Festival to Feature Concert

Tonight, as part of the Fine Arts Festival, the University Singers and the University Opera Workshop will join to present a concert under the direction of David Foltz and J. Robert Minser. The concert will begin at 7:15 p.m.

The festival will come to a close Sunday afternoon with a concert presented by the 90-piece University Symphony. The Symphony is under the direction of James P. Robertson and will begin at 2:30 p.m. Both concerts will be held in the Fine Arts Center Concert Hall.

Last Tuesday the seventh annual Composition Symposium was highlighted by music written by University students and faculty members.

Faculty members who had their works featured were Dr. David Foltz, professor and chairman of choral music and the voice department; Joshua M. Missal, assistant professor of music theory and viola; Georgia C. Tice, instructor in piano; Rodger Vaughan, instructor in music theory and appreciation; David Levenson, assistant professor of string instruments; and William Bush, instructor in vocal music.

The original compositions of Arthur Madsen, Marsha Coover, Lois Hieb, and Eldridge Martin, students in the School of Music, were also presented.

A sidewalk art display Saturday and Sunday will be sponsored by Kappa Pi, honorary art fraternity. The display is scheduled to be held south of the Art Building.

All music programs and the art display will be open to the public free of charge.

Ticket Sales For Oratorio Get Underway

Monday marked the beginning of the first week of advanced ticket sales for "Dream of Gerontius," to be presented jointly on May 15 by the School of Music and Wichita Choral Society. The production will take place in the fieldhouse.

Reserve seats, selling for $2.25 and $1.75, can be purchased in person or by phone, only from the music office. General admission tickets for $1 and student admission tickets, for $.50, may be purchased at any of the 10 Dockum drug stores, at Jenkins and Calaman's, or at the CAC information desk and the music office.

"This year's University budget was unable to include the expense of such a work as was last year's presentation, King David," said Dr. David Foltz, chairman of the local and choral department.

"Wanting to establish a traditional spring oratorio, we were fortunate in enlisting the financial backing of four Wichita Savings and Loan Associations," he said.

Paul Threlfall, KAKE-TV news executive and winner of the coveted Sprague Memorial Award in News Photography, will be the principal speaker at the annual Journalism Awards Banquet, it was announced Monday by Assoc. Prof. Paul F. Gerhard, chairman of the department of journalism.

Mr. Threlfall, manager of the news and photography departments of television station KAKE-TV, will speak on the subject "Visual Journalism" at the May 10 meeting of student journalists and city and regional professional newsmen and newswomen. A journalism graduate of the University, Mr. Threlfall was chief photographer for the Wichita Beacon before taking his present position in 1954 at KAKE-TV.

Sprague Award Winner
Elected to a number of positions in the National Press Photographers Association, Mr. Threlfall has been a vice-president of Region 7 of the NPPA and in 1948 was elected the second president of the national organization. He was instrumental in the creation of the national association.

Recipient of the Sprague Award of the NPPA, Mr. Threlfall was presented with the award by Vice-president Richard Nixon in Washington, D.C., in June, 1957.

Mr. Threlfall is a member of the Kappa Alpha Mu photo journalism fraternity.

Group of 160 Expected
Professor Gerhard estimated that approximately 160 would attend the banquet, including University students, local high school editors and advisors, as well as professional newsmen and newswomen.

The Parnassus and Sunflower staff positions for the fall semester will also be announced at the banquet.

WU Art Fair Will Be Held

The University Art Fair, in conjunction with the Fine Arts Festival, will open April 30 and continue thru May 1. The fair will be open from 1 p.m. until dark each day.

Dick Miller, graduate student in art and director of the fair, said, "A good percentage of all work will be offered for sale. There will be art work in a variety of media moderately priced from $1 up."

Students can see copper enamelware made and decorated while browsing through the outside exhibit. Student work from Southeast and East High Schools will also be shown.

The fair is sponsored by Kappa Pi, honorary art fraternity.

New Election Ends Today

Today is the last opportunity for students to vote in the two-day SGA election on the Sedgwick County voting machines.

Registering For '60-61 Continues

Advising and pre-registration for students currently enrolled this semester, except for evening students, began last Monday and will continue through Monday, May 9, according to Dr. Worth A. Fletcher, registrar.

Dr. Fletcher pointed out that currently enrolled students who fail to see their advisers within this period will not be allowed to enroll until the fall semester registration next September.

After securing a tentative schedule from his adviser and having obtained the necessary signatures on it, the student will take this schedule to Rm. 105, Jardine Hall. In accordance with the remaining alphabetic schedule:

H-L, April 28, 29, and May 2; M-R, May 3, 4, and 5; S-Z, May 6, 9, and 10; A-B, May 11, 12, and 13.

Pre-registration for evening students will be held from 9 a.m. to noon, April 30, and from 6:30 to 9 p.m., May 4. Currently enrolled day students may not pre-enroll at these times, Dr. Fletcher said.

For new students and former students not currently enrolled, a summer pre-registration session will be held from June 27 through July 1.

Street Dance Set

A street dance, sponsored by the Delta Upsilon pledge class, will be held from 8 to midnight, tonight, between Veterans Field and the Fieldhouse.

Bucky Walters and the premiers will play for the dance, according to Richard Mitts, chairman of the committee.

Admission is 50 cents. Proceeds will go to the building fund for the new library, Mitts said.

Voters can choose candidates from the BPOC party, the CHANGE party, or the Abolition party. BPOC is running Frank Vannerson and CHANGE is running Phillip Saunsaucie for president. The Abolition party candidate for president is Arthur Larsen.

The previous election, held April 7 and 8, was contested because of alleged illegalities that ranged from ballot-stuffing to illegal campaigning. The voting machines were transported to the campus at a cost of $100 to prevent any cheating and provide an educational experience for the voter, according to Allan Johnston, SGA election commissioner.

The Student-Faculty Court recently upheld Johnston's request for a new election. According to Johnston, all three campus political parties favored re-holding the election.

"Since we are using the voting machines, students will have to vote in their respective schools," Johnston said. "Their college representatives will only appear on one voting machine."

Machines for Liberal Arts students will be set up in the CAC (Continued on Page 8)

Accountants To Hold Meet

The University will be the site of the fifth annual Petroleum Accounting Conference to be held May 6. The College of Business Administration and Industry will be one of the sponsors.

Various discussion sessions will be held throughout the morning and afternoon in the Recital Hall of the Fine Arts Center. A buffet luncheon will be held at noon in the south portion of the CAC Ballroom.

An evening banquet will be held at the Lassen Hotel where Dr. Jack Heysinger, dean of the College, will speak on "Words from the Campus." The guest speaker will be Max Petty, partner in a Baton Rouge, La., firm.

Other sponsors of the event are the Petroleum Accountants Society of Kansas, and Wichita chapters of the Kansas Society of CPA's and National Association of Accountants.

The Editor's Board

Unfair Tactics . . .

A new SGA election began yesterday and will be concluded today. As it is with most elections, "blurb" sheets were used to reach the student body with pleas for support of a party.

Joint BPOC and CHANGE blurbs were circulated on Wednesday. Also, the CHANGE party, or at least some of its members, circulated separate sheets.

As an integral part of the CHANGE party platform, there was a statement to the effect that the party would use no name-calling or mud-slinging tactics. But did they abide by their own statement?

In their "questionnaire" blurb sheet we feel they indulged in mud-slinging and unfair tactics, bordering on libel.

The release made a point of blaming the entire BPOC party for the illegal election and Kiddieland destruction incidents.

The party, as an organization, has not been charged with committing either incident. In fact, SGA officials and leaders in all three parties have said that the BPOC party was not responsible.

As their reason for printing and circulating the sheet, CHANGE members said that a party is responsible for the actions of its members. Theoretically, this is probably true.

However, section 17, part 2 of the SGA election code states, "instigating campaign activity or publicity which exceeds the limits of good taste and/or reflects derogatorily upon the University, its faculty and administration and its student body, either individually or collectively" is a campaign violation.

We feel that the CHANGE party blurb did exceed the limits of good taste and took unfair advantage of the opposition party.

We had hoped that this, the second election, would be carried on fairly and in a mature manner. It seems this is not to be the case, no matter how many elections are held.

Is it all really worth it . . . we wonder?

WU Cosmopolitan Institution 55 Foreign Students Enrolled

By BILL BIDWELL
Sunflower News Editor

A university can be, and often is, a cosmopolitan institution. Ample evidence of the international nature of a university can be found on our campus.

At this University, 55 students from other lands are enrolled. Five of them enrolled for the first time this semester.

Twenty-seven countries, republics, or provinces are represented.

Korea has the largest representation here with six students, followed closely by India with five, and Lebanon, Japan, and Iran with four each. Three students are enrolled from Turkey.

From Distant Places

The United States' nearest neighbor, Canada, is represented twice as are its southern neighbors, Panama, Costa Rica, and Colombia, and more distant places of Hungary, Italy, and Israel.

Other countries with one student each enrolled here are Peru, Viet Nam, Morocco, Germany, Indonesia, Yugoslavia, Greece, China, Hong Kong, Thailand, Nigeria, Iraq, Holland, Cuba.

A large concentration of these students are enrolled in engineering, with seven in aeronautical and mechanical, and three each in electrical and industrial.

"Students come very often for the technical training they aren't able to obtain in their own countries," said Mrs. Eileen Rankin, who, in addition to her duties as head resident of the men's dormitory, is special adviser to students from other nations.

BA 2nd Highest

Mrs. Rankin noted that the second greatest concentration of students from abroad is in the field of business administration, where six students are enrolled. Logopedics, with five foreign students enrolled, is third.

Other scientific fields include chemistry, with four; mathematics, biology, and pre-medical, with two each, and physics, one.

Other fields of study in which these students are enrolled include education, with two; and one each in journalism, economics, English, history, and secretarial training. Two others are listed as special students.

Seventeen are graduate students, their majors lying in the fields of engineering, logopedics, chemistry, biology, business, economics, education, and related areas.

Mrs. Rankin has noted an increase in the number of students from abroad during the past two years she has served as adviser. Dr. Eugene Savaiano, head of the Spanish department, served as the first adviser. Dr. Brigitta Kuhn, head of the French department, was in that capacity prior to Mrs. Rankin.

Of course, this increase has brought a few problems, including those of adjustment to a different life.

Cultural Differences

"Adjustment is largely an individual problem," Mrs. Rankin said. "We hope to give these students a true picture of American life, not a distorted picture." "We recognize the differences in culture and background. We like to feel that the problems these students have are problems any students have, plus a little more."

Mrs. Rankin touched upon one of the reasons why students come to the United States, from abroad.

"I think they would like to have something of our democracy," she said.

Mrs. Rankin recently returned from a foreign student advisory conference in Denver, at which representatives were present from various parts of the world.

A GUIDE FOR THE LOVELESS

Gentlemen, take warning. June is almost upon us—June, the month of brides. Have you got yours yet? If not, don't despair. You don't have to be rich or handsome to get a girl. All you have to be is kind, considerate, thoughtful, and obliging—in short, a gentleman.

For example, don't ever call a girl for a date at the last minute. Always give her plenty of advance notice—like three months for a coke date, six months for a movie, a year for a prom, two years for a public execution. This shows the girl that she is not your second or third choice and also gives her ample time to select her costume.

And when you ask for a date, do it with a bit of Old World gallantry. A poem, for instance, is always sure to please a young lady, like this:

*I think you're cute,
Daphne La France.
I'll put on a suit,
And take you to a dance.*

In the unlikely event that you don't know any girls named Daphne La France, try this:

*I think you're cute,
Winifred Jopp.
I'll put on a suit,
And take you to a hop.*

In the extremely unlikely event that you don't know a Winifred Jopp either, try this:

*I think you're cute,
Isabel Prall.
I'll put on a suit,
And take you to a ball.*

If there is no Isabel Prall, Winifred Jopp, or Daphne La France on your campus, it is quite obvious why you've had trouble finding dates all year: you've enrolled in an all-male school, you old silly!

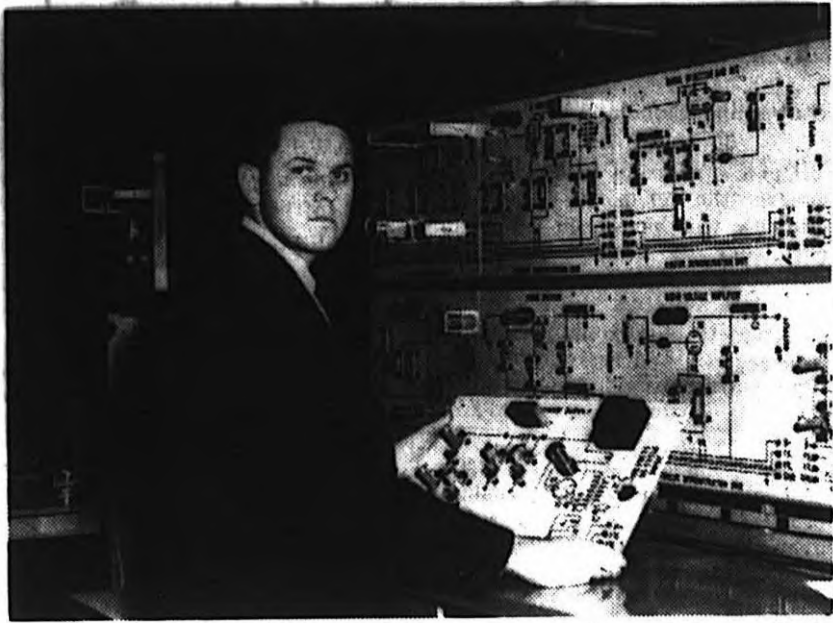

Next let us take up the question of etiquette once you are out on a date with Isabel, Winifred, or Daphne. The first thing you do, naturally, is to offer the young lady a Marlboro. Be sure, however, to offer her an entire Marlboro—not just a Marlboro butt. Marlboro butts are good of course, but whole Marlboros are better. You get an extra inch or two of fine flavorful tobacco—and I mean flavorful. Do you think flavor went out when filters came in? Well, you've got a happy surprise coming when you light a Marlboro. This one really delivers the goods on flavor, and when you hand Isabel, Winifred, or Daphne a whole, complete, brand-new Marlboro, she will know how highly you regard and respect her, and she will grow misty and weak with gratitude, which is very important when you take her out to dinner, because the only kind of coed a college man can afford to feed is a weak and misty coed. Latest statistics show that a coed in a normal condition eats one and a half times her own weight every twelve hours.

At the end of your date with Isabel, Winifred, or Daphne, make certain to get her home by curfew time. That is gentlemanly. Do not leave her at a bus stop. That is rude. Deliver her right to her door and, if possible, stop the car when you are dropping her off.

The next day send a little thank-you note. A poem is best. Like this:

*For a wonderful evening, many thanks,
Isabel, Winifred, or Daphne.
I'll take you out for some more merry pranks
Next Saturday if you'll haph me.* © 1960 Max Shulman

We can't give you rhyme but we'll give you good reason why you'll enjoy Marlboro and Marlboro's unfiltered companion cigarette, Philip Morris. One word says it all: flavor.

34th Annual Military Ball Held ROTC Provides Colorful Event

By CAROL CHAMBERS
Sunflower Society Editor

The thirty-fourth annual Military Ball was given Monday evening by the Reserve Officers Training Corps at the Moose Home.

The program of the gala event included dancing from 9-1 p.m. along with presentation ceremonies and a buffet dinner. Harry James and his orchestra furnished the superb dance music which was also piped into the dining area.

About the middle of the evening, the ceremonies took place. The guests were introduced, the Queens were crowned, and the Grand March was held for the senior ROTC men.

The co-queens were Margaret Foley, Army honorary cadet colonel, and Earlene Ambler, Air Force queen. The coeds were crowned by the commanding officers of the women's ROTC drill teams.

The dance floor was outlined with flags and banners of all colors. A large entry-way was formed by large arches and a curtain of red and white striped bunting.

Flowers and a silhouette of each of the graduating ROTC men were placed on a table around the dance floor.

Programs for the evening were given to everyone. These contained the history and listing of all honorary societies connected with ROTC on campus.

Services Held For Student

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Harper, Kans., Presbyterian Church for Thad Allan Joslin, University senior, who drowned Saturday at Lake Afton.

Joslin, 21, of 1302 Fairmount, was majoring in psychology in the College of Liberal Arts.

The drowning occurred when he and his companion, Donna McLean, 21, of Independence, Kans., swam out after their boat, which had drifted from shore.

He was born Nov. 12, 1938, in Harper, and he was graduated from high school there in 1956.

He is survived by his parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. C. Joslin, of Harper, and two brothers, Dean, of Harper, and Lee, of Ann Arbor, Mich.

Assignments Issued to 12 In AFROTC

Twelve University Air Force ROTC cadets have been assigned to summer training at three separate Air Force bases, beginning June 19.

The cadets are enrolled in four-week training that is required of all before they are eligible for commissioning.

Cadets Darvan E. Cook has been assigned to Ellsworth Air Force Base, Rapid City, S.D., and Harry B. Lancelot, III, Bob T. Miller, and Ivan J. Schirer to Webb Air Force Base, Big Spring, Texas.

An Engineering senior recently took first-place honors at the Institute of Aeronautical Sciences student paper competition in St. Louis.

Richard E. Brown, a member of the student chapter of IAS, won $225 for his paper, "The Ground Cushion Phenomenon." He also won first for oral presentation of the paper, and was awarded $50.

The ground cushion phenomenon was demonstrated during Engineering Open House by a ground cushion machine built by aeronautical engineering students.

Twenty eight undergraduate papers, one other from the University, were submitted in the competition.

Universities represented included Dayton, Marquette, Purdue, Notre Dame, and Park College of St. Louis.

ELECTRIFACTS ... NOT FABLE

... heat a hippo for 3c?

We don't know anybody who ever cooked a hippopotamus. But we do know that many wives and mothers are cooking delicious meals for their families on electric ranges for about 3c a day. Cool, clean, automatic ... electric cooking is a bargain as big as a hippo.

Just another example of the low cost of KG&E's electric service. As a matter of fact, in the 50 years that KG&E has been serving you, there has never been a general rate increase. Average rates, today, are lower than they've ever been.

That's why you, too, can Live Better ... Electrically.

Average price of electricity for homes (PER KILOWATT HOUR)
1933 5c PER KWH
1946 3 3/4c PER KWH
Today LESS THAN 2 1/2c PER KWH

KG&E has never had a rate increase for homes and farms. Of course your bill may be bigger than it was a few years ago. But that's because you're using more electricity every year to Live Better ... Electrically.

Who will carry on for the graduating athletes at the University? Which men can be counted on to bolster the athletic teams? Let's take a look at some of the freshmen and sophomores of this year.

In football, Coach Hawk Foldberg has some very promising men up from the yearling squad. These include R. J. Brown, Ken Berry, Alex Zyskowski, Bill Stangerone, Bill O'Connor, Adolph Wilson, and John Manning. Brown and O'Connor are linemen, while the others are backfield players.

Ernis Moore, Jerry Kittokos, Bob Long, and R. D. Miller all should help Coach Ralph Miller's basketball squad next season.

show promise of winning the first place ribbons for Coach Fritz Snodgrass. San Romani, who holds the world record for the mile run by a high schooler, has improved each time out this spring, and with the right conditions and competition, could make the Olympic trip to Rome this summer.

However, his best time of 4:08.9 is a bit more than 5 seconds slower than the 4:03 time set by the Olympic tryout committee. But he is a sure bet for the '64 Olympics.

McClure Promising

Sophomore Jack McClure has played some pretty fair golf this spring for Coach Bob Kirkpatrick, and two weeks ago shot a 68 at the Wichita Country Club during a match with Emporia State. Kirkpatrick stated that it was the best round of golf he's seen since he took over the coaching duties 11 years ago.

While on the subject of golf, the Shockers could have their best team in history two years from now, if the recruiting goes as expected. Besides McClure, the team could have such players as Duke Evans, fine player now in the Army; John Stevens, city champion of last year; and Monte Kaser, a classmate of Stevens' at East High this year.

Mound Could Be Strong

In Mike Blue, the Shockers have potentially the best pitcher in the school's history—if he stays in school. So far six clubs have contacted the left-hander, and money speaks big these days, especially money in five figures!

Golfers to Have Busy Week-end To Face 4 Oklahoma Teams

The Shocker golf team, with four wins and five losses on the season, faces a weekend of play today, tomorrow, and Monday as they host four different teams from Oklahoma.

The Oklahoma City University Chiefs visit Shockerland this morning for a dual match to be played at the Wichita Country Club, site of all Shocker home matches. This will mark the first meeting of these two schools on the links for some years.

2 Shockers Win 2nd Place In KU Relays

Mile star Archie San Romani, Jr., and Missouri Valley javelin throw champion Walt Cockreham made good showings at the Kansas University Relays held last weekend in Lawrence.

San Romani, a Shocker freshman, was nosed out at the wire in the Glenn Cunningham 1,500 meter run by Bill Dotson, K.U. sophomore. With 220 yards left, San Romani broke out of third place and made up 12 yards on the leading Dotson, but couldn't pass him. Both runners crossed the wire in 4:00.4, but the Jayhawk star broke the tape first.

Cockreham, a junior from Johnson, Kans., broke his own Shocker record with a throw of 230 feet, bettering his previous best of 228-8½ set at the Emporia Relays three weeks ago. He ended in second place behind Bill Alley, another K.U. star. Alley's first place toss measured 224-2½.

San Romani is running in the Southwestern Invitational for freshmen today in Winfield. Cockreham's next appearance will be Monday when Hays meets the Shockers in Veterans Field.

Two Foes Tomorrow

Tomorrow, the Shockers take on two of the powers of the Missouri Valley and Big Eight Conferences, Tulsa and Oklahoma, in a combined triangular and dual meet. Last year, both the Hurricanes and Sooners ended in second place in their conference meets. Each team holds an early season victory over the Shockers this year.

Playing their last dual match of the season, the University golfers take on the strong Oklahoma Cowboys Monday in a dual meet. The Cowpokes' won the Big Eight Championship last season and also hold an earlier season victory over Wichita.

In the linksters last outing, Kansas University Jayhawks swept a combination triangular and dual meet held in Wichita last Thursday. The Shockers and Kansas State University the teams entered. The Jayhawks blanked their opponents in the triangular and downed K.S.U. 11-1 and W. U. 9½-2½ in dual contests. The Shockers edged one of the dual meets by ping the Wildcats from Manhattan, 12½-2½.

Foldberg Greet 60 Hopefuls

Sixty hopefuls for next year's varsity football squad have been engaged in spring training since a week ago Tuesday.

Under new head grid Coach Hank Foldberg, the candidates spent the first few days with fundamental drills, but the new mentor plans to have as much scrimmage time as possible during the allowable 21 days of practice.

Seventeen lettermen return to the Shocker camp to represent experience on the squad.

Coach Foldberg is installing a multiple-T offense, featuring flankers, slot backs, and men-in-motion, and may also employ split ends with balanced and unbalanced line formations.

The practice sessions are open to the public and a scrimmage will be held tomorrow afternoon in Veteran's Field beginning at 1:30 p.m.

The annual "Black and Gold" game is set for May 7, with the intra-squad game being played in the afternoon in Veteran's Field. However, practice will continue a few days after that date since the game was set up a week in advance to keep it from conflicting with the Missouri Valley Conference Track and Field Meet scheduled for May 14.

HIT 'EM HARD!—That's what backfield coach Neal Smith seems to be telling Shocker gridders during routine spring drills this week. Drills began last week for Coach Hank Foldberg's squad.

While pitching for the Boeing Bo-Jets in the state tournament last season, he not only won three games while losing one, but was voted the Most Valuable Player award as well as the Most Popular Player trophy. This hasn't been a bad year for Shocker sports, but next year, every team should be much stronger, in other words the forecast for the University athletic program is excellent!

After Monday, the team will not see action again until June 6 when the Shocks travel to Peoria, Ill., for the Missouri Valley championship play. The meet, hosted by the Bradley University Braves, will last three days.

On June 20, the team will enter the NCAA championship meet to be held in Colorado Springs, Colo. on the Broadmoor links.

Evaluation of Sunflower Object of Questionnaire

In the distribution boxes along with today's issue of the Sunflower are blank questionnaire forms soliciting comments and criticism of the paper from students and faculty members.

The questionnaires have been distributed by a University seminar group seeking to appraise campus opinion of the student newspaper.

"Although this is not a Sunflower-sponsored project, we shall make known the results of our findings to the newspaper staff in the interest of reflecting campus opinion of its newspaper," said C. Gene Bratton, faculty adviser to the seminar group.

The student has not been requested to sign his questionnaire. Data such as age, classification, college, and day or night student is needed to insure a stratified sample of the University population.

After the form has been filled out, it may be placed in the designated envelope attached to the Sunflower pick-up box. A deadline of Monday noon for returning the questionnaires has been requested by the seminar group.

NAACP Schedules Outdoor Meet Here

An outdoor meeting of the recently organized campus chapter of the NAACP will be held at 1 p.m., tomorrow, according to Ronald Walters, organizational chairman.

To be held in the FAC Amphitheater, the purpose of the meeting is to discuss local problems of race relations and to formulate of course of action, Walters said. "The last meeting of the group was very successful. Primary plans were laid for the launching of the new chapter," Walters added.

The meeting is open to all interested students and everyone is invited to attend, he said.

"Pay us a visit won't you?"

Lucky Strike's Dr. Frood declares:

Graduation is all a matter of degree

Dear Dr. Frood: I'm working my way through college. I have delivered newspapers, worked as an usher in the local movie theater and rolled bandages for the school infirmary. What can my college life possibly prepare me for?

Beaver

Dear Beaver: Publishing, motion pictures, medicine.

Dear Dr. Frood: I am about to graduate top girl in my class. I have decided to take up a career, rather than squander my intellectual achievements on bawling babies, dreary housework and a sloppy husband. Don't you think I have made the right decision?

Smart Gal

Dear Smart: I do, and I feel safe in saying that I make that statement on behalf of every man in America.

Dear Dr. Frood: What a mess I have made out of college! I am flunking out because I have been so lazy. I can't get a job because I have made such a poor record. I have no friends because I have no college spirit. What is there left for me?

Chastened

Dear Chastened: You can always serve as a horrible example.

Dear Dr. Frood: I was outraged to learn that a rich, spoiled senior is planning to give sports cars as graduation presents to all the friends he has made in college. Is there any action I should take?

Dean

Dear Dean: Give him a big smile, put your arm around his shoulders and say, "How're things, pal?"

Dear Dr. Frood: In the past four years, I feel that I have become a wiser and better man. How much do I owe to my college for this?

Grateful

Dear Grateful: Shhh! Somebody must have forgotten to send you the bill.

Dear Dr. Frood: The older generation claims college life is too soft. Just a lark. Well, I am finishing four years, and look! The day I enrolled in college, the photograph at left was taken. At right is a recent photo. What does the older generation have to say about this?

Serious Student

Dear Serious: Just what we've said all along. Parties, parties, parties!

Dear Dr. Frood: Yesterday I visited my boy friend and I saw two Lucky Strikes burning in an ash tray. One had lipstick! Was I right in slapping him in the face and leaving the room?

Scorned

Dear Scorned: No. Why get jealous just because other girls smoke the same brand you do?

COLLEGE STUDENTS SMOKE MORE LUCKIES THAN ANY OTHER REGULAR!

When it comes to choosing their regular smoke, college students head right for fine tobacco. Result: Lucky Strike tops every other regular sold. Lucky's taste beats all the rest because L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco.
