To Broadcast Drama Series

"She Stoops to Conquer," a British comedy, by Oliver Goldsmith, will be heard at 4 p.m., Saturday, over KMUW.

According to Prof. George Goodrich, KMUW director, the play, a special radio adaptation starring John Mills, is about a bashful lover, who becomes tongue-tied around his fiancée, yet friendly around his serving maids.

The woman, "stooping to conquer," adopts a disguise as a serving maid, in order to have her lover approach her.

Professor Goodrich said KMUW will be on the air every Saturday from 12:45 to 5:30 p.m., with WUCR programs until 4 p.m. At 4, a complete play will be heard every Saturday.

Wednesday evening, talks and discussions on the Twentieth Century Theater were broadcast. This program will be heard every Wednesday at 8 p.m. with such topics as "The Well-made Play," and "The Modern Play of Ideas," of George Bernard Shaw, being discussed, Professor Goodrich said.

Coeds Tramp Streets To Find Fare to NIT

Members of Wheaties, the Wichita University Pep Club, have been tramping the streets in search of donations to finance their trip to New York City to the National Invitational Tournament, if Coach Ralph Miller accepts the bid.

The Wheaties have collected about $2,000 from Wichita businessmen. If enough is donated, 35 Wheaties can take the trip; if not, the number will be cut to 25. They will leave Wichita Friday morning, and will arrive in New York Saturday afternoon in time for the team's first game that night.

The Wichita University Pep Club wishes to express its thanks to the business men who have made the trip possible, said Jeannine

Crowdus, president of the club, who stated, "I hope that we get to go; the important thing is to be there to cheer for the team."

Night Patrol Slated For Study

A night patrol problem is to be conducted this evening by the Army ROTC cadets on the golf course east of the Armory.

The junior ROTC cadets who will be on the defensive will try to capture the sophomore ROTC cadets who will be on the offensive while playing the part of the enemy.

Sgt. Vernon Vance, Army ROTC instructor, said that the purpose of the night patrol is to give the cadets a chance to practice actual war maneuvers and to see the proper way to handle different war situations.

Hippodrome Theme To Be 'Get Happy'

The theme for Hippodrome, April 30, will be "Get Happy," the Student Council decided Monday night.

There will be one backdrop each for men's and women's organizations. Each organization can have its own scenery which can be moved on and off the stage handily.

Organizations are to present names of five qualified judges to the Student Council at the next meeting. From these lists the Council will pick judges for Hippodrome.

Regents Reject Field House Bids

Twenty-nine bids from contractors for the construction of the University of Wichita Field House were rejected by the Board of Regents which met in the Commons lounge, Thursday afternoon.

Members of the Board voted to give the architects, Schmidt-McVay and Peddie of Wichita, until March 15 to study present plans and propose alterations to bring the cost down to $2,400,000, the amount the Board indicated can be spent for the structure.

The lowest bids read Thursday were $600,000 above the estimated cost. Officials said that other construction costs of the Field House not covered in the bids would have increased the cost to nearly one million dollars above the expected cost.

Recommendations will be returned to the Board of Regents March 15, and additional information will be released at that time.

A motion to defer final action until April on whether University fraternities and sororities should be allowed to join national Greek organizations was also adopted. The delay was made to enable the Board to obtain more information.

Members of the team then went to the Trig where they were honored with a party. Jim Starkey's band furnished the dance music.

Add Color to Your Wardrobe Is Spring Fashion Suggestion

By Associated Press

Spring is just around the corner, which means that before long nature will be changing her wardrobe colors. Why not do the same? Try colors you've never worn before and add new versions of your favorite color flatterers.

No matter what the color of your hair, eyes, and skin—whether you're selecting a new garment or a bright accessory note—you should have little trouble finding the right color for you for spring. Take a quick inventory of your wardrobe—and plan some original color combinations. Then try mixing and matching. You're sure to come up with some fresh ideas that will pep up those clothes you once thought were so dull and uninteresting.

Basic Colors

You know, basic colors—black, brown, dark green and navy—are smart as well as practical. You can center your whole wardrobe around one or more of them, for they blend well, and look fashionable with just the right touch of another color.

A colorful collection of fashions for spring and summer featured a variety of designs in novelty and classic acetates that made their appearance in seaside and travel clothes. Among these were surahs, jerseys, nubby fabrics that look like tweed, and the very newest weaves of sealed-in color acetate.

The collection reflected a trend toward the classic in styling and fabric, with a notable return of sharkskin to popularity because of its sparkly white texture that has a nice way of flattering sun-bronzed complexions. Also making a big hit was a series of Hawaiian fashions, picturesque and bright as possible for fun-loving vacationers.

Flower Prints

New bags, coordinated with shoes, appear in all types of fabrics and shapes for spring and

IT'S ALL A MATTER OF TASTE

No guessing games with cigarettes
When luckies are your brand—
A cleaner, fresher, smoother smoke,
A taste that's really grand!

Phil W. Elder
Oklahoma University

When you come right down to it, you smoke for one simple reason . . . enjoyment. And smoking enjoyment is all a matter of taste. Yes, taste is what counts in a cigarette. And Luckies taste better.

Two facts explain why Luckies taste better. First, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco . . . light, mild, good-tasting tobacco. Second, Luckies are actually made better to taste better . . . always round, firm, fully packed to draw freely and smoke evenly.

So, for the enjoyment you get from better taste, and only from better taste, Be Happy—Go Lucky. Get a pack or a carton of better-tasting Luckies today.

Use the Library!

The library on the campus of a university is considered the focal point of interest, as well as a bank of knowledge. Does this apply to the University of Wichita? Pondering over this question is futile, because the answer is quite obvious.

Do students feel that they are utilizing the library to the fullest extent? The standards of a university are often measured by its library. After an examination of the library facilities available to every student attending the University, one can truthfully assume that here is an adequate means with which to further one's education.

Library hours are scheduled for the benefit of all concerned. Before one complains he should take stock of exactly what he has at his disposal, and in turn examine his own habits to see whether or not there is any concrete basis on which to build a complaint.

Some students may have bonafide excuses for non-usage of the library due to their lack of knowledge of just what the library offers. The library offers use of the book stacks, with special permission; study rooms, for small group study; a magazine section, which offers current periodicals of most phases of study; reference rooms; and desk service. These and many other facilities await library users.

The library also features art displays, usually with a historical slant, and the theme is regularly changed.

The students of the University are fortunate to have at their constant disposal such a rich store of knowledge from the ancient ages to the present, and references which keep up with everyday world affairs.

Red Cross Needs You

In March, millions of citizens in every part of the country open their hearts and purses to support the humanitarian services of the American Red Cross.

When Kansas was struck five times by floods, fire, and explosions during the fiscal year of 1952-53, the Red Cross helped 2,904 persons who suffered disaster, injury, or loss. A total of $55,516 was spent in this program. Besides this, the Red Cross trained 10,142 persons in first aid, 11,025 in swimming and life saving, and 2,843 in home nursing.

No less than 234,243 youngsters were introduced to Red Cross during the year through the Junior Red Cross program. This program is now active in 2,187 elementary and secondary schools in Kansas. The students of these schools sent overseas 8,266 gift boxes for needy foreign children. They also raised $3,151 for the National Children's Fund.

The Red Cross movement is not limited to the students of elementary and secondary schools or adults. The Red Cross needs the full cooperation of the University students as well. Your time, your energy, your money will make the services possible.

This year's goal is $85,000,000 and 30,000,000 members. It's your contributions of money and service that determine what the Red Cross can do in the year ahead for the stricken and troubled who call for help.

Angulo to Head Ex-Police Lieutenant Mexico Tour Grateful for Award

By Se-yong Kim
Sunflower Managing Editor

A former police lieutenant of the Republic of Korea, now enrolled at the University, Monday, expressed his deep gratitude to the University faculty members who have given him the opportunity of coming to the United States by awarding him a tuition-fee scholarship.

Chun Hyung Cho, who until recently served as a liaison officer of the South Korean National Police and the United States Military Police Enforcement Agency in Korea, enjoys his student life in the University "under the peaceful atmosphere without being afraid of interruption by any outside influences."

Cho States His Purpose

The 19-year old student from the war-ravaged country of the Far East is a freshman in the College of Business Administration. His purpose of majoring in business administration is, "to obtain adequate knowledge of American economic which had brought the highest living standard in the world to this country."

Interviewed at Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mahin's, 1725 Fairmount, where he resides with two other Koreans, Cho said the students in Korea can hardly concentrate on studies as there are many things to worry about because of the war. Cho likes America, above all Wichita, its people, its towns, and its atmosphere but not the "unreasonable weather" which makes him sick.

Cho arrived in San Francisco on Jan. 15, along with seven other Korean students by a United States cargo, "Sea Serpent." He flew to Wichita from San Francisco.

He Is Former Policeman

After graduation from a high school in Seoul, Cho joined the National Police and became the youngest police officer in South Korea. His father, a police captain who is chief of police in Kimpo area near Seoul, is a two-star officer while Cho had one star. He has one sister and a brother, both of them younger than himself.

Cho, while serving the Police has completed one semester at the College of Commerce, Seoul National University.

The third annual tour to Mexico, under the sponsorship of the Spanish department, has been planned for the summer vacation.

Instructor 'Forces' Signs of Spring

Signs of spring were "forced" onto the campus this year.

Hyacinths, tulips, and narcissus are being displayed sheltered from cold March winds in the first floor lobby of the Science Building.

To make them bloom, the plants were matured by forcing, a method used to bring about early development of plants. In this method the plant bulbs are subjected to extreme cold and then placed in soil. When roots develop the plants are transferred to the green house where they begin to mature rapidly.

According to Dr. Clinton McDonald, head of the botany and bacteriology department, it was Miss Aileen M. Skaer, a botany instructor, who "forced" spring on the campus this year.

NBC Correspondent Is Next Forum Speaker

Leon Pearson, National Broadcasting Company's western European expert and United Nations correspondent, will be the Student Forum speaker at 8:15 p.m. next Thursday in the Commons Auditorium.

Recently returned from a tour through England, France, Germany and the low countries, Mr. Pearson will speak here on "The Road from War."

Mr. Pearson received his first journalistic experience as a member of the staff which produced the "Washington - Merry - Go-Round" daily column and weekly broadcast. At the same time he developed and syndicated his own column on

In 1953 he joined the Washington staff of the International News Service and was assigned to cover the State Department. When the war was over he was transferred to the Paris bureau of INS.

Early in December of 1945 he was chosen to cover the Big Three Moscow meeting. Two years later he covered the Big Four Foreign Ministers Conference.

Before his departure from Paris in July, 1947, French Foreign Minister Bidault presented him with the French Legion of Honor for "objective" reporting of European affairs.

From its inception at Dumbarton Oaks, through the San Francisco Conference and the first London meetings of the General Assembly, on through current sessions, Leon Pearson has made a special study of the United Nations. He is one of this country's top journalistic experts on the organization.

Mr. Pearson was educated at Swarthmore, Pa., College and at Harvard University from where he obtained his master's degree.

He taught in the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania before beginning his journalistic career.

Shockers Explode Aggie Myth

Scheer Sinks Jumpshot To Capsize Cowpokes

The myth that the Oklahoma Aggies are invincible for the Shockers on their home court exploded in a single dramatic moment last week when Paul Scheer sank a jump-shot with three seconds to go in the game to give the Shockers a 67-66 victory.

It was a fitting ending for the valiant Shockers who had led nearly all the way but found themselves with a one-point deficit and time running out.

Mattick Hits for 26

Although they could not stop the Aggies' big star Bob Mattick, who tallied 26 points, the Shockers showed a more balanced scoring attack to keep their Missouri Valley title hopes alive.

Cleo Littleton, closely watched throughout the hectic contest, managed to drop in 16 points to pace the Wichita attack. Littleton was capably backed by Scheer with 14, Jim McNerney, 13; Don Laketa, 10; and Bob Hodgson, nine points.

Thompson Plays

Gary Thompson, still nursing an injured leg, played a large part of the contest and was a huge factor in the Shocker victory with his calm floor play when the pressure mounted in the final minutes.

Merv Carman and Leo Carney came on in relief for Cleo Littleton and Bob Hodgson, who fouled out, and were instrumental in the win with their aggressive defensive work in the closing moments of the game.

Wichita led by a three-point margin at all three intermissions with advantages of 21-18, 34-31, and 53-50.

In the final period the tension mounted as both teams fought desperately to gain a clear-cut advantage and it was Jim McNerney who kept the Shockers close as the hustling forward hit on four key field goals in the stretch drive.

The Aggies, who are masters at stalling when they have a lead, could not get more than a one-point lead over the Shockers.

With 20 seconds to go Fred Babb, who had been the goat earlier when he missed an easy layup, sank two free throws to put the Aggies ahead, 66-65. This set the stage for the game-winning shot by Scheer.

Shocks Post 26th Win

Posting their 26th win of the season, the University of Wichita Wheatshockers easily defeated Emporia State College, 79 to 57, Monday. This was the second time this season that Wichita has dropped the Hornets, previously beating them in the Forum by an almost identical score, 79 to 56.

Shocker Coach Ralph Miller used second stringers nearly half the game. Sixteen players saw action, 12 of whom scored from the field.

High scorer for Wichita was guard Paul Scheer with 12 points. Wichita scoring was evenly balanced. Cleo Littleton hit 10 points; Jim McNerney had 11 points; Don Laketa and Gary Thompson each had eight points; Verlyn Anderson and Bob Hodgson had seven each.

Wichita started slowly, with Emporia jumping off to a 4 to 0 lead. Jumping into the lead late in the first quarter, Wichita led 14 to 6 at the end of the first, 32 to 21 at the half, and 53 to 33 at the close of the third.

Twice in the fourth period, Wichita ran up leads of 31 points.

WU Frosh Split 2-Game Series

The Emporia State "B" team poured on 28 points in the third period last Monday night to hand the University of Wichita Freshmen five, their second loss of the season.

Herb Coin with 26 points and Gary Mann, who sank 17, were high scorers for the Frosh.

The Yearlings won their 12th game of the season last Wednesday night as they trounced the first year men at Oklahoma A. and M., 72-54. Herb Coin again led the scoring for the Wichita Frosh with 25 points. Close behind was Dawson with 17.

What's The Score?

By Mike Anderson
Sunflower Sports Editor

Following the Wichita victory over Oklahoma A. and M. last week, the papers carried the story of Paul Scheer's "desperation" shot. True, it was a desperate moment when the dead-eyed guard unleashed the dramatic winning goal but the fact remains that the jump-shot artist has hit some 40 per cent of those same shots throughout the entire season. In the Emporia State game Monday night, Scheer hit six out of nine baskets, almost identical to the thriller in the Aggie game.

But desperation or not, the shot that brought down the roof in Gallagher Hall was a brilliant climax to a fine athletic career at Wichita for the graduating senior.

An incident, which reveals Ralph Miller as a capable philosopher as well as coach, was unveiled by one of the Shocker cagers. Miller told his team before the season began that they shouldn't lose more than three games. At this writing, his prediction appears amazingly accurate with 26 wins against only three losses.

Last week's victory over the Oklahoma Aggies avenged the last of the three defeats suffered by the Shockers this season. They split with Seattle, evened up with St. Louis in a return match at the Forum, and then had to go to Stillwater and do it the hard way to avenge the earlier defeat in Wichita by the Cowpokes.

The brilliant record compiled by this year's team is going to be hard to improve in the years to come. It would take almost an undefeated season to better it. But as far as goals to shoot at, the Shockers will have the Missouri Valley title to go after next year providing the Oklahoma Aggies don't collapse and lose out in the final stage.

Shocks to Face Falcons in NIT

Ohioans Will Be Wichita's 1st Foe

★ ★ ★ ★ ★
Meet Your Shockers

End 24-Win Season

The Wheatshockers have been scheduled to go against the Bowling Green University Falcons of Bowling Green, Ohio, in the Shockers' opening basketball game in the National Invitational Tournament on March 6.

This will be Wichita's first appearance in Madison Square Garden while the Falcons have previously made five appearances in the NIT. The last time for Bowling Green was in 1949, so none of the present Falcon players will have an advantage over the Shockers in having played there previously.

Both Teams Down Detroit
Detroit has been the one common opponent between Bowling Green and Wichita this season. The Falcons beat Detroit at Bowling Green, 78 to 53. Wichita has downed Detroit twice, 77 to 75 at Detroit, and 91 to 61 in Wichita.

Through Monday, Bowling Green had a seasonal record of 16 wins and 6 defeats.

With Wichita and Bowling Green playing on a neutral court, Wichita should be the favorite to win. The Shockers are ranked eleventh nationally while the Falcons are not rated in the top twenty teams.

However, the Bowling Green lineup features four players with scoring averages over 10 points per game. Al Bianci paces the Falcons with a 24.4 scoring average. He is closely supported by Jim Gerber, 19.6 points per game; Lou Drage, 13.4 points per game; and Clarence Yackey with an 11.2 average.

WU Will Have Nine
Wichita will have nine players on the tournament squad who have dropped in 100 or more points this season. Four of the nine have hit over 200 points. Cleo Littleton leads all Shockers with a total of 526 points, prior to last night's game. Littleton needs only 80 points to break his own record of 555 points in a single season.

The caliber of the University's starting basketball team is evidenced by the presence of three Shocker reserves, Dean Sutcliffe, Glen Boyer, and Tippy Tucker.

Because of the strength of this year's squad, these three reserves, who could be starters on most teams, do not get to play as often as they should.

Sutcliffe hails from Chanute, Coach Miller's home town. He plays forward and stands 6 feet, 3 inches tall. Sutcliffe, a senior, has another year of eligibility and should provide the Shockers with plenty of depth next year. His specialty is a deadly one-handed shot from outside and he possesses fine rebounding ability. Squad members have nicknamed him the "Horse."

Glen Boyer is varsity squad member who was a member of last year's championship freshman squad. Boyer lacks the experience that is needed for starting berth, but he is only a sophomore, and time should bring him around to the point where his fine two-handed, over-the-head shot, will benefit the Shocker varsity.

The Kentucky Wildcats have ended their 1953-54 basketball season with 24 consecutive victories to become the first major college team to go through an unbeaten campaign since Columbia in 1951. Kentucky whipped Alabama, 66 to 43 Monday night, for the school's first all-winning season in 20 years.

Sox' Hitter Snaps Shoulder

By Associated Press
Spring training was officially only 10 minutes old when one of baseball's greatest all-time hitters broke his shoulder. It happened Monday at Sarasota, Fla., when Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox came loping in after a deceptive fly ball hit by Hoot Evers.

When the ball suddenly began to sink, Williams raced forward and made a leaping somersault grab for the ball. His left shoulder snapped and X-rays disclosed a fracture.

Williams will be out of action for six weeks. It isn't known how soon he will be able to take his regular turn in left field. Oddly enough, the man who hit the fly ball, Evers, is Williams' replacement. The 35-year-old Williams, who has a lifetime batting average of .347, third highest in history, had been the victim of two other serious injuries. In the (Continued on Page 8)
