Ballad Singer In Convocation

Alan Lomax Is Expert On American Folklore

Alan Lomax, American collector and singer of folk music, will be featured in tomorrow's all-school convocation held in the University Auditorium at 9:30 p.m.

He will present his collection of ballads from all parts of the nation, and the folklore of each song.

Commenting on his work as a collector of folk music, Mr. Lomax said, "Since graduating from college, I have been traveling the roads, smooth highways, the rough mountain tracks, the corduroy lumbering roads, the little muddy lanes, and the wagon tracks, putting down on records what the people of America—the hard-handed and fey people of this country—have been singing and saying for the past hundred years and more.

"Having listened and recorded, I feel that these people have their own version of American history, their own literature, their own music—as worthy of being carefully guarded, stored up, used, and studied as the accumulations of printed culture in libraries."

Mr. Lomax had his first contact with music from his father John A. Lomax, who compiled the first collection of American, ballad-type cowboy songs.

Mr. Lomax has spent considerable time traveling through the Americas in search of new ballads. He spent six months in Mexico, five months in Haiti, a summer in the Bahamas, four months with the minority groups and the lumberjacks in the Lake States, weeks in New England and the Midwest, and several years in the South and Texas.

The class schedule will be:
First Hour 8:00 a.m.-8:35 a.m.
Second Hour 8:45 a.m.-9:20 a.m.
Convocation 9:30 a.m.-10:20 a.m.
Third Hour 10:30 a.m.-11:05 a.m.
Fourth Hour 11:15 a.m.-11:50 a.m.

The regular schedule will be resumed following the fourth period.

Building Plans Set For April

Construction of the new Administration Building will start about the middle of April, and its estimated cost is $285,000, according to John Gaddis, superintendent of buildings and grounds.

The new building will be located 300 feet east of Yale Street. It will consist of a concrete frame, with a functional design. The interior of the building will be equipped with a new ventilation and lighting system. Units are being installed so that air conditioning can be put in later, Gaddis said.

The purpose of the new building is to give more class room space and more floor space for offices. It will also enable the business administration department to be located in one building. The building will take care of 1300 students, for classes and other purposes.

The old Administration Building will continue to serve for class rooms and offices, until completion of the new building.

Round about the Campus

By Joan Kallail

"HAPPY BIRTHDAY" was sung to Eric "Oley" Thoen recently at a party held in a local nightclub. Just a few who helped "Oley" celebrate were Mary Fran Sullivan, Mary Ann Reed, Betty June Boyles, Larry Payne, Jack Lamkin, and Dan Nyberg.

Don Ottoway was passing cigars the other day, but not because he was pinned. It was "merely" because he is the father of a seven-pound baby girl. . . So now he's walking on clouds.

COLLETTE PORTER hasn't been smiling as much as usual lately. Seems at the Webster's "western" pledge dance, "Stretch" Cather got a little careless with his water-gun and accidentally chipped off the edge of her tooth. . . It was a little hard to tell who felt worse after the collision.

Speaking of Websters, they're at it again! Monday at fraternity meeting they serenaded—for the third consecutive week—Mary Beth Nichols and Warren Ashmore who announced their pinning.

WOMEN BEWARE for the Phi Sigs are out looking for the ideal woman to be their "Sweater Girl." She is chosen by the active chapter and will be presented with a recognition pin at the annual dance. . . The only catch is that she must be "going" with a Phi Sig.

Mel Reser held a "stag" Saturday night for all his former pledge brothers at Mayor William Salome's home, where Reser lives. . . 'Twas said, a good time was had by all.

With a single decision Monday, two annual May Day problems were solved when the Student Council approved a worthy project suggested by Senior Representative Grace Berberich.

The project—a repeat benefit performance of the six highest Hippodrome-skits winners—will provide money to buy furniture and accessories for homes in the Logopedics Institute.

Each year, on May Day, the Auditorium is packed to capacity with students, making it next to impossible for parents and guests to attend. The benefit performance will solve that headache.

Student participation and interest have always been high. However, the work involved usually includes several weeks of practice and this has often been cited by many as a waste of time for a 15-minute skit, even with prizes offered. Being chosen for the benefit show will provide both another reward and a chance to "show our stuff" to Wichitans.

The Institute is affiliated with our school. It is an affiliation for which we, as students, can justifiably be proud. We may be equally proud of any assistance we can give to that organization.

Young Demos Here Praised By Anderson

Dear Editor:

It is my desire to extend through the Sunflower my sincere appreciation to Don Lambkin and the Young Democrat Club at the University for arranging the meeting of March 6.

I certainly enjoyed meeting and visiting with a number of the faculty members and students of the University. The Young Democrats are to be congratulated for the good work they are doing in the interest of good government.

I shall be looking forward to meeting you and more of the students of the University for I feel we have much in common since I spent two years there as a student myself.

State Representative.

Hippodrome Troubles . . .

Council Discusses ISA Split

Whether the Independent Students Association should be split up into separate groups or again compete with fraternities and sororities in Hippodrome as a single coed group was discussed for the second consecutive week at the Student Council meeting Monday night.

At present, the Hippodrome skits are presented in two divisions, one of fraternities and one of sororities. The ISA alternates every year, so that one year it competes against fraternities, the next year against sororities.

Carl Hiteshew, ISA representative, was at the meeting to state the views of that organization.

Unfair Advantage

Seven fraternity and sorority Council members felt that the ISA holds an unfair advantage over their respective organizations because it is a coed group, while the fraternities and sororities are not. The Student Council discussed a proposed ruling which would allow the ISA to compete in the Hippodrome only as two separate groups.

However, ISA Representative Hiteshew pointed out that the splitting up of the ISA into men and women divisions would prevent them from putting on a skit at all, because there are not enough members in the social organization to put on two separate skits.

Third Division Considered

One of the solutions proposed by Council members was the creation of a third division. The third division would be made up of all the coed organizations who wished to put on a skit in the Hippodrome.

Hiteshew rejected this plea on the basis that the University recognized their organization as a social coed group, and as such, they had the right to appear in the Hippodrome with other social groups.

The ISA representative went on to add that when the first invitation for a Hippodrome went out to the social organizations of the campus, no mention was made of the fact that a coed group could not participate.

Method Is Traditional

Hiteshew pointed out that the method on which the Hippodrome skits now are presented is merely tradition, that at any time a coed social organization on the campus could put on a skit if it so desired.

On these points debate rested, and the final decision on the matter was postponed until Monday at the next Council meeting.

Whan Is Speaker For Conference

Dr. F. L. Whan, head of the speech department, was one of the guest speakers Monday at the fifth annual radio conference at the University of Oklahoma.

Attending the conference, which was held March 12 to 14, were students who conferred with station managers, personnel and advertising agents. Opening day of the conference was devoted largely to demonstration broadcasts by students.

Dr. Whan spoke on the subject, "Practicality of the 10 Watt FM Radio Station for Universities." He pointed out the features of the University radio station, KMWU.

A. D. Martin Heads Campus Republicans

Other officers elected were: James R. Edwards, men's vice chairman; Pat Edwards, women's vice chairman; Barbara Mendell, secretary; Chet Maurer, treasurer; Harlan Seiber, sgt.-at-arms; Irving Coffey, parliamentarian; and M. B. Garlow, executive secretary.

"This being an election year we feel the collegiate young Republicans will play an important part in the political picture of Wichita and Kansas in the next few months," said the newly-elected chairman.

Retiring chairman of the campus Republican club is Ronald McEnulty.

Weekend Activity Includes Banquet, Receptions, And Dance

Corbin's Acceptance Speech Highlights Investiture

At 2:30 Thursday afternoon, Pres. Harry F. Corbin was formally inaugurated president of the University of Wichita.

Students of the University saw a preview of the afternoon's ceremony at a special convocation held at 10:30 in the morning. The program included a procession and a speech by Dr. Ernest C. Colwell, president of the University of Chicago.

Inauguration day was a busy one for the new president. At 6 p.m., a banquet honoring guests, delegates, and faculty was served in the Lassen Hotel.

The evening was highlighted by an inauguration concert featuring the University of Wichita's Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of James Robertson and with James Ceasar as soloist. After the concert a reception honoring President and Mrs. Corbin was held in the Commons Lounge.

Saturday night, students honored the new president with a reception and dance at the Broadview Hotel Roof Garden. During the intermission, student groups serenaded President Corbin, marking the end of the week-end ceremonies.

Corbin's Speech

"It is a humbling experience to hear the charge of the Chairman of our Board of Regents and to realize that it calls for the very utmost that I can give," declared President Corbin in accepting the charge by Howard N. Fullington, chairman of the Board of Regents, at the inauguration Thursday afternoon before a capacity crowd in the Auditorium.

"Fortunately for all of us," President Corbin continued, "the task is not a lonely one. It is a common goal that will be shared with many workers as we seek to build Wichita a great center of learning."

"A municipal university is distinguished by its relationship to the city and it is a reassuring fact to know that all of the people of Wichita have such a pronounced interest in the future of the University. It will be a great privilege to serve in the capacity of president."

Thanking Dr. Ernest C. Colwell for his appearance at the day's ceremonies, President Corbin added, "Mr. Colwell's presence and participation today is a memorable occasion for all of us and a source of deep personal satisfaction to me."

Wonderful Future

Citing the future of the University and its students, President Corbin said, "A wonderful opportunity is now at hand. Americans have staked their democratic philosophy of life in the educational programs of the country. We have had the conviction that a free, liberal education for all of our young people through the high school is advantageous for all.

"We now proclaim that a university education is the right of all who are qualified for further academic work and who will make the necessary effort."

"The City of Wichita, by a prodigious effort, over and above its support of state schools, is providing the opportunity for qualified students in this area to receive a good education, whether it be preparation for citizenship and business or for professional work. The quality of this program will determine, in a large measure, the kind of city we are to have."

"The crisis of our time is much like that of most turbulent periods in the history of the world. It is more acute now, the scope far wider, the danger which threatens more catastrophic. The crisis is moral and spiritual as well as physical. The latter is a vital consideration, but should not engage our attention exclusively."

A fine faculty will install the vision of greatness in its students. Much attention must be devoted to the conditions of work and to the status of our teachers. Theirs is the responsibility for sound and inspirational teaching. The administration and the city must shoulder the burden which that suggests."

"The task of the University will be to provide special training for leadership, general education for citizenship, and a high proportion of the specialists and technicians who will take their place in the community."

"The City and the State have provided wisely in the type of governing body for the University. The members of the Board of Regents do not have honorary positions. They have working jobs, they have been busy in past years, and I personally guarantee to keep them busy in future years."

"Their guidance is vital to the University and I am grateful for their help, their confidence, and their cooperation. The faculty and students have been wonderful in the eight months of work we have been through together. If that degree of cooperation and support is continued our future is very bright."

"Mrs. Corbin and I are proud to be able to serve in this capacity. We are grateful for this opportunity. I make a pledge to you today. In accepting this trust I pledge a complete devotion and absolute dedication to the obligations and needs of the University and the City."

At the student's convocation last Thursday morning, Dr. Colwell told the student body that security is our boldest hope. "Academic security; social security; health security; job security; old age security; military security—the adjectives vary but the noun is always SECURITY," he said.

"New hopes require faith," said Dr. Colwell, "and three high faiths are, religion, patriotism, and love—between the sexes. In each of these hope and faith support each other. "Creation of hope and faith is a task for youth. If you have the nerve to tackle it, do not ignore rich resources which religion of-

Thanks . . .

Mrs. Corbin and I wish to express our deep appreciation to the members of the Board of Regents, the faculty, and the student body for their parts in making my inauguration such a great success. There have been many expressions of congratulations to the University for the fine organization which made the day so successful.

This, of course, is indicative of a great amount of effort on your part, but I feel certain that we will be well rewarded by the sympathetic understanding and cooperation of the entire community and of the many friends of the University far and wide.

Pres. Harry F. Corbin.

Pronko Has Article Published On Changes In Psychopathology

Dr. N. H. Pronko, head of the University psychology department, had an article, "Changing Orientations in Psychopathology," published in the Journal of Psychology for 1950.

According to Dr. Pronko there is quite a revolution developing now in medical psychology. Formerly psychopaths have always reacted and based their reactions as having been hunted for inside the person's brain and brain tissues but today the stress is on the person's social setting and surroundings.

Even when there has been a brain injury or destruction of some type, there are factors which are always prominent in the total picture. These factors are now being recognized by medical authorities. Some examples are family conditions, financial problems, status in society, prestige, conflict and frustration, said Dr. Pronko.

Delving further into the subject, Dr. Pronko said, where there has been an accident of the brain, the persons who are having trouble of some type, are the ones that come in for the greatest share of cerebral accidents.

An interesting fact that is now being studied and accepted by the medical field, is that nothing more develops in personality as a person goes from age to age and from environment to environment. Personality has always been present and certain features of personality are blown up and more obvious at different times.

The journal in which Dr. Pronko's article appeared is circulated to all subscribing members and libraries throughout the country.

History Judged Best In Section Contest

The Historical Section of the inaugural edition of The Sunflower was chosen today as the most professional and interesting of the three special sections published in honor of the inauguration of Pres. Harry F. Corbin.

Selection, made by a committee of four, was based on make-up, typography, newswriting, and research. Members of the committee were Dr. Robert Frazer, chairman of the Student Board of Publications; Lester Rosen, director of the University News Bureau; and Dean Campbell and Paul Gerhard, instructors in journalism.

Committee members indicated the choice to be a particularly difficult one to make, pointing out that each section possessed many admirable qualities in make-up, typography, and newswriting.

Staff members and writers responsible for the Inaugural Section and Sports and Activities Sections were complimented by the committee for their work.

The Historical Section, headed by M. Michael Miller, included: James R. Edwards, associate editor; Jack Chegwidden, Carl Goeller, William McClain, and Perry Lee, assistant editors; Joan Longorio and Joe Ludiker, special staff

Grade Experiment Results In Change

The experiment of mailing only F grades to students the first six weeks and the proposed plan of continuing this experiment, has indicated a different trend of interest on the part of both the faculty and students.

As a result of this trend, D grades will be mailed to students in addition to failing grades during the remainder of the semester, said Dean L. Hekhuis, head of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences.

Men Of Webster Take Fourth In State AAU Cage Tourney

The Men of Webster basketball team emerged Saturday night from the week-long Kansas AAU basketball tournament at the Forum with three honors; fourth place award, Independent team sportsmanship award, and one man placed on the all-state team.

Randy Barron, the all-state choice, led the way with 13 points for the Webster men as they trounced the Caldwell Legion quintet 53 to 25 for a first round victory. The Webster men led 26 to 9 at halftime.

Eddie Kriwiell, Bob "Stretch" Cather, and Gene Klein each fired five field goals to lead a sizzling second half attack which carried the fraternity five to a 51 to 43 victory over the Gymsum Merchants in second round play. The first half ended in a 22 to 22 tie.

In third round play, the Webster men produced a balanced scoring attack against the Clearwater Legion five and emerged on the long end of a 61 to 47 score to gain a berth in the Friday night semi-finals. Four fraternity men scored ten or more points, Cather taking high honors with 14.

Hesston's King Motors defeated the Men of Webster in the semi-finals by a score of 83 to 43.

Hesston led 38 to 24 at half time and the Webster men, who suffered a cold second half, were never able to make a serious threat.

The Junction City Rimrockers defeated the Men of Webster in the consolation game Saturday by a 65 to 56 score. The loss left the fraternity quintet the fourth place club in the field of 44 teams in the tourney.

Carlson Calls For More Tennis Men

Tennis Coach Bob Carlson is singing the blues! Only six men have reported out for the varsity tennis squad and a tough schedule of ten meets, including the University of Oklahoma and Nebraska of the Big Seven, is on tap.

"Anybody who can play tennis is cordially requested to come out," stated Coach Carlson, "and will be entered in the 'ladder' tournament to be held sometime between now and Apr. 12, when we play Kansas State here."

The present six-man squad will begin practicing on the Riverside park courts this week. Getting in shape are Fred Davidson, Bob Mann, Carl Mibeck, Woody Woods, and Bill Tinscher. Two others reporting late were Morris and Robinson.

Mibeck, state champ in high school, is a sophomore and promises to be an excellent factor in the future years as well as the forthcoming season. Woods, Davidson, and Mann are the only returning lettermen.

Hickey had been for many years, athletic director and cage coach at Creighton University in Omaha, Neb.

Bradley Plays In Semi-Finals

Bradley's Missouri Valley champion Braves face St. John's of Brooklyn tonight in a semi-final clash of the National Invitational basketball tournament at New York's Madison Square Garden.

Bradley reached the semi-finals by drubbing Syracuse, 78 to 66, Monday night. All-Americans Gene Melchiorre and Paul Unruh proved too much for the Orangemen, netting 20 to 15 points respectively.

St. John's earned the right to meet top-seeded Bradley by eliminating Western Kentucky, 69 to 60, Monday night. St. John's is the tourney's fourth seeded team.

In the other semi-final encounter tonight, third-seeded Duquesne meets City College of New York. CCNY pulled the biggest upset of the tournament Tuesday night when it trounced second-seeded Kentucky, 89 to 50. The Beavers built up a 45 to 20 halftime lead and the Wildcats were never able to close the gap.

Duquesne edged LaSalle 49 to 47 in another Tuesday night quarter-final.

Braves To NCAA

Following the NIT, which ends Saturday night, Bradley travels to Kansas City, Mo., for the NCAA District Five playoff against Kansas University, Monday night.

Although KU, Kansas State, and Nebraska tied for the Big Seven championship, league officials gave the nod to the Jayhawks, whose late season record bested those of the other schools.

Kansas City's Municipal Auditorium, which seats 9,600, has already been sold out for the Bradley-KU playoff.

If the Braves can win that one, they will compete in the NCAA Western Regionals at Kansas City, Mar. 23 and 25.

Thin Clads... Shocker Tracksters Begin Working Out For Stillwater Meet

With spring weather coming up, the Shocker track squad has started loosening up its muscles and getting into shape for its first meet, March 25.

Track coach Ab Bidwell states that although freshmen aren't eligible for varsity meets, they will get some competition.

Several freshmen out for the track squad who starred on high school track teams include, Tom Lieurance from Wichita High School East; Jerry Carlson and Arlton Shutts from Wichita High School North; Wallace Decker of Andover; Nicholas Peter of New Jersey; Charles Anderson of Kansas City; Don Oder of South Haven; and Jack Barnhisel, a transfer from Kansas University.

Out For Football

Freshmen tracksters still out for football spring training are Clarence Jernigan, Ted Theodosoff, Charles Varner, Herb Eddington, Ray Coleman, Don Stump, Eli Romero, Wayne Ubben, Charles Baldon, and Walter Corbin.

Shocker lettermen returning this spring are Ira Barkman, Standish Brooks, Walt Byfield, Jack Childers, Sam Evans, Carl Holmes, Leo Konecny, Larry Lallement, David McCutcheon, Lewis Nichols, Jimmy Nutter, Ralph Latas, and Bill Smith.

Several Junior College transfers out for the track squad are Dan Blankenship of Pratt, Bill Loffer of Coffeyville, Gene Smith of Hutchinson, Erwin Work of Ark City, and Maurice Hendershot of Hutchinson.

A limited squad of both freshman and varsity trackmen will make the trip to Stillwater, Okla. March 25, to compete in the Oklahoma A and M Relays.

Two Shockers Get Mention

Don Toews and John Friedersdorf made honorable mention in the Associated Press All-Missouri Valley basketball listings released Tuesday.

First team berths went to: forwards—Gene Melchiorre of Bradley and John Rennie of Drake; center—Paul Unruh of Bradley; and guards—Lou Lehman of St. Louis and Neil Ridley of Tulsa.

Making the second AP team were: forwards—Joe Ossola of St. Louis and Jack Shelton of Oklahoma A and M; center—Norman Swanson of Detroit; and guards—Bob Schmidt of St. Louis and Bill Mann of Bradley.

Elmer Behnke and Charlie Grover of Bradley, John Kirwan and Brendan McNamara of Detroit, and Gale McArthur of Oklahoma A and M joined the two Shockers on the honorable mention list.

Final Intramural Play-Offs Tonight

The Cowpokes upset the powerful Webster B team, 36 to 29, Tuesday night to advance to the semi-finals of the intramural double elimination tournament at Henrion Gymnasium. The loss dropped the B's out of the tourney with two losses.

Meanwhile the Webster A squad advanced to the finals by slaughtering the All-Stars, 62 to 36, also on Tuesday night. The A's met the winner of the Cowpoke-All Stars game tonight for the title.

In second round play last week, the Webster A team defeated the Webster B team, 23 to 18, after several delays in the game, which ended shortly before the Websters were to play in the Kansas AAU tourney at the Forum.

Before the opening tip-off, Bob Kirkpatrick, intramural director, said the game would not be played unless both teams agreed to make a contest of it.

The teams started to leave the floor, but returned after Kirkpatrick said he would disqualify both teams if the game was not played.

The game was halted again after the first three minutes because of slow play, but was soon resumed. As play gained in momentum, Webster spectators who razed Kirkpatrick were ordered cleared from the gym.

The loss was the first for the Webster B team this season.

Golfers Meet First Opponent

University linksmen will see their first competition this season at Ponca City, when they meet the Oklahoma Aggies in a practice match. Earl Hamilton, golf mentor, said this week.

"Since the weather has kept the golfers off the fairways for some time, we lack the practice a good team should have," said Coach Hamilton, "but we hope to get that at Ponca City," he added.

The Shocker attack will be sparked by returning lettermen Jack Douglas, Joe Minjares, and Al Littleton. Douglas and Littleton, both seniors, will play their last season with the Shockers. Minjares, a junior, will be working for his second varsity letter. "Douglas, Minjares, and Littleton can be counted upon to turn in a good performance against any golf team," remarked Coach Hamilton. "Each man has proved by his past records that he consistently plays in the championship brackets," he added.

An 18-hole qualifying round will be played March 29, at the Crestview Country Club, to determine the fourth member of the Shocker traveling squad.

"Little Pipe-Line" Minjares, so named for his long and perfectly straight drives, sparked the Wichita High School North linksmen to a state championship during his high school competition. He has made an excellent showing since he began University golf.

Douglas, who played with Littleton on the Wichita High School North team in 1942, competed in the city semi-finals in 1948 after defeating defending champion, Fred Dold, in the quarter-finals. In his first year of competitive golf, Douglas played with the '41 North High team which took all-state honors.

Littleton, the Shocker who has won two state and city championship titles since 1947, will captain the varsity squad when the season opens.

Maurice Bowen, a University freshman, is the most promising prospect for future Shocker golf teams. Bowen played with the Wichita High School North squad all three of his high school years, and was team medalist in his senior year.

Baseball Workouts To Begin Tuesday

Baseball coach, Ken Gunning, announced that all infield and outfield candidates for the 1950 Shocker baseball team should report to the men's gymnasium on Tuesday, March 21, at 3 p.m.

All students who wish to try out for a position on the Shocker nine, are also urged to turn out.

My, How Times Have Changed...

THESE DASHING DANDIES won Shocker gridiron fame in 1902. This picture was taken from the oldest Parnassus on file in the library. To these boys the "T" formation was nothing more than an afternoon English drinking custom, but apparently to the 1950 gridmen, the "T" is the thing. If spring practice experiments continue to please Coach Jim Trimble at the present rate, the single wing will soon be as outdated as the above-pictured Fairmounters.

Intramural Sports Will Start Soon

The 1950 intramural program will move into its spring session next week, beginning with a ping pong tournament to be held on Tuesday and Wednesday, March 21 and 22. All games, starting at 7 p. m. will be played in the Men's Gym.

Extension time has been given to wrestling entries, according to Bob Kirkpatrick, intramural director. The new deadline date is 5 p. m., Monday, March 20. Wrestling competition will begin on Tuesday, March 28, with weighing-in-time scheduled for the preceding day. Weight divisions are: 121, 128, 135, 145, 155, 165, and 175 pounds, and an unlimited class.

Softball entries are now being taken at the intramural director's office. Organizations will be allowed one team each, but unattached and unaffiliated teams may also compete. Deadline for entries is 5 p. m., Monday, March 20.

Marquette University of Milwaukee, Wis., tops the list of candidates for Missouri Valley membership to be considered possibly in May.

Charvat added that Marquette as a member would balance the conference's northern division, which includes Detroit, Bradley, and Drake.

Spring Football Roster Includes Nearly 7 Tons Of Man Power

A spring football roster totaling 13,857 pounds of student material is what the Shocker coaching staff has to choose from to form the 1950 grid squad, according to head gridmaster, Jim Trimble.

Trimble and Freshman coach Bob Carlson, specialists in line tutoring, will have 9,320 pounds of line talent from which to build the Shockers' front wall, with an average of 202 pounds per man.

The huge mass of line talent falls into these weight categories: ENDS (10) totaling 1,896 pounds for an average of 189.6 pounds per man; TACKLES (21) totaling 4,500 for an average of 214.3 pounds per man; GUARDS (9) totaling 1,644 pounds for an average of 182.7 per man; and CENTERS (17) totaling 1,280 pounds for an average of 182.8 pounds per man.

The head grid mentor commented this week on how the different line positions were shaping up: "Veteran Mike Knopick and four newcomers from the 1950 Frosh team, John Walor, Elias Thomas, Norbert Moranz and Bernie Knapic are looking great in the wing positions."

"Tackles Joe Mraz, Vere Wellman, and Bob Harclerode are showing up well, and are getting their positions in 'nip and tuck' shape."

"Aggie Oleksak is sparking the guard berth along with next year's sophomores Bob Messinger, Jim Jernigan and Bob Harris."

The grid tutor added that in the anchor position, centers Jack Swager and Gene Wells, both seniors, and newcomers John Costantino and Dick Coleman were shaping up well.

A backfield corps consisting of 27 speedsters will offer plenty of help to the Shocker grid cause, according to backfield mentors Norvall Neve and Earl Hamilton. A fifth staff member, Jim Valek, coaches wingmen.

Kriwiell, a senior next year, won national recognition for passing, while Nutter, also a senior next season, racked up national honors as a punt return artist and scoring leader.

The Shockers will use a new huddle formation, during the 1950 grid season, according to sports publicity director Bob Glazier. The new huddle, the same formation used by Notre Dame, is a time saving element allowing the squad approximately three more plays during a game, than the previous Shocker huddle.

Professor Says . . .

We're Peeping Toms

"We are all peeping Toms," says Dr. Donald H. Dietrich professor of psychology of the University of Oklahoma. He explained that there are varying degrees of peepism which the American culture tends to encourage. For examples, Dr. Dietrich pointed to sex plays and advertisements which have illustrations of the human body as being peeping Tom activities.

"However, there is a compelling force in some people which makes it impossible for them to keep from peeping," Dr. Dietrich observes. He explains that these individuals are emotionally sick and need referral to psychology clinics which could help them.
