Retreat for YWCA To Be Held May 27

By SHIRLEY SEARS
Sunflower Staff Writer

Cabinet members and officers of the Young Women's Christian Association will have a retreat from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., May 27, in Fairmount Park.

The retreat for officers will start at 9 a.m., and will include a breakfast lunch with each officer bringing a covered dish.

YWCA officers and cabinet members are: Barbara Garlow, president; Elaine Davis, vice-president; Laura Wilcox, recording secretary; Sydney Watrous, corresponding secretary; Henrietta Nye, assistant corresponding secretary; Kay Peer, treasurer.

Cabinet Members

Membership—Anne Deschner; personal and campus affairs—Ruth Nichol, chairman; Sally Shank, Roy Raye Mayer, and Linda Winston; world relations—Hope Kroenlein, chairman; Claudia Dabler, Alison Comstock, and Cathy Evans. Calling—Anne Hubbard; social responsibilities—Joyce Cole and Linda Plott; publicity—Shirley Sears, chairman; Shirley Reed, and Linda Christian; conference chairman—Charlene Taylor; Christian Faith and Heritage—Nina Rutledge; Finance—Colleen Shannon, chairman, and Milly Wolcott; effective citizenship—Sharon Witt, chairman; Merilee Long, and Jeanne Shafer.

Miss Doris Wilson, regional secretary of YWCA, will be a special guest of the retreat.

At the retreat, officers will evaluate this year's program and plan for the program next year. They will plan for the two big projects—Cowboy Carnival and the Haul Your Man Dance.

The proceeds of the Cowboy Carnival go to the World University Service Fund. "Last year, the University YWCA contributed the fourth largest amount in the southwest region," stated Barbara Garlow, president. This is the only movement sponsored by national university students to aid University students in other countries.

To Attend Conference

The HYM dance proceeds go to the conference fund for the YW regional conference at Estes Park, Colo. Sharon Witt will attend the regional conference. During Christmas, Miss Witt attended a meeting of the National Student Association of YM and YW, the general policy-making body.

At the retreat, officers will also discuss money-making projects—candy-making and rummage sales.

Some discussion will focus on the freshman program and how it can be improved. Discussion will also be held on improving member participation, especially through general meetings.

"We are going to build the YW program around one theme to give some unity to the meetings," Miss Garlow said.

505 to Be Graduated At May 31 Exercises

Barbara Hilton

Dr. Powell To Deliver Address

The 33rd annual commencement exercises, when 505 students will receive diplomas, will take place May 31.

The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences will graduate the largest number with 150. The College of Education follows with 103. The School of Business Administration will graduate 90.

The School of Fine Arts will grant degrees to 62 seniors. The School of Engineering will graduate 60, and 40 master's degrees will be awarded by the Graduate School.

Dean Will Talk

Dr. Jackson O. Powell, dean of the College of Education, will deliver the commencement address on "The Achievement of Essential Commitments."

Dr. Robert Youngs, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will give the invocation.

The benediction will be given by Dr. H. H. Brookins, pastor of St. Pauls A. M. E.

Degrees will be conferred by Sam Brolund, chairman of the Board of Regents, and Pres. Harry F. Corbin.

Exercises to Begin at 6

Commencement exercises will begin at 6 p.m. in the Fieldhouse.

The annual President's Reception honoring graduating seniors will also be May 31 from 3:30 to 5 p.m. in the CAC ballroom.

Parents and wives or husbands of graduating seniors are invited to attend the reception.

Scientist to Receive Annual Alumni Award

Dr. Jesse Beams, professor of physics and chairman of the physics department at the University of Virginia, will receive the University's Alumni Achievement Award at the annual Alumni Banquet and Reunion May 30.

Dr. Beams earned his bachelor's degree, cum laude, from Fairmount College in 1921. Fairmount later became the University.

Dr. Beams has distinguished himself as a scientist. He is best known as the developer of the ultra high speed centrifuge known as the "top beam."

He served on the faculty at Alabama Polytechnic Institute and Yale University before joining the University of Virginia 32 years ago.

The noted University graduate has received the Potts Medal from the Franklin Institute, the 1946 Naval Ordinance Development Award, and two honorary doctorates.

The banquet, at which Dr. Beams will be honored, will be held at 6:30 p.m. in the Fieldhouse. Tickets are $2 a person and reservations

Hilton Chosen Beauty Queen Of Parnassus

Barbara Hilton, a Grace Wilkie Hall senior, was elected by the yearbook staff as the 1959 Parnassus Queen.

The Queen's identity was revealed at the annual Photo Journalism Banquet by Ed Thompson, editor. Attendants to the Queen are Joyce Popp, sponsored by Delta Gamma, and Joan Strohmeier, Delta Delta Delta.

A senior in the School of Music, Miss Hilton is a music education major and has a 3.4 grade average. In addition to belonging to MENC she has received several music scholarships.

Miss Strohmeier is a senior majoring in sociology. Her grade point average is 3.3. Miss Popp is also a senior, majoring in music, with a grade point average of 2.9.

Miss Hilton was elected by the Parnassus staff at a coffee held February 25.

Graphic Work Shown in CAC

Serigraphs by Sister Mary Corita, IHM, now adorn the first floor halls of the new CAC.

Sister Corita is a nationally recognized graphic artist. She has exhibited at Contemporaries Gallery in New York City and at other galleries throughout the country.

Completing the first art exhibit of the new center will be a display of ceramics by John Strange, associate professor of art; Richard Miller, graduate art fellow; and Paul Denny, Jr., graduating senior.

Wilson, Sears Will Head Publications

Leslie Wilson, Liberal Arts senior, and Shirley Sears, Liberal Arts sophomore, gained top editorial appointments to the University's two student publications at the annual Journalism Photo Field Day Banquet, on Friday night.

Miss Wilson will be editor of the Sunflower and Miss Sears will head the Parnassus. The new Sunflower editor served as managing editor of the newspaper during the past semester. Miss Sears was managing editor of the 1959 Parnassus.

Other staff appointments and numerous awards were made at the banquet.

Receives Feature Award
Betty Kirkendall received the Wichita Eagle Feature Writing Award. Miss Kirkendall, a Liberal Arts junior, was also named next year's Sunflower managing editor.

Bob Pope, Liberal Arts junior, was awarded the Wichita Beacon Advertising Award and the Henry W. Lawrence Photo Journalism Scholarship.

In the photography division, trophies went to Richard Roberts, first place; Doyle Logan, second; and Bill Bidwell, third.

Miss Sears was awarded the Wichita Press Women's Scholarship. Sally Howse, Liberal Arts sophomore, who received an appointment as Parnassus managing editor, was named the winner of the Molly Warren Wilcox Scholarship for a sophomore woman in journalism.

Outstanding Soph Named
Peggy Ann Kennedy was named outstanding sophomore journalist.

Other Sunflower staff appointments were: Leroy Pitts and Bill Bidwell, news editors; Linda Swander, society editor; Tommy Vanderhoofen, sports editor; Martha Miller and Bill Franklin, desk editors; Marty Malone, business manager; and Lynn Cheatum, assistant news editor.

Also named to the Parnassus staff were Jim Collier, sports editor, and Gerald Brazill, chief photographer.

Sunflower Editor Milt Brantley was master-of-ceremonies.

'King David' Photo Show Set for June

Throughout the month of June, students, faculty, and Wichita residents will have the opportunity to see Wayne Sourbeer's photographic recording of the University's recent musical production of "King David."

Mr. Sourbeer will exhibit, in the FAC Foyer Gallery, a selected 50 photographs of the nearly 300 he obtained during the recent performance.

Relationships Captured

He explained that the assignment of photographing "King David" was "a matter of seeing and capturing the relationship between the dancers and musicians and soloists and chorus, and presenting a visual equivalent of Honegger's sombre music."

"This was possible through the determination of existing light and dark values, and the recording of these hues on black and white film," he said.

Dancers Vivid Element

Stressing that the dancers were the most vivid visual element in the program, Mr. Sourbeer said, "The dancers received a very intense coverage, and I found it appropriate to use color film for nearly half of the 65 exposures of this group."

Three Cameras Used

Mr. Sourbeer used two different models of 35 mm cameras and a standard Rolliflex in his prolific coverage of "King David."

He said of his busy evening, "I got all involved with the production, and when this happens the film runs through the camera like spaghetti."

The exhibit will open June 1, and be displayed through June 30.

Editorials . . . Traditionally Yours

Traditions, no matter how good or bad they might be, are always prevalent in an institution such as the University. They are just as prevalent in a newspaper.

One of the better known Sunflower traditions is the "good by" editorial by the outgoing editor. In this the editor usually reminisces about the happenings on campus during the past semester, observes the present, and speculates on the future.

This editorial will not defy that tradition.

Many of the past campus happenings deserve acclaim and applause. Too many others deserve criticism. Still others bring on smiles and chuckles.

The members of Mortar Board started the semester with the launching of "intellectualism" when they established the first "Operation Egghead." Congratulations to them. May they continue to offer projects of this nature to the campus.

Also at the start of the semester the new Student-Faculty Court proved its effectiveness when it handed down two verdicts on cases presented to it. Since that time the court was virtually held to a standstill because nothing was brought before it. Yesterday, the Court again had an opportunity to fulfill its function when it met to take action on the disputed Pep Coordinator election. Congratulations to the Court.

The result of the first Court decision brought a letter to the editor in which a number of students complained about the necessity of having chaperons at dances. Several of these students were reportedly disciplined for signing the letter.

Though the Sunflower didn't necessarily agree with the letter, we still have to commend the writers for having the nerve to openly show their feelings.

During the semester, a new political party was born. The BARB challenged the BPOC for positions in the Student Congress. The displays of campaign material of both parties and the outcome of the election brought looks of bewilderment and frowns to the various party members and grins and chuckles to the non-party members.

Finally came the long awaited and much longed-for Campus Activities Center, known in some circles as "The Playpen" and in others as "The Shocker-Hilton." No matter how you look at it, it is far from a Hilton but is definitely an addition to the campus.

When the CAC opened, the student body discovered that an injustice had occurred. One of the best loved, most respected people on campus assumed the duties of answering minute questions, selling cigarettes and candy bars.

Mrs. Ruth Price, who served many years as the hostess of the Commons, is now found in a position not in keeping with her past prestige, her dignity, and the place which she holds in the hearts of all students.

We heartily endorse the petition being circulated by a group of students requesting that Mrs. Price be returned to the capacity of hostess of the CAC, a post she most certainly deserves. Our best wishes to a wonderful woman, Mrs. Ruth Price. A critical glance at those responsible for her present status.

The last bouquet of orchids goes to a deserving group. The staff of the Sunflower, who worked many times under very trying circumstances, many times quite late, and many times when the rest of the student body was relaxing with a holiday, deserves a vote of thanks.

They will never know just how much their work has been appreciated by their editor.

To the new Sunflower staff goes wishes of good luck.
Milt Brantley

Letter to the Editor

To the Editor:

A grave injustice is being perpetrated on this campus, obviously due to lack of foresight and understanding on the part of some of the campus officials.

This injustice is the reduction of a beloved counselor and friend to the position of a cigarette girl.

That an educated person, an honor woman on our own campus, and one who has devoted many years of loyal service to our University and its students, could be thrust into such a position is a fact which must be humiliating to her and is certainly a cause of much dissatisfaction among the students.

Our own Campus Activities Center, which we are told belongs to us, the students, will never seem complete until we can once again see Mrs. Ruth Price seated where she belongs in the Lounge, in her former position of high respect.

I hope that the people responsible for this error will remedy the situation soon.

Sharon McNeil
Liberal Arts Senior

Hodge-Podge

In today's special reminiscence issue of The Sunflower, we'll join the bandwagon (along with all the other editors) and look back over the year at Shockerland. With a tear in our eye, a typewriter at our fingertips, and a glass of cider in our hands, we'll tip the chair back and begin.

make this column possible.

This column, through the combined efforts of many, succeeded throughout the year to win friends, cause comment, and lose friends.

Among this latter group are the following: Nikita Khrushchev, Greta Garbo, Allan Johnston, Eddie and Liz, Richard Nixon, Chet Huntley, Jack Kerouac, the University cheerleaders, Harry Truman, Dick Clark, the Sophomore Honors Group, Ricky Nelson, Christian Herter, Clare Boothe Luce, ALL campus politicians, Sen. Wayne Morse, the Federal Reserve Board, Fidel Castro, "Woody" Woodward, Perry Como, Prof. Paul Gerhard, my one-man board of censors, and Queens everywhere.

The top events of the year, which will always be remembered, were: the social event of the fall season, the "Tip-off Dance;" the "togetherness" of Greek Week and the "apartness" of May Night; "The Jousting Hastle at Jardine Castle;" the closing note of the Gammas at Greek Sing; the prompt efficiency of the Parnassus staff; the unpopularity of the No. 1 song at the Delta Upsilon house, namely "Kansas City;" Dr. George Comstock's art collection of hammers and sickles; the cry of "robbed" at the Tri-Delt house on May 1; the Film Society's showing of last Saturday night which seems to have slipped past the Office of Censoring, Rm. 113, Jardine Hall; and last, but not least, the friendly co-operation and courtesy of the football team which has helped

Local drug stores will be selling grades again this week—in the form of NoDoz tablets. (Say you read it first in the Sunflower.)

It is our sincere hope that next year students will stop complaining about the parking fee. Everyone should know by the time he comes to college that there's always a price to pay for parking.

After the hassel over the Discrimination Resolution by the SGA this month, we suggest that next year they investigate the discrimination in the Student Forum Board's selection of members.

Graduate Art Fellow Plans Sale of Works

Corban LePell, graduate art fellow, will conduct a "One-Day, One-Man" show May 22 in the Little Gallery of the Art Building.

The short exhibit will climax LePell's fellowship study and studio creativity. He explained that the works on display will be for sale throughout the day, and urged all prospective patrons to arrive early so that they may have a larger selection from which to choose.

Logopedics Head Honored As 'Bender of Twig' at Dinner

The honor of "Bender of the Twig" was conferred on Dr. Martin Palmer at the annual Recognition Dinner held at Innes Tea Room May 8.

Dr. Palmer is professor and head of the department of logopedics and director of the Institute of Logopedics.

The honor is bestowed on faculty members who have been at the University for 25 years.

Dr. Palmer played a key role in the development of the Institute.

Other members of the honorary group still on campus include Dr. Geraldine Hammond, professor of English; Walter Duerksen, dean of the School of Music; S. S. Major, instructor in physics; George D. Wilner, professor of speech and drama; William F. Crum, professor and head of the accounting department, and W. D. Jochems, legal counsel to the University.

Retiring members of the faculty were also honored at the dinner.

New Staff Named For Mikrokosmos

The editorial staff of Mikrokosmos has been elected and was approved Monday by the out-going officials.

The staff includes for the editor-in-chief, Jerry George; art editor, Mary Joan Dawson; prose editor, Bob Lawless, verse editor, Benny Armstrong; and business editor, Sara Jane Pearman.

The staff still needs assistants to the above elected. Anyone that would like to apply is asked to turn in their application to Dr. Richard Kennedy, assistant professor of English.

Speech, Drama Instructor Receives MSU Assistantship

Miss Geraldine Staley, instructor in speech and drama for the past two years, will resign her position at the end of this semester to accept a graduate assistantship at Michigan State University.

Miss Staley, who has directed three plays ("Antigone," "Claudia," and "Two Blind Mice") at the University, will enter Michigan State next fall. Her assistantship is in guidance and counseling, and she plans to work on her doctorate in that field.

Miss Staley attended the Pasadena Playhouse, Pasadena, Calif., where she received a bachelor's degree in theater. She also received a bachelor of arts degree from Butler University, Indianapolis, Ind. She received her master's degree from Purdue University, working there as a head resident.

Commenting upon her change of fields, Miss Staley said, "The two fields aren't really as remote as people think." She said that the training she has received in speech and drama will be of great help to her in her new field.

Grid Strength To Be Same, Coach Believes

"We'll have the same personnel with more experience. We should be smarter, and have about the same physical strength as last year," commented head football coach, Chalmer "Woody" Woodard about the 1959 grid prospectus.

The Shocker footballers will open up the fall schedule Sept. 19 against the Kansas State Wildcats at Manhattan. Although K-State holds a decisive 13-3-2 series edge over the Shocks, Coach Woodard sees an "even" clash when the two Kansas teams lock horns in the opener.

It was announced Monday that the Shockers will engage in a new home-and-home series with Montana State College starting in 1960.

Here is the 1959 football schedule:

K-State at Manhattan	Sept. 19
Hardin-Simmons at Wichita	Sept. 26
George Washington at Washington, D. C.	Oct. 9
Cincinnati at Wichita	Oct. 16
Oklahoma State at Stillwater	Oct. 24
North Texas State at Denton	Oct. 31
Houston at Wichita	Nov. 7
(Homecoming)
Drake at Wichita	Nov. 14
Dayton at Dayton, Ohio	Nov. 21
Tulsa at Wichita	Nov. 28
(Thanksgiving)

Rides Home

The Campus Activities Center is sponsoring a "Ride Home" for students during summer vacation.

Students may sign up for rides on posters which are placed in Jardine Hall, CAC, Morrison Library, and both dorms. Persons interested should sign up at least a week before finals. They may check the same posters to see if they will have a ride home.

8 University Students Plan Tour of Europe

By RICHARD MILLER
Sunflower Staff Reporter

Eleven local students have thus far been accepted to participate in the University sponsored European Education Seminar this coming summer.

The seminar is open to any student or recent graduate of any Kansas college or university. Six European countries and many foreign universities will be visited. Highlighting the trip will be forum discussions with students and political leaders of Western Germany and West Berlin. Vacationing and sight seeing in Switzerland, Italy and Southern France will conclude the 47-day seminar.

Dr. Morton Rosenbaum, associate professor of English, will lead the group. Those accompanying him will be Carolyn Morris, Elaine Davis, Ruth Nichol, Judy Curtis, Sidney Watrous, Laura Lee Wilcox, Terry Paul, and John Moss of the University.

Wichita residents Mary Harrell, Drake University, Richard Mullins, Grinnell College, Iowa, and Sandra Swanson, Kansas University, will also join the group.

Latest events added to the scheduled agenda are a visit to Wichita's "Sister City," Orleans, France, in conjunction with its 530th anniversary of Joan of Arc's victory there, and a brief audience with Pope John XXIII.

It is to be remembered that Wichitans adopted and pledged support to Orleans following World War II.

For further information concerning the few remaining openings on the seminar trip, students are asked to contact the Office of Student Services, Rm. 113, Jardine Hall.

Top AFROTC Cadets Named

Six University Air Force ROTC Cadets have been tentatively selected as distinguished military students by President Harry F. Corbin and Lieut. Col. Peter De Groot, professor of air science.

Those tentatively selected are: Cadet Maj. Phillip Jeffries, cadet captains Donald Henderson, Phillip Hayden, John L. Davidson, William Wells, and James T. Davis.

Selection is based upon leadership, academic achievement, and military proficiency. If the cadets selected maintain their high scholastic standing they will be designated as distinguished military students in their senior year. This would provide them with a priority on receiving a regular commission upon graduation.

Poli Sci Frat Will Initiate 9 On Friday

Pi Alpha Sigma, national political science honorary fraternity, will hold an invitation dinner Friday night in, the GAC.

The organization, which has been on this campus since 1938, will have nine students eligible for initiation. Those eligible are: Diane Copeland, Oscar Fitzhenry, Wiley Folger, Ken Fortney, Dean Hargrove, Claude Lee, Fred Sudermann, Ray S. Wells, and John Woodward.

Mary Frances Watson, political science departmental secretary and secretary-treasurer of Pi Alpha Sigma, stated that eligibility consists of a junior standing, an over-all B average, and a B average in political science.

The dinner, which will be held at 6:30 p.m., will be attended by approximately 100 Wichita alumni. Mayor Justus Fugate will be the speaker for the affair.

Political science professors and Dr. Hugo Wall, past sponsor of the organization and now head of the Graduate School, will be attending.

Pi Alpha Sigma was founded in 1920 at the University of Texas and has only two chapters in Kansas. The other chapter is at the University of Kansas.

Retired French Prof To Teach Telecourse

Miss Jacquetta Downing, professor emeritus of French, is teaching a 12-week non-credit class in French over KARD-TV which began Saturday.

DDD's Award 4 Scholarships

Winners of the 1959-60 Delta Delta Delta scholarships have been announced by Linda Ehart, service projects chairman for the local chapter.

They are: Virginia Glover, Liberal Arts sophomore; Mary Benedict Cooper, Fine Arts sophomore; Maria Tilford, Liberal Arts junior; and Nancy Mayer, Liberal Arts sophomore.

Miss Glover is a math-physics major. She will receive a $100 grant from her chapter. Miss Cooper will receive a $100 scholarship from the Tri-Delta alumnae chapter. She is a music major.

Awards of $50 each were won by Miss Tilford and Miss Mayer. Miss Tilford is a psychology major, while Miss Mayer is enrolled in English.

Money for the scholarships is raised through a combined effort of both the Delta Delta Delta alumnae and local chapter.

Miss Downing, who retired last May, was formerly head of the French department.

The course is being offered through the College of Adult Education.

Planned for Children Conversational in format, the course will emphasize the basic French words and phrases dealing with common situations.

Adult Education officials said the course is planned primarily for children but is also designed to give adults an introduction to French or provide a review of earlier French studies.

Study Guide Prepared Miss Downing has prepared a special study guide for her first television course, J. Robert Minser, director of educational television, said.

Registration is being handled through the College of Adult Education and is still being accepted.

Each enrollee will receive lesson sheets, word lists, and other materials by mail, he pointed out.

Morrison Library contains a bound file of most of the copies of the Wichita Eagle since the paper was established in 1872.

McCarty Receives Adams Fellowship

A University instructor working under a fellowship for the past two years was awarded the Roger Adams Fellowship in organic chemistry at the University of Illinois.

Gordon McCarty received the prize consisting of $1600 plus tuition for work toward a doctorate.

McCarty received his bachelor of science here in 1957 and expects to receive his master's degree in August.

McCarty is a member of the American Chemical Society, Sigma Phi Sigma, and the American Rocket Society.

Engineering Council Elects New Officers

The officers for the Engineering Council, who will serve during the next school year, were elected recently.

They are, Fred Luedke, president; Frank Wright, vice-president; Bill Young, treasurer; Robert Cooper, secretary; and Max Turner, parliamentarian.

The Engineering Council is the governing body of the students in the Engineering school.

WU Coed Honorary Air Group Seeking Additional Memberships

Angel Flight, women's honorary Air Force cadet corps, is seeking new members. The women of Angel Flight are closely associated with, and are elected into this honorary group by the men of the Air Force ROTC.

The coeds assist in all AFROTC activities as well as performing social functions of their own. They comprise a social group which has added "the woman's touch" to such events as the Military Ball, Easter Party for the Logopedics children, AFROTC field day, and Armed Forces Day, according to Mary Joan Hiner, information services officer.

Each year the Flight takes an annual trip. This year they traveled to Denver and Colorado Springs, Colo., where they visited the Air Academy.

The requirements for selection into the Flight are attractiveness, an overall grade point index of 2.2 or above, and a willingness to provide initiative and leadership in social functions. Petitioners must also be enrolled in a minimum of 12 semester hours at the University.

All coeds interested in becoming members should obtain a petition from the Office of Student Services. (Continued on Page 6)

BIRD CAGE

By PAULA BIRD
Sunflower Society Editor

The time has come to wind up the Bird Cage and gather the final news for the year. I have tried to provide humor and amusing incidents along with the reporting of social functions on the campus, but this has not been an easy task.

It is difficult to report the activities of fraternities on campus when one group hands in a portfolio of news each week and the others remain silent.

It is difficult to report the activities of some of the sororities because they figure the society editor should know all the news anyway. Thank you for your interest in this column. I hope you have learned what has been going on around the campus in terms of the University's social activities.

Two social organizations have entertained their parents at recent functions. Delta Delta Delta had an annual picnic for fathers at Fairmount Park last Saturday night, and mothers of Delta Gamma members were honored recently with a dinner and impressive ceremony given by the coeds.

Tri-Delta Janice Hart served chocolates at the Monday evening meeting to announce her pinning to Bruce Woods, Delta Upsilon.

Two social organizations have paid off debts which were incurred at the Cowboy Carnival. Phi Delta Theta joined with Alpha Phi in an afternoon party recently, and the Tri-Deltas had a pizza party for the members of Sig Ep.

Undoubtedly the social event of the spring season was the Honors Banquet, which was held a week ago in the CAC. Those serving dinner to the more than 200 guests were Mrs. Harry Corbin, Dean Josephine Fugate, Dr. Geraldine Hammond, Mrs. Laura Cross, Miss Eunice Boardman, and the members of Mortar Board. Dr. Melvin H. Snyder, banquet master of ceremonies, referred to the serving in his opening remarks after dinner when he welcomed honored grads and their families to the first annual "do it yourself" honors dinner.

Three Sig Ep pinnings have been announced recently. Beverly Okerberg, Delta Delta Delta, and Doug Jackson, Sigma Phi Epsilon; Bob Cressler, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Sally O'Bryan from Newton; John Songer, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Rosalin Schumann, student at North High School.

Sigma Phi Epsilon held their annual Mothers Club Picnic last Sunday at Joyland Amusement Park. Fraternity members, their families, and their dates attended the function.

Congratulations are in order for Marilyn Landon and Shirley Sears who have been chosen as Delta Gamma's Big Hannah for the month of May. Both coeds were in charge of the first place Delta Gamma Hippodrome skit. The Little Hannah award went to Joan Greer, costume chairman for the skit.

sales opportunities at IBM

A limited number of outstanding career opportunities are available in our rapidly expanding data processing sales organization. The application of IBM data processing systems to modern business problems is a dynamic, fast-moving, and exciting area. Demand and acceptance by American business of electronic data processing systems have created a definite challenge for the right man in IBM sales.

We want recent, mature college graduates who have majored in Business Administration, Economics, Accounting, Engineering, or the physical sciences. Other candidates with equivalent, practical business experience in systems, methods, accounting, or sales engineering, who have strong sales interest, will be considered.

Successful candidates will enter a comprehensive training program to equip them to contact and work successfully with management executives of American business. Their sales duties will include direct contact with IBM customers and prospects, with the opportunity to analyze business operations and to plan, apply, and install IBM data processing systems to satisfy the requirements of business, industry, and government.

Qualified candidates are invited to call for an appointment, or send resumes to:

More applications are needed for the Big Sister program of Associated Women Students, according to Judy Denton, SGA executive secretary.

Big sisters are coeds who have been on campus long enough to become acquainted with University life and wish to help incoming freshmen women. They write letters in the summer to these students, or Little Sisters, to acquaint them with campus life.

Each Big Sister may have one or more Little Sisters. They also take the Little Sisters to the Freshman Tea and the Dutch Luncheon.

Those women who wish to be a Big Sister may contact Elaine vices, Rm. 113, Jardine Hall, or the Armory from Maj. G. E. Funk assistant professor of air science. All petitioners will be invited to an introductory tea in late August.

Davis, project chairman, or Joan Sipes, Virginia Glover, Marilyn Murphy, Joyce Cole, Myrna Schenck, or any AWS council member.

Preliminary voting will be conducted by the present Angel Flight members shortly after the tea. Final election of the new members will be made by the AFROTC cadets early in the school year.

The dues are nominal and uniforms will be furnished by the Flight.

Pep Council Plans Fall Booster Trip

Pep Council members for 1959-60 will sponsor a fall booster trip to Kansas State University, for the Shockers' first football game of the season on Sept. 19, according to Sally Howse, pep coordinator.

Posters containing more information about the Manhattan trip will go up during fall registration.

3 Programs In English 112 To Be Given

Three programs of English 112 are being offered to freshmen students fall semester of 1959-60.

In addition to the regular 112, which is compulsory for students who have already taken English 111, English 112-L and 112-V will be open to entering freshmen. Students may not take 111 and 112-L or 112-V concurrently, however.

English 112-L is a large experimental course, and class enrollment will comprise approximately 75 students. English 112-V is a television experimental course, which will be conducted two days a week by three faculty members on KAKE-TV. On the third day students will gather in groups of twenty to discuss individual work.

In order to enroll in either of the new English 112 sections a student must already be regularly enrolled at the University.

1959 Parnassus Distribution To Get Underway May 25

Copies of the 1959 Parnassus will arrive at 10 a.m. Monday, May 25. During the week, distribution will take place in the Campus Activities Center on the first floor in a room directly across from the Corral.

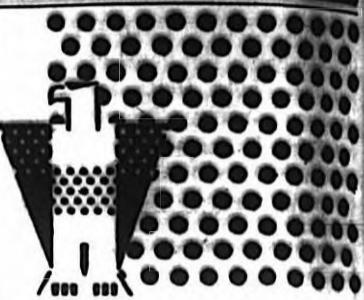

To receive a Parnassus, a student must have a validated ID card, or fee bills for both semesters, showing that he is enrolled in nine semester hours. Staff members have access to a list of such eligible persons for first semester, but the student will need proof for second semester's enrollment.

If a student has attended the University for only one semester this year, the Parnassus may be purchased for $2. A person who has attended the University both semesters but has not carried nine hours, may purchase the yearbook for $4.

Yearbooks will be distributed

Monday through Friday. On Monday, staff members will distribute the Parnassus, as soon as the books can be unpacked, until 3 p.m., and again from 6:30 until 9 p.m.

wash a giraffe's neck for 1c?

That's a tall question. The chances are you couldn't. After all, you couldn't very well do it electrically and automatically like most women are doing their home laundry . . . for less than 1¢ a load. This is, incidentally, why most women have forgotten the aches and pains of washday drudgery.

It's just another example of the low cost of KG&E's electric service. As a matter of fact, in the 50 years that KG&E has been serving you, there has never been a general rate increase. Average rates are lower today than they've ever been.

That's why you, too, can Live Better . . . Electrically.

Average price of electricity for homes (PER KILOWATT HOUR)

1933	5c	PER KWH
1946	3½c	PER KWH
Today	LESS THAN 2½c	PER KWH

KG&E has never had a rate increase for homes and farms. Of course your bill may be bigger than it was a few years ago. But that's because you're using more electricity every year to Live Better . . . Electrically.
