May Dance to Kick Off Hippodrome

Two-Party System Planned by Students

In an effort to correct what has been called an "undemocratic situation" on the campus, several students have set in motion plans to form a second political party to compete with the Better Politics on Campus party in the May 17 elections.

Plan Announced Monday

Formation of the All-University Representation Committee was announced Monday by Bonnie Kemp, chairman of the group.

In a letter to The Sunflower, Miss Kemp pointed out the need for a second campus political party in order "to promote more efficient student government and allow greater representation of the entire student body."

Petitions Available

Miss Kemp said petitions for students interested in forming the new party would be available in the Commons Lounge this week. Mrs. Ruth Carter will distribute the petitions.

A committee spokesman said the present political situation on the campus was "unhealthy" and that a two-party system was needed to form the necessary competition for a "healthy" political race.

To Choose Name

A party name and plans for the May 17 election will be outlined after petitions are collected and an organizational meeting held.

A one-party system has existed on the campus since the dissolution of the Shocker Coalition in October, 1956.

Religious Talks Set

A panel discussion on "What My Religion Means to Me," will be the highlight of a YWCA fireside meeting at 7:30 in the Faculty Dining Room of the Commons Building.

Dr. L. Hekhuis, professor and head of philosophy and religious education, will serve as moderator for the panel. Other panel members include the Rev. Edward Pfirman, Rabbi Benjamin Bernfield, and Dr. Rerrick.

Copeland, Rude to Edit Publications; Menefee, Gaffney Are Business Heads

Diane Copeland and Don Rude, Liberal Arts students and journalism majors, were named 1957-1958 editors of the Sunflower and Parnassus, respectively, at the annual Journalism Banquet held last night in the Pine Room of the Commons Building.

Sixteen other students were named to responsible staff jobs on the publications. The staff announcements constituted one of the important high points of the annual get-together attended by more than a hundred students and practicing journalists.

Business Heads Named

Fred Menefee, Liberal Arts junior, was named to head the newspaper's business staff. Harry Gaffney, Engineering sophomore, will be the yearbook's business and advertising manager.

Other key Sunflower staff appointments included: Bill Boone, Liberal Arts senior, managing

Pep Leaders To Be Chosen

Tryouts for men and women cheerleaders will be held in the Choral Room of the Fine Arts Center at 7 p.m., tomorrow.

Petitions for new cheerleaders are available in Rm. 113, Jardine Hall, and should be returned by noon tomorrow.

A faculty and student committee will judge the candidates. The finalists will be announced Hippodrome Day, Friday.

The finalists will be voted on May 17, the day of student council elections, to determine next year's cheerleaders.

In addition to a faculty committee to judge tomorrow's candidates, members from University

Vets Formally Organize At April 21 Meeting

The University Veterans Association officially organized and adopted a constitution at a meeting April 21, in the Commons Lounge.

The purpose of the organization is to give military veterans a stronger voice on the campus and to provide further social outlets for the veterans and their families.

May 17 Ends Fall Semester Counseling

All counseling for the 1957-58 fall semester must be done from April 17 to May 17.

Students will complete registration at the registrar's office Rm. 105, Jardine Hall, on the basis of the alphabetical listing in the printed schedule which is available in the Bookstore.

This latter phase of registration can also be done at the registrar's office during the summer from June 17 to Aug. 2.

Students will present their schedule of classes to the registrar's office in accordance with the following alphabetical schedule:

S through Z ..... April 29-May 1
M through R ..... May 2-6
H through L ..... May 7-9
C through G ..... May 10-14
A through B ..... May 15-17

The registrar's office will not process students' schedules at times other than specified above except during the summer from June 17 to Aug. 2, when schedules of classes will be processed for any student, including freshmen and transfer students.

Arts sophomore, treasurer; Bob Loveland, engineering freshman, sergeant-at-arms.

Gary Stanley, engineering sophomore, and Bill Mankin, engineering freshman, are current organization directors. Two more directors will be elected by the Association.

The organization is open to all military veterans enrolled at the University. The next meeting will be held May 6, 3:30 p.m. Meeting place will be announced later.

editor; Ed Thompson, Liberal Arts junior, and Leslie Wilson, Liberal Arts sophomore, news editors; Mary Simmonds, Liberal Arts senior, desk editor; Jack Mattis, Liberal Arts freshman, sports editor; and Evelyn Jones, Liberal Arts freshman, society editor.

Mike Glass will be assistant sports editor, and Bob Pope will be Sunflower advertising representative. Roberta Paden will be photo editor.

Annual Staff Appointed

The new Sunflower editor, Miss

Copeland, is currently Sunflower news editor and managing editor of the Parnassus. She is present holder of the Molly Warren Wilcox Scholarship for sophomore women in journalism.

Some Jobs Available

Rude, now editor-in-chief of the Sunflower, is organizations editor of the annual. He currently holds the Lawrence Photo Journalism Scholarship.

According to Rude, a few additional staff positions are still open on both publications, including advertising representatives, circulation managers, and assistant business managers. Application blanks may be obtained from journalism faculty members; from Prof. Joan O'Bryant, chairman of the Publications Board; or from student staff members.

The appointments were made last week by the Board of Student Publications in sessions, Wednesday and Thursday.

Day's Events to Include Ball, Skits, Crowning

The 1957 Hippodrome will open with the May Dance Thursday evening at the Trig Ballroom.

Jim Hiltz and the University Dance Band will provide music for the annual affair, one of the oldest campus social events, from 8:30 p.m. to midnight.

Tickets are $2 a couple and are on sale through Thursday in the Commons Lounge from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m., according to Hippodrome Chairman, Don Rude.

Skits To Be Presented

Four campus Greek organizations will present half-hour skits in the Commons Auditorium Friday morning. Each skit will depict one phase of the "Roaring Twenties."

Kansas Senior Wins 4-Year Scholarship

A Neodesha, Kan., high school senior won the University's largest scholarship award Friday following a day of testing, interviews, and discussions before special faculty committees.

Benny W. Armstrong, 18, was selected winner of the $4,000 Harry Gore Memorial Scholarship after competing with 14 top scholars from a three-state area.

Armstrong To Enter Pre-law

Armstrong plans to pursue a pre-law program at the University beginning next fall. Under terms of the Gore scholarship he will receive a stipend of $1,000 annually for four years. The scholarship is given to a student with an outstanding record in high school activities, leadership and citizenship abilities, and a high academic school scholarship record.

Armstrong has served as associate editor of the Neodesha High School student newspaper, captain of the debate team, and president of the Byron Christian Youth Fellowship. He lettered in baseball and was a member of the Hi-Y model legislature.

Finalists Participate

Also taking part in Friday's scholarship day activities were

Sorosis Sorority will present the first skit at 9:30 a.m., followed by Alpha Gamma Gamma, Phi Upsilon Sigma, and Men of Webster Fraternities.

Terry Gladfelter will act as master of ceremonies for the day's festivities. Short numbers presented between skits will be competitive for the first time.

Other Acts Presented

The organizations participating in this phase of the program are the Four Musicians, a record pantomime group from Grace Wilkie Hall; Annette Harper, Delta Omega dancer; and the Karen Pyles Dance Troupe.

Unaffiliated men's groups which will be competing are Pete Hassell and Jack Parker, who will present a comedy act, and Ken Warwick, comic monologist who appeared in Hippodrome last year.

Following the complete program, cheerleading finalists will try out before the student body.

Pep Forms Ready to Sign

Petitions for next year's pep coordinator, assistant coordinator, secretary, and treasurer of the Pep Council may be picked up at Rm. 113, Jardine Hall, and should be returned by May 8.

The pep coordinator has charge of the University pep program, aided by the assistant coordinator.

At least 25 signatures should be obtained before returning the petitions. Candidates for pep coordinator must be juniors or seniors.

All candidates must have a minimum of 2.0 over-all grade point average.

The new officers, who serve a year beginning next fall, will be chosen by the Pep Council, according to Merry Sue Blair, acting pep coordinator.

DRAWING A BEAD on the annual Army ROTC Field Day to be held tomorrow at Shocker Stadium are, left to right; Delo Pearson, Dean Hill, and Wayne Edwards. Cadets will participate in competitive events demonstrating various types of military training.

Clean House or Full House?

Not long ago, it seemed as if one of the campus's oldest traditional activities, Hippodrome, would be discontinued.

The annual competitive show between fraternities and sororities seemed to be going down the drain despite the efforts of the Student Council. The situation was drastic. Nationals were approaching the campus, and the sororities protested that a clean sorority house was more important than maintaining a school tradition.

Friday, Hippodrome goes on as scheduled. Four sororities and one fraternity are not participating. Yet this year's Hippodrome may be among the most outstanding ever offered.

Individual talent is being used extensively. The 15-minute time limit for skits has been extended to 30 minutes.

Hippodrome goes on this year, minus a few familiar faces. Yet through the efforts of Sorosis, Alpha Gamma Gamma, Men of Webster, and Phi Upsilon Sigma, an old campus tradition survives.

The University students owe these groups hearty thanks and support for their show. Attend Hippodrome in the Commons Friday.

22 Get Concert Experience

Twenty-two music students, including two graduates, are now participating in the seventh annual "Concerto-Aria Concerts," the last performance of which is scheduled for tonight in the Fine Arts Center.

The project designed to provide music students with an opportunity to perform major works with a full symphony orchestra will feature student soloists and conductors accompanied by the University Symphony Orchestra.

The program consists of Haydn's "Concerto in C Major" presented by Karlene Jones, violin, and Tom Glasscock, conductor; Ponchielli's "Voce di donna," from La Gioconda presented by Rose Gallemore, contralto and Richard Mason, conductor; Ibert's "Concerto for flute" presented by Donna White, flute, and Delmas Howe, conductor.

Others include Bizet's "Je crois entendre," from The Pearl Fishers presented by Jack Groh, tenor, and Suzette McKinney, conductor; Bruch's "Kol Nidrei" presented by Jacquelyn Hicks, cello, and Don Dillon, conductor; Ravel's "Concerto in G Major" presented by Myrna Brewster, piano, and Don Lowe, conductor.

Kabalevsky's Concerto Follows After intermission, the program will proceed with Kabalevsky's "Concerto in G minor" presented by Ellen Burmeister, piano, and Marilyn Nease, conductor; Charpentier's "Depuis le jour," from Louise presented by Shirley Howell, soprano, and Leonard VanCamp, conductor; Vivaldi's "Sonata No. 6" presented by Jack Bayes, trombone, and Kent Hall, conductor.

In addition, Verdi's "Ferd's Monologue, from Falstaff will be presented by Irl German, baritone, and George Zack, conductor; Saint-Saens's "Introduction and Rondo Capriccioso" by Jane Tompson, violin, and Geraldine Riggs, conductor.

VIDEOT'S DELIGHT

The academic world has made its first tentative steps into television. A few lectures, a few seminars, but may I respectfully suggest that the academic world has not yet learned the full potential of television?

Why don't the colleges use television's vast capacity to dramatize, to amuse, to unshackle the imagination? Like, for example, this:

ANNOUNCER: Howdy, folks. Well, it's time again for that lovable, laughable pair, Emmett Twonkey Magruder, Ph.D., and Felicia May Crimscott, M.A., in that rollicking, roistering fun show, American History 101. . . . And here they are, the team that took the "hiss" out of "history"—Emmett Twonkey Magruder and Felicia May Crimscott!

"A funny thing happened to me on the way to my doctorate."

DR. MAGRUDER: Howdy, folks. A funny thing happened to me on the way to my doctorate. A mendicant approached me and said, "Excuse me, sir, will you give me 25 cents for a sandwich?" I replied, "Perhaps I will, my good man. Let me see the sandwich."

MISS CRIMSCOTT: Oh, how droll, Dr. Magruder! How piquant! How je ne sais quoi! . . . But enough of badinage. Let us get on with our rollicking, roistering fun show, American History 101.

DR. MAGRUDER: Today we will dramatize the taut and tingling story of John Smith and Pocahontas. I will play Captain Smith and Miss Crimscott will play Pocahontas.

ANNOUNCER: But first a message from our sponsor. . . . Folks, have you tried a Philip Morris lately? Have you treated yourself to that good natural tobacco—zestful yet mild, hearty yet gentle, rich yet dulcet? Hmmm? Have you? . . . If not, light a Philip Morris soon. Light either end. . . . And now to our grim and gripping story. Picture, if you will, a still summer night. An Indian maid stands by a moonlit brook. Suddenly she hears a footstep behind her. She turns. . . .

MISS CRIMSCOTT: Oh! John Smith! You-um startle-um me-um!

DR. MAGRUDER: Hello, Pocahontas. What are you doing down by the brook?

MISS CRIMSCOTT: Just washing out a few scalps. But what-um you-um want-um?

DR. MAGRUDER: I came to see the Chief.

MISS CRIMSCOTT: You-um can't-um. Chief is leaving for Chicago.

DR. MAGRUDER: On what track?

ANNOUNCER: And speaking of tracks, stay on the right track with Philip Morris—the track that heads straight for smoking pleasure, for fun, for frolic, for sweet content. . . . And now back to those two cool cats, Emmett Twonkey Magruder and Felicia May Crimscott.

DR. MAGRUDER: Well, folks, that's all for today. See you next week, same time, same station.

MISS CRIMSCOTT: Stay tuned now for "William Cullen Bryant: Girl Intern."

ANNOUNCER: And remember, folks, each end of Philip Morris is ignitable. It's just good, rich, natural tobacco, any way you light it!

©Max Shulman, 1957

Any way you light it, it's great. Any way you like it—long size or regular—we've got it. Natural Philip Morris! Made by the people who bring you this column.

... Campus Forum ...

(Editor's Note: The Sunflower is publishing the following letter on the assumption that the writer is addressing her remarks to the entire student body in her call for candidates, rather than to the editor as an individual.)

To the Editor:

May we call your attention to the present political situation on the University campus? At this time, there is only a one group system in student government.

This is not a democratic situation. There is a great need for a two or more party system such as there is on the national political level. Such a system would add the much needed element of competition to our student government.

To help promote a more efficient student government and allow a greater representation of the entire student body, we would like to enlist your help to revitalize the political situation.

If you realize this need for a more competitive and democratic approach to student government, and would like to be a candidate in the spring elections, please pick up a petition from Mrs. Ruth Price in the Commons Lounge.

Committee

Recognition Dinner To Honor Four

The induction of four University faculty members into the Order of the Benders of the Twig will highlight the Annual Recognition Dinner to be held at the Lassen Hotel at 6:30 p.m., Thursday.

The Order of the Benders of the Twig was organized in 1951 to honor University employees who have been on the campus for 25 years or more.

Four To Be Inducted

Scheduled for induction are: Dr. Geraldine Hammond, professor of English; Prof. Walter Duerksen, dean of the School of Music; Dr. Cecil B. Read, head of the mathematics department; and S. S. Major, Sr., instructor in physics.

Dr. Hammond is a graduate of Wichita East High. She received her bachelor's degree from the University of Kansas in 1932 and completed work toward her doctorate in English at the University of Colorado in 1944. Dr. Hammond joined the University faculty in 1932.

Dr. Hammond holds a Phi Beta Kappa key, is a member of the Kansas State Teachers of English, Kansas Association of Teachers of English, Modern Language Association, National Council of Teachers of English, and the National English Association.

Duerksen Included In List
Dean Duerksen, a Wichita East graduate, received his bachelor's degree in music at the University in 1931. He joined the faculty in 1932 as trombone instructor. He received his master's degree from Northwestern University's School of Music, and did graduate work at Columbia University and the Julliard Conservatory of Music in New York. Dean Duerksen is a member or past member of many major policy committees at the University.

Dr. Read attended New Mexico State Normal School in Silver City, New Mexico. He received a bachelor of arts degree from Colorado College in 1927 and began teaching at Princeton University, where he was instructor in mathematics in 1928 and 1929.

He was master of mathematics and football and track coach at Taft School, Watertown, Conn., from 1929 to 1931 and later became professor of mathematics and track coach at Genesee Wesleyan Junior College, at Lima, N. Y.

Received Masters At Princeton
In 1928 Dr. Read received his master of arts degree at Princeton University and in 1935 was recipient of a master of science degree at Colorado University. Dr. Read became a member of the University faculty in 1932.

A member of many organizations, Dr. Read was admitted to Tau Kappa Alpha and Phi Beta Kappa in 1926 and Delta Epsilon in 1927, at Colorado College. In 1934 he was admitted to Kappa Delta Pi at the University and in 1937 he became a member of Phi Delta Kappa.

Dr. Read is member of Kiwanis, conducts a Sunday School class at College Hill Methodist Church, and is chairman of the leadership training committee, Quivira Council, Boy Scouts of America. He has had many articles published and for the past ten years, he has been

McLean Appointed Radio Traffic Head

KMUW program director, Mike Russell, has announced the appointment of Marc McLean, Liberal Arts sophomore, as new traffic manager.

McLean replaces Janice Pfeiffer, Liberal Arts freshman, who resigned recently due to conflicting duties. McLean will retain his duties as chief announcer, according to Russell.

Duties of the traffic manager include the responsibility of all transcriptions, tape recordings, and records needed for the day's programming, the checking of power logs for the Federal Communication Commission, and handling of continuity.

Badges to Admit Students To Oil Accountants' Meet

Geology and accounting students will be admitted free to all discussion sessions of the two-day meeting of the second annual Petroleum Accounting Conference. The meet is scheduled for Friday and Saturday, according to Dr. William F. Crum, head of the accounting department.

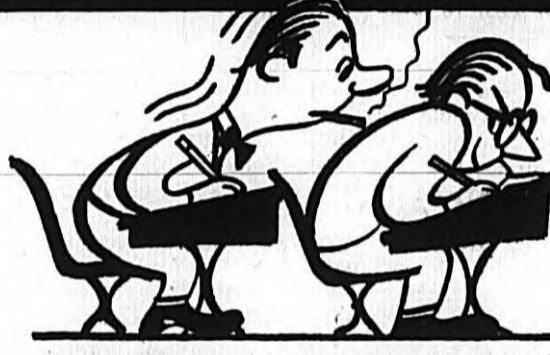

Dr. Crum said student badges entitling the bearers to admittance will be available in his office in Neff Hall until Thursday.

More than 200 registrants attended the conference last year. University officials expect about 300 to attend this year's meetings.

Conference sponsors are the accounting department, College of Business Administration, Petroleum Accountants Society of Kansas, Wichita Chapter of the Kansas Society of Certified Public Accountants, and Wichita Chapter of the NACA.

WU Baseballers Dealt Double Defeat by Aggies

The Shocker baseballers were dealt a double defeat Friday by the Oklahoma A&M Aggies at Stillwater. The Aggies took the first game by the score of 12-9 and captured the second contest with an 8-2 victory.

Knox Bowls to Top With 164 Average

Jerry Knox, Engineering freshman, currently sports a 164-pin average to lead intramural bowlers. Knox is a member of the Playboys team.

Other top averages include: Bob Price, Playboys, 155; Don Reid, Playboys, 141; Ray Quackenbush, Alley-Cats, 141; Maynard Reiling, Spoilers, 139.

Alley-Cats and Spoilers are currently on top of the eight-team league. Based on points awarded for individual games and series, Alley-Cats have accumulated a total of 13 points, while Spoilers are close behind with 10 points.

May Dance

The traditional Maypole winding will be held at 7:30 p.m. on the Commons lawn under the direction of Anita Greene. Maypole winders are Penny Banks, Susan Cole, Linda Easley, Shirley Gilley, Amnette Harper, Pat Hensley, Mary Joan Hiner, Jeanne Huntsinger, Pat McKnight, Jeanne Seacat, Sandra Stewart, and Barbara Wiseman. Choreography was prepared by Mrs. Frances Porter, women's physical education instructor.

Coronation of the May Queen, Armida Romero, of Alpha Tau Sigma Sorority, will follow in the Commons Auditorium at 8 p.m. The University orchestra will provide music for the procession.

The royal party will include the queen, and her escort, Ralph Hight, and maid of honor, Carolyn Cates, and her escort, Dick Coover.

Also in the royal party will be the queen's attendants and their escorts: Gretchen Archer, Bob Mason; Barbara Carle, Doug Gray; Billie Davis, Yabe Davis; Bunny Gulano, Bud Weigel; Maurita Hurtig, Stan McGehee; Bettie Lou Magruder, Don Rude; Virginia Ramsey, Gary Wise; Donna Jo Rogler, Curtis Johnson; Fern Sibbitt, Ben Kubes; Myrna Ure, Ron Mayo; Judy Vail, Jim Pechin; and Sandra Wilson, Don Wilson.

McGehee will crown the queen followed by a short entertainment program. This will include a vocal solo by Grace Kissell accompanied by Ellen Burmeister, the University madrigal singers, and the Karen Pyles Dance Troupe.

After the entertainment, the queen's sorority, Alpha Tau Sigma, will serenade her.

Mortar Board members will tap their successors followed by the awarding of the Hippodrome prizes and the Hippodrome Scholarship by Student Council President Janet Noel.

The Shockers got eight hits off Aggie pitching but made seven errors, one less than the Cowpokes. In both games combined, the Shockers made a total of eleven miscues.

Schwartzkopf: 2-2

The big bats for the Shockers were Jerry Milner and Don Lock, who each collected two hits for the Wichita cause.

Al Schwartzkopf suffered the defeat for the Shockers. This gives Schwartzkopf a season record of two wins and two losses.

In the second game the Shockers jumped off to an early lead, but were again overtaken by the big bats of the Aggies.

Orndorff 2-3

The Aggies blasted four-round trippers in the second game, which gave them a total of six homers for their afternoon work. The Shockers made only four errors in this contest, but they got only four hits off Cowpoke pitching.

Vern Orndorff took the defeat for the Shockers in the second game. Orndorff's record is now two wins and two losses.

'Murals Set Track Meet for Tonight

The annual intramural track and field meet will be held at 7 p.m., today at the old Shocker Stadium. The meet, under the direction of Leon Matassarini, student intramural director, is being held under the lights for the first time.

One individual may participate in any three events. A letter-winner in track at any college and members of the freshman and varsity track squads are ineligible to compete.

The schedule of events follow: 8:15, 880-yard run; 8:20, 880-yard relay. 7 p.m., shot put, broad jump, high jump, and 100-yard dash; 7:15, mile run; 7:25, 180-yard low hurdles; 7:40, 440-yard relay; 7:50, 440-yard dash, 8, 220-yard dash;

Varsity track coach Fritz Snodgrass will serve as official starter at the meet. Admission will be free.

Tart Cart
JOE BARGE, SAN JOSE JR. COLLEGE

THIS HOMBRE lives in a Dallas palace. He's got oceans of oil, carloads of cattle—and plenty of Luckies, too. But if he's always begging for a match at light-up time, this affable gent becomes a Vexin' Texan! Give him credit for knowing his brands, though: a Lucky tastes like a million bucks—two million, in Texas! That's because a Lucky is all cigarette . . . nothing but fine, mild, good-tasting tobacco that's TOASTED to taste even better. Try a Lucky right now. Reckon you'll say it's the best-tasting cigarette you ever smoked!

Luckies Taste Better

"IT'S TOASTED" TO TASTE BETTER . . . CLEANER, FRESHER, SMOOTHER!

STUCK FOR DOUGH?
START STICKLING!
MAKE $25

We'll pay $25 for every Stickler we print—and for hundreds more that never get used! So start Stickling—they're so easy you can think of dozens in seconds! Sticklers are simple riddles with two-word rhyming answers. Both words must have the same number of syllables. (Don't do drawings.) Send 'em all with your name, address, college and class to Happy-Joe-Lucky, Box 67A, Mount Vernon, N. Y.
