Senator To Visit Campus

Senator John F. Kennedy will arrive in Wichita on Thursday afternoon, and on Friday morning at 10 a.m. will address University students in the Commons Auditorium.

The Massachusetts senator's visit to Wichita is part of an extensive Democratic fund raising tour. He is coming to the University under the sponsorship of the Collegiate Young Democrats.

Senator Kennedy

Classes Will Not Dismiss
Classes will not be dismissed or the senator's address. "We want to encourage all students to attend if possible," said Frank Annerson, president of the Young Democrats.

Senator Kennedy narrowly missed getting the nomination for the vice-presidency in 1956, according to Alice Burright, Young Democracy publicity chairman.

Since that time he has been considered a leading contender for president in 1960.

In 1952 he was elected to the Senate from the House of Representatives.

Shockers Nip Drake After Early Scare

Nearly 4,000 'frost-bitten' fans watched the Shockers roar back in the second half to defeat Drake, 20-7, in sub-freezing weather Saturday night.

Drake's Art Nichols, sophomore halfback, made the Bulldogs only tied on the longest play of the game, a 78 yard scamper over right tackle in the second quarter. Nichols picked up 174 yards in 27 attempts to top the game rushing statistics.

With Drake leading 7-0, the Shockers came to life with 30 seconds remaining in the half. Dick Young, quarterback who was benched in favor of Dick Johnson for the opening kick-off, triggered the 70-yard scoring drive by completing two passes for 37 yards and then scoring on a 33 yard keeper as time ran out. Drake led at the half, 7-6.

Young also scored the second tied for the Shockers when he ran four yards to paydirt early in the second half. He passed to halfback Tom Wright for two more points, pushing the Shockers ahead 14-7.

Johnson spearheaded the final Wichita drive, leading the team 70 yards to a marker, hitting end Jacque Anderson for the final seven yards of the march.

The win was the Shockers' fourth of the season against three losses and one tie. It was the sixth loss of the season for the Bulldogs who have won only two.

Fullback Ted Dean led the Shocker runners with 103 yards, having his finest running performance of the season. His previous high was 75 against Houston last week. However, he had one of his worst punting nights of his college career, kicking five times for a 33.4 average. Dean, who leads Missouri Valley Conference in punting, brought a 44.8 yard average into Saturday night's game.

The Shockers lost the ball on 6 of 12 fumbles, allowing the Bulldogs several chances to cash in. On the other hand, Drake fumbled once to the Shockers for their only miscue in the icy weather.

Wichita rolled up 338 total yards from rushing and passing to 244 for Drake. Drake, with 224 yards, almost matched Wichita's 234 running yardage, but were completely outclassed in the air as they made only 20 yards passing. Wichita gained 104 yards through the airplanes.

Next week the Shockers travel to Dayton, Ohio to meet their second straight non-league foe.

Cowboy Carnival Friday; To Raise Funds for WUS

The Cowboy Carnival, which last year raised over one thousand dollars for the World University Service, will be held this year from 7.30 p.m. to midnight, Friday, in Henrion Gymnasium. Carnival proceeds will again go to WUS.

According to Hope Kroenlein, general chairman of the Carnival, campus organizations will again set up fund raising booths and conduct auctions. The booths will be located in the Women's Gym, and the auctions will be held in the Men's Gym. (Henrion Gym is divided into a women's and men's gym).

Services to be Sold

There will be no tangible items auctioned off. Instead, the organizations will auction housecleaning parties, breakfasts, etc.

One of the highlights of the Carnival will be the crowning of Pistol Pat and Pistol Pete, who will be chosen by amassing the largest amount of student contributions.

Candidates for Pistol Pat are Marina Petroff, Delta Gamma; Colleen Shannon, Alpha Phi; Linda Christian, Delta Delta Delta; Sharon Fries, Gamma Phi Beta; and Pam McCarter, Alpha Chi Omega.

Pistol Pete candidates are Bud Johnson, Beta Theta Pi; Dennis Cain, Delta Upsilon; and Bob Cressler, Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Admission tickets for the Carnival can now be purchased from YWCA members for 25 cents. Students will also be able to purchase 25-cent tickets Thursday and Friday at booths which will be set up in the Campus Activities Center and the rotunda of Jardine

Convo to Hear Red's Analyzed

Dr. Nicholas Nyaradi, former finance minister of Hungary, will describe how the United States might change under communism or socialism at a 9:30 a.m. convocation tomorrow in the Commons Auditorium.

Dr. Nyaradi

Drawing from his personal experience with Communist leaders, Dr. Nyaradi will discuss, "Shall We Survive," a comparison of what life in this country might be like if communism or socialism replaced free enterprise.

Dr. and Mrs. Nyaradi fled their native country in 1948. Since then, he has maintained close ties with international political personalities and has kept informed on communist maneuvers. He has written several books on communism and is now on a four-month speaking tour during which he will appear before student bodies of 39 public and private colleges, universities, junior colleges, and other groups.

Convo Schedule

Classes will be shortened as indicated in the following schedule:

8:00—8:40	8 o'clock
8:50—9:30	9 o'clock
9:40—10:30	Convocation
10:40—11:20	10 o'clock
11:30—12:10	11 o'clock
12:20—1:00	noon
1:10—1:50	1 o'clock
2:00—	resume regular schedule

Crist Names 'Night' Cast

The University Players will present the play, "Night Must Fall," on Dec. 10, 11, and 12 in the Commons Auditorium at 8:30 p.m.

The plot evolves around a bell-boy in a resort hotel, located in Essex, England, who unwittingly becomes mixed up in a murder involving a psychopathic killer, according to Robert Crist, director.

Nurse Libby, Joyce Ward, junior speech education; Mrs. Terence, Judy Yawger, Fine Arts junior; Dora Parkoe, Judy Pruner, Liberal Arts sophomore; Inspector Belsize, Gary Brown, Fine Arts freshman; and Dan, Mike Kucharo, freshman in speech theatre.

Gary Bender, a sophomore from Ulysses, Kans., enrolled in speech theatre has been selected as assistant to the director.

Inge Comedy To Be Staged In Commons

'Bus Stop,' by William Inge, is the Community Theatre's next play. It will be presented on Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m. in the Commons Auditorium.

The director, Mary Jane Teal, announced that students of the University will be admitted free on Thursday night only. Previously all performances have been free to students.

The play is a comedy which takes place in a small cafe on the outskirts of Topeka. A bus has been stalled and the passengers and their problems give color to the setting. The courtship of a rodeo cowboy and a night club girl provides the highlights of the play.

Nancy Amos has the lead with Betsy Ross in a supporting role. Miss Ross graduated from the University last year.

WU Will Host 30 Colleges In Annual Cross-Exam Meet

Plans are being completed for the Shocker Cross Examination tournament scheduled for Nov. 20 and 21, according to Assoc. Prof. Ed Moorhouse, debate coach.

More than 200 debaters from 30 colleges will participate in the annual tournament in the Commons Auditorium.

To Host 60 Teams
Professor Moorhouse said that the University will be host to some 60 teams from eleven states. Among the schools to be represented are the Universities of Florida, Pittsburg, Northwestern, and other schools from South Dakota and Texas.

The national college question for this year in debate: "Should Congress Be Given the Power to Overrule Supreme Court Decisions." This will be debated in cross-examination style. It is in direct contrast to the formal debate.

Professor Moorhouse explained the cross examination tournament is one in which each debater interrogates his opponent and then questioned by him.

First and second place trophies are being presented and the two semi-finalists that lose will both be awarded a third place trophy. Awards will be given to individual outstanding debaters.

Public Invited
There are five preliminary rounds in which all teams participate before the elimination. The public is invited to all phases of the tourney.

Paul McKee, assistant director of forensics, said that about 95 per cent of the people here who are active debaters are not speech majors. Most of them are political science majors.

Wichita University debaters plan to enter 16 tournaments this year and travel over 12,000 miles. They will go to New Orleans, Texas, Pennsylvania, and other locations.

New Location

Beginning today, all journalism classes and laboratories will be held in the Commons Building.

The move of department offices, classes, and laboratories was completed Monday. This change also includes all Sunflower offices.

The Sunflower newsroom is now located in Rm. 004 and the Sunflower editors' offices are in Rm. 005 in the basement of the Commons Building. Material for publication may be deposited in either room, according to Betty Kirkendall, managing editor.

The Sunflower business and advertising office is now located in Rm. 006 of the Commons Building.

A Wise Resolution

Recently the members of the Political Activities Center at the University passed a resolution supporting federal anti-lynching legislation.

The resolution was drawn up as a result of the outcome of the Mack Charles Parker lynch case in Poplarville, Miss. Parker, a Negro, was dragged from his jail cell six months ago by a masked mob and lynched.

Less than a month ago a grand jury in Mississippi was to carry out the "law" and judge the actions of the mob.

The jury refused to even consider evidence against the masked mob. They failed to return an indictment or to explain their refusal to do so.

Domestic situations such as this make it difficult for our State Department to emphasize universal equality.

The people in Mississippi provide an excellent example of people unwilling to follow the law as set down in the Constitution of the United States. They have indicated, as the PAC resolution states, "that they are either unwilling or unable to guarantee equal protection of the law to Negroes."

We are in complete agreement with the PAC resolution which further states:

"We students feel we have an obligation to declare our position, a position that we feel is the only one possible for those who believe in a constitutional democracy based on the supremacy of the law."

If states such as Mississippi can not or will not guarantee equal rights to citizens regardless of race, then the Federal Government should step in and act for them.

The PAC resolution is a step forward. We hope the officials of our city, county, and state will act upon it.

Tradition or Vacation?

What's happening to the Walk-Out? The tradition which has long been a part of the University is now shaking at its foundation.

The Walk-Out was originally planned as a day of festivities after winning an important game. Its purpose was to allow the students a day free of classes to promote and to make possible a display of spontaneous school spirit in honor of the team.

Today, the Walk-Out is a far-cry from its original purpose. Students still look forward to the day-off from classes, but the spirit behind the traditional affair has been lost in the wind.

Last week, SGA took another step toward further pushing Walk-Out spirit into a corner of darkness. The members voted to hold the Walk-Out on the Monday following the Thanksgiving vacation, thereby extending the vacation until Tuesday. In essence, this is nothing more than another day off from classes.

True, students, especially those from out of town, will probably be happy with SGA's proposed selection of the date. But we wonder how many students will show up on campus Monday for the Walk-Out activities?

New Quarters

By the time you read this, the department of journalism and the Sunflower should be comfortably housed in their new quarters in the Commons Building. The moving job, or most of it at least, was accomplished over the weekend.

For journalism laboratories, classrooms, and all operations of the newspaper except printing, the Commons lends itself well. And, the move comes at a time when the journalism department is experiencing growth, reflecting general trends of the University.

The Administration has been cognizant of these trends and, we feel, is to be commended for providing facilities for the growth of the department of journalism and the school paper.

Now that all this has come to pass, it might well be a good idea for the University community to become better acquainted with the workings of its newspaper, the why and how of its operation.

Come in—look us over. We of the Sunflower staff hope you'll like our new home as well as we do. And, you won't have to knock. The door is always open.

Home Papers In WU Library

Keeping up on the home town news is easy for many away-from-home Shockers when they read the regional newspapers collected at Morrison Library.

In addition to the Wichita Beacon and both editions of the Wichita Eagle, Morrison Library receives copies of the Kansas City Star, the Kansas City Times, the Dodge City Daily Globe, Sherman County Herald (Goodland), Southwest Daily Times (Liberal), Heston Record, Marquette Tribune, and the Norton Daily Telegram.

For students from abroad, El Tiempo (Bogota, Colombia), Excelsior (Federal District of Mexico), Die Zeit Hamburg, Germany), Le Monde (Paris), the London Times, Korean Republic (Seoul-English edition), and the Pakistan News Digest (in English) are available for use in the periodicals reading room on the main floor of Morrison Library and may be used any time the Library is open.

The foreign language newspapers are also of value to advanced students of modern languages for practice in reading and vocabulary.

Business Fraternity Takes 15 Pledges

Alpha Kappa Psi, national professional business fraternity, recently pledged 15 members.

William E. Prescott was elected as president of the pledge class and Ralph Hight, vice-president. Ollen Nichols is secretary and Dennis Emery is treasurer.

The pledges received pins from the local Gamma Upsilon chapter.

Fran Jabara, associate professor of accounting, is faculty sponsor of the fraternity.

Campus Personality

LA Senior Court Justice Plans Graduate Study in Chemistry

Jack Malone, personality of the week, is a graduate of St. Mary's High School, and a senior in the College of Liberal Arts.

A chemistry major and mathematics minor, Jack has had an enjoyable and active college life. Malone is vice-president of the senior class and serves as a justice in the student court. One of the three original students forming the court, Jack states, "It has been in existence nearly a year now, and has so far proven a successful organization."

Outstanding Chem Student

The American Chemical Society selected the chemistry student as the outstanding junior student in chemistry last year. He is now working on an undergraduate project of the National Science Foundation, and holds a tuition remission scholarship and hopes, "to be of service to mankind through chemical discovery."

It might appear that Malone is an "all-work and no-fun" type person. However, all who know him recognize and appreciate his quick wit and likeable personality. He says, "I like to entertain people."

As historian for Phi Delta Theta, Malone believes, "the fraternity has provided a wealth of friendship."

Enjoys Kingston Trio
 Typical of most college men, Malone chooses the Kingston Trio to provide his music.

His job last summer, which proved to be an interesting experience, consisted of various work along with hundreds of other college students at Estes Park, Colo.

Plans for the future include graduation, then graduate study in the chemical field.

Campus Coed Tours Europe; Mu Phi Sponsors Summer Trip

Mu Phi Epsilon, women's national honorary music fraternity, sponsored a European tour this summer for member students and alumnae throughout the United States. Sally Shank, a Mu Phi member on this campus, accompanied the group to Europe.

Miss Shank had applied for the tour last spring and was able to go with 29 other students and alumnae from all over the United States.

The main purpose of the tour was to visit the music festivals being held throughout Europe. In Italy they attended a concert along with visiting and viewing great works of art.

Italy offered the group a great deal of opera, and they attended some concerts performed in old Roman amphitheaters.

Salzburg 'Fairy Tale'

Upon leaving Italy the group traveled to Switzerland, where they visited Interlocken and Luserne. From here they went into Austria and visited the cities of Vienna and Salzburg, where they attended the Aix en Provence festival. Miss Shank stated that Salzburg is just like a "fairy tale world."

Leaving Austria, they went to Germany, and attended the Beyreuth festival in Beyreuth. The group visited Munich and went to Cologne, where Miss Shank met her fifth cousin and his family. Shortly after arriving in Cologne she took a day off from the tour and went to central Germany to visit the family, where she saw the cemetery where her ancestors and family were buried.

Scotland Beautiful

Leaving Germany the group went on into Holland and toured Amsterdam. The group then visited the last two countries on the tour, England and Scotland. Scotland, according to Miss Shank, was by far the most beautiful country visited. She had a chance to attend the Edinburg festival.

From Scotland the Mu Phi members traveled to England and London. In London they were able to see President Eisenhower. Miss Shank left the tour group and visited Olney, England, where the annual Pancake race is held.

Returning to the group they attended the performance of King Lear, featuring Charles Lawton, at Stratford on Avon.

Arriving back in the United States on the evening of Aug. 28, Miss Shank felt that this was an experience that she would never forget.

YWCA Sponsors Cowboy Carnival; Supports Students in Foreign Lands

BY PEGGY KENNEDY
Sunflower Society Editor

This Friday the YWCA invites everyone to come to its annual Cowboy Carnival. If you attend you will have an evening full of fun taking part in many of the booths and activities set up by the various organizations on this campus.

During the course of the evening you will probably be approached by a multitude of girls carrying jars and little boxes asking you to contribute.

You'll wonder just what you are contributing to. These girls will tell you that you are contributing to the World University Service and if you give, you'll not only be giving to a worth while organization but will also be helping their candidate to win.

Few, if any, of the girls will be able to tell you just what WUS is or what it does. Maybe you'd be interested in knowing just where your money will go after it is dropped into that little jar.

World University Service was started in 1920, mainly as a relief organization to aid in the rebuilding of war torn Europe. Its founders were the leaders of the World University Christian Federation.

Since its founding 39 years ago, WUS has expanded its program to include many phases of foreign university life. It has aided many students, who, without its backing, would have never been able to obtain the education that they deserved.

During World War II, this organization aided students, prisoners of war, internees, and refugees. In addition to supplying these people with books and food, WUS helped to break down feelings of isolation, giving them hope for the future.

Broadens Scope

With its work from World War I and its advanced works through World War II and the Korean War, WUS has broadened its scope to include work in the Middle East, including Egypt and Israel, Southeast Asia, the Far East, and Africa. Presently a Latin American program is being instituted. It is also aiding the international organizations of Catholic and Jewish students.

Fashion Lists White for Night

BY PEGGY KENNEDY
Sunflower Society Editor

Here's a fashion note for the fashion wise. White is to be the color for formal evening wear this winter, with pale shades running a close second.

The wide variety of styles range from the practical shirtwaist to the strapless, domed skirt style. The accent seems to be on the sheath skirt, full, pleated, or domed, and the full length sheath, slit up the side and with the intermission hemline.

Fabrics in the lime light are chiffon, satin, velvet, wool and wool jersey. Wool is now being worn with the most formal of fabrics.

Speaking of coats, the latest in fashions for formal evening wear is upholstery fabrics, with the emphasis again on white. The most popular fabric for these coats is brocade satin. The fur trimmed collar is also making a big hit for formal wear.

Along with the casual note found in the shirtwaist, the theater suit is becoming a favorite. This style of suit is most attractive in velvet, and can be worn to the informal dinner dance.
