SPAETH WILL SPEAK HERE THIS EVENING

Foremost Man of Music To Be Presented Through Forum

Dr. Sigmund Spaeth, one of the foremost men in music today, will appear on the Student Forum this evening at 8 o'clock, has always been musical, according to his half-brother, Dr. J. Duncan Spaeth, visiting professor of English.

Dr. Spaeth's lecture tonight will be on "Music for Fun," one of his favorite topics. There will be illustrations on the piano.

"When we were young," Dr. Spaeth said, "my brother played the violin, our sister was a pianist, and I played the church organ. My brother has a good voice, but doesn't profess to be a singer."

Pursuing his hobby, Dr. Spaeth obtained his Ph.D. from Princeton University with a dissertation on Milton's "Knowledge of Music"; then he taught music at Ashville, N.C.

Spaeth Is McFarland

In 1912 he went to New York as a free lance writer. Later he translated a German opera by G. Schirmer, edited the Opera Magazine; and was for four years music critic of the Evening Mail, and wrote for such magazines as Life, Saturday Evening Post.

"He first won the name of 'Tune Detective' when he was about 30 years old," his brother pointed out, "when he saw in the song, 'Yes, We Have No Bananas,' part of Handel's 'Hallelujah Chorus.' Since then he has appeared as expert witness in court cases involving musical plagiarism.

"My brother has done much to stimulate enthusiasm for music in America, especially among young people. In his books, on his radio program, and in movie shorts in which he has appeared, he shows the enjoyment that can be found in music."

Ballads Are Official

His interest in folk songs and the old time barber shop harmony manifests itself in his latest book, "Barber Shop Ballads," which contains many of the old-time favorites. It has been named the official song book of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, with headquarters in Tulsa, Okla.

Thomas Hart Benton, contemporary controversial artist, will appear as the last speaker on the Student Forum series May 2.

BOTANY DEPARTMENT MAKES PLANT EXHIBIT

Unusual plants from the botany greenhouse are being exhibited in the new glass display case, latest piece of equipment to be installed by botany department.

The Wardion case, as it is called, is lighted and provides a vivid setting for the plants. The case is currently displaying a gardenia plant, now in bloom, tulips, chrysanthemums, and two grafted cacti.

The case has been placed in the south end of Science Hall.

Reporter Concludes Hippodrome Theme Must Be 'Anything Goes' After Interview

Myers, Smith, Masters

Of Ceremonies Are Mysterious

By JOSEPHINE RICE

"Anything Goes!" seems to be the slogan for the annual Hippodrome, Saturday, April 27, as far as your inquiring reporter can ascertain from those two elusive creatures, Gaylord and Ethel Jane.

"With the wind and rain in her hair" Myers, potential master and mistress of ceremonies for the Hippodrome.

In search of the truth we tottered into Miss Myers' boudoir one evening this week. The glamorous Ethel, reclining on her couch reading a good book, slowly raised her eyes in her best "Hedy LaMyers" manner, and confided, "the whole thing's a mystery to me." In spite of this reporter's pleading and caressing, Miss Myers would say no more, except that she would personally interview anyone who wished to appear on the Hippodrome program, "especially party boys."

On the other hand, when we finally cornered the aforesaid Mr. Smith, he did nothing but talk. Brushing his curly locks from his forehead, Mr. Smith told us about his love, what he thought of the political situation, what kind of cereal he ate for breakfast, and that he thought the automobile would never replace the old-fashioned horse and buggy.

By exercising all of our well-known patience, we were able to sift through the first few hours, but we finally asked him point blank about the Hippodrome. We gathered from his well chosen remarks that the Hippodrome this year will be "bigger and more colossal than ever before," but it will be "impromptu and utterly wacky."

"Anyone who wants to volunteer their services can contact me beforehand, or merely appear that night ready for service," said Mr. Smith, blushing coyly.

As we staggered to the door Mr. Smith was still muttering about a bigger and better Hippodrome in his own inimitable manner, but we must forgive and forget for, as we always say, a "boy's best friend is his mother."

Eyesapoppin'! Anything Goes!

This may be reason for alarm, but it's only Master and Mistress of Ceremonies Gaylord Smith and Ethel Jane Myers who proclaim that the Hip-Hip-Hippodrome will have "No Theme." Whatever is a "poppin'" on the night of Saturday, April 27, will come as a complete surprise to them, Mr. Smith declares, for anything goes!

Each year many current problems of education are discussed and solved at the conventions. Many nationally known speakers and educators attend them.

Convention headquarters will be in the Stevens Hotel in Chicago.

The selection of the Queen was broadcast over Station KANS from 1 to 1:30 p.m. Short speeches were also made by the judges and candidates in the contest.

Holiday' Is Return Play To Be Given April 5 In Auditorium

"Holiday," the successful comedy by Philip Barry will be presented by the University of Kansas players tomorrow night in the University Auditorium. Activity tickets will be honored.

Philip Barry succeeds in creating interesting true-to-life men and women in the play. He probes beneath the glitter of social prestige of the family of Edward Seton, to reveal the aims and aspirations, the likes and dislikes of the family.

The story of the play concerns Johnny Case, a charming young man, who enters into the wealthy family of the Setons. He has met the oldest daughter of Mr. Seton at a winter carnival at Lake Placid, and has come to New York to meet Mr. Seton. Johnny seems to be making progress until he admits his desire to take an extended holiday trip while he and his bride are still young enough to enjoy it.

But his bride-to-be, Julia, thinks that Johnny should settle down to a routine job as soon as the wedding is over. As Julia's demands becomes more insistent Johnny begins to notice her younger sister Linda, in whom his ideas strike a responsive chord.

One is permitted to watch the gradual transfer of Johnny's affections, which is one of the most interesting parts of the play. At the end, when Johnny elopes with Linda, everyone approves his second choice.

In the moving picture version of the play, Cary Grant starred as Johnny Case, and Katherine Hepburn played the part of Linda.

This will be the fifth exchange play between the University of Kansas and the University of Wichita.

In presenting the lecture, Dean

Facing the Issue

Pröposition:

DO you think the United States Government has any right to ask its citizens to answer the census questions which they seem to object to so much?

Reaction:

1. Fredene Goldstein, University senior: "Census takers perform a most valuable function in any democracy. It is only through census takers that we have a true index of our population shifts, the number of unemployed and the true housing situation in the United States. Honest congressional elections depend, to a great extent, upon the revelation of census takers. The silly attack of Senator Tobey is more undemocratic than the census taking he so brands."

2. Ed Kessinger, University junior: "I believe the United States government has a perfect right to take the present census. It makes a very practical survey which can be put to many uses. It is only in this way that we know what the people are doing in our country and as the old saying goes—just how the other half lives."

3. Jane Harvey, University junior: "The United States government should regularly take the census. I believe they have valuable information in them which is an aid to research studies. All of this material can be put to some use. For example I can think of many uses it could be put to in a home economics class where the American family, the way they live, and budgets are studied. This information is all confidential so I do not think people should object."

4. Malcolm Nicholson, University junior: "I believe that this census taking is all very impertinent and I don't like to see it being done. If the material could be of some very necessary use then it would be all right, or if it leads to some social advantage. But some of the questions are not pertinent to what the government needs to know and some are too personal."

5. Merrell Kirkpatrick, University senior: "I think the United States government has every right in the world to know these things that they are asking for, and people should not fuss about cooperating. They probably have a reason for it all because if they didn't they would never go to all that trouble and expense."

6. Bette Archer, University senior: "I think it is the duty of every citizen to cooperate with the government. Since it doesn't do them any harm to answer the questions and will help the government in some survey, why not answer the questions?"

7. Howard Jenkins, University junior: "It is a way of finding our population, the wealth in the land, unemployment and the age of the people are a few of the things for which this present census does for the country. In case of war something like this would be very helpful to the government. They could find the men of money more easily and also which ones have families. It will also help in many other situations."

Parking Problem Is Solved

CONGRATULATIONS are in store for the Board of Regents. Last week they voted to include $500 in next year's budget for the relief of parking congestion. They are to be complimented for recognizing the situation, and for doing something about it.

Nothing will be done this spring, according to Comptroller Roy W. Elliott. The appropriation will not be available until the budget has been approved by the board before school convenes next fall. The money then will be used to expand the present parking lot east of the new Library.

When accommodations have been furnished, the administration will make a set of regulations designed to clear the drives of the overflow they carry at present. The newly enlarged lot will more than handle the situation as it stands at present. Mr. Elliott intimated that parking on one side of the drives may be prohibited in order to allow traffic to flow more freely.

There then will be less danger of cars sideswiping when passing. Persons wishing to cross the street will have wider visibility, and the appearance of the drives will be enhanced. Autos will be cleared away from curves, permitting freedom for the motorist in turning.

Meanwhile Mr. Elliott has some suggestions to make. It seems to him, he says, that Yale Avenue is an ideal channel for inflowing traffic. By driving a block further east, students can evade the lines of traffic at the Fairmount and Hillside entrances. They can drive directly into the parking lot from the street, and usually find an empty parking place awaiting them. This can be done, he explained, if you're willing to walk 50 steps.

He said at one time he discovered 50 parking spaces open in the present lot. No rules for the drives will be instituted this year, however, because the lot would not accommodate all the cars.

With plans for a sorority row adjoining Yale Avenue, it is expected that the parking space to be made available on the east side of the campus will tend to move activity in that direction. Only one sorority has definitely announced intentions to build in the near future, however.

There is a possibility, too, that if the new stadium ultimately to be constructed is a "bowl" it will be constructed on the northeast corner of the campus. If this is done the expanded lot would also help serve football crowds which have previously taxed facilities for blocks around.

Oliver's TRAVELS

CHANGES HAVE BEEN MADE in the Sunflower for the remainder of the semester, and our friend Charley Poe is promoted to feature editor. But before going, he warns of our sure-attack enemies and the unpopularity of a columnist—but what have we got to lose. His final admonition of the year is about the snow fences, but we aren't sure what he wants said about them. Unless—yes, could be—maybe balmy weather and beautiful campi don't suggest snow fences to Charley.

BIGGEST news of the week is that ELLIOTT the registration plan for the coming elections has been turned down by President Jardine. And maybe so, in view of the howl always raised when a change in politics is made. Nevertheless, both coalition leaders are really in favor of clean politics—and this isn't pre-campaign ballyhoo either.

IT IS DEFINITE that both sides wanted a fair and equal representation in politics. And ideas towards this end can be placed in public view through this column.

A FELLOW need not even move (a happy thought) to learn that Gay Smith's Hippodrome theme is to be "No Theme," and that makes everything possible, claims Gay. Bob Brown, publisher of the Library Bulletin, is expecting soon to have the largest circulation of any library publication on the campus if the Board of Publications will only recognize his little gem. Professor Wright is going to get some acceptance to his annual offer of giving some bedsteads to likely grooms, 'cause Ray Nelson, and Carl Auchterton in his banking class had a queer look in their eye—or is it spring fever.

TWO WORTHY events coming up are the Art Ball April 6, see Mac Myers for further information; and traveling to the Innes Tea Room April 10 for the Blue Key's first annual senior All-Sports Banquet will be no mistake either. Honored guests are the senior lettermen in each sport, and this sounds like the beginning of a swell affair with a reliable sponsor in the Blue Key boys.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL again shows true democracy by asking for suggestions for council action by placing a ballot box on the first floor of the Administration Building. Here's hoping some of the reformers of the school take advantage of this idea box. It is under the leadership of Prez Ross Denison, who is full of swell ideas, and it is about time this campus wakes up and discovers that they have a "model" Student Council leader. He has made fewer enemies and more friends, since becoming council head, than any other president in plenty of years back.

ENDING in typical Poe style (you can't change too suddenly) and encouraged by Professor Allman, here comes a poem from the London Morning Post—that ought to be far enough away.

OUR LAWLESS LANGUAGE
"We'll begin with a box, and the plural is boxes;
But the plural of ox should be oxen, not oxes.
Then one fowl is a goose, but two are called geese,
Yet the plural of mouse should never be mice!
You may find a lone mouse or whole nest of mice,
But the plural of house is houses, not hice!
If the plural of man is always called men,
Why shouldn't the plural of pen be called pen?
If I speak of a foot, and you show me your feet,
And I give you a boot—would a pair be called beet?
If one is a tooth, and a whole set are teeth,
Why should not the plural of booth be called beeth?
Then one may be that and three would be those,
Yet hat in the plural would never be hose;
And the plural of cat is cats, and not cose!
We speak of a brother, and also of a brethren,
Then the masculine pronouns are he, his, and him,
But imagine the feminine, she, shis, and shim!
So English, I fancy, you all will agree,
Is the funniest language you ever did see!"

THE American Youth Congress, which recently convened in Washington and was then accused of being "Left of Left, and Pinker than Pink," is conservative in its demands for aid to college students through the NYA, compared to the University of North Carolina in 1937. A paragraph in the catalogue for that year states:

"The Faculty are authorized in all cases, when the applicant is a native of the state, sustains a fair moral character, and, upon examination, is believed to possess the requisite mental endowments, natural and acquired, and is unable to pay the tuition fees, to admit him into any class, for which he may be prepared, without charge either for tuition or room and board."

Naming of Ideal 'Artist's Model' Will Take Place At Colorful Art Club Dance at Allis Hotel, April 6

Colorful Masks, Brilliant Lights to Feature Decorations Of Semi-Formal Pi Beta Chi Dance

ELABORATE AND COLORFUL MASKS of every size and description will decorate the brilliantly-lighted ballroom of the Allis Hotel this Saturday night, April 6, when Pi Beta Chi, honorary art fraternity, holds their first annual spring semi-formal dance.

Outstanding event of the evening will be the selection of an ideal "Artist's Model" from among a group of coeds representing each sorority and the Barb organization. Candidates include Janis Reynolds, Alpha Tau Sigma; Betty Alford, Barbs; Marjorie Kirkwood, Sorosis; Lois Dobbins, Delta Omega; Ramona Branson, Epsilon Kappa Rho; and Harriet Wilson, Pi Kappa Psi. Judges will be a group of prominent downtown artists.

Unusual feature of the decorations will be a huge mask standing 8 feet in height which will be illuminated by colored flood lights from all sides. One mask to be prominently displayed is to resemble the face of Clayton Henri Staples, head of the art department, who will make one of his first appearances at the dance since his recent illness. All decorations, masks, and posters at the dance are being made by University art students.

Plans are being made to present a program at intermission in which each fraternity will have a part. The dance is an all-school affair and tickets will be available at the door or from students enrolled in the University art department.

Jay Andrews and his Bandbox orchestra from Omaha, Neb., will play for the dancing from 9 to 12 p.m.

Malcolm Myers is chairman of the dance, assisted by Betty Bob Harper, Harold Shigley, Walter Lengel, and Garnett Cox.

A partial list of guests will include:

Wheaties to Have Leap Year Dance

Sports Theme Will Prevail At Party on April 20

Plans for a Wheaties dance to be held in Henrion Gymnasium April 20, from 9 to 12 p.m. are being made by Jean Braly, chairman of the affair.

The admission price for couples is 35 cents and stages 50 cents. Only girls will be admitted as stages so as to carry out the leap year idea. The ticket sale started yesterday and tickets may be obtained from girls in each sorority.

A collegiate theme is to prevail at the dance, according to Miss Braly, and sports clothes will be worn. Music will be furnished by a nickelodeon.

New officers of Wheaties for the coming year will be presented during the evening by Catherine Deric, president of the organization.

Heading the various committees are Peggy Coates, tickets; Venora Layman, music; Frances Anderson, decorations, and Kathleen Keating, finance.

"We're as new to this as pigs to baths, But we'll try real hard to learn how fast. So bear with us till we give you some laughs. It'll beat anything you've heard in the past."

Dear Ed and Coed,

Roundabouting this week we heard that "Bowler" Lyman Smith had quite a little trek recently. Seems as if the family bus was tied up at the last minute and he had to walk his gal—and Jim tells us he walked her 14 miles—maybe they took a short-cut through Newton . . . and Mary of the Dyer's raised eyebrows at the varsity 'other night when she declined a dance with Barb saying she must save this one for her date—then turned around and floated away in another's arms—not date.

It rained red raspberries not long ago when a city photographer invaded the Kappa Rho house and announced he was there to take an appointed picture concerning fencing. None knew of what he spoke but obliging members willingly loaned him Model Mickie—just before leaving he remarked casually, "Let's see, this is the Psi Kappa Psi house, isn't it?" Oh . . . MAN!

Bob told us to tell our "Talk-alot" Craig to tell Council members that the "great, unknown hordes of Bars" on the campus should not be allowed a May Queen vote because they were personally unknown to the Student Council members recording the votes at the polls while a more optimistic member of the same Council was convinced that the "Barb votes are already bottled" because of the new registration deal—well, maybe faint heart never won anything but actions do speak louder than words . . .

A surprise to you will be the marriage of Taylor and Ridings—our felicitations and best of luck . . . Guess the Pi Kaps hit a new high the other night on their serenade what with "I'll" and "blond" Dragan the gal lending the romantic touch . . . speaking of Dragan, some say a certain blond Gamma with a "fig-me-out-if-you-can" line was her inspiration—wish we knew the secret behind that deal and this year's independency.

Phi Sigs are relating to all who hear the woeful tale of "Deer-eyed" Clothier who appeared in knickers at last week's frat dance and promptly climbed to the Commons rooftop just for the view. Moral is that Custodian Gene made him wait a full half hour before letting him down through the stage trap door and then necessity forced him to walk barefooted and knickered across the entire length of the dance floor to retrieve his shoes left outside the door . . . From up here Sunflower way in "The Loft" we're getting the tenderest views on the Kiskadden-Reid development—you know, love can really hurt.

Well, chums, "Careen Girl With A Vengeance" Russell has got herself a job, "Bandbox" Anderson of the Pi Kaps is still in her bandbox, and we're leaving before we're asked. Yours,
Sue and Gracie

P. S. We left out the Pi Alphas cause "Bulldog-Jawed" George McCreary appointed himself official reviewer, and he didn't do his duty.

SHOCKERS TO MAKE HOME TRACK DEBUT FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Friends, Southwestern, El Dorado, and Ark City To Furnish Opposition for Local Team In Five-Way Stadium Event

Four schools—Friends University, Southwestern College, El Dorado Junior College, and Arkansas City Junior College—will furnish track opposition for Shocker cindermen Friday, April 5, in Shocker Stadium, when the University team makes its first home appearance of the current season.

The Texas Relays, largest outdoor track event in the Midwest, were originally on the schedule of the track squad for this week-end; however, the poor appearance of several of the men whom Coach Harry Marr depended upon to win points in the Texas meet caused him to arrange the five-way meet.

Local Interest Is High
"This meet will be of more interest to local fans," said Coach Marr, "and instead of taking a few boys to Texas, we decided to have a meet in which a greater number of men can participate."

Little is known by University coaches as to the prowess of the four visiting schools, but Southwestern has a dash man who was clocked in 9.9 seconds on the 100-yard dash last week, and who is also an outstanding performer in the 220, Layton, star football player and discus thrower from Arkansas City, is expected to furnish competition for Tom Logan, sophomore discovery of Coach Marr, who recently placed first in the event against the Oklahoma Aggies.

Marr Is Confident
"We hope to take first in this meet," continued Coach Marr, "and unless these other four schools are strong in different events and scatter the points, I believe we will have a good chance to do it."

The meet is scheduled to begin at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in Shocker Stadium. Admission is free.

ARROW CLASSICS

Gordon Dover

1. The authentic Gordon Dover oxford shirt ranks first with undergraduates because of the distinctive button-down roll collar that curves away from the tie-knot. (Dubbed 'semester shirt' because of its longevity.)

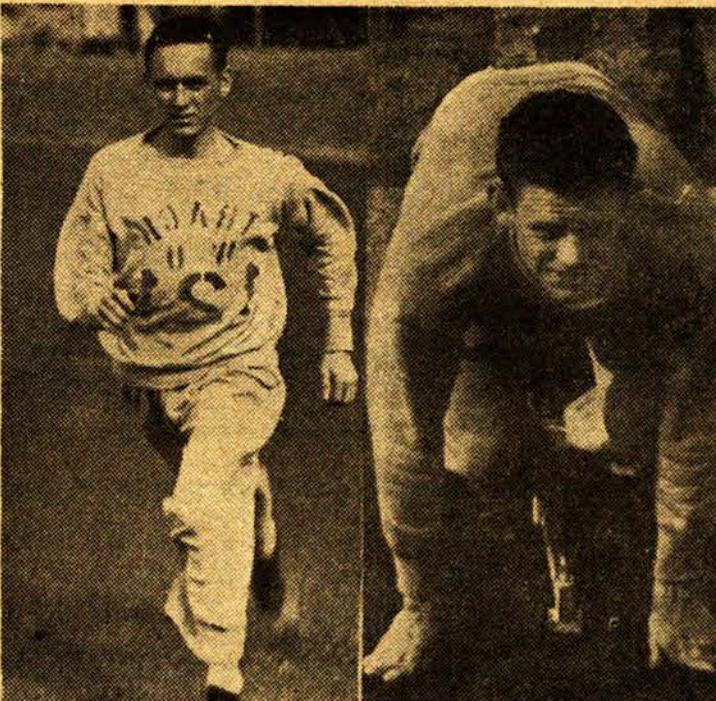

2. The Sussex: a new Arrow shirt for fall, has a low drape—moderately wide-spread collar. Currently favored in England, the Arrow Sussex is destined to be a 'campus must.' Very smart and flattering.

3. For fall tab shirts should comprise  $\frac{1}{4}$  of your wardrobe. Their upish appearance add dignity and poise. The Windsor tab collar has square cut points with a higher band around the neck. A prerequisite for those men with a propensity for long necks.

All Arrow shirts are Mitoga cut and Sanforized-Shrunk (fabric shrinkage less than 1%). In whites and neat patterns—almost a give away at $2 and $2.50. All sleeve lengths and neck sizes.

Ready for Meet Friday

Ray Kite, Shocker hurdler and high jumper, and Wayne McMillen, Wichita's outstanding distance runner, are snapped as they get into condition for the track meet Friday when the locals will compete against four other schools in the first home track meet of the season.

OKLAHOMA TEAM BEATS SHOCKERS IN TRACK EVENT ON OKLAHOMA TRIP

Low Shockers Score Due To Aggies Entering Larger Group

Displaying the form which has made them one of the most feared track teams in the United States, the Oklahoma Aggies of Stillwater, Okla., defeated the Shockers in the first dual meet of the season at Stillwater last Saturday.

The final score stood at 100-31 in favor of the Aggies; however, according to Coach Harry Marr, the performance of the local team was not as poor as the score indicates.

"They had three men entered to our one in every event," said Coach Marr, "which accounts for the wide difference in the score. We placed in every event but two, which shows the strongest all-around strength that has appeared in a University track team in recent years."

Forrest Efaw, Aggie distance man and national 10,000-meter champion, defeated Wayne McMillen, Shocker ace in the mile run, in addition to winning the two-mile run. Bob Christian, captain of the University team, led Wichita scoring by placing first in the 220-yard run and second in the 440-yard. He is also a member of the medley relay team.

Alex Males, sophomore football star, won the javelin throw and Tom Logan, also a sophomore football player, threw the discuss 127.4 feet to take top honors in this event. Ray Kite, sophomore from the basketball squad, gave a very promising performance, in Coach Marr's opinion, by placing second in the high jump and broad jump, and third in pole vault and hurdles.

The small squad that made the trip to Stillwater placed first in three events, second in three, and third in eight.

Peggin' Away

By PEGGY BYRNES
NOW THAT SPRING has rolled round once more (after a statement like that we should get no less than a blizzard!), business should be pickin' up around the gym what with all the inter-society competition comin' up. Now there's tennis—Champ Hartman can be found 'most any day wieldin' her racket on the courts—Gettin' in shape to defend her title, no doubt! Wonder who'll give her the most competition now that Bennett is no longer on the campus? Y'know, this intramural race for the sports plaque is gettin' mighty interestin'. DO's, Pi Kaps, and Alpha Toots are all in there, fightin' hard, and but four competitive sports remain to figure in the scorin'—tennis, baseball, archery, and golf. Last year you will remember the Barbs won the baseball tournament—it took a combined Vandal and Viking team to do it though. The Pi Kaps added 20 points to their score by virtue of Tommie's tennis victory while the archery championship went the way of the Delta Omegas, and Shelton of Soraia clan won out in the golf tourney. From the looks of that record we'd say it's anybody's plaque—so far!

N WHILE WE'RE wonderin' N about things, what about these Barbs? Are we gonna have to hear that big "noise" about how horribly the poor Barb girls are being abused because they are forced to produce two teams while the Greeks have only one a sorority? Tsk! Tsk! It really does seem a shame that since the Barbs have such a limited number, ONLY some 300 girls, that they should be expected to get 18 of 'em together to form a couple of teams! Well one thing is certain—whatever they're gonna do, they better hurry up and do it—baseball games start next Wednesday!

Gongrats to Dedrick, Melcher, Alexander, Douglass, Hartman, and Shelton of the basketball varsity. Sounds like a plenty swell team! Here's to 'em—may they beat the sox off Friends.

RARICK PLANS INTRAMURALS FOR SPRING

Record Number Enter Sports Programs This Year

Preparations for one of the most extensive spring programs of intramural sports in the history of the University have been completed by intramural director Dr. Lawrence G. Rarick who announced this week that more participants have entered the intramural sports program this year than at any time since he assumed direction of the department in 1937.

Tuesday, April 9, has been set by Dr. Rarick for the intramural track meet, which is one of the year's outstanding intramural events. Last year Holyoke Hall's powerful squad dominated by securing 11 firsts and scoring 88 points to their nearest opponent's 27.

Two members of the team, Kite and Logan, are members of Coach Harry Marr's varsity squad this year. They must be replaced if Holyoke wishes to continue domination of this sport. Some of the defending title holders in the meet will be Holyoke's Roy Mitchell, who last year won firsts in the 880-yard dash, the 120-yard high hurdles, and the pole vault; Holyoke's Williams, 220-yard dash winner; Bill Buser of the Alpha Gams, mile record holder; and Dick McPherson of the Phi Sigs, whose javelin toss of 153-feet 1-inch is an intramural record.

Both groups are said to have good chances of winning. The golfers this year are the best the Shockers have had in the past five years. They will find their stiffest competition at Norman where the Big Six golf crown perennially rests.

Captain Edgar Turner, Bob Kirkpatrick and Don Dushane are consistent performers. Turner has played on the varsity two years, Kirkpatrick and Dushane one year apiece and the fourth man, Paul Hesse, a sophomore, has played here.

Spring tennis and horseshoes are the other spring sports which will begin shortly. The Ramblers and the Alpha Gams have dominated in tennis in the past and both organizations have indicated that they will place a large number of entries in the tournament.

Announcement of the women's 1940 basketball varsity has been made by Tommie Hartman, intramural manager.

Members of the varsity are: forwards—Lois Shelton, Tommie Hartman, and Jane Ann Douglas; guards—Catherine Dedrick, Larry Melcher, and Betty Alexander. Alternates are Dot Taylor, Margot Cloutier, and Jean McLean.

To be eligible for the varsity a girl must have been out for five practices and have participated in a three-fourths of her team's games. This varsity will schedule a game with Friends University and the alumnae group. Emblems will be awarded to the varsity.

UNIVERSITY IS GIVEN BILL OF RIGHTS COPY

Framed copies of the American Bill of Rights have been presented to the University by the Wichita Exchange Club, according to Dean Earl K. Hillbrand, of the Extension Division.

The Club gave the University five copies of the Bill of Rights. They have been placed in the president's office, the history office, Dean Hillbrand's office, and in classrooms. An unframed copy of the document is posted outside the Extension Division office on a bulletin board.

DeLaMater and Douglas Are High Scorers

BULLETIN
Alpha Tau defeated Pi Kappa last night by a score of 16-12 to win first place in the inter-society basketball tournament. Trailing throughout the game, the Pi Kaps rallied at the beginning of the fourth quarter, but the loss of two players on foul put an end to their streak. Alpha Tau was undefeated in the tournament.

With the completion of the Alpha Tau-Pi Kappa game the women's basketball tournament ended last night.

Competition has been keen throughout the tournament with the Alpha Tau and the Pi Kaps leading all the way. Many of the games have been very close with several surprising upsets. Doris DeLaMater and Jane Ann Douglas led in individual scoring. Last week the Vandals tied Soraia, and the Pi Kaps defeated Delta Omega 14 to 7.
