Pre-registered Students' Forms Ready Next Week

BY LARRY LANGTON
Sunflower Staff Reporter

The two little signs taped on the doors of the Registrar's Office could save 3,527 University students 15 to 20 minutes, and a lot of headaches during registration this year.

The time-saving signs read, "Pick up your registration forms early, on Jan. 18, 19, and 20."

According to Dr. Worth A. Fletcher, registrar, all students who have pre-enrolled for the second semester, may pick up the registration forms at the Registrar's Office on Jan. 18, 19, or 20, which can then be filled out at home.

Privilege for Pre-registered
Dr. Fletcher stressed the fact that only pre-registered students will be allowed to get the forms early, and all students planning to do so, must bring their pre-enrollment schedules with them as proof.

This is the first year this service has been used, and if it works, it will be continued. Until this year these forms had to be filled out in the women's section of Henrion Gymnasium, and was a time consuming part of the registration process.

Dr. Fletcher suggested that students taking these forms home could use a typewriter which would be a big help to the Registrar's Office.

Registration Begins Jan. 27

Registration will begin Wednesday morning, Jan. 27, and continue through Saturday, Jan. 30. Dr. Fletcher stressed that students who have pre-registered must enroll during their specified alphabetic division. The rule also applies to students who must complete the entire registration procedure.

Dr. Fletcher said students who do not follow the ruling will relinquish class space, even if they have pre-enrolled.

Students who have completed their registration forms early will begin the registration by going directly to the deans of their colleges for enrollment schedule verification.

Billing Clerk Figures Bill

Each student will then be billed by a billing clerk who takes enrollment cards, class cards, and tallies the fee bill. Payment of the tuition bill is made at the comptroller's table.

Students who have not pre-registered, and who are attending the University this semester, will enter the Gymnasium at the specified time and proceed to the admission table for an envelope and name card.

Advisor Prepares Schedules

These students must then prepare a schedule with their faculty advisor which is then approved by the college dean.

Students then take their tentative schedules to sectioning tables where class cards are distributed. If the section is closed and the student cannot enroll in another hour of the course, he must then return to his advisor for schedule revision.

After completing these steps, the student will then follow normal registration procedure.

CRAMMING—Sandra Schenck, Liberal Arts senior, found she had a little catching up to do on studies before taking her first final today. Coffee in the Alibi and studying in Morrison Library are on most students' schedules for this week. (Sunflower Staff Photo by Keesko Reed.)

"Self-Service" for Textbooks To Be Utilized in Bookstore

The University Bookstore has inaugurated a new "self-service" for students buying textbooks. Dick Adkisson, Bookstore manager, said the book-buying process will be faster for second semester with the new system. He added that new check out counters were also presently being built and should be ready by registration time.

Used textbooks will be purchased in the Bookstore on Jan. 14, 15, 18 and 19. The Bookstore will remain open until 8.30 p.m. on Jan. 14 and 18, Adkisson said.

Prices students will receive for their texts will depend upon the condition of the book when it is turned in. The manager added that a full used-price is paid if the book can be used on campus.

Sells to Dealers

Books that are not used on campus will also be bought by the Bookstore to be sold to book dealers, Adkisson added.

In order to provide a sufficient quantity of used books, the Bookstore buys texts all over the country. "Last month we spent over $5,000 on this program," Adkisson said.

He urged students to check booklists in order that they can be sure of the books they buy. However, they can exchange books during the first two weeks of the second semester by presenting the cash register receipt.

Textbook prices are marked up the least of any item in the store, Adkisson said. Because of this, only about three per cent of a student's college costs go for books.

Projects to Pay Bonds

Profits on used book sales are placed in a fund used to pay off bonds on the CAC.

According to Adkisson, the Bookstore hours during second semester registration will be: Jan. 27 and 28, 7:45 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.; Jan. 29, 7:45 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.; Jan. 30, 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.; Feb. 1 through 4, 7:45 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.; Feb. 5, 7:45 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.; and Feb. 6, 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Shocks' Hopes for Upsets Shattered

There was a faint but distinguishable odor of upset in the WU Fieldhouse Thursday night, and some say they even tasted it Saturday. But the Cincinnati Bearcats walked off the floor Thursday, shaken, but still owners of an unblemished season record and defeated WU 76-69.

And although Bradley University, rated number four in college basketball, trailed the Shocks all but one minute and eight seconds of the game, Bradley won 71-70.

'Big O' Held Down

The Shocks held Oscar Robertson, Cincinnati's ace scorer for three years and the nation's leading point maker, 13 points under his average of 40 a game.

Ron Heller, given the job of defending the "Big O," and Gene Wiley were credited with the outstanding job of partially cuffing the great scorer.

Wiley, a 6-10 Shocker center who had seen only limited action until the Cincinnati contest, was the surprise for Shocker fans as the big sophomore proved to be worth his weight in defense. Wiley had been nursing a bruised leg muscle during the early part of the season.

Second Half Picks Up

WU trailed 47-28 at halftime. Giving the Wichita fans the designation of not only being the biggest group, but the cheering-est, the Shocks put on a scoring display during the second half that almost knocked the top off the Missouri Valley title race.

Forward Al Tate, hitting the deadly jump shot and one long left-handed hook shot, along with the accurate jump shooting of Heller, brought the home club within seven points of the top team in the nation at the final gun.

Saturday the shoe was on the other foot, but as it turned out, neither shoe fit.

WU jumped out into the lead as if it were Wichita property, and kept the crowd on their feet throughout the game.

With the half almost at hand, Bradley erected a zone full court press on the Shocks. But it seemed to have little effect as WU sailed into the dressing room sporting a 37-27 lead.

Bradley Comes Back

But the press started taking its effect. The Shocks, moving into a semi-control game, found it hard to move the ball down the boards as Bradley tightened the blanketing press. Capitalizing on easy buckets and on Shocker mistakes, the Braves cut the lead, then, with 1:37 left, Bobby Jo Mason sent Bradley to the front. Sophomore John Allen hit to put WU on top 12 seconds later, but Brave Dan Smith countered with 58 seconds on the clock and Wichita called time out.

The gamble was for one shot, but the shot didn't go in.

Dye Calls Coach's 'Hanging' Insult to Students, Not Coach

By TOMMY VANDERHOOFVEN
Sunflower Sports Editor

"This type of thing is an insult to the intelligence of our student body. It is more degrading to the person who did it, than to the coach."

These were the first words that Athletic Director Tippy Dye said Monday evening when contacted at his home concerning two dummies, the effigies of Basketball Coach Ralph Miller.

Dye went on to say that "We weren't supposed to come close in either of the games (referring to the Cincinnati and Bradley games that caused the hangings) but we did a tremendous job both nights."

A heavy fog added to the "hanging effect" and the "hangmen" weren't at all bashful about putting the dummies where most people would see them. One was placed across the street from the CAC on Yale Ave., hanging from a pole wire, and the other was in a tree southwest of the CAC.

"Our Coach" Swings

The one on Yale Ave. had only the word "Miller" left on it, probably due to fading from the heavy fog. Several students who "apparently saw" the hanging first claimed that the sign had something to the effect that if Miller couldn't do the job, someone else could. The dummy hanging from the tree bore the words "Our Coach."

Monday's edition of the Wichita Beacon carried a surprising story that Miller was leaving at the end of the year, win or lose. Joe Gilmartin, Beacon Sports Editor,

NBC Correspondent to Speculate About Future US-USSR Relations

BY SHARON MONASMITH
Sunflower Staff Reporter

Irving R. Levine, NBC Moscow correspondent, will speculate on the future relations between the United States and Russia Jan. 20, 8 p.m., on the Student Forum Board program in the Commons auditorium.

Levine, who has been NBC's permanent correspondent for five years, was sent to Russia after sending a telegram addressed to "Nikita Khrushchev, Kremlin, Moscow" requesting to be allowed to accompany a delegation of farmers visiting Russia. His request was granted.

During his five-week trip with the American farmers, Levine sent another telegram to Khrushchev asking to be allowed to stay as NBC's permanent correspondent. The direct approach was again successful, making Levine the first TV-radio correspondent granted accreditation since 1947.

Since the 1955 farm tour, Levine has traveled extensively throughout Russia. His travels include Central Asia, Siberia, and visits to collective and state farms in the Ukraine. He shot the first TV footage inside a Soviet factory.

In 1950, Levine covered the Korean War battle front and later he covered the truce talks. For the next few years, Levine was a commentator for NBC contributing to such programs as "Monitor" and "News Caravan."

Students will be admitted to this program free with their ID cards. All others will be charged an admission fee of $1.

Days Are Numbered

Not just another issue, and another editorial—but it's "30" for the editor. So, following tradition, it's time to reminisce (barring sentimentality) as we prepare to sweep clean our sanctum.

It's been a rewarding experience. There are some rather long hours we'd like to forget, perhaps, but we still cannot deny the fact we have learned valuable lessons. And we have some reflections, too.

The student body is, for the most part, mature and serious thinking. Some are cynical, some stereotyped, and some always on the defensive.

The administration of the University, we have finally decided, IS for the student.

The bad will always overshadow the good—and we have found student government to be no exception. A few, rather unqualified students have completely "outplayed" some very capable student leaders on SGA. We can only hope these people someday, soon, will realize their role on campus.

The reaction to editorials was gratifying. At least we knew, regardless of the opinions expressed, that the campus population was reading the Sunflower.

In four years, we have watched the "caste system" flourish, have been a part of the University's continuous growth, and have discovered that "cuts do cause clamor."

We have found the necessity of being careful what opinions we express outside the newsroom—they always get twisted. We learned to live with a telephone ringing at all hours of the day and night. Above all, we learned to be diplomatic.

A paper is not the sole effort of the editor. There are many involved in its production. The 27 issues of the paper which you have read this semester were the joint effort of a capable group of students. This editor, in signing off, can only thank the reporters, the various editors, and wish them success as they climb "up the ladder."—lw

Graduation Exercises Delayed For 132 Mid-Term Graduates

A total number of 132 students will be graduated from the University at the close of the semester. Baccalaureate and commencement exercises will be held June 5. The graduates and their families will be guests of President and Mrs. Harry F. Corbin at a reception in the CAC Ballroom at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, Jan. 21.

The CAC, Hub of WU, Needs Student Support

BY CAROLYN FRITZPATRICK
Sunflower Staff Reporter

William M. Glenn, director of the Campus Activities Center, recently gave students a pat on the back and a request for increased co-operation.

The building has been utilized by students, faculty and staff members and the public to their highest expectations, according to Glenn.

In November, the building was the setting for 157 meetings, 20 banquets and numerous teas, coffees, luncheons, dances and employment interviews, in addition to the usual activities program of film showings, discussion groups, painting exhibitions, and other student recreations.

Students Proud of CAC
"It is felt that nearly all of the students are very proud of the building," Glenn stated.

Because the students have an interest in their activities building, it is felt that they will be willing to co-operate in alleviating some of the problems.

During the first months that the CAC was open, students were asked to bus their own tables. This was to keep the expenses at a minimum and the efficiency of operation at a maximum. But it didn't work.

Cleaning Staff Increased
Students were not used to cleaning up after themselves. Therefore, the clean-up staff had to be increased. Now there are both full-time and part-time people who do nothing but clean the dining area of dirty dishes.

Plastic tubs have been placed in the snack area for students to deposit dirty dishes and trays under the dish window in the dining area.

Ash Trays Disappear
Another solvable problem is causing a major expense. The entire dining area is plagued by mischievous ash trays that leave the premises. They have been bought by the gross and disappear the same way. Naturally, they are inexpensive, but if the CAC bought even 10 cent ash trays, the loss would amount to $7-$10 daily, according to Glenn.

Salt and pepper shakers have the same habit of disappearing, but do not create the same cleaning problem as cigarettes ground out on the floor. The ash trays are no more permanent in the Commuters' Lunch Room in the basement.

No Place To Eat
How many times have you gone into the Corral dining area and found no place to eat? It is the habit of many students to get a cup of coffee at the snack bar and take it to the Corral Room, where they spread their books out and proceed to study.

It has come to the point that students using the area to study will have to be asked to leave during the eating period between 11 a.m.—1 p.m.

Coat Racks for Coats
Also, the coats and books carried into the area where they take up an extra seat cause an additional shortage. Coat racks are provided for coats and hats across the hall from the dining area.

These are problems which can be corrected with a little extra co-operation so that the CAC will be a place of which students will be proud and enjoy, according to Glenn.

Junior Women Tapping for Mortar Board Considered Highest of Honors

The highest honor a senior woman can receive comes at the end of her junior year when she is tapped for Mortar Board. On this campus the tapping ceremony comes as a highlight during the May Day coronation. Ten women were tapped last May to join this honorary group, which can be found on 103 other campuses scattered throughout the nation.

The president of this year's group is Nyla Carney. According to Mrs. Carney, Mortar Board was founded through the combined pioneering efforts of four colleges in 1918. They were Swarthmore College, Cornell University, Ohio State University and the University of Michigan.

English department; Mrs. Shirley Kilmer, an instructor in secretarial training; and Jack Robertson, assistant professor in the economics department.

for they wear an official outfit of a black skirt and white blazer with the Mortar Board cap emblem on the pocket.

Honorary members are Dean Josephine Fugate, Dean of Women; and Mrs. Harry Corbin.

The Board sponsors various activities on campus and one of them will be coming up shortly. This will be the "Operation Egghead" movement.

The Mortar Board members may be easily recognized every Friday,

Greeks Give Gifts, Awards To Sweethearts and Beaus

Christmas formals and Greek dances were highlighted last month with the annual crowning of sweethearts. Four individuals with a title, honor, and present.

Alpha Chi Omega crowned their Dream Man at their formal dinner dance. Jim Miller, fiancee of Barbara Moorhouse, was chosen this year.

Qualifications for the Dream Man state that he must be pinned or engaged to an active member of the group, and that he be an upper classman. Also he must have helped the sorority in some helpful way during the past year. After his crowning Jim was presented with a gift.

Alpha Phi Crowns Beau
Alpha Phi crowned their Ivy Man at their Christmas dance. Jack Brannon, Beta Theta Pi, was crowned this year. In order to be chosen, the Ivy Man has to be dating a member of the sorority, must be a senior, and he must have helped the sorority in some way.

After his crowning he was presented with a novelty gift and a trophy. The trophy will be placed in the sorority house with his name on it.

DG's Choose Anchor Man
Gayle Bryant was crowned as the Delta Gamma Anchor Man at their formal Christmas dance. He was presented with a trophy which will go to his fraternity house, Delta Upsilon, and he was also given an individual trophy.

Qualifications for Anchor Man are that he must be a University student and must be pinned or engaged to a junior or senior member. Following his presentation he was serenaded by the sorority with their Anchor Man song.

Gamma Phi Beta revealed the identity of their Joe College at their Christmas dance. Bob Pyle, a Beta Theta Pi, was this year's Joe College. Qualifications are that he must have an excellent scholarship, and have given help to the sorority in different ways. Bob was presented with a traveling trophy and a sweater.

Following his coronation he was serenaded by the sorority and then, as an added highlight, all the sorority members presented him with a kiss.

Sibyl Ingle Crowned
Sigma Phi Epsilon crowned their Golden Sweetheart at their Christmas formal. Sibyl Ingle of Alpha Chi Omega was crowned. Qualifications for the sweetheart are a grade point average of 2.5 or better, must be pinned or engaged to an active member, and must belong to a sorority.

She was crowned by last year's sweetheart, Sally Howse, and was presented with the sweetheart pin. Following her coronation she was serenaded by the fraternity with their traditional sweetheart song.

Rings... and Things

Cupid was a very busy individual during vacation and many a new diamond can be seen sparkling on many pretty hands.

Phyllis Lucas passed chocolates to her Alpha Chi Omega sorority sisters to announce her engagement to Bill Clark.

Chocolates were passed at the Alpha Phi house announcing the engagements of Sandi Holt to Don Krug of Russell and of Judy Atherton to Robert White.

Delta Delta Delta's were treated with a lot of chocolates when Mary Joan Hiner passed them to announce her engagement to Ernie Fink. Barbara Garlow passed them to announce her engagement to Gilbert Addis. Beverly Okerberg is now wearing a diamond from Douglas Jackson, Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Shortly before vacation started Linda Christian announced to her sorority sisters that she is now wearing the pin of Jim Wagner, Alpha Tau Omega from K-State. Fran Pracht is also pinned, to Mike Hillyard, Phi Delta Theta.

In the active chapter of Delta Gamma there are two new pinnings; Judy Meyer announced her pinning to Darrel Muck of Delta Upsilon and Jeanne Seacat is pinned to one of Darrel's fraternity brothers, Fred Luedke. Among the pledges there were three engagements announced. Sharon Hill received a diamond from Joe Miller, DU; Pat Graves received a diamond from John Friesen and Penny Sickles received a diamond from Jerry Robinson.

WU 90th Chapter
Wichita University became the ninetieth chapter of Mortar Board when the group was installed here in 1954. Before this event the honored senior women were in a group known as the Senior Women's Honor Group.

The membership on this campus consists of ten coeds. The membership varies from campus to campus depending upon the size of the campus and the number of women eligible to meet the requirements, explained Mrs. Carney.

The basis for selection into the group are scholarship, leadership and service. The purpose is to provide recognition to junior women who have been outstanding in these qualities.

Members including Mrs. Carney are Shirley Gilley, Laura Lee Wilcox, Charlene Taylor, Elaine Davis, Kay Peer, Barbara Garlow, Suzanne Evans, Sally Shank and Carole Hicks. Other officers include vice president, Miss Davis; secretary, Miss Evans; and treasurer, Miss Peer.

Faculty Sponsors Group
Sponsors for the organization are Mrs. Joan Sherwood, who is a graduate teaching fellow in the

Candy Sale Aids DDD's 2 Awards

The active chapter members of Delta Delta Delta sorority are now sponsoring a chocolate candy sale in order to raise money for scholarships again this year.

The scholarships will be offered to any coed on campus, preferably upper-class women, with a B average, stated Jean Thomas, service projects chairman for the sorority.

Application dates for the scholarships will be announced at a later date.

The scholarships, which are a national philanthropy of the sorority, are being offered through a combined effort of both the alumnae chapter and the collegiate chapter. The sorority is planning on offering two scholarships of $100.

The candy being sold is a $1.50 a can, said Miss Thomas.

AWS Asks Students To Donate Rummage

Associated Women Students, in an endeavor to raise funds for the organization, has scheduled a rummage sale for Feb. 5 and 6.

Students who have any sort of rummage at home are urged to bring their goods to Grace Wilkie Hall as soon as possible. Perhaps this could be a way to eliminate articles replaced by Christmas gifts.

"LITTLE STORIES WITH BIG MORALS" First Little Story

Once upon a time a German exchange student from old Heidelberg came to an American university. He lived in the men's dormitory of the great American university. He was a fine, decent young man and all the other young men in the dormitory of the great American university tried very hard to make friends with him, but, unfortunately, he was so shy that he refused all their invitations to join their bull sessions. After a while his dormitory mates got tired of asking him and so the poor German exchange student, alas, spent every evening alone in his room.

One night while sitting all alone in his room, he smelled the most delicious aroma coming from the room next door. Conquering his shyness, he walked to the room next door and there he saw a bunch of his dormitory mates sitting around and discussing literature, art, culture, and like that. They were all smoking Marlboro cigarettes, which accounts for the delicious aroma smelled by the German exchange student.

"...he smelled the most delicious aroma..."

Timidly, he entered the room. "Excuse me," he said, "but what is that marvelous smell I smell?"

"It's our good Marlboro cigarettes," cried the men, who were named Fun-loving Ned, Happy Harry, Jolly Jim, and Tol'able David.

So the German exchange student took a Marlboro and enjoyed those better makin's, that finer filter, that smooth, hearty flavor, and soon he was comfortable and easy and lost his shyness.

From that night forward, whenever he smelled the good smell of Marlboro cigarettes, he always went next door and joined the bull session.

MORAL: WHERE THERE'S SMOKE, THERE'S MEYER

Second Little Story

Once upon a time there was an Indian brave named Walter T. Muskrat who had a squaw named Margaret Giggling Water. Margaret was sort of a mess but she sure could make beaded moccasins. Every day she whipped up a brand-new pair of beaded moccasins for Walter, which were so gorgeous that all the Indian maids on the reservation grew giddy with admiration.

Well, sir, Margaret got pretty tense about all the girls making eyes at Walter and one night they had a terrible quarrel. Walter flew into a rage and slapped her on the wrist, whereupon she started crying like all get-out and went home to her mother and never came back.

"Good riddance!" said Walter, but alas, he soon found out how wrong he was, for the Indian maids were not really interested in him, only in his moccasins, and when he stopped showing up with a new pair every day they quickly gave him the yo-heave-ho. Today he is a broken man, sitting all alone in his tepee and muttering ancient Ute curses.

MORAL: DON'T FIGHT THE HAND THAT BEADS YOU

Third Little Story

Once there was a lion which was a very quiet lion. In fact, the only time it ever made a sound was when it had a toothache.

MORAL: WHEN IT PAINS, IT ROARS

The makers of Marlboro would like to point a moral too: Nothing ventured, nothing gained. Try a pack of Marlboro or Marlboro's sister cigarettes—Philip Morris and Alpine—and gain yourself a heap of pleasure.

Iowa Will Be Destination Of Shocks' Booster Trip

"All aboard! Next stop, Des Moines, Iowa." The home of the Drake Bulldogs is the next target set for the Pep Council's annual booster trip.

Staff Complete For Semester

The Board of Student Publications met Monday to appoint the remainder of the Sunflower staff for the second semester.

Tom Vanderhoofven, Liberal Arts junior, was re-named sports editor, and Ples Williams, LA freshman, was appointed his assistant. Carole Chambers, LA freshman, was selected society editor.

Martha Miller, Liberal Arts junior, was named to the post of desk editor, the same position she filled this semester. Named general reporters were Liberal Arts students Sharon Monasmith and Anne Hubbard.

Last week, Betty Kirkendall was named editor-in-chief of the 64 year old newspaper, and Leroy Pitts was appointed managing editor.

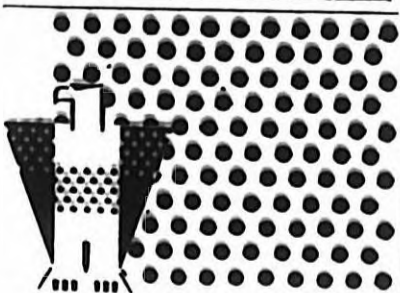

Military Ball Set April 25

The annual Military Ball, sponsored each year by the combined ROTC departments, will be held April 25, at the Moose Home, according to Cadet Maj. Roger Evans, chairman of the Military Ball committee.

The dinner-dance affair will honor the Army and Air Force queens and their courts. The queens will be chosen during the second semester. Harry James will provide the music for dancing.

The procedure will be different this year from previous times in that there will be no interruption of the dancing for the serving of dinner. There will be a separate dining room for the cadets and their guests, and a buffet style dinner will be served from 9:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m., Evans stated.

Operation Egghead Program Slated For Week of Feb. 8

"Operation Egghead" will kick into gear on Feb. 8 this year. The week-long program will be highlighted by "Fireside Discussions," Select-a-Lecture, and student visitations.

"Egghead," introduced on the campus last year, is sponsored and coordinated by the Mortar Board, honorary senior women's organization. According to Sally Shank, "Egghead" chairman, this year's format will be similar to that of last year's with the exception of the student visitations.

The student visitations phase of the program, scheduled to run the entire week, is designed to enable students to attend lectures in those courses which, for one reason or another, they could not schedule. Students will be able to sit in on any lecture they care to, on two conditions: (1) receipt of permission from the lecturer, and (2) availability of space.

"Operation Egghead" will officially begin on the evening of Feb. 8 with "Fireside Discussions," which will be led by faculty members at the Greek houses and dorms.

The Select-a-Lecture phase of "Egghead" is scheduled for Feb. 10, from 9:40 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. at various locations throughout the campus. A list of lecturers, lecture topics, and lecture locations will be posted in the CAC prior to this phase of the program.

The tentative schedule of lectures for Select-a-Lecture is as follows: James P. Robertson, professor of orchestra—"Contrast in the Musical Life of Europe and the United States"; Corban Lepell, art lecturer—"Abstractions: Everywhere"; Jesse K. Sowards, assistant professor of history—"The Stream of Time"; and Emory Lindquist, dean of faculties—"The Tradition of Civility." Walter M. Merrill, professor of English—"The Robert Frosts We Have Known"; Jack E. Robertson, assistant professor of economics—"Eggheads Economics, Egalitarianism, and All That Jazz"; Paul Tasch, professor of biology—"Darwin, One Hundred Years Later."

Frats Choose New Officers

Three fraternities elected new officers to serve for the coming semester. Sigma Phi Epsilon will not be electing its officers until the latter part of February.

New officers at the Delta Upsilon house include, president, Gary High; vice president, Gayle Bryant; secretary, Vic Heckart; treasurer, Everett Olsen; pledge trainer, Tom Wright; rush chairman, Bob Blackwell; house manager, George Cowan; and corresponding secretary, Joel Park.

New officers at the Phi Delta Theta house include, president, Jay McMurray; vice president, Greg Gray; secretary, Ron Irion; treasurer, Dave Higdon; warden, Paul Humann; pledge trainer, Dick Honeyman; and house manager, Nelson Logan.

New officers for Beta Theta Pi include Duane Hendricks, president; John Ayers, vice president; Mike Martin, recording secretary; Don Wiles, secretary; Tony Walters, treasurer; Jerry Whitt, Sergeant-at-arms; Herb Mann, director of public relations; Bob Pyle, house manager and pledge trainer; and Don Pratt senior critic.

Sigma Gamma Tau Elects New Officers

Sigma Gamma Tau, national honorary aeronautical engineering fraternity, recently held an election of officers.

Those elected include Dan Aeschliman, president; Bob Koenig, vice president; Dolores Covey, secretary; and Richard Brown, treasurer. The group is currently helping coordinate plans for the Engineering Open House, to be held in the spring.

DYE CALLS

tor, writing in his 'On Second Thought' column, said that "As early as December it seemed evident this would be Ralph's last season in Wichita. If he won he would quit, and if he lost he would be fired."

"Release" a Coach?

When Dye was asked to comment on the article, he said that as far as firing Miller was concerned, "I know nothing about it, and nothing to that effect has ever been released from my office." He also said that he did not know if Miller was quitting or not, that he had heard nothing about it, either.

He added that the Shockers will host Northwestern Dec. 5, 1960, and Wisconsin on Dec. 17, in the Fieldhouse. Ohio State will also appear here.

Tippy concluded that the new football coach, Dan Foldberg, would put in his first appearance at the Fieldhouse this morning. He said (Foldberg was doing his own choosing as far as assistants are concerned, but hinted that the crew men were already chosen and that the names would be released soon.

'60 CHEVY! ONLY WAY YOU CAN BUY A CAR FOR LESS IS TO BUY A LOT LESS CAR!

- THRIFTIEST 6 IN ANY FULL-SIZE CAR—Chevy's Hi-Thrift 6 is the '60 version of the engine that got 22.38 miles per gallon in the latest Mobilgas Economy Run—more than any other full-size car.
- NEW ECONOMY TURBO-FIRE V8—Here's a V8 with the "git" Chevy's famous for—plus a new economy-contoured camshaft and other refinements that get up to 10% more miles on a gallon of regular.
- EASIER-TO-LOAD LUGGAGE COMPARTMENT—The trunk sill is lower and the lid opening is more than a foot and a half wider than Chevy's nearest competitor's. There's over 20% more usable space! *Based on official data reported in the Automobile Manufacturers Association.
- MORE ROOM WHERE YOU WANT IT—Chevy's trimmed down transmission tunnel (25% smaller) gives you more foot room. You also get more head and hip room than in any other 2- or 4-door sedans in the field.
- WIDEST CHOICE OF POWER TEAMS—A choice of 24 engine-transmission teams in all—to satisfy the most finicky driving foot. There are seven engines with output all the way up to 335 h.p. and five silk-smooth transmissions.
- EXTRA CONVENIENCES OF BODY BY FISHER—No other car in Chevy's field gives you crank-operated ventpanes, Safety Plate Glass all around and dozens of other Fisher Body refinements.
- CHEVY SETS THE PACE WITH LOWER PRICES—All Bel Air and Impala V8's are lower priced, as are many options. Example: a Bel Air V8 sedan with Turboglide, de luxe heater and push-button radio lists at $65.30 less for '60.
- QUICKER STOPPING BRAKES—Long-lived bonded-lining brakes with larger front-wheel cylinders for '60 give you quicker, surer stops with less pedal pressure.
- SOFTER, MORE SILENT RIDE—Chevy's the only leading low-priced car that gentles the bumps with coil springs at all four wheels. Noise and vibration are filtered to the vanishing point by new body mounts.
- NOT CHANGE FOR CHANGE'S SAKE, BUT FOR YOURS—There's only one person we consider when we make a change—and that's you. That's why we don't think you'll find anything more to your liking at anything like the price.

The more you look around the more you'll find to convince you that no other low-priced car has so much to show for your money as this new Chevrolet. Here's the kind of styling sophistication and subtle detail that only Fisher Body craftsmanship can create. Here's the kind of Full Coil comfort that neither of the other two leading low-priced cars—and only some of the smoothest riding higher priced ones—build into their suspension systems. Here's more room inside (where you want it) without an inch more outside (where you don't want it). And with all these advances Chevy has managed to hold the price line! Your dealer will be delighted to fill you in on all the facts.
