Group Gets Cash To Aid Relief Task

W.S.S.F. Turns Over $637 For Munich U. Students' Food Needs

The University of Munich in Germany, "adopted" by the campus U.N.E.S.C.O. recently, has received its first "shot in the arm" as notification of re-assignment to the German school of the $637.04 collected during a recent World Student Service Fund campaign here was announced jointly by June Cale, W.S.S.F. chairman, and Martin Rice, U.N.E.S.C.O. chairman.

Food will be purchased for the 11,000 students attending the Munich school with the newly allocated funds. The money will be forwarded to world service fund officials in Geneva, Switzerland, where the food will be bought and dispatched by army convoy to the University of Munich, Rice reported.

Warren Goes To K-State

Resignation of K. M. "Ted" Warren as assistant Shocker football and basketball coach was announced last night by Athletic Director Jim Trimble.

Warren, who came here two years ago from his athletic directorship at the College of Emporia, will leave immediately for Kansas State

K. M. "Ted" Warren

College where he will assume duties as assistant in football under his former boss and new Wildcat mentor, Ralph Graham.

Warren was halfback on the K-State Big Six championship team in 1934 and received all-Big Six mention in 1936.

His successor here has not been named.

Warren is the second Wichita coach to follow Graham. End Coach Paul Walker left with Graham for Manhattan on Feb. 1.

Phillips Fills Senior Vacancy On Council

Bud Phillips has been named by Phi Upsilon Sigma fraternity to serve as the senior Student Council representative replacing Dave Enoch.

Enoch became ineligible when he enrolled in less than 12 hours work for the second semester. Under constitutional provision Enoch's fraternity was permitted to fill the vacancy.

June Cale and Herbert James In Final Year Possess Enviably Debate Record Since 1944

When a football team goes through an unbeaten season, it gains wide recognition throughout the country, but when a debate team goes through a tournament undefeated, acclaim comes from only those who are connected with or interested in forensic work. Here at this University there is one debate team that has gone through not one but three tournaments unbeaten this season.

June Cale and Herbert James, both debating their last year, have won honors in the Texas university tourney, McPherson Junior College meet, and the Oklahoma university midwest tournament. The two debaters have engaged in 10 debates together this season and have won all of them.

However, both have engaged in 20 debates in tournament competition this season. Cale has emerged victorious in 20 while James with another colleague has won 18 out of 20 debates.

The two debaters have written an enviable record for themselves since entering the University. James, with no tournament experience in high school, began debating in 1944 as a freshman. That year he and his colleague took the Denver tournament and later won second place in the Missouri Valley meet.

A year later James helped the University squad take first place in the Texas university meet. In that tourney, he debated with Vernon McGuire, 1946 graduate, and the two went through five rounds of debate with first and second speaker rankings.

Miss Cale, who debated for two years while attending North High school, also began debating in 1944. She has participated in 12 tourneys entered by the University. Miss Cale has ranked as the high ranking woman speaker for three consecutive years at the annual Texas tourney.

Both Miss Cale and James have had 50 intercollegiate debates during their college experience and have emerged with approximately 35 victories.

Both have testified that it takes time to prepare for a tournament. James estimated that 60 hours are usually spent before each meet by debaters gathering material, preparing cases, and practice debates.

What is the toughest question argued by the two forensic champions? They both say the proposal that tariff barriers be removed was the most difficult. This year they have debated three questions, compulsory arbitration of labor disputes, world federal government, and the Marshall plan.

Miss Cale says her biggest thrill is yet to come. She will be the first woman to represent the University at a Missouri Valley forensic meet. The Valley has removed its sex barrier for the first time this season.

It's No Joke, 'Son

Police Now Seeking False Alarm Bug; Dangerous Business

Police have been called in by the Wichita Fire Department to investigate a false fire alarm to the Pi Kappa Psi sorority house at 1:30 a.m. last Saturday.

The fire run, made out of the Wichita township and involving a cost of $100, was made by a 750 ton pumper manned by four firemen on slick streets. The call also deprived another area of the city of adequate protection in case of fire.

Detective F. E. Parsons working on the case has said that he would like to see persons involved clear the matter up on their own initiative. However, if they do not volunteer, police officials will consider the false alarm a malicious act. Criminal action might result in a maximum penalty of 30 days in jail and $100 fine upon conviction, Parsons said.

Sunflower Becomes Member of Kansas Press Association

Acceptance of the Sunflower's application for membership into the Kansas Press Association and the National Editorial Association was received this week by Max Milbourn, acting head of the journalism department.

Notification of the KPA and NEA membership for the University publication came from Larry Miller, secretary-manager of the association. Approximately 300 weekly and daily newspapers in the state are members.

Initial steps for membership in the organization were taken in January by Milbourn and George Phillips, assistant professor of journalism, while attending the association's convention in Topeka.

Heavy Men To Cost Women At YWCA Sponsored Dance

Women that are going to the "Haul Your Man" dance had better get men in trim or it will cost them money to check their date's coat! Each man will be weighed as he enters the door of the men's gym and those that weigh 130 pounds or less will get their coats checked free. From there on it will cost up to a quarter. The women's coats will be checked free, of course!

From 9 until 12 p. m. Saturday, the fellow whose girl sells the most tickets will reign as "Bill of the Ball" and will be royally feted. There will be a presentation of the outstanding senior men that evening.

Kitchen utensils and the after dinner garbage will probably make the favorite corsages. For the most unique or repulsive one there will be a prize.

The ticket sellers have been brave and disclosed the names of their dates; Phyllis Barton, Pi Kappa Psi, will haul Elbie McNeil; Suzanne Gray, Alpha Tau Sigma, will haul Bill Smith; Helen Holleicke, Sorosis, will date Jack Peris; Mary Lou Simpson, Delta Omega, hauling Ted Gottas; Georgia Hamman, Epsilon Kappa Rho, dragging Bill Tarrant; and Emagene Ruchman, I.S.A. pulling Jim Fullenwider.

The dance is sponsored by the Young Women's Christian Association and Pat Rutherford is dance chairman. Dick Haughton's band will play for the dancing.

Lost Articles Found With Names Attached

Names and addresses should be put in all books and notebooks to facilitate the return of such articles when they are lost. This request is made by Mrs. Price, Commons hostesses who is in charge of the lost and found department.

Students will be notified by post card when lost books are turned in to the lost and found department, if the books are marked with both a name and an address.

Excuse Slip Unnecessary, Says Council

Faculty Committee Hears Reasons For Revision of System

Student Council members appeared before a special faculty committee this week to present reasons for the abolishment of the present excuse system proposed by the Council late last semester. Tom Curry, Council president, acted as spokesman for his group while Dean L. Hekhuis, head of the College of Liberal Arts, presided as chairman of the one-hour session.

The Council contended that the present excuse system is unnecessary as a check on students already exists through individual faculty members. "Instructors turn in absences to the dean's office whether or not a student presents an excuse slip," Curry said.

However, Dean Frank Neff, head of the College of Business Administration, surprised Council members when he reported that faculty members do not report regularly and that "one-fourth to two-fifths of all absences in the College of Business Administration are reported by students when they come into the office to apply for an excuse."

Lack of uniformity under the present system was also pointed out by Curry. "The excuse slip means different things to different teachers," he said, "some want the slips to check excused absences, others will sign the slip but never check the roll book, while others don't care to see the excuse," Curry asserted.

Council members proposed that students be allowed to obtain excuses for legal absences only for missed hour examinations. Under the present system, students are allowed to obtain three permits for excused absences during a semester from their dean. The right to make-up missed assignments then remains with the individual instructor.

No decision was announced by the faculty committee, which first will report to President W. M. Jardine. Some sort of excuse system will have to exist for veterans attending the University for Veterans administration records.

Chase Next Forum Guest

Stuart Chase, noted economist and author, will address University Student Forum audience on the topic "Inflation or Deflation" when he appears in the University Auditorium Thursday, Feb. 26, according to Dick Elving, Student Forum president.

Students will be admitted upon presentation of their activity tickets. One other lecture will remain on the 1948 schedule, Elving said. Negotiations are now underway to bring a prominent lecturer to Wichita replacing Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, who canceled her appearance here because of a conflicted schedule.

Dr. Bernard Iddings Bell, noted author and educational consultant, who spoke before a large Student Forum audience recently declared that "our educational system is badly in need of change."

Dr. Bell asserted that "present-day students are absolute conformists." "Some believe everything their professors tell them. But what education, today, really needs is rebellion," he said.

A Lincoln

1809-1865
With malice toward none; with charity for all; with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive to finish the work we are in; to bind up the nation's wounds; to care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow and his orphan—to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves and with all nations.—Second inaugural address.

Choir Tours Five Towns

The University A Capella choir presented programs today before high school audiences in Wellington, Blackwell, Okla., and Arkansas City.

The choir is currently on tour of Kansas and Oklahoma towns presenting a varied program including music from many periods of choral compositions.

The group, under the direction of Harold A. Decker, head of the voice department will appear at Tulsa, Okla and Mulvane, Kansas tomorrow and return to Wichita late in the evening.

Halgedahl Appointed Girls Glee Club Head

Howard Halgedahl, assistant professor of music theory, has been appointed director of the University Girls Glee Club, Walter Duerksen, music department chairman announced.

Halgedahl is a graduate of Eastman School of Music and completed his undergraduate work at the University of Arizona. He is a member of the Wichita Symphony, and was formerly a member of the music staff at Kansas State Teachers College at Hays.

The Glee Club has additional openings for the second semester Halgedahl stated. Credit of one hour per semester is given for this activity and a public appearance for the group is being planned.

Joint Recital Is Planned

Beatrice Sanford Pease, violinist, and Gretchen Dalley, cellist, will be presented in a joint faculty recital next Tuesday evening at 8:15 in the University Auditorium announced Walter Duerksen, chairman of the music department.

The concert will be in three parts, featuring Mrs. Dalley in the first with her presentation of Concerto in A minor by Schubert. She will present the Allegro Moderato, Adagio and Allegretto and will be accompanied by Marguerite Campbell Elliott.

Part two will feature Mrs. Pease with Guy Snyder accompanying. Gordon Terwilliger, pianist, Mrs. Pease and Mrs. Dalley will play the Moderato Assal, Allegro ma no agitato and Presto from the Trio in G minor by F. Smetana in the third part of the program.

"HMMMM! WHAT TO DO?" ponder the two "lovely" lads as they are asked to attend the annual Y.W.C.A. Haul Your Man dance in the men's gym Saturday night. The fellows didn't wonder long as they learned that the gals would pay all including corsage and transportation. Going to the H.Y.M. dance are from left, Frank Lemke with Vivian Lackey, and Carol Lovelace will "haul" Bud Phillips.

Parnassus Queen Dull To Vie For Sweetheart Honors At K.U. Prom

Peggy Dull, 1948 Parnassus queen, has been invited to attend the annual "Sweetheart Swing" to be held at the University of Kansas in Lawrence Saturday night according to T. J. Curry, Student Council president.

Miss Dull will vie with nine other beauty queens from campuses in Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska for "Sweetheart" honors.

The "10 Most Datable Men" of the university campus will serve as escorts for the women, Curry said.

Dr. Green Gives Talk To Local Engineers

Rockets and guided missiles were discussed at a combined monthly engineers meeting by Dr. C. F. Green, consulting engineer with the General Electric Company, last week in the university auditorium.

Dr. Green toured Europe and checked German technology in guided missiles and jet aircraft at German research centers in 1945.

At the meeting, sponsored by the Wichita chapter of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, Dr. Green discussed the potentialities of guided missiles and rockets in connection with aeronautic and industrial development.

Round about the Campus

CUPID displayed some pre-Valentine speed Sunday when Charles Binford, Webster, received his active pin in the afternoon and gave it to Jean Donley that evening. Valentines recall the "Haul Your Man" dance, scheduled for Saturday night and the "artistic" corsages to be seen there.

"Exclusive creations" worn by Sorosis actives Margaret Ann Hesse and Jo Miller and intended to impress rushees, provided a surprise for their owners. Seems the new frocks were identical. A son, Alan Wayne, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Pete Greenbank Tuesday morning at Wesley hospital.

WINNING jitterbug of a contest in a local night spot was not an Alpha Gamma Gamma, despite the affiliations of Rae Batt, A. D. Martin, and Dick Hunt, judges. Why was George Walker crawling on the third floor of the Administration Building recently? Sneaking up on someone, George?

MEN of Webster pledges visited the grave of Nathaniel Morrison, founder of the fraternity, to pay respects, before initiation. Pi Kappa Psi and Sorosis pledges will be initiated Sunday. Six flavors of gum competed with garlic and onions for "breath control" over Sorosis pledge Barbara Coats after Courtesy Night.

ALPHA Tau pledges wore stringy locks Sunday despite cleaning attempts with soap, oil shampoo, and cleaning fluid! Forty-four women visited open houses at the sororities Sunday, officially opening the spring rush season. Pat Davis, tell Jim about Johnny once in a while! One campus coed is reported to be looking for a dress the exact color of Bob McGrath's left eye. Might be a good subject for a research paper. This week leaves Dale Henry, Webster, debating the subject of marriage and the Pi Alpha bickering with architects over their "dream" house.

Dustin Wins Scholarship

Zellah Dustin, senior, has been awarded annual music scholarship given by the Wichita alumnae chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon. The recognition award, based on musicianship and scholarship, was given Tuesday night in the Commons Lounge.

Miss Dustin, who appeared as "Hansel" in the recent University production of "Hansel and Gretel," sang "Leise Leise, fromme Weise" by Von Weber.

Others participating in the auditions were Mary Frances Titus, pianist, who played "Capriccis" by Brahms and Mrs. Ruth Dieffenbacher Scheer, pianist, playing "Polonaise in A flat" by Chopin.

Veterans Appreciate Proposed Pay Raise For Varied Reasons

Campus G.I.s will put the proposed $10 increase in subsistence to a variety of good uses. Here is what the G.I.s have to say about it.

William Nelson, instructor in English, said, "It won't effect me very much, but the most important result may be an increase in time spent studying by those who will be able to work less because of the pay increase."

Paul Houser, sophomore tackle on the 1947 Shocker team, stated, "It will enable me to graduate clear of debts, instead of in debt as I had feared."

Doug Conrad, sophomore, "I will be able to stay out two hours later on Saturday nights."

Marjorie Myers Crum, junior, "I'll increase my husband's allowance."

Harold Cary, popular piano-playing student, "I'll pay up some debts and then buy some little extras."

Thomas Curry, president of Student Council, "If I could figure out what happens to the $65 I might be able to tell you what I'll do with the extra $10."

WU Concert Is Thursday

William Kapell, brilliant concert pianist, will appear as guest artist at the University concert series to be presented next Thursday at 8:15 p. m. in the University Auditorium.

The evening concert by Kapell and the Wichita Symphony under the direction of Orien Dalley will feature Tchaikovsky's piano concerto in B Flat Minor.

This young pianist, whose fame has swept the country with the speed of his own swift fingers, has studied with Dorothy Anderson LaFalette and later with Olga Samaroff Stokowski.

Kapell began his career in the summer of 1942 when he made his first New York appearance with orchestra at the Stadium Concerts with the Philharmonic-Symphony under Efrem Kurtz, playing a new and exciting Soviet-Armenian Concerto of Aram Khatchatourian. Since then he has been nicknamed "Khatchatourian Kapell."

Admission to the concert will be by activity ticket for University students.

Parking Taboos Are Costly If Ignored

"A large number of persons have been disregarding the 'red curb' and 'double parking' taboos issued by the campus police, so if your car disappears, it probably will have been towed away," John Gaddis, superintendent of buildings and grounds, said yesterday.

"It has not been necessary to have any cars towed in thus far this semester, though if any of the 25 or 30 warned offenders are tagged again, we will be forced to have their cars towed away," Gaddis said.

The Sunflower will accept letters of comment from its readers. They should not be over 250 words and all letters must be signed.

Art Exhibit Here Today

Original paintings of famous artists are now on display in the exhibit room of Morrison Hall, Walter L. Lengel, assistant professor of art announced today.

It is a permanent exhibit being shown throughout the United States to all the chapters of the national honorary art fraternities. Different methods are represented, such as etchings, ink wash, silk screen, lithography, water colors, oils, and graver reprints.

The exhibit will be on display for two weeks, and is sponsored by Alpha Omega Chapter of Kappa Pi, honorary art fraternity, according to Lengel.

Lest We Forget

Abraham Lincoln, whose birthday we are celebrating today, permitted this country engaged in a war against itself, rather than to have it exist "half slave, half free." Yet, after reading about and observing examples of race prejudice and race segregation, one wonders if the United States has become united or alienated since the Civil War.

Education has certainly reached a new low when a student is denied equal opportunities because he or she is so "unfortunate" as to have a different colored skin. Our institutions of higher learning, whose responsibility it is to mould the minds and intellects of future citizens, have degenerated to where they merely manufacture barriers of bigotry and prejudice.

Certainly, it would seem, our foremost educators would be the first to break this barrier, but unfortunately, they are only human, and must follow public opinion.

It is true that a great many colleges and universities never have had or have entirely done away with racial barriers, but so long as a few schools persist on carrying out their rule of racial segregation, the educational profession will never be free of criticism.

Abraham Lincoln is dead. Are the doctrines for which he fought and for which he laid down his life to be interred with his bones? Let's hope not!

Let us hope that some day these United States shall become a nation which the Great Emancipator could well be proud of. A nation built upon the foundation of truth and understanding shall endure forever; a nation built upon bigotry and prejudice must certainly perish.—W.E.F.

Campus Jigsaw
False Alarms May Land Offenders In Local Hoosgow

FALSE alarms are dangerous business! Persons who are caught turning in such calls to the fire department will more than likely find out that they are also costly.

About 1:30 a. m. last Saturday a fire truck was called to the Pi Kappa Psi house, there was no fire, it was just a juvenile prankster having fun. But that fun might have endangered the lives of four firemen driving a $30,000 pumper on slick streets. It might have also deprived another area of fire protection in case of a real fire.

Veterans Serious In Studies
But Uncertain Of Vocations

MIDDLETOWN, Conn.—(I.P.)—That service men returning to college are doing serious work although the majority were not certain what occupation or profession they intended to make their life work is revealed in Dean Leroy A. Howland's annual report to Wesleyan University authorities.

Convincing evidence that the veterans are doing serious work is the fact that they constitute 92% of the seniors on the Honor Roll.

Comparing the preferences for life work expressed as freshman with the present intentions of the same group, it is found that 22% of the group indicated no preference.

The cost to the prankster if caught pulling such a laughless gag is 30 days in jail or a $100 fine, sometimes both.

Pep was on the downgrade a week ago, but last Saturday night it sounded a little better. Even though the Shockers dropped the game, they surprised the Billikens and the crowd. Then the crowd surprised the Shockers by really showing enthusiasm and yelling, but good! Keep it up!

ence, 43% had changed their minds during college years and only 35% had carried out their plans.

In other words about one-third of the group really knew prior to their college course what careers they wished to follow. Three-fifths of those whose preferences remained unchanged were headed for the professions of ministry, medicine, teaching and law.

Dean Howland's report that in the election of courses by departments, the English course led, with economics second, government third, the humanities fourth, and chemistry fifth. In the selection of romance languages, Spanish led with French second.

The Dean's report for the previous year showed that the percentage of students admitted here who completed degree requirements was 63.9 percent for the classes of 1932 to 1941, inclusive. The effect of the war in this respect is shown in the case of the class of 1943.

This class entered college in 1939 with 208 members. Of these, 40 by acceleration of work were graduated in January, 1943, and 50 more were able to continue in college to be graduated in June.

Eighty-one members of this class entered service prior to graduation. Of these, 12 were awarded their degrees without further residence and 46 have returned to college, of whom 44 have now graduated. Four members of the class were graduated in years other than 1943 but not because of their having been in service.

It is certain that 1948 will have at least 152 graduates or 73% of the original class, which is considered astonishing in view of all the difficulties and delays of the intervening years.

Bill Fein,
Happy Journalism Grounds:
Dear Wing-foot.

Last week I missed your column. For six long years I have been a freshman . . . for six long years your column has been the only bright spot in my life. Now you have gone to your reward in the great beyond, and I am lonely.

I tried drinking, but it didn't help . . . I went to the S.L.-W.U. game but that only made things worse. Finally I tried studying. I opened my book . . . my eyes whirled . . . my head pounded . . . I ran outside and started chasing freshman girls. Then I cracked.

When I awoke, Dr. Ovlobrain stood over me. "Son, you're crazy. Better take it easy for a while . . . don't exert yourself, and only attempt the simplest of thinking."

"But Doc," I replied, "what can I do?"
Ovlobrain shook his head slowly and answered, "Why don't you try writing for the Sunflower. Step in and take Fein's place!"
Relax and watch out for wooden angels Bill, I'm chained in your cell now.

Bob Ames.
swish click . . . swish-click . . . (A girl with the New Look walking) warm weather is here and the second semester has begun. I finally got enrolled; 14 hours. Ten hours of standup classes and four hours where they have enough chairs for everyone. Speaking of crowded classes, I hear that in one history class there are so many students enrolled that they call roll by squads.

I can't say that I got the subjects that I wanted though. I hope to be a bootlegger some day, and my counselor suggested that I major in Spanish. I was over at the Women's Gym at 3:30 in the morning the first day of enrollment. By 8:00 I was frozen stiff, but finally they opened the door. I rushed in. Already half the courses were closed. As it is, I'm taking Art Appreciation in place of Chemistry . . . Children's Literature instead of Spanish . . . Calculus in place of English . . . Key Board Harmony rather than Speech, and besides I have a Women's Team Sports class card but I can't get in the class room to honor.

Things are looking better now. I signed up Tuesday for the first opening in Spanish class. I got the card. Spanish. Second semester, 1952, M.W.F. 8:00.

Predictions for the future . . .
1950 . . . With abolishment of the excuse system this year, Ironhead Jones set a new record for the university, by passing a class of Atomic Appreciation after attending class only once in 18 weeks.

1970 . . . W. U. finally won its first Missouri Valley Basketball Title by defeating St. Louis U., 87-4. The victory marked the first Wichita win over St. Louis in the history of the 23 year old rivalry between the two schools.

Move over Bill, I'll be right up!

Students Learn Identity Of Campus 'Miss Hush'

By Charles Taylor

The national radio show which conducted a $25,000 contest recently, ending with the identity of Martha Graham, has nothing on the University of Wichita, as the University had its own "Miss Hush" on the campus recently.

Tuesday and Wednesday evening, seventeen University junior and senior male students were telephoned at their homes by this Mrs. Hush. Some were directed to meet her in the Commons, at the south door of the Library; others in the lobby of Morrison Hall.

They were further instructed to be on the lookout for "a lady wearing a brown fur coat, a brown hat with feathers on it," and were given the most important clue of identification: That the lady would be carrying a large, manilla envelope.

At the appointed hour, and place, each student met Mrs. Hush who turned out to be Mary L. Bounous, a representative of the National Opinion Research Center. Mrs. Bounous was conducting a survey on job preference and future plans of the students.

"I was surprised to find that all the students have definite objectives and have made thorough plans for their future," Mrs. Bounous stated, "Too, I didn't expect to get such good, concrete opinions on the questions I asked."

Mrs. Bounous said that she was amazed at the manners displayed by the group. All the men were cooperative, talked freely, and did not hedge when given a question, she said.

"These men didn't act like the typical college fellow of a few years ago," Mrs. Bounous said with a slight smile.

During the war, while she was taking a poll on living costs and wages, Mrs. Bounous was interviewing a woman who became suspicious of the many questions she was asked, and called the police. "If it hadn't been for my credentials, I would have been taken to jail," Mrs. Bounous smiled as she recalled the incident. "Apparently, the woman thought I was a Nazi spy."

Asked if there were other incidents that had happened during her years of meeting the public, Mrs. Bounous said that she would consider it a dull day if one or more unexpected things didn't occur.

"As a rule, people like to talk. They will cooperate and give you their honest opinions if they find that you are not going to argue with them," Mrs. Bounous said, "I've been refused a few interviews, but have never been thrown out of any place, once I got in."

While working on a question of the day for the George Gallup firm, Mrs. Bounous received her most honest refusal. She was having difficulty interviewing a grim, stern, old farmer. But to each question, the farmer would answer the same: "I don't know." Finally, the old fellow realized that the matter was a waste of time.

"Listen," he said, "I cain't read, cain't write, and I ain't gonna answer any more of them damn fool questions, 'cause I'm too literate."

"It was all in a days work," Mrs. Bounous concluded.

Through the cooperation of L. Hekhuis, dean of the College of Liberal Arts, Mrs. Bounous was able to conduct the survey at the University.

Touche! Student Wives Land First Punch Against Inflationary Prices

COLUMBUS, O. — (I.P.) — Student wives at Ohio State University have landed the first punch in the opening round of the battle against high prices—a cooperative bargain exchange bulletin titled "The Dollar-Stretcher," listing the cheapest buys in town in half a dozen family necessities, including food, clothing and children's wear.

The bulletin is put out by the Ohio State chapter of University Dames, a national organization of student wives and married students, as a service to its members in their struggle to stretch their $90 monthly government checks.

The bulletin lists bargains discovered by Dames' members in an exhaustive telephone shopping tour and gives prices and stores where the best buys are available. Officials of the group point out that any merchant who can offer a lower price than available anywhere else will be listed in the bulletin at his request.

University officials, particularly the office of the dean of women which has helped the Dames group to map its program, have endorsed the plan. The dean of men's office, too, is interested in the all-feminine organization, because contented and busy wives mean better student husbands with fewer worries to interfere with school work.

Dr. Bernard I. Bell Observes 'Old Home Week' During Visit

During the second semester, it will operate as an experimental program and rehearsals will be from 3 to 4 Tuesday afternoons in Rehearsal Hall.

The course will carry no credit.

Second Semester Enrollment Has Passed Predicted Figure

The present enrollment has exceeded the anticipated number of second semester students by over 350, according to Dr. Worth A. Fletcher, registrar. In the University of Wichita there are now 2,866 regular students and 190 in night classes.

"Everybody is optimistic about the number enrolled. Only 2500 were expected," Dr. Fletcher explained.

Night class enrollment has reached a postwar high of 190 with more registrations being turned in late. Only 110 signed up for night class work during the September semester.

There are 1,412 veterans now enrolled in the University of Wichita of which 127 are attending for the first time. Last fall there were 1,560 veterans in school here.

"The veteran load is gradually lessening and will continue to diminish," Dr. Fletcher said in explaining the enrollment drop of this semester. He expects about 1,200 veterans next fall.

This decrease of veterans now attending colleges and universities is as expected throughout the nation according to a survey by Dr. Raymond Walters, nationally known statistician of higher education.

In his survey of 640 institutions, Dr. Walters found 23 per cent less freshman men and 3.7 per cent fewer freshman women.

Dr. Walters said that the reason for fewer veterans was best stated by university and college administrators: "most of these veterans got jobs and are holding on to them; they took unto themselves wives and are holding onto them—and their children."

"Our percentage of decrease will be comparable to that figure," stated Laura M. Cross, assistant registrar.

There were 1,156 freshmen last fall. The total number of freshmen attending this semester will not be tabulated until March 1, according to Dr. Fletcher, but there will be approximately 100 entering freshmen.

Veterans who have not yet taken advantage of educational benefits may enter college later on, Dr. Fletcher said.

University Women Present Broadcast At Valentine Party

An "Information Please" broadcast from "Station CUW" will be the keynote of the Valentine party to be given by the Council of University Women for faculty men and their wives at 8:00 p.m. Friday in the Commons Lounge, according to Jacquetta Downing, program chairman.

The broadcast will feature a board of five "experts" who will answer questions concerning faculty members. When an incorrect answer is given, someone in the audience may correct it and take the "expert's" place on the program.

Harold Decker, voice department head, and Ohm Pauli, assistant professor of voice, will present singing commercials. Another part of the entertainment will be a guessing game with a prize offered to the person identifying Miss Leap Year. Dr. Geraldine Hammond, professor of English, will be station announcer, and Mrs. Mary Jane Woodard, instructor in speech, will be master of ceremonies.

Miss Downing will be assisted by Mrs. Josephine Juett, Bess Baker, Mrs. Lillie Zimmerman, Mildred McCoy, Phillida Whitby, and Dr. Hammond.

"Refreshments are being planned for over two hundred guests," stated Mrs. L. M. Gossett, refreshment chairman. The party was planned for Friday, Feb. 6, but was postponed due to bad weather.

Mu Phi Epsilon active chapter was entertained last Tuesday night in the Commons Lounge with a program by the first semester pledge group.

Shocker Cagers Travel To Creighton And Drake On Five-Day Road Trip

Lanky Pritchard Will Lead Drake Against Shockers On Saturday; 'Pinky' Knowles Will Spark Creighton Attack On Monday

Mel Binford's University basketballers will take to the road Friday for a two game trip up in the cold country.

Leaving Wichita Friday, the Shockers will meet the Drake University Bulldogs Saturday night in Des Moines, Iowa. Sunday they will continue their journey to Omaha, Nebraska, to meet Coach Duce Belford's Bluejays, of Creighton university.

Both Creighton and Drake have played Wichita in the Forum, and both teams have defeated the Shockers.

But the Shocker Mentor Mel Binford was quite optimistic today when he said that, "If the improvement shown in the last few games keeps on coming, we will have a good chance of winning these two ball games."

On the other hand, big John Pritchard, 6 ft. 9 inch Bulldog center, along with Ollrich and Evans will be trying very hard to stop the Shockers in their sixth Missouri Valley contest. Drake defeated the Shockers in their last meeting 43 to 41 in a rough and tumble tilt without the help of their "Big John." With the improvement shown by the Shocker quintet in their last two games, the Saturday night tilt should be a close one.

"Pinky" Knowles, Creighton's star forward and one of the main trouble-makers on the Bluejay squad will be ready to try to down the Shockers. In their last encounter here, Pinky Knowles and Gene Lalaey played a big part in defeating the Shockers 40 to 30.

Webster A Players Dominate Scoring; Spencer Still On Top

Three sharp-shooting members of the undefeated Webster A team, Daryl Spencer, Dale Henry, and Randy Barron, head the list of high scorers in the intramural basketball league.

The Hustlers, also undefeated, placed 6 ft. 4 inch Shellenberger and Groves, speedy guard, in the high scoring list. Herb Harrison of the Cowpoke A, Harry Tucker of the Ramblers, and Carl DePalois of the ISA A squad, also rank in the leading pointmakers column.

Individual scoring:

NAME	Team	G	FG	FT	Total Pts.
Spencer	Webster A	7	55	29	139
Henry, D.	Webster A	7	53	29	128
Barron	Webster A	7	43	16	102
Shell'n'rr'r	Hustlers	5	36	12	84
Harrison	Cowpoke A	6	28	12	64
Tucker	Ramblers	6	28	1	57
DePalois	ISA A	5	25	5	55

Detroit And Bradley May Enter Valley; Vote To Be Sunday

Whether or not the Universities of Detroit and Bradley will be admitted into the Missouri Valley conference will be voted upon by the present conference members Sunday, Feb. 15, at Kansas City according to Dr. Earle R. Davis, head of the English department and Valley executive vice president, who recently returned from Detroit.

Dr. Davis stated that Detroit stands a good chance to be admitted and would make a fine addition to the Valley. That university has 9,000 students, and is known for its large law and dental schools; the school stadium has a seating capacity of 30,000.

Grid Drills Open Soon

"Short and highly concentrated", were the words of Jim Trimble, head football coach, in describing his plans for spring football practice, which, if weather permits will start March 1.

According to Trimble practice would continue until April 10, and would close with an intra-squad game on that day. One other game between squads is planned for March 20 or 24 depending on when practice gets underway. If practice starts on March 1, the game will be played March 20, and if started later it will be played March 24.

they're squeezin' me

Says Reddy Kilowatt

"I'm not a fellow to complain, no sir! Day in and day out, I'm there ready to do your bidding. It was that way before the war and it's been that way since — but one day late last winter they almost got me. It was on a snowy, dark Wednesday morning. Suddenly, folks decided to use a lot more Reddy Kilowatts than they'd ever used before! I was almost mashed by this sharp 'peak.' Lucky for me, I came out O.K., but I almost had to holler for your help.

"Before the war my helpers at K.G.&E. had plenty of extra capacity to take care of such sudden surges in your demand for power. They still do, except for a few hours through the middle of the day and early evening.

"But the war and the shortages and delays which followed it, coupled with your increased demand for my services, have made me kinda 'short' during certain hours of the day. Even that won't last long because K.G.&E. is putting in a new turbine-generator that will make 30,000 of me every hour and it will be ready before the end of the summer if things go along smoothly.

"Until then, I'm going to keep on doing my best for you — just as I always have."

SEVEN KEY CINDERMEN LOST FOR SEASON

Stadium Will Be Enlarged

"Work has begun at Veterans Field to increase the seating capacity to 12,394 before the first game this fall," announced John M. Gaddis, Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds.

There will be an addition of two sections to the west side concrete stands, to seat 1,896, one section on the north and one on the south of the present permanent seats. Five rows of temporary wooden bleachers, with a seating capacity of 1,176 will be added in front of the east stand.

The project is being carried out entirely by Wichita university. It is self financed, under the supervision of University authorities, and the labor is being done by students. Mr. Gaddis concluded, that there are still openings for students who are experienced welders, cement finishers, brick layers, or carpenters. Anyone interested in these jobs should contact Mr. Gaddis in the aeronautics building as soon as possible.

A MAD SCRAMBLE for the ball topples four players in the St. Louis-Wichita basketball game played last Saturday in the Forum. D. C. Wilcutt (No. 44) and El Vaughn (No. 36) close in fast as Ed Macauley, St. Louis All-American candidate, and Don Toevs, Shocker guard, tie up the ball. Dick Mullen (No. 41) and Joe Ossola (No. 55) are also on the floor after trying for the ball. St. Louis was forced to come from behind to defeat a hustling Shocker quintet, 52-41.

Men interested in playing varsity golf this semester should report to Mel Binford, golf coach, at his office in the men's gym as soon as possible.

Shockers Threaten Valley Champs; Bills Rally To Win 52-41

Forced to come from behind in the last half the University of St. Louis cage squad continued their winning ways by defeating a stubborn University of Wichita quintet 52 to 41 last Saturday night in the Forum.

The Shockers played inspired ball the first half and outmaneuvered the highly favored Billikens. Wichita used a deliberate style of play taking their time to work the ball in for shots while the Billikens could not get their fast break to clicking. As a result the Shockers led at half time by a slim one point margin 22 to 21.

At the start of the second half the Shockers increased their lead four points, on a basket and a free throw, to lead 25 to 21. The Billikens came back fast as Joe Ossola hit two fielders and Ed Macauley caged one to give St. Louis the lead, 27 to 25.

Wichita scored again to tie the game 27 all but it proved to be the Shockers last hope for an upset as the Billikens began playing the brand of ball which has given them national rating this season. They scored ten points in close in three minutes of play to pull ahead 37 to 27. From then on the game was played with St. Louis in command.

For St. Louis, Macauley and D. C. Wilcutt were high point men with 16 and 11 points respectively.

Sexton Lost By Signing Pro Contract

Bidwell Calls Meeting For Monday; Former Track Stars Return

Seven key men have been lost from the University track team for the 1948 season.

Coach Ab Bidwell announced the loss of Linwood Sexton, number one man of the team after signing a professional football contract with the Los Angeles Dons.

The other six men lost include Sam Evans and Bill Smith, the two top hurdlers; Bob Lewis, a great prospect for the quarter mile; Bob Jackson, East High all-state quarter miler in 1945; Dick Doty, outstanding sprinter and low hurdler; and Harold Tivis, weight man. Jackson, Tivis, and Doty are new men on the campus this year, but were outstanding prospects. Doty, who is from Wentworth Military Academy, holds a sprint record that approaches the national record.

"In losing the seven men we are losing team strength, but new men coming in will give us individual strength," Bidwell said.

Returning letterman from last year's team are Anton Houlik and Warren Southard, 100 yard dash; Al Grochowalski, 220 yard dash; Louis Nichols, quarter mile; Leo Konecny and Lowell Oder, half mile; Rodney Breth, Bill Hunter, and Larry Lallemt, mile; Dick Mullen, high jump; Jim Barnt-house, broad jump; Jack Childers, Pole vault; and Ira Barkman and Oliver Hiebert, shotput and Discus.

New men who will join the track squad are Tuffy Robinson, javelin; Ted Kolbohm, a former letterman in the hurdles; Larry Shumard, hurdler and middle distance; Phil Shepard, half miles; and Roland Lange, jumper.

Several freshmen will be listed later and meets for freshmen will be scheduled.

There will be a meeting in Room 103 Women's Gym at 2 p. m. Monday, Feb. 16, for all men who are interested in trying out for the track team.

Wrestling Tourney Finals On Tuesday

Finals of the intramural wrestling tournament will be held Tuesday, February 17, at 3 p.m. in the Men's gym. All students are invited to attend.

I.S.A. Elects New Officers

The election of officers and discussion of possible reorganization were the principal events of the weekly meeting of the Independent Students Association Wednesday, February 4. Carl Seydell, sophomore, was elected president to replace Ernie Waite, who resigned early this semester because of heavy class schedule.

Other officers elected are Jackie Swallow, vice president; Margaret Greeley, secretary; Ralph Stiles, treasurer; Chuck Davis, sergeant-at-arms; and Lucille Stuart, public relations officer.

Re-elected as faculty advisers are Robert M. Ryan assistant professor of economics and H. A. Shumway, assistant professor of economics. Newly elected is Paul R. Bartolini, assistant librarian who is new at University of Wichita this year.

After the I.S.A. withdrew from campus politics last year, politically-minded male members retained ambitions of organizing a separate unit strong enough to win the group support of unaffiliated students and other loosely organized groups.

Some of the men propose a split with the women's branch to form a new political and social organization and attract male independents who are interested in a program of campus reforms and improvements. The proposed organization would be called the Men's Independent Collegiate Association, and would apply for admittance to the National Independent Students Association. However, it was decided, no definite steps will be taken to form the organization until the I.S.A. is more settled in its policies.
