard low hurdles, and second in the 100-yard dash at the state finals last year.

Warren Tomlinson, another from East High, placed second in the state high school meet in the broad jump last year. Lyle Sturdy, in the 1938 state finals, placed first in the 100 and 220-yard dashes; and Walter Morgan last year placed second in the 100-yard dash. Doug McAnulty, who placed first in the 100 and 220-yard dashes in the 1938 state meet, is also in the team.

Other frosh track prospects of importance are Bill McAfee in the weight events, J. I. Wolfe as a sprinter, Paul Mason in the javelin, and Gale Aldrich in the hurdles.

FAVORITES ARE NAMED

A small, unofficial survey of students on the campus by members of Roundtable has revealed that Dr. Hugo Wall, Dr. Henry Osgard, Dr. John Rydjord, Dr. Charles E. Lane, Dr. Forest L. Whan, and Dr. Clement W. Sievers are among the favorite instructors on the campus.
