ROTC Military Ball To Be Held April 3

The 38th Annual Army-Air Force Military Ball will be held from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. April 3 at the Cotillion Ballroom.

Cadets, guests, and members of Angel Flight and Army Blues will dance to the music of Si Zentner's Orchestra. Highlight of the evening will be the crowning of the army and air force queens.

Army finalists are: Bobbi Weir, Lana Braden, Mary Ann Butcher, Andrea Flynn, Patty Hurst, and Sharon Noffsinger. Air Force finalists are: Becky Shenk, Janet Neagle, Betty Collins, Cheryl Brown, Joan Babich, and Terri Anderson.

The first coed to be given ROTC honors was Shirley Smith, who was chosen Honorary Cadet Captain for 1922-23 school year, and reigned as queen of the Military Ball. In 1927 the rank given the queen was changed from Captain to Colonel. Since that time 38 coeds have been given the honor.

No Balls were held, and no queens crowned during WWII. Since 1956 there have been two queens of the Military Ball each year; one chosen by the Army ROTC, and one chosen by the Air Force ROTC.

Air Force attendants to the queen will serve as Squadron Sweethearts next year and be given the rank of Honorary Major. Army attendants will serve as Company Sweethearts and hold the rank of Honorary Major.

Scabbard and Blade, the Army-Air Force ROTC saber team and social organization, will provide a Ceremonial Arch of Sabers through which the finalists will be escorted.

There are 13 members on the military ball committee. They are: Dennis Vanderheiden, chairman, Patrick Carter, Charles Dent, Lewis Houser, George Lewis, Bill Rahan, Hal Stephenson, Burt Evans, Jeffery Hale, John Howard, Roger Danton, Darold Smith, and Bill Strout.

Film Society Will Present Honored Films

The Wichita Film Society will present two films, "White Wilderness" and "The Golden Fish," at 8 p.m. tomorrow night in the FAC Auditorium.

"White Wilderness," a Walt Disney "true life adventure," won the Academy Award for the best documentary feature. It was also nominated for the best scored dramatic feature in 1958.

The film, in technicolor, pictures the inhabitants of the polar icecap as they live through three seasons of the year.

"The Golden Fish," acclaimed as the most charming short subject in live action since the "Red Balloon," won the Academy Award, the Critics International Prize, and the International Film Festival in Cannes awards for the best short subject movie.

The film has a universal appeal to all ages, languages, and educational backgrounds. Sight, sound effects, and musical background tell the story without any dialect of the love between a small child and a goldfish.

Easter-Traditional Celebration Time

By NANCY HARRIS, Managing Editor

With the rapid approach of Easter, preparations are hurried for the numerous observances that will take place around the world. Many of the traditions date back centuries—even before the time of Christ—for this is a traditional time of celebration which had its beginnings, not with Christianity as many believe but, with the dawn of civilization.

The word "Easter" is derived from the Saxon goddess Eastre, and the season has long been the occasion of observances having to do with the mystery of death and resurrection.

In Greek mythology, Dionysus, God of the Vine was the principle deity. He was, in fact, the vine who died each winter. It was his joyful resurrection that was celebrated each spring as the vines put forth new branches. Bacchus was the Roman name for this deity.

It is neither sacrilegious nor irreverent to parallel this greatest of Christian feasts with the worship of pagan gods. Some historians and theologians consider these ancient rites to have been a mythical foreshadowing of the Resurrection of Christ.

With the coming of Christianity, the early leaders incorporated many traditions of the pagan rituals into the rites of the Church.

The use of the egg, for example, the most common association we have with the Easter season, is the symbol of birth or the beginning of life as Easter is the beginning of the realization of man's hope for eternal life.

According to the mythology of ancient Egypt and India, the god of the Earth and the goddess of the sky produced a mighty egg from which came the Phoenix bird. The Phoenix is often used as a symbol for Christ because of the peculiar way in which it was supposed to die and come to life again.

On the other hand, Hindu mythology claims that the first thing which was formed out of chaos was a great egg which lay dormant for a time, then split asunder—the upper half becoming the heavens and the lower half the earth.

At any rate, we see that the Egg of Easter, the symbol of life, is not an innovation of modern society.

The ways in which the Christian world have used the egg are many. At one time in Europe, eggs were a part of the Easter meal or feast as they were a forbidden food during Lent. In France it was the custom for children making their first Communion on Easter to take a gift of eggs to the priest.

'Lest We Forget

Be strong !

We are not here to play, to dream, to drift;
We have hard work to do and loads to lift,
Shun not the struggle—face it, 'tis God's gift.

Be strong !

Say not, "The days are evil. Who's to blame?"
And fold the hands and acquiesce—oh, shame!
Stand up, speak out, and bravely, in God's name.

Be strong !

It matters not how deep entrenched the wrong,
How hard the battle goes, the day how long;
Faint not—fight on! Tomorrow comes the song.

In anticipation of a much longed for vacation, a respite from daily classes and assignments, we often forget the meaning of this holy holiday.

Easter is more than a spring vacation, so let us not fail to observe this holiday in the fullest recognition of its meaning in our lives today.

The Readers Speak

To the Editor:

Judging from the results of this year's SGA Congress, it is entirely possible that the National Congress has coached our own SGA on how to do nothing.

Their indoctrination was obviously thorough and successful. All WU students can proudly proclaim that we have our own "do nothing congress." There are several things that SGA could have at least checked into and reported to the several thousand other students.

For example, it was very muddy where there could have been sidewalks; I went to a pep rally two weeks ago two times; the status of walkouts was apparently classified information—anyway, no one knew whether we were having one in football season; hundreds of students were excluded from each basketball game; SGA had an ambiguous stand on fair housing.

My point is that more could have been accomplished. Perhaps I am being too severe. The SGA did all it was able to—perhaps. The SGA either did all it could or it could have done more. I am curious to find which is the case.

There are capable people in the SGA Congress, but they just haven't worked well together. Last spring many promises were made in the campaign. We cannot blame the leaders, I suppose. They simply did not realize their incapability of bringing the congress together.

Let me repeat, either the congress was incapable of helping the students more, or it was capable but just did not do it. I feel, in spite of its failure, we should support members of the congress and the congress itself.

Of well—the SGA office is a good place to play gin (not drink, I trust).

To the Editor:

The following item appeared last week in the Kansas State student newspaper. It shows the typical attitude of the kiddies at Silo Tech. State has refused for years to schedule games against Wichita in the regular season. But, after being forced to play Wichita and then accidentally coming out alive, they had the guts to print this....

They were strong and mighty and ranked number five They had Stallworth and Bowman and a lot of jive..

The stage was set and it was long overdue For the King of the Valley to bite off more than they could chew.

The Roundhouse was packed, tension was high Give us the Wildcats they said with a sigh.

We've played a rough schedule and need a rest We can relax and whip the Big Eight's best.

The Wildcat's they got, and with plenty of class And right along with them—they got the gas.

Willie, Rog, and Jeff—Max Moss and Sammy With the odds against them, delivered a whammy.

Stallworth the great, Kelly Pete and Nate Rue the day they want to meet the Big Eight.

My but its quiet and peaceful and still But the Wildcats are purring after the kill.

The winter was long, and the Cats needed a snack And now the Roundhouse is shrouded in black.

The Shocker lovers have had a long day No longer do they sound like Cassius Clay.

Fraternities Contribute Little To University Academic Life

ORONO, MA—(I.P.)—Fraternities on the campus of the University of Maine contribute little to the academic life of the University, according to a recently released report to the Board of Trustees by the faculty committee on fraternities.

If anything, the report stated, through harmful initiation practices and the presence in many houses of a supply of term papers and reports which can be plagiarized, they have a negative influence.

Other excerpts regarding scholastic achievement: It has been generally assumed that the academic level of the fraternity system has also declined in recent years. To some extent this is true.

An Analysis of the fifty-nine semesters from the fall of 1930 through the fall of 1962 shows that 80 per cent of the fraternities were above the all-men average more than half the semesters and that the all-fraternity average was above the all-men average 76 per cent of the time.

During the past decade, 1952-1962, only 58 per cent of the fraternities were above the all-men average more than half the semesters involved, through, oddly enough, the all-fraternity average was above the all-men average more than 81 per cent of the time. The figures are to some extent weighed in favor of the fraternities, since present rules require that no freshman with an average less than 1.8 can be pledged, and the all-men average included many freshmen who were well below this mark. It should be remembered, also, that the fraternity averages are included in the all-men average.

One significant figure in the area of scholarship appears when a comparison is made between the academic record of a freshman pledge and his record the following semester when he becomes active in fraternity affairs. The cumulative point average of all freshman pledges to fraternities in the spring of 1962 averaged 2.25.

The point average of this same group of men for the fall semester 1962, during which they moved into the house and were initiated was 1.94. In the case of one house the figure dropped from 2.41 to 1.68.

In contrast a similar comparison for non-fraternity dormitory sophomores shows an increase from 2.41 to 2.42. By the end of the spring semester of 1963, the point averages of the fraternity sophomores still remained well below what it had been at the end of their freshman year.

Tennis Team To Begin Competition Saturday

By BILL MINGLE, Sports Editor

The University's tennis team begins spring competition Saturday, when the Colorado Buffalos, of the Big 8, come to town for a match.

Coach Neil Roush is apparently well-pleased with the prospects for this year's squad. Led by Benny Anzola, a sophomore from Bogota, Columbia, the Shocker netmen are set to make the race for the Valley title. Last year, a sixth-place finisher, the Shockers seem vastly improved.

Roush calls Anzola, who will play in the number one spot, "the best player ever in the Missouri Valley Conference." Roush, who was himself one of the best in the Valley only two years ago, has plenty of evidence to back up that statement.

Anzola has been one of the top-ranked junior players in his country for the past three years. He currently is ranked second among men tennis players in Columbia. Roush says the talent and desire Anzola has already displayed, makes him one of the best in the history of Wichita U. tennis.

Behind Anzola, the Shockers have the talents of a top junior college player, and two lettermen. Riding in the number 2 spot on the squad now is Van Thompson, a product from Hutchinson juco. Thompson last year finished second in the National Junior College Championships. Senior letterman Phil Adrian, who played the number two spot last year, is now in the third position. Senior Chester Anderson, the Shocks number 1 player last year, will start this season in the number four position. Sophomore Lin Harris rounds out the squad.

Anzola and Anderson will form the number one doubles team; Thompson and Adrian will team for the number two pair. Roush feels the doubles outlook is very encouraging, with the talents of these four athletes. Thompson and Adrian played as a team while both were at Hutch juco.

Harris, the number five man, is being counted on by Roush to pick up a number of wins, in his first tries at varsity competition. A former City League high school champ, Harris is from Wichita South.

After meeting Colorado here Saturday, the Shocks travel to Oklahoma City, for a match with OCU Monday; the next day the Shockers tangle with Oklahoma at Norman. Then on Thursday, April 2, the squad returns to the home courts for a match against highly rated Wheaton College of Illinois. Highlight of the season will be the Missouri Valley Tournament May 8 and 9 at Louisville.

All home matches will be played on the courts south of Henrion gym, along 17th street.

Relations Institute Set for April 3-5

The 19th annual Kansas Institute of International Relations will be held from April 3 to 5 in the University Friends Church.

Sessions will include varying points of views on problems of international concern, according to Dr. Norman Gregor, assistant professor of English.

Tickets are available from Ray Ahrens, assistant professor of philosophy, for interested students.

Last Lenten Service Set

The Chaplain Samuel G. Widiger, Lutheran Institutional Chaplain, will speak at the Lenten service at 7:15 a.m. tomorrow in the Harvey D. Grace Memorial Chapel.

This will be the last in the series of services which have been held every Wednesday during Lent. The services have been sponsored by the United Christian Fellowship, Rev. Thomas Townsend, director.

All students are invited to attend the services, according to Rev. Townsend.

Reel Time

Reel Time will present "The Peace Corps," and "Iran—Between Two Worlds," tomorrow at noon in the Audiovisual Center, in Morrison Hall.

"The Peace Corps," a 27 minute film in color, is an interview sequence with the head of the Corps, Sargent Shriver. Shriver recounts the history of the Peace Corps to date and describes the kinds of Americans being requested for overseas service.

Narrated by Dave Garroway, the film explains Peace Corps objectives and includes actual footage of volunteers serving in Latin America, Africa, and Asia. This is the same film that was shown in the hallway of the CAC during Peace Corps week on campus.

"Iran—Between Two Worlds," a 14 minute documentary film in color, shows scenes of people in the city and rural areas of the country. The film also compares the life of the desert, people, the skilled craftsmen, making beautiful are objects to be displayed in the bazaars. The film concludes with facts on how Iran uses its oil and the natural resources, and pictures of Shah Abbas, recent ruler of Iran.

Reel Time shows are free and all students are cordially invited to attend.

Chess Champ to Visit

One against 50 are the odds given Bobby Fischer, world famous chess champion, when he stands 50 chess players simultaneously, in the Campus Activities Center, April 4th at 7:30 p.m.

The Wichita CAC Chess Club will sponsor the lecture and exhibition given by Fischer, who at the age of 14 became the youngest United States chess champion in the history of the game. His latest international triumph was in the 1962 interzonal matches at Stockholm.

In 1963 Fischer won the Western Open Chess Championship at Bay City, Mich., in a field of 160 players, and in the same year scored a clean sweep on 8-0 in the first New York State Open, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

Fischer, who learned to play chess at the age of 6, gave early evidence of an amazing talent, and at the age of 13 became the youngest player ever to win the National Junior Championship.

Now at the age of 20, Fischer is a six-time winner of the coveted United States Chess Championship Crown and has become the most widely written about and controversial chess personality of this generation. Considered by many chess experts to be the greatest chess master of all time, Fischer has given credence to this contention by winning all his games against the strongest United States Masters in the 1964 U. S. Championship chess matches.

Spectators tickets can be purchased at the door on April 4.

State Speech Festival Here

About 1,000 students from 50 high schools competed Friday and Saturday in the annual Speech Festival held on campus in Commons Auditorium and the CAC.

One-act plays, poetry and humorous readings, oratory, and extemporaneous speaking were among the types of presentation of the high school students. Students of speech classes and others were represented in the competition.

The Speech Festival is held to enable high school students to have the opportunity of professional evaluation and selection of those qualified to attend the State Speech and Drama Festival. Ratings were classified as I, II, or III; the I-rated students will attend the State Festival.

Leslie M. Blake, head of the speech department, was the director of the festival. He was assisted by Mel Moorhouse, assistant to the dean of University College. Students of the University also helped operate the activity.

Ed-TV Conference

Richard Meyer, assistant professor and director of educational television, recently participated in a national conference at the University of Missouri, dealing with the "Improvement of Teaching by Television."

Meyer showed Wichita-made films and discussed the University's role in the field of adult education via television. The films shown were made by Meyer, Wayne Sourbeer, local photographer, and Richard Grove, art museum educational specialist. The films demonstrated how avant-garde, abstract, and primitive art may be used within secondary schools and university curriculums.

The conference also stressed quality of instruction through programs on the role of teachers, administrators, and producers-directors; and programs on the application of research, the use of graphics and devices and the inter-institutional exchange of broadcast materials.

HYM Dance Slated

The annual "Haul Your Man Dance," sponsored by the YWCA, will be held April 10, from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. in the CAC Ballroom.

The Belle of the Ball will be selected on the number of tickets placed in each candidate's box. However, the men will not be forgotten as the Top Senior Men will be chosen.

of eggs decorated with real gold and jewels. Egg rolling games which began in Europe are now an annual event on our own capitol lawn as well as in private homes across the country.

And even though the industrial era transformed the Easter egg into chocolate and sugar and tinsel, the gaily colored hard-boiled egg still remains a favorite.

Why a rabbit instead of the logical chicken is supposed to deliver the eggs seems to be lost to history. It seems likely, however, that they were considered a symbol of fertility—rabbits being notably prolific. And Easter is, after all, a time of resurrection, of life, of a beginning.
