PEGASUS' ANNUAL HORSESHOW TO BE FRIDAY, MAY 17

Judges for the show which will be held at the Bridle and Saddle Club, May 17, are Maj. Ralph Poe and Mrs. W. G. Lackey. Mrs. Lackey will judge children's events. These will include children who are the pupils of Mary Lou Stratton. Ribbons will be awarded to all winners.

The owner's class event is open to any University boy or girl who wishes to enter and ride a Wichita-owned horse. Other events on the program include: equitation for beginners, and advanced riders, inter-society pair class riding, games for beginners, and exhibition riding.

Any girl, whether a member of Pegasus or not, may enter the competition.

FIFTY STUDENTS TAKE FIELD TRIP

Sociologists Visit Winfield For Investigation

Fifty sociology students went to Winfield on a field trip Friday, starting at noon, according to Dr. Albert E. Croft, head of the sociology department.

"They visited all the wards," he said, "to study the various types of inmates. A trip of this type is valuable because: (1) It gives students a chance to study a good biological foundation for the good of sociology; (2) It shows need for purifying family stocks; (3) It reveals a tremendous problem that exists in safeguarding society from influences of unsupervised morons."

Dr. Croft stated that sometimes there were normal people sent to Winfield by mistake and that the students sometimes discover this fact and help to get them released from the institution.

He said that Winfield has the fourth lowest cost in the world for upkeep. The institution is operated on 15 cents a day per inmate.

"The biggest need for cleaning up these institutions," he added, "is to have a strong civil service system."

Horse Show Director

Mary Jayne Brennan, sophomore, is chairman of Pegasus, second annual horse show, to be held Friday, May 17, at 2:30 p. m. at the Bridle and Saddle Club.

The orchestra of 22 pieces recently presented a concert in Tulsa, where it was declared to be one of the finest musical organizations of its kind in the Midwest.

Efforts are being made to present the best program of our history," said Professor Lamont. "I am sure the program will be enjoyed by everyone."

A Scarlatti's concerto, "Grosso in F Minor" will be symbolic of some of the first instrumental music written after that type was separated from vocal music when played by the orchestra.

The group also will play a waltz from the Serenade for String Orchestra by Tchaikovsky. Variations of a theme by Tchaikovsky, by Arensky, also will be presented.

Modern music will be featured on the program with Professor Lamont's transcription of "Pictures for Children" by Rebikov. No admission will be charged.

CRITICS GIVE PAPER FIRST CLASS RATING

Newspaper Service Gives 1940 Honor Rating To Sunflower

First class honor rating for 1940 has been awarded to the Sunflower in the twenty-second All-American Newspapers Critical Service conducted by the Associated Collegiate Press.

In all 406 college newspapers were judged and rated. These were classified according to the enrollment of the colleges where they are published and the frequency of appearance.

Judgment of the papers was based upon the Sunflowers published during the first semester when the staff consisted of Sam Smith as editor and Catherine Dedrick as managing editor.

This is the sixth consecutive year, since 1934, that the Sunflower has maintained a high score in national competition.

"Competition in the national contest grows keener each year," said Prof. Leo W. Allman, head of the journalism department. "More papers are entered and they are better their standards in order to meet requirements of judges. The Sunflower staff is to be congratulated, for it is fortunate to maintain its high rating since 1934."

Some of the demerits on the Sunflower grade card included Cheltenham headlines, which judges thought should be modernized; the editorial page, which they thought should be free of advertising matter; and more exact identification of alumni items.

Facing the Issue

Proposition:

SHOULD America modify the Neutrality Act and the Johnson Act in order to permit loans to the Allies:

Reaction:

1. Irwin Lanning, University freshman—"I would never be in favor of such a proposition. We would only be sticking our necks out, so to speak. It would only mean definitely taking sides in the war. Also it would be the same old story—we would run a big chance of not getting our money back again, just as in the World War."

2. Frank Hafer, University junior—"Since I am not in favor of war, I do not think we should have anything to do with any of the foreign countries. It is their war, and they should fight it as best they can. If we start loaning the Allies money, we will be drawn into it just as we were before."

3. Clyde Roy, University junior—"This is a difficult question to answer. One may as well ask 'Should we enter the war to aid the Allies?' I feel that this is what would actually happen if the laws were changed. To be recognized as a neutral and to expect the rights and privileges of a neutral we must be a neutral. To directly aid the Allies with loans, which we could not hope to have repaid, would be virtual participation in the war and soon would be quite active participation. Since our losses are almost certain to be more than our gains, I think we should not modify the present laws, at this time at any rate. Perhaps at a later date, if we should have to enter the war, our whole hearty support should be given. At this time such support as the Neutrality Act and the Johnson Acts should be removed."

4. Virginia Smith, University junior—"I do not believe we should loan money to the Allies. After all, we have no assurance of ever getting it back, and this would sooner or later shake our none-too-stable economic structure. When the United States lends money it will break any pretensions of neutrality, and other steps could so easily follow whereby we would wake up to find ourselves in the very midst of the conflict."

5. Hope Hinkle, University sophomore—"I do not believe that America should modify these two acts because it would result in international complications that would tend to lead us into the war. Under the present circumstances loans to the Allies would amount to the United States giving them direct assistance in their prosecution of the present war. Which, in turn would give Germany and possibly Japan justification for adopting an attitude of aggression towards the United States."

6. Marion Hopkins, University junior—"I do not believe we should loan money to the Allies. Although I am not for the Germans I think this would show too much prejudice. And it would have a bad effect on our relations with Germany."

7. Gustave Levey, University freshman—"Yes, I believe we should modify the Neutrality Act but cease to call it neutrality. Are we neutral? The consensus of American opinion is overwhelmingly in favor of an Allied victory. Why? For love of the British or French? No, but because of quite natural dislike for the type of totalitarianism that threatens to tread on our personal pecuniary toes. We are certainly less neutral now than in 1914 when Germany recommended the respect of the civilized world from a pinnacle of cultural advance. Hitler's legions are proving the fallacy of a feigned neutrality. The defaulted debts? But what of the tremendous American interest in a defeated British and Dutch empire? Which loss is preferable, with or without an Allied victory?"

Newsmen Play Big Part

LIBERTY magazine's anonymous senator's daughter who has written a series of articles on life at the nation's capitol said in a slightly satirical vein in the opening story that 50 newspapermen are responsible for the ideas behind important Congressional movements.

These correspondents make up the famed Gridiron Club. They are representatives of the various wire services and correspondents of larger daily newspapers. The senators and representatives were characterized by the young lady (who is a member of the "exclusive" Dot Club) as a bunch of stiff shirts with stringent social obligations.

The real worth-while action in Washington's chambers, she inferred, is the work of the newsmen. While the magazine article probably stretched the truth somewhat for reader-effect, there is little doubt but what her statements are truthful. Many politicians gain seats in the Senate for six-year periods and at once forget their obligations to constituents. They may fail to be representative again until the fifth or sixth year rolls around.

Perhaps the part of the newsmen is obscure, or seems to be so, since it appears he merely reports the actions of others. Seldom is his name attached to copy which he writes. But his task is much more than recording what someone else has said or done.

Persons credited with exceptionally well-worded press statements often are surprised to find themselves speaking intelligently in print after blundering repeatedly in talking to the reporter. That which is printed usually presents the thought desired by the person quoted, although there are exceptions to this.

But perhaps the most important service of newsmen, and more probably what the senator's daughter means, is their practice of broaching new subjects which lie in their existing situations. They are alert to deliver different news by gaining opinions on questions vital to the readers.

The job of the Washington correspondent could easily lead to suggested action by Congress. If news is not available it is the task of the reporter to attempt to "make" it. When he does, he is sure to an inside story others will not find available. It's a stupid representative indeed who passes by these fountains of information springing from those in intimate touch with the people.

The campus has come to appreciate the part Sunflower reporters play in the promotion of University enterprises. Often they are able to offer constructive criticism when others are not sufficiently interested to speak. They do not possess the fact nor experience of the seasoned correspondent, of course, but there is, nevertheless, more than a thread of similarity.

University of Texas has eight of the world's 1,222 identified copies of early editions of Shakespeare's plays.

Oliver's TRAVELS

ACTION, at last, will be forthcoming on the stadium question on May 21, when the Board of Regents meet to take definite action on our stadium. Undoubtedly every student in the school hopes that the new project will be moved northward for two reasons. First, the stadium at the new site, would give bigger and better facilities for the general public; and second, the old field would offer improved grounds for intramural sports which actively interest considerably more than one-half of the students.

BARBS continue their aggressive policies as it is announced a national plan will be adopted at W. U., and this will tend to unify the Barbs still more. Also nice to know that Sue Cope was the first girl to be elected to the National Independent Association for Barb organizations, which is a boost for the prestige of the entire school. Sue was selected from a national delegation of more than 200 representatives to this board of five.

Only the Phi Alphas have a civilized record at the dinner table, as the Phi Sigs eat their mothers out of house and home, the Websters have a Turnabout Dinner and much fun is had by all, and the Alpha Gams have their regular noon riots over the sweet rolls.

THE JOURNALISM banquet still seems to be the outstanding event on the campus during the week, as publication appointments will be announced. The banquet will be broadcast over KPBI, and the main speaker will be Ralph W. Cessna, head of the Chicago news bureau of the Christian Science Monitor.

Sneak day really made a quiet campus yesterday—and they make cracks about the sophomores. It seems this day is nice for all concerned, and a day of spirited fun was had by a few.

KNOCKABOUT—Prez Denison gave a diamond away some time ago... and a certain fraternity football man put out a pin over the week-end... then "Nauseating" Nossaman has trouble with the police, a blonde, and the Gray household—and he takes his love so seriously, tsh, tsh.

Swede Farha as treasurer of the Gams sports a new buick, and the frat worries over the treasury... and old Harry Marr have a good time at the Gao dance—but then, what's a wife... Joe Shoemaker takes up sailing with difficulties... Hammond being chumped, or being foxy wonders a few... a sleep session last Monday eve in the library amused many—specially Mary Olmsted, Jean Braly, and Dorothy Thompson.

H. Brown promises a big name band next year says a PI Alpha, and that would be nice... understand Dean Hoare gives an interesting item about the time he and his class survived a watermelon patch... and finally Chet Barrett has novel way of cutting class by jumping out of the second floor of the Science Building.

Collegiate World

WHEN Harvard University's Widener Library is closed, students make use of a "Rube Goldberg invention" to return their books.

The complicated gadget is described by students in the "Goldberg" manner: "Student slides book (A) through slot (B), down slide (C) to tray (D). When enough books are on the tray a photoelectric beam (E) is intercepted, causing jack (F), which supports tray to sink to floor. Dropping of the tray sets off alarm clock (G), which rings and calls watchman (H), who comes and collects the books."

THE EMORY WHEEL, newspaper of Emory University, declaring that "since the professors divide students into classes it is safe to assume that all professors can also be divided into classes," offers these groupings:

- 1. The Killer type. He wants to kill off the lower third and thinks the best way is by overwork.
2. The Card type. He is a card, but not an ace. He's a 3x5 card. Outstanding is his index appeal.
3. The Spicy type. He has a lot of cheek and plenty of tongue to put in it. His lectures kick up intellectual sparks out of the academic flint.
4. The Skimmer type. The surfacing in his courses is fine. But the foundation is weak.
5. The Fatherly type. He is the unexpected father, always giving pop quizzes.
6. The Hard Rock type. You have to be more than a good musician to hit a high C under his joker. If he were a movie critic, he wouldn't even give the United States flag 48 stars.
7. The Uh-Man type—He doesn't know any punctuation except "uhs." For variety he throws in a "but us" now and then.
8. The Cocktail type. He whets your intellectual appetite. He knows a great deal but doesn't try to make everybody realize it.
9. The Candy-Between-Meals type. A course under him destroys your intellectual appetite.
10. The Axe-Grinder type. He can't sharpen his wits, so he has to grind an axe. Sometimes it's propaganda he grinds out.

Confucius Is Inspiration For Louisiana Coed Club

Good Clean 'Confucius Say' Jokes or Puns Are Qualifications for Admittance Seekers

UNIVERSITY, LA.—(ACP)—"Confucius say... please let humble philosopher rest in peace." Yes, that's what the ancient Chinese sage would probably say now, had he the power of speech. Jokes, of the parlor, dormitory, and barracks variety, have recently been attributed to that wise old seer.

Confucius has been the inspiration for the latest club to be organized on the Louisiana State University campus. A group of coeds, living in the freshman women's dormitory recently organized a "Confucius Say" Club. They hold meetings every night, at which time they gather for a "Chinese bull-session." According to the girls, the only qualification for admittance is a good clean, "Confucius Say" pun or joke.

Confucius, according to Marye Hicks, of Louise Garig Hall, said, "Change your mind often, good way to keep it clean."

Alice "Skip" Jordan is of the opinion that old Confucius was a past master of the art of "dancing" and attributes this punny expression to him... "Jitterbug who come in house with ice skates on cuts a rug!" Shirley Leche, another Confucius addict, says, "Man who sling mud is losing ground."

Christian Nearly Equals National Cinders Record

Wrong-Way Corrigan' of Track Develops As Star Quarter-Miler Succeeds after Bad Beginning

TWO OLD men were sitting in the stands in Shocker Stadium Saturday afternoon watching the progress of certain Shocker performers when one of the elderly gentlemen shifted his Spark Plug from one jaw to the other and remarked, "Ya know Oscar, he's a good boy—a dern good boy."

The gentleman about whom they were speaking had just finished galloping over a quarter-mile of cinders in the very fast time of 47.9 seconds—just 1.8 seconds slower than the national intercollegiate record and senior year at North High—then it got worse. The lettermen were called in to vote to see which members of the track squad would journey to the K. U. Relays. When Christian's name was brought up the Coach roared, "Never—he's liable to run behind the grandstand." Bob did not disappoint the coach. The mile relay team, of which he was then a member, set the record for that event at the relays; but—the team was disqualified because Bob had run in the wrong zone.

After he reached college, things began to change; he developed rapidly under the tutelage of Coach Marr. So rapidly, in fact, that he won the conference championship in the quarter-mile in his sophomore year. Since then Bob has been one of the outstanding quarter-milers of the Midwest, reaching the peak of his career Saturday when he ran the quarter-mile in 47.9.

Friday will find Bob yellowing under the black and yellow, or green as the suits may be, for the last time—the climax to one of the most spectacular careers in the track history of the University. Coach Marr paid him one of the greatest tributes that any coach can pay a member of his team when he said:

"I can't remember the day when Bob ever let me down. He never once broke training and was thoroughly dependable in every way. His whole career has been backed by one characteristic—fight and determination. A boy with the fight he has can't miss—anything you say about him will be no more than he deserves."

All we can say is that we agree with the two old gentlemen—he's a "dern good boy."

TRACK TEAM TO END YEAR AT EMPORIA

Wichita Expects Contest For Second Place With Hornets

University trackmen will see action for the last time this season—and for all seasons so far as Central Conference competition is concerned—when they meet the other five schools in the conference at Emporia Thursday and Friday.

The real contest, according to Track Coach Harry Marr, will be between Emporia and Wichita for second place. In his opinion, Pittsburg will more than double the score of any of the rest of the teams entered, to take the meet. Many outstanding stars will attend and several conference records are in danger of breaking.

Walt Revell of Pittsburg is expected to win both hurdle events with Ike Goldsmith of Emporia threatening all the way. Revell holds the national A. U. low hurdles record. Schrader, also of Pittsburg, will take the discus and shot and will seriously threaten Alex Males of Wichita for top honors in the javelin.

An abundance of dash and distance men will bring together the cream of the Midwestern track crop. Long-time rivals from Pittsburg and Wichita, Akins and Bob Christian, will tangle in the quarter-mile. For three years these two have nosed out one another by the narrowest of margins; only two weeks ago they met in a dual meet in Pittsburg. In this race Christian led all of the way until the final turn when Akins pulled up to finish in what many thought was a dead heat. The judges awarded first place to Akins.

Other outstanding performers will be Peterson, Liby, Zarker, and Wilcox of Emporia; Schrader, Cramer, Revell, and Brooker of Pittsburg; Christian, Kite, Kincaid, and Males of Wichita; Coelling of Fort Hays; Foran of St. Benedict's; and Cavanaugh and Montgomery of Southwestern.

SHOCKERS CARRY OFF LINK HONORS AT LAST MEETING

Golf Team Scores Ninth Straight Conference Championship

Climaxing their last year in the Central Conference the University golf and tennis teams won high honors at the conference meet Friday and Saturday in Emporia.

The golfers, led by Captain Edgar Turner, annexed their ninth straight conference championship and their ninth straight victory in intercollegiate play this season. They scored 16 points to win the title, but were hard-pressed by their perennially strong opponent, Emporia Teachers college, who had the advantage of playing on its own course. The Hornets scored 14 points.

The tennis team was barely eked out of the court title by Southwestern College which scored 9 points to the Shockers' 8. Harry Corbin, returning to the varsity squad after several years away from school, won the singles championship from heavily favored Olin Tucker of the Moundbuilders, last year's title winner.

Tucker and his teammate, Bill Schwartz, defeated Corbin and Ted Crist for the doubles title. The margin of victory was decided by the fact that Schwartz wasn't eliminated until the semi-finals of the singles while the nearest Shocker player, Crist, was eliminated in the quarter-finals.

Even though the Emporia Hornets won both the singles and doubles, the Shockers piled up enough points in both and combined them with the 5 points for first place earned in the four-ball matches to beat out the Teachers for first place.

Captain Turner was of the opinion that victory would have been more convincing had the team been able to familiarize itself with the Emporia Country Club course. As a result both he and Don Dushane had poor scores on their first 18 holes; they rallied on the remaining 54 for even par and total scores that gave them the championship.

Turner finished second to Hornet Sam Estep, shooting a 308 or 11 over par. Estep was medalist with 292. Other Shocker players totals were: Dushane 309, Kirkpatrick 312, and Hesse 314.

Lil' Abner Leads As Comic Choice In Recent Survey

LIL' ABNER is the favorite comic strip character according to a survey made by the customs and cultures class recently. Every member of the class asked 20 students to list favorite comic strips and state reasons for their preferences.

Lil' Abner was listed most frequently because the strip is a "combination of action and humor, it is distinctive, the situations are both clever and unusual, and there is just enough of the element of grotesqueness to make the strip extremely 'hoomerous'."

Other campus favorites in the order of their popularity are Popeye, Gasoline Alley, Orphan Annie, Dick Tracy, Joe Palooka, Donald Duck, and Henry.

Of every 1,000 college graduates who marry only 19 will be divorced, as compared with the general average of 164 divorces for every 1,000 marriages.

Trackmen Compete in East C. I. C. Meet

Coach Harry Marr is expecting these six Wichita trackmen to gain points for the Shockers in the Central Conference meet at Emporia today and Friday. This is the last conference meet for W. U.

GAMMAS TO TRY FOR VICTORIOUS PLAY-OFF SERIES

Ramblers Stand Second Among Eight Teams In Final Race

Concluding the regular intramural softball season with a rousing 13-3 victory over the Websters, the defending champion Alpha Gam squad remained undefeated in the 1940 season and established itself as outstanding favorites to win the play-off series to be held tonight at the Kansas Gas and Electric Company diamond.

In second place in final league standings, and favored by many to upset the highly-regarded Gammas is the Rambler aggregation, which has run rough-shod over all opposition except the champions and indeed were leading the fraternity men by a 5-0 in their encounter early in the season. The Gammas came from behind, however, and defeated them with a late inning rally aided by the excellent relief hurling of John St. John.

Holyoke Hall and the Barbs are the other teams eligible for the play-off series, but a victory for either seems somewhat remote. Holyoke Hall completed the season in undisputed possession of third place, but the Barbs were forced to defeat the Phi Sigs in a special play-off game, since they were deadlocked for fourth at the close of the schedule. The result was a 20-11 extra-inning triumph for the Barbs after the squad were deadlocked 8-8 at the conclusion of the regular playing time.

James Cope, slugging Rambler first sacker, continued his late-season batting attack to assume the lead in individual hitting with a percentage of .600. Merle Brock, Gamma outfielder and former batting leader slumped to sixth, while his teammate, Bert Lester, advanced to the runner-up position formerly occupied by Webster Max Feldner.

Five moundsmen maintained an undefeated pitching record this year, compared to none during the 1939 campaign. The five are Jones, Alpha Gam, with a record of six victories, Kooniz, Rambler, Worrell, Rambler, St. John, Alpha Gam, and Bishop, Holyoke Hall, all with one victory and no defeats.

A factor which may prove to be of importance in favor of the Gammas is that six members of the squad are veterans of Nite League competition and are accustomed to playing on an illuminated field, while only a few individuals on other teams have played under the lights.

Peggin' Away

By PEGGY BYRNES THAT Sorosis winning streak in the baseball tournament was decisively stopped by a hard-fighting Alpha Tau team Monday. You only have to notice Barrett's lovely shiner and Hege's stiff neck to know it really was a mighty fine game—even if Miss Hinton did start reversing decisions after the game was apparently over when every one had practically left.

There are three good reasons these days why the Sorosis girls aren't going to be moving the intramural sports plaque into their new house—namely, the Alpha Taus, D O's, and the Pi Kaps. Tling Sorosis for first place in the baseball tournament put the Alpha Taus out in front in the race, but the D O's and Pi Kaps are right behind them.

AND then there's always the golf, tennis, and archery tournaments which might be full of upsets; one never knows. Pi Kap Hartman and Alpha Tau Clark have fought their way up to the semi-finals in the tennis tournament, while the golf tournament seems to be pretty much of a MESS in anybody's language, and the archery tournament has just begun.

And speaking of the mess that is the golf tournament, maybe it would be a good time to start a little agitation for fewer activities in the spring. Between all the sports, and all the banquets, and things, nobody really has time for anything. And don't forget—there's the F. W. S. R. A. formal banquet May 20, and Pegasus Horse Show May 17.

MOTHERS CLUB MEETS Pi Alpha Pi Alumnae Mothers Club met at the fraternity house Monday afternoon. Mrs. Ople Swope, president, was in charge of the meeting.

Shocker Sidelights

THIS week Wichita bows out of the Central Conference, the track meet Thursday and Friday being the final athletic contest in which Wichita will take part as a member of the league.

The conference track meet year in and year out is one of the most entertaining and colorful in this part of the country. Pittsburg, perennial winner, has each year one of the most powerful small college teams in the country, this year being no exception. Many stars of national prominence have come out of the conference, such as our own Harold Manning, Archie San Romani, and Sumner of Emporia, Dunn of Pittsburg, and many others.

This year coaches are practically conceding Pittsburg the title again, with the real battle looming for the runner-up position, mainly between Wichita and Emporia.

But with stars like Kramer, Aikens, Shrader, Graber, and Brooker it looks like a walk-away for the Gorillas.

Feature race as far as Wichitans are concerned will be the 440-yard dash between Bob Christian and Aikens of Pitt. Started three years ago, Aikens has won more than has Christian, but a victory in this meet would wipe away the sting of all the losses. There is no harder working or more conscientious man on the squad than Christian. Last week he ran his leg of the mile relay in 47.9, which is very, very good.

We think that he will beat Aikens Friday. LAST week Wichita's golf team came out ahead again in the conference meet. This is something like the ninth straight time they've won it. But it was close this year; with Estep of Emporia shooting sub-par golf the whole way, the Hornets almost eked out a win. So hats-off to the golfers. They really had a fine season, losing only three matches the entire time.

Somewhat surprising was Harry Corbin's victory in the tennis finals. Last year Olin Tucker of Southwestern won the meet without losing a set. He was favored this year, especially since Corbin was not in very good shape. He hasn't played much this year, but he still has the strokes. He had to play three matches Friday and Saturday. That's a lot of tennis for anyone to play.

Those who saw the match say that Tucker and Corbin in the finals rested after the first set, after each game in the second set, and after each point the last set. This was Corbin's second conference title, as he won the meet when a freshman. The other two years he lost out, once in the finals to Bill Brinnon and once in the second round to some unknown from Pittsburg.

WICHITA GARNERS FIRSTS IN CINDER MEET, BUT LOSES

Dual Event's Top Honors Are Given Emporia Here Saturday

Although it garnered seven firsts, the Shocker track team was unable to capture enough seconds and thirds to give it a victory over the Emporia Hornets in a dual meet in Shocker Stadium Saturday. The final score read 75 1-3 to 55 2-3.

Outstanding performers for the day were Ike Goldsmith, individual high scorer with 16 points; Ray Kite, who closely followed with 15; and Captain Bob Christian, who ran the best race of his college career—a 47.9 quarter in his last home meet. Goldsmith took top honors in the high and low hurdles, second in the shotput, and second in the javelin.

Kite won the high jump, broad jump, and pole vault, while Christian captured the quarter-mile and 220-yard races besides running on the mile relay team. Other Shocker winners were Males, who tossed the javelin 186 feet, and Tom Kincaid, dash man who won the century in 10.1 seconds.

Only a few points separated the two teams until the final events when Emporia swept the 880-yard and two-mile runs. Outstanding performances were turned in by Peterson and Wilcox of Emporia and Wayne McMillen of Wichita. Peterson edged out McMillen in the mile run, winning in 4:23. McMillen's time was 4:24, his fastest time this season. Wilcox lapped the field in the two-mile run to win with a time of 9:53.

Two new men were recruited from intramural ranks and are expected to help Wichita's chances in the Central Conference meet Friday and Saturday at Emporia. The two are Vernon Williams, basketball star who won a badly needed second in the high jump, and Charles Gibbons, quarterback on the football squad who took second in the 100-yard dash.

The Alpha Tau-Sorosis game included everything from a black eye to the umpire reversing decisions. Sorosis proved that they had a well balanced team and Alpha Tau again showed that they had the power when needed. Pi Kap finished behind the three teams tied for first with two victories and three defeats. Delta Omega and the Vandals followed. The points for first, second, and third will be added and divided among the three teams. This will give each team 25 points.

In the other game played Monday, the Vikings defeated Pi Kap 16-15. Pi Kap had the tying run on third but failed to get it across.

GIRLS PLAY FINALS IN TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Tommie Hartman will play Jane Ann Douglass and Avanelle Clark will play Opal Davidson in the finals of the inter-sorority tennis tournament.

Hartman defeated Ruth Marshall 6-1, 6-0, and Douglass defeated Taylor 6-1, 6-0. Clark defeated Wilkins 6-3, 6-2; and Davidson won over Winn 6-3, 6-4.

ALPHA TAUS WIN BASEBALL GAME AGAINST SOROSIS

Three Sororities Deadlock With Four Victories And One Loss

Alpha Tau Sigma defeated Sorosis in an exciting game, Monday, 20-17. This defeat put the inter-sorority tournament into a three-way tie with the Vikings, Alpha Tau Sigma and Sorosis each with four victories and one defeat.

The Alpha Tau-Sorosis game included everything from a black eye to the umpire reversing decisions. Sorosis proved that they had a well balanced team and Alpha Tau again showed that they had the power when needed. Pi Kap finished behind the three teams tied for first with two victories and three defeats. Delta Omega and the Vandals followed. The points for first, second, and third will be added and divided among the three teams. This will give each team 25 points.

In the other game played Monday, the Vikings defeated Pi Kap 16-15. Pi Kap had the tying run on third but failed to get it across.

JUNIOR COLLEGES TO SEND SQUADS FOR STATE MEET

Twelve Schools Enter Shocker-Sponsored Sports Events

Twelve of the 14 junior colleges in the state will send tennis, golf, and track teams to Wichita Saturday, for the annual junior college state meets, which for the first time will be held under the direction of the University with Coach Harry Marr acting as director.

Thirty-four tennis players are entered in the meet, which will be held at the East High School courts. The 30 golfers entered will play matches at Meadowlark Country Club, while the 205 trackmen participants will gather in Shocker Stadium. All of the meets begin promptly at 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

Fort Scott, El Dorado, Hutchinson, and Arkansas City are expected to bring the best track teams to the meet, according to Coach Marr. Last year Fort Scott won the meet, edging out Arkansas City by 1 1/2 points.

The other eight schools participating are from Pratt, Independence, Parsons, Kansas City, Coffeyville, Iola, Chanute, and Dodge City. The Garden City and Highland schools are the only ones in the state not entering the meets.

YEARLINGS PLAY QUAKER VARSITY

Frosh Netmen Will Tackle Friends at Riverside

For the second time this season, the freshman tennis team will see action when it meets the varsity crew of Friends University at Riverside courts today at 1:30 p. m.

Although having lost a previous match to El Dorado Junior college, 4 to 2, the yearlings are given a good chance to defeat the Quakers. Carter, Friends' top singles player, recently captured first place in a quadrangular meet held between three junior colleges and Friends. The Quaker's star doubles team of Loftus and Dirks finished second in the meet.
