

Skits to Open May Festivities

May Day will come to the Campus one day early when Hippodrome skits begin at 9 a. m., tomorrow in the Auditorium.

Although May Day will be early, the same traditions will be carried out which have been handed down since these celebrations began 42 years ago.

The first May Day celebration was held on the campus of Fairmount College, the predecessor of the University of Wichita, in 1912. The May Queen of 1912 was Esther Lee of Sorosis.

May Queen for 1954 will be Phyllis Danielson, senior voice student and member of Alpha Tau Sigma sorority. Miss Danielson, who also was chosen Miss Wichita of 1954, was elected May Queen in a campus-wide election on March 26.

Social sororities and fraternities will begin the activities of the day by presenting skits on the theme, "Get Happy." The skits are divided into a division for men and one for women. Trophies will be presented to the winners in each division.

Following the Maypole winding for men at 11:30 a. m. in front of the Commons, candidates for president of Student Council will make campaign speeches in the Auditorium at 1:40 p. m.

At 7:30 p. m., representatives of the social sororities will wind the Maypole in front of the Commons.

Miss Danielson and her attendants have chosen evening gowns of mint green and orchid for the coronation at 8 p. m., in the Auditorium. The processional music (Continued on Page 6)

S. Wright Dies At Age of 80

Sidney Walter "Pop" Wright, 80, retired University professor of economics and business administration, died Friday at his home.

Professor Wright, who was on the University faculty from 1924 to 1944, was nicknamed "Pop" by business students because of his devotion to them. He aided them in securing jobs while they were in school and upon graduation.

After his retirement, he remained actively interested in the University. Until last year he served as auditor of financial books for student social organizations. With the increased enrollment after World War II, he returned to teach for some time.

Dean Gives Up Duties To Teach Here Full-time

Dr. Jean Fyfe Baird will relinquish duties as acting dean of women at the end of the present school year in order to devote full-time to teaching beginning next fall.

Dean Baird requested the change through Pres. Harry F. Corbin. President Corbin said Wednesday that no successor has been selected to succeed Dr. Baird as dean of women.

He said Dean Baird will teach classes in English and sociology and will maintain an academic rank as associate professor at the University.

She has conducted a class in preparation for marriage in the sociology department for the past two years. Dean Baird said she hopes to expand her programs in this particular field.

Dr. Baird joined the University staff in the fall of 1952 as assistant dean of women and assistant professor of English. She was promoted to associate professor last year.

She holds her doctor of philosophy degree in educational psychology from Cornell University. Dr. Baird was awarded her master's and bachelor's degrees in English literature from West Virginia University.

ROTC Cadets Observe Annual Field Day Here

More than 500 Army and Air Force cadets are taking part in a three-hour Field Day this morning from 9 a. m. until noon in Shocker Stadium.

The event was scheduled to be held in Veterans Field but changed because of the newly planted grass there, according to Lt. Col. John W. Urban, professor of military science and tactics.

The annual combined ROTC event was developed to allow cadets to demonstrate abilities in the various types of military training they have studied during the year, Colonel Urban said.

Field Day competition will include manual of arms; disassembly and assembly of the M-1 rifle; automatic rifle crew drill, heavy machine gun crew drill, 81 MM mortar crew drill; voice and command; squad, machine gun, platoon, flight and squadron drills. A demonstration of gas model airplanes and a joint ROTC review will end the program.

Members of the Army and Air Force ROTC staffs will judge the events and determine the winners.

Winners will receive their medals from Karlene Smith, honorary cadet colonel, at 11 o'clock in the stadium.

The World This Week

(Compiled from Associated Press Reports)

WASHINGTON—Army Secretary Stevens had an exchange with Senator McCarthy shortly before the end of hearings in the dispute between the Wisconsin senator and army officials.

McCarthy plugged away during the session at his contention that the Army's charges, that he and his aides sought preferred treatment for Pvt. G. David Schine, had been brought in an effort to cut off the senator's probe of Communists in the Army. On that score, Stevens told McCarthy: "You are absolutely incorrect."

Stevens described as false most of McCarthy's charges. That came about when Democratic Senator Henry Jackson of Washington State read the charges to Stevens, one by one, asking whether they were true or false.

Wedding Season Arrives

Processions Same Best Man

Wedding processions follow the same general pattern whether the wedding is formal or informal.

If the wedding is formal, music begins about a half hour before the ceremony. The entrance of the bride's mother and the bridegroom's parents is the signal the ceremony is about to commence.

First, taper lighters light the candles if not done by the sexton beforehand. At the beginning of the wedding march the clergyman takes his place, and the bridegroom and best man enter. Ushers come in from the back at the same time.

Next come the bridesmaids, spaced about eight feet apart. Following is the maid of honor. Then about 12 feet in back of her comes the bride.

The recessional is the exact reverse of the processional, however, the same spacing is observed.

If everyone starts on his left foot and keeps in step with the music, the wedding should move in perfect unison.

Details as to where each member of the wedding party stands should be given at rehearsal.

Must Check Groom's Dress

A man asked to serve as best man or as an usher at weddings often doesn't know exactly what purpose he is to fulfill other than stand up with the groom or seat the guests.

Whether a best man or usher, a man must conform to the dress of the bridegroom except for tie and boutonniere and must foot the bill for his clothes.

The best man must act as a general jack-of-all-trades the day of the wedding. First, he has to deliver the bridegroom to the church, help him dress, and take care of anything the groom needs. He also must check on the marriage license, carry the ring during the ceremony, and see that the clergy gets his fee.

His job also includes helping the groom pack, getting his car and luggage ready, and seeing that the couple get away. During the reception he should be ready to take care of any unexpected arisings.

The usher is expected to ask each woman arriving that he does not know if she is a friend of the bride or bridegroom. Then he offers her his right arm and escorts her to the side of the church she has designated. At the reception the ushers do not stand in the receiving line but see that everyone has a good time.

Dorm Applications Due Tomorrow Noon

Students planning to reside in the dormitories this summer or next fall must file applications for rooms with the Student Services Office by noon, tomorrow, according to James K. Sours, director of Student Services.

Mr. Sours explained that applications are being filed at this time so that residents now living in the dormitories may be accommodated before other applicants are admitted.

2 Represent WU At ISA Convention

Shannon Mouthuy, sophomore in Liberal Arts; and Esther Jo Fuhlhage, freshman in Education, represented the University at the national convention of the Independent Student's Association held on April 11-13 at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York.

One hundred forty-four representatives from 23 colleges attended the convention and discussed current problems of ISA chapters. Officers of the national organization for the following year were elected at the convention.

The convention was highlighted by the crowning of the "National Sweetheart." The honor went to Jean Fuson of the University of Tennessee.

Pat Terrill, Richard Holloway; La Verne Baker; James Wilds; Kathy Blocker, Glen Byer; Raponza Martin, Buddy Ott; Daryl Zeigler, Gene Bales.

Wedding Tips

Wedding etiquette for those attending the wedding consists of a few small but important details that should be remembered.

Guests should be careful about the time they arrive at a wedding. It isn't good to be too early but avoid the last-minute rush.

After the ceremony, don't leave until the bride's and bridegroom's parents leave or the clergyman announces dismissal of the congregation.

The Sunflower 3

April 29, 1954

Gifts shouldn't be brought to the church, but should be sent to the church or taken to the bride's home before the wedding. An invitation to a wedding always calls for a gift whether the wedding is attended or not.

At the reception the bride or bride's parents are not to be congratulated. The bridegroom can be congratulated and best wishes bestowed upon the couple.

A Matter of Question

At the topmost rung on the students' political ladder at the University is the chair of the Student Council president. This is the highest political office a student can hold at the University. From this office, student government can be made a tangible thing of the present and future, or a thought that died sometime in the past.

Only justly, those who fill this position should also meet its demands. And as voters, students should know a candidate's qualifications for meeting these requirements.

Political groups on this campus never won lower taxes for anyone. To protect the significance and honor that should be attached to this office, petty politics should be dropped for a moment to elect a student who can shoulder all that the office demands.

Two outstanding students have submitted petitions for the presidency of the Council.

But a question should be asked of both candidates if they intend to fulfill all duties of the president. That question is—can you assure your followers you will willingly devote all necessary time that the office requires?

In reply to a question from The Sunflower both candidates said they felt they could give sufficient time to assume the duties of the office.

And the student voter should ask himself a question. Can the office be run efficiently from the football field? Can it be run efficiently by a student who has been elected to guide the Student Forum in its important year-long activities.

Both candidates have assured voters they will devote the necessary time. The question time will answer is, will the winner under trial keep his commitment.

Don't Relax Yet

The end of the Easter vacation marks the beginning of the end of the semester. It's also a time when students are inclined to relax in their study habits.

The situation parallels that of a boxer who has outscored his opponent throughout the fight, and then relaxes his guard in the few remaining rounds, and spends the last seconds of the fight on the canvas.

The time for the student to relax his guard is nearing, but is not here yet. The remaining lethal punches still remain in the form of "burning the midnight oil" and continued class attendance. A "kayoing" F can still end the fight and out-score any attempt made earlier.

Pep Reorganization Plan Approved by Council

The Student Council at its meeting held April 20 approved the Student Council Pep Committee's recommendation on reorganization of the pep program.

The new pep program consists of three divisions, pep coordinator, pep committee, and cheerleaders.

Under the new provisions any person who has attended the University one year is eligible to apply for pep coordinator. Persons applying will be interviewed by the Student Council, and must present some ideas about pep in the school. The council will then vote on applications. The pep coordinator will be responsible for the presence of cheerleaders at athletic events.

The pep committee will be composed of four members, a pep coordinator, a Student Council representative to be elected by the Council, a Wheaties representative, and the head cheerleader to be elected by the cheerleaders.

The committee will be responsible for walkouts and parades. It must work out the yells for the cheerleaders, schedule pep convocations, and make arrangements for booster trips.

The number of cheerleaders will be cut to six, three male and three female. Two alternates will be chosen.

Three weeks before spring elections the old cheerleaders will hold practice sessions for those trying out for cheerleaders. Two weeks before the election the prospective cheerleaders will have try-outs before a committee of three council members and three faculty members. The number will be reduced to 10. They will be judged on appearance, voice, and natural ability. A person must have a 1.0 grade average to try-out.

Special provisions have been made for electing cheerleaders this year. Those interested in trying out for cheerleader positions should contact Sue Cheney, head cheerleader.

Try-outs will be held the week of May 3-7. The selection committee will then reduce the number of contestants to 10. A convocation, to be announced later, will be called to introduce the finalists to the student body. The election will be held May 14.

Spanish Department Plans Mexico Tour

Applications are still being received for the third annual tour to Mexico, according to Dr. Eugene Savaiano, head of the Spanish department.

The tour will cover Mexico City, Puebla, Tasco, Cuernavaca, the Pyramids of the Sun and the Moon, Guadalupe Shrine, and the Floating Gardens of Xochimilco.

Faculty members, students, employees, and Wichita high school seniors, are eligible for the trip, which will cover a period of 16 days during summer vacation.

J. E. Angulo, Spanish lecturer, who has conducted the tours for the last 18 years, will be director of the tour, with Mrs. Kathryn Griffith as a general chaperone. Mrs. Griffith is an administrative assistant to Pres. Harry Corbin.

Cost of the 16-day trip will be $149, which will include meals, hotel lodging, and transportation.

Frank N. Entwisle, Student Services Counselor, attended a meeting of the American Personnel and Guidance Association in Buffalo, N. Y., April 11-15.

The theme for the meeting was "Guidance in the Free World". Various methods of counselling were topics of discussion.

Dr. Buel Gallagaer, President of New York City College, gave the main address on "Freedom, Security, and Integrity."

The discussions brought out the need for a new approach to student counselling. The old approach has been, if there is a need for personnel in a certain field, to advise the students to enter that field. The new approach should be to help the student to discover the field he is best suited for, Mr. Entwisle said.

Prof. Gladys Taggart, head of the Department of Physical Education for Women, attended a meeting of the National Association for Physical Education of College Women, April 16 through 18, at Bryn Mawr College, Bryn Mawr, Penn.

The program included demonstrations, lectures and discussions on current problems of physical education in colleges.

A group discussion of current issues in Kansas and Wichita Education constituted the monthly meeting of the Wichita Council of Education Tuesday.

Adell Throckmorton, state superintendent of public instruction, lead the discussion.

Panel members were David T. Herman, chairman of the University Public Affairs Conference on Children, and Mentor E. Brown, director of professional relations of Kansas State Teacher Association.

Twelve graduate students spent Friday visiting Oakland Park schools on a field trip for an education seminar.

The night seminar is under the direction of Walter A. Lucas, assistant professor of education.

Theater Season Closes with 'Male Animal'

From the suspense play, "Uncle Harry," the Community and University Theaters turned to the light comedy, "Male Animal," to conclude the theater season at the University.

John Froome of KANS radio station revealed professional qualities throughout his performance by playing Tommy Turner, the young professor, who believed in teaching "not your ideas or my ideas—but all ideas."

An editorial written by a campus intellectual brings the board of trustees down on the professor's head, but his life and the life of his wife, Ellen, gets more complicated, when Joe Ferguson, a former All-American returns to the campus. Joe's obvious admiration for Ellen, an old sweetheart in his college days, arouses "the male animal" in the professor who decides to defend his nest by unprofessional means rather than intellectual analysis.

The professor's new attitude delights Ellen and everybody becomes happy when academic calm is restored with Joe's departure and a petition signed by students to retain the professor on the faculty.

The play, because of its vividness and light humor and its excellent presentation, offered a unique entertainment to the audiences which attended it during the three performances in the Auditorium.

"The Male Animal" was written by James Thurber and Elliott Nugent.

The supporting cast included Pat Carroll in the role of Ellen, the professor's wife; Bob Walters, Liberal Arts junior, as Michael, the campus intellectual; C. Henry Nathan as Dean Damon; Sherri Shubert, Liberal Arts freshman, as Patricia; and Tom Leahy as Joe Ferguson. The latter's performance produced a very convincing athlete.

WASHINGTON—The Senate Republican leader, William Knowland of California, has declared that any appeasement of Communist aggression would only be surrender on the installment plan. He told the US Chamber of Commerce in Washington that free nations should pledge in advance to commit fighting men and material to halt any new Red aggression.

GENEVA—In Geneva, Russia and France have opened discussions on Indochina. There are reports that Western unity has been weakening on terms for a possible cease-fire, with the US wanting guarantees while Britain was believed backing France for an immediate armistice.

Mitchell, Miller Work Squads in Spring Drills

Fans can see almost any type of sport they want on the University campus this week.

Coach Jack Mitchell's football squad is hard at work in spring drills. Coach Ralph Miller's basketballers are also ironing the kinks out in spring workouts. Coach Bob Kirkpatrick's golfers take on the defending Missouri Valley champion Oklahoma A and M at the Wichita Country Club Friday; Coach Woody Jensen's baseballers will host the Oklahoma Aggies; and Coach C. A. (Ab) Bidwell's tracksters have a dual meet coming up with the Ft. Hays State Wildcats.

Spring grid turnouts were a far cry from last year's "thin thirty" squad which Coach Mitchell fielded for the opening game last year. Fifty-four men answered the opening day call with the majority consisting of men from last season's talented frosh.

Some of the newcomers that are expected to battle for starting berths next fall are Kent Thomas, a transfer student; Earl Craver and Vere Wellman, service returnees and former lettermen; frosh linemen Dennis Stegmen, Gary Agard, and Fritz Brandt plus frosh backs Jack Conway, and Jim Klisanin.

Coach Mitchell and his staff capped off Monday's work with a scrimmage in which he wheeled four teams in and out of the line-up freely. Little Harvey Gough, speedster from LaCrosse, thrilled the onlookers on several occasions with his breakaway-type running and the forward wall, under the capable handling of coaches George Bernhardt, Dick Monroe and Pete Tillman, were ferocious on occasions with their blocking and tackling.

Mitchell and his staff will host over 150 coaches from Kansas high schools with a clinic Saturday, May 1. They will unveil some of the intricate split-T plays with the squad seeing action in a "full dress scrimmage" later on in the day.

Plans have been made for the annual alumni-varsity game to be held at 8 p. m., May 22, to complete the spring grid program. Former Shocker George Thomas will serve as organizers for the former Shocker stars. The Alums met yesterday evening and made plans to check out equipment Sunday.

The alumni is expected to have three full teams available as they seek to win their second victory. The varsity bowed to the alumni last year, 25-12. Some of the former all-Missouri Valley stars that will be in uniform are Jimmy Nutter, Eddie Kriewiel, Eli Romero, Gene Paluzzi, Allen Taylor, and Ron Summers.

Over in Henrion Gymnasium, Coach Ralph Miller has been busy working next year's basketball squad into shape after completing the most successful season in the history of the school with a 27-4 record.

The Shocker cage mentor can field probably the tallest team the University has had with giant Leon Vogt towering the highest at 6-10, followed by Merv Carman, 6-8; Bob Hodgson and Herb Coin at 6-6, and Don Laketa, 6-5. Vogt will not be eligible until mid-term next season when Laketa graduates.

Coach Miller will have a nucleus of eight lettermen to build his squad around, including Cleo Littleton, Jim McNeerney, Merv Carman, Verlyn Anderson, Leo Carney, Jim Strathe, Don Laketa, and Bob Hodgson.

4 Games Give 114-run Total

A total of 114 runs was scored last Sunday in four games of intramural softball play.

The Men of Webster "B" team beat the Alpha Gamma Gamma team 28-10, while the Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia team won over the Pershing Rifles, 20-6. The Tri P's edged the Men of Webster "A" team 12-10 and the Pi Alpha Pi nine beat the Phi Upsilon Sigma team, 19-9.

Games for next Sunday at Fairmount Park pit the Phi Mu against the Gammas at 1 p. m. and again at 3 p. m. The Pershing Rifles play Pi Alpha. On the Shocker baseball field at 1 p. m., the Webster "B" team and the Tri P squad meet, and at 3 p. m. the Phi Sigs take on the Webster "A" team.

Umpires are needed for these games and will be paid $1 per game. Prof. Bob Kirkpatrick, intramural director, asks those interested to contact him.

Pairings for intramural tennis play have been posted in the Women's Gym. Players are asked to complete their matches as soon as possible and report scores to the intramural director's office.

Entries for the intramural golf meet, to be held May 12, should be in by next Monday, Professor Kirkpatrick said.

The intramural track meet will be held Wednesday. Events commence at 1 p. m.

Linksmen Top K-State, Tulsa

Avenging an opening day loss to Kansas State Colleges and repeating a victory over the University of Tulsa, the Wheatshocker golf squad continued to show its intentions of being a sure contender for the Missouri Valley golf championship.

April 23, Wichita won over the Wildcats from K-State with a 19 to 2 score. The victory was over the squad that handed the Shocks a loss on the opening day of the season.

Sam Saddler, defending conference champion, and Fritz Probst, tied for medalist honors with 72 strokes apiece. Using a five man squad instead of the usual four, Coach Bob Kirkpatrick's team swept all five matches.

Three days later, the Shocks took on Tulsa and the result was almost a duplicate of the K-State match. The final score read 16 to 2 in the Shocks favor.

Again it was Saddler who led the way for the Wichita linksmen. Touring the par 71 Wichita Country Club course in 72 strokes, Saddler was medalist by three strokes over his nearest competitor.

What's The Score?

By Mike Anderson
Sunflower Sports Editor

Fans who wish to see the defending Missouri Valley golf team against the contending Wichita University foursome can do so Friday at 11:30 a. m. at the Wichita Country Club course. The Shocker linksmen have compiled a 7-3 record against some of the top talent in the midwest.

It looks as if Jack Mitchell will have much more to work with this fall with 54 men out for the spring drills. Most of them are not just men—but one fan worded it more aptly at Monday afternoon's scrimmage session when he called them "horses."

Much talk has centered around a pair of service men lettered at the University before entering the armed service. Vere Wellman and Earl Craver appear to have the physical capabilities to be contenders for any team. Transfer student Kent Thomas has looked good in the drills along with frosh center candidate Gary Agard and end Manque Winters.

Sprinkle returning lettermen with the transfers and members of last year's frosh crop should give Bernhardt, Tillman and Co. the nucleus for another outstanding line.

The athletic program at the University is looking more balanced with the pickup of baseball and track. Coach Woody Jensen's baseballers show signs of becoming a headache to other teams in the not too distant future.

will be furnished by a student orchestra under the direction of Harold Lutz, graduate student.

Members of Scabbard and Blade, honorary military fraternity, will be the Queen's Honor Guard.

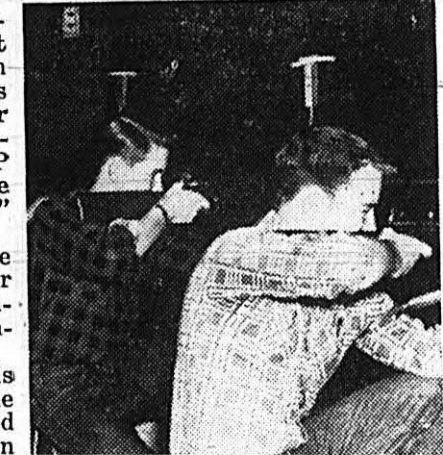

Other music will be furnished by the Madrigals, a chorus composed of 11 voice majors; and a string duet, Alice Graber and Jay Decker. Miss Danielson's sorority sisters will serenade her following her coronation.

After the coronation, the honor women for 1955 will be named. Following the singing of the Alma Mater by the student body, the recessional will take place.

The day's activities will close with an all-school dance at the Mambo Club at 9 p. m. Gage Brewer and his band will furnish the music. Tickets are $1.75 per couple and can be obtained in the Commons Lounge today or at the dance.

Hays Riflemen Win 1st Place

St. Joseph's Military Academy of Hays, with a score of 1,787 out of a possible 2,000, won the first place in the Second Annual ROTC High School Invitational Rifle

Match held here Saturday morning.

High schools participating in the match were Wichita High School North, Wichita High School East, Wellington, Augusta, St. Joseph's Military Academy at Hays, and Hutchinson.

The match was held on the smallbore rifle range in the basement of the Commons Auditorium.

The roving trophy, donated by Boeing Aircraft Co., was presented to the St. Joseph team at a luncheon in Grace Wilkie dining hall.

Lt. Col. John W. Urban, professor of military science and tactics, was the speaker at the luncheon. Awards were presented by ROTC Honorary Cadet Colonel Karlene Smith.

The trophy was won last year by Wichita High School North, which placed second this year with a score of 1,679.

All-Star Game Readied

Intramural softball participants are reminded to take close account of opposing player's individual play.

The Sunflower All-Star game, to be played at the climax of the season, depends entirely upon the balloting of the teams engaging in the league.

The winner of the league will receive a plaque from The Sunflower with the championship team's name inscribed on it.

The plaque will be kept by the team for one year, and the team or organization winning the plaque two years in succession will be allowed to retain possession of it.

At the conclusion of the season, each team will be given a ballot to select players for the All-Star squad that will be matched against the championship team.

Thinclads Race To 2 Wins

The University of Wichita trackmen made two impressive wins, against the Emporia State Hornets, April 13, by a score of 70 2/3 points to 60 1/3 points, and Southwestern College, April 21, by a margin, 84 to 36.

The Emporia win was only the third win in 14 meets the Shockers have had with the Hornet thinclads in a series that started back in 1925.

Two records fell, the pole vault and the high jump.

Wichita's Verlyn Anderson and Dean Pletcher of Emporia both crossed the bar at 6 feet, 2 inches in the high jump to break an even mark of 6 feet.

Vaulters Dick Utter, Emporia, and Don Grimm of Wichita, cleared 12 feet, 2 inches to better the old mark by three inches.

Emporia won seven first place honors to Wichita's six, while two were tied. The Shockers, however, swept three events to offset the Hornet advantage. Shocker domination came in both hurdle events and the javelin.

Winning throws in the javelin were tossed for Wichita by Bob Hodgson, first, Jim Matous, second, and Don Hall, third.

Jim Hervey, Don Shields, and Verlyn Anderson combined their speed to win the top three spots in the hurdles. Hervey was first in the low hurdles and Shields won first in the highs.

In the Southwestern dual meet the Shockers took an easy win as the result of three double winners.

Glen Boyer captured firsts in the 880-yard and the mile runs. Jim Hervey sprinted to first place in the 100-yard dash and the 220-yard low hurdles.

Ron Summers heaved the shot put and the discus for two more firsts and the Shocks had then run up a point total the Moundbuilders couldn't overtake.

Other winners for the Shocks were Verlyn Anderson in the high jump, Don Shields in the high hurdles, Jim Hill in the broad jump, Cleo Littleton in the javelin, and Truman Shinn in the 220-yard dash.

J. T. Stanberry struck out 11 men and gave up seven hits to pitch the University Wheatshockers to a 8-2 win Monday over the McPherson College at McPherson.

The Shockers broke the game open in the top half of the fourth, scoring six runs. The win avenges an earlier defeat by McPherson nine.

First baseman Bob Kaufman was big gun for the Shockers getting a triple and single and scoring one run for four trips to bat.

Tomorrow afternoon the Shockers will host the Oklahoma Aggies in a double header at the West Side Athletic Park. Saturday they play the last game in a three-game series with the Aggies.

in the "good old days" B.E.

Get up before daylight . . . stoke up the fire in the big kitchen stove . . . stuff the turkey and get him in the oven . . . don't forget to baste him ever so often so he won't dry out . . . whip up the 'taters (by hand, of course) to a feathery white . . . cook up the cranberries . . . mix up the pies. Mother needed a dozen hands for all the work that had to be done.

Who can describe (or forget) the tempting aromas that floated from the old-fashioned, steamy kitchens on Christmas. But who remembers Mother red-faced from the heat . . . hair, stringy from the steam . . . and so tired when the day was over that maybe, deep in her heart, she wondered if the struggle was worth the effort?

How different today! She can start preparing Christmas dinner weeks ahead and store it in her freezer. On the big day, she pops it in her modern electric range, sets the automatic controls and joins in the fun till time to eat. And then the big dishwashing chore is turned over to the automatic dishwasher. Yes, it's a lot different today.

Only one thing remains the same over the years . . . the warmth of our wish to you for a Merry Christmas and the best New Year you've ever known.

Pan American Club Names Two As Annual Scholarship Winners

Announcement of the winners of the annual Pan American Club's scholarship, a student field trip to Lawrence, and planning for an approaching Spanish Club meeting highlight the Spanish department's activities this week.

The Pan American Club awarded its annual scholarship to two people instead of the usual single winner. The winners were selected from candidates from here and Friends University.

The winners, both students here, were Arlette Bouvier, special student from France, and Paulene Dobrott, senior Spanish major in the College of Liberal Arts. They received scholarship funds amounting to $100. Each candidate was required to appear before a committee, members of which interrogated them in the Spanish language.

Last Saturday, Arlette Bouvier, Manuel Costa, Paulene Dobrott, Jerry Hickey, and Cathy Waters, all University students, accompanied Dr. Eugene Savoiano, Spanish department head, to Lawrence for Cervantes Day, the Kansas Convention of the American Association of Teachers of Spanish.

Costa appeared on the entertainment program, playing his guitar. Dr. Savoiano reported on the 1954 meeting of Spanish and Portuguese teachers in Chicago.

Sunday at 6 p.m., the Spanish Club will hold a dinner at the El Charro Cafe. Preceding the dinner, Sigma Delta Pi, national honorary Spanish fraternity, will initiate a new member, Janet Whitson, graduate student.

The program after the dinner will feature Manuel Costa, and Dr. Eugene Savoiano, singing several Spanish songs.
