Summer School enrollment will take place on Monday, June 15. The summer school sessions will begin on June 16; the six-week session will close on July 24 and the nine-week session ends on August 14. Commencement exercises will be held after summer school on Sunday, August 16.

BA Students Given Awards At Banquet

Two outstanding business students were awarded the Frank A. Neff Memorial Award at the third annual College of Business banquet Friday night.

The recipients of the award were Donald E. Copenhaver and James J. Bedinger. The winners' names are inscribed on plaques which are placed in the Frank A. Neff Hall.

The awards are made annually on the basis of individual achievement, leadership, extra-curricular activities and grade point average. Students are recommended for the award by a sub-committee composed of the dean of the College of Business Administration and heads of the departments in the College. They are nominated by members of the business college faculty.

Prior to the banquet, Sheldon Coleman, president and chairman of the board of the Coleman Company, was selected 1964 honorary member of Alpha Kappa Psi, professional business fraternity.

The purpose of the banquet, according to Jack D. Heysinger, dean of the Business College, was to recognize and honor student scholarship and other personnel.

Other special guests invited to the banquet included President and Mrs. Emory Lindquist, Dean and Mrs. Hugo Wall, Dr. and Mrs. Cramer Reed, and Mrs. Frank A. Neff and Ann Neff, wife and daughter of the late Dean Emeritus of the College.

Rolla Clymer, editor and publisher of the El Dorado Times and a native Kansan, will present the address for Commencement June 7, President Lindquist announced.

"We are indeed fortunate to have such a distinguished Kansan to speak at our commencement exercises," said President Lindquist. Clymer, who has edited the El Dorado paper almost continuously since 1919, has been active in numerous business, social and religious organizations throughout the state.

He has served as State Chairman of the Kansas Associated Press, a member of Sigma Chi Fraternity, and is a 50 year Mason. He has been President of the Kansas Daily Newspaper Association, the William Allen White Foundation, the Kansas State Historical Society, and the El Dorado Chamber of Commerce.

He is a graduate of the College of Emporia and had attended the University of Kansas as a graduate student.

WU's Pershing Rifles Win "A" Overall Trophy

Company F-7, the University unit of Pershing Rifles, won the "A" Overall Roving Trophy during the annual assembly of the 7th Regiment held here last week.

About 300 students from ROTC units at universities in four states attended the assembly and drill competition. John Whitehead of Company F-7 placed 2nd in M-1 disassembly and assembly.

The University machine gun crew took another first place to add to its growing list of wins.

Pershing Rifles Maj. Jerry D. Malcolm, commanding officer of the University company received the Carl F. Bernard Award at a banquet held during the two-day Regimental Assembly. The award was presented by Maj. Carl F. Bernard, currently a student at the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College, Ft. Leavenworth, Kans. The Award is presented to the outstanding Pershing Rifleman in the 7th Regiment, a four state area of Kansas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, and Missouri.

Malcolm also received the 7th Regimental Commander's Award.

"I'm looking forward to being on campus to renew acquaintanceships and discuss any questions the students might have," Wunsch commented at a recent interview.

Accompanying Sen. Wunsch will be Rep. John Conard, state chairman of the Wunsch for Governor Committee. They will return to campus tomorrow night and will be in Neff Hall from 7:45 to 8:15.

"I have always supported all elements of higher education in Kansas, and will continue to do so," Sen. Wunsch said. He has served the state in government since 1939 and has served on practically all committees of the House and Senate during his career.

William Farmer, senator from Sedgwick county, who introduced the WU bill, recently commented: "Sen. Wunsch was very active in support of the WU bill. All who worked on the WU bill are grateful to Wunsch for all of the support and expert advice he gave us. Without his capable leadership the university would not have been taken into the state system."

Farnsworth, Ungs Injured In Accident

Dr. David Farnsworth, associate professor in political science, was reported in satisfactory condition yesterday afternoon by Wesley Hospital authorities.

Farnsworth was admitted to the Intensive Care Unit at Wesley, with head injuries sustained in a car accident Saturday night.

Also injured was Dr. Thomas Ungs, assistant professor, and driver of one of the two cars involved in the accident. Dr. Ungs is in Rm. 239 at St. Francis Hospital and is recovering satisfactory.

The accident occurred on West Mac Arthur Road as the two instructors were returning to Wichita from the political science department picnic at Lake Afton.

Sen. Wunsch to Visit on Campus

Sen. Paul Wunsch, Republican candidate for governor, will be on campus from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. tomorrow in the CAC Ballroom to meet informally with students, according to Dell Barbour, campus chairman of the Wunsch for Governor Committee.

SEN. PAUL WUNSCH, center, discusses details of his visit on campus tomorrow with John Conard, right, campaign chairman, and Dell Barbour, campus chairman.

10th Annual Honors Convo Recognizes 170 Scholars

The Tenth Annual Honors Convocation, honoring nearly 170 scholars, was held last Friday.

President Emory Lindquist presided over the convocation and Dr. Thomas D. Ungs, assistant professor of political science, gave the address, "The Integrity of Learning."

University honors were awarded to eight graduating seniors who achieved an academic record of at least 3.750. Those receiving honors were: Karen Baker, Mortar Board, logopedics department honors; Kay Dickens Gasaway, Mortar Board, English department honors; Fred Giertz, Pi Mu Epsilon, mathematics department honors, economics department honors; Karen Hanks, sixty-one undergraduates who have an academic record of at least 3.750.

Class honors were awarded to Sigma Delta Pi, Spanish department honors; James Ireland, ac-

Pity the Editor

Getting out a paper is sometimes fun, but it is never a picnic.
 If we print jokes, people say we are silly.
 If we don't, they say we are too serious.
 If we clip things from other papers, we are too lazy to write them ourselves.
 If we don't, we are too fond of our own stuff.
 If we print contributions, the paper is filled with junk.
 If we don't, we don't appreciate true genius.
 Now, like as not, someone will say we swiped this piece from some other paper.
 WE DID.

Civil Rights Petition

The Students for the Civil Rights Bill, will sponsor a table in the Campus Activities Center hall in order to solicit signatures for a petition to Senators Frank Carlson and James Pearson of Kansas.

The petition will urge the Senators to support the civil rights bill now pending; to vote to invoke cloture and end the Southern filibuster; and to pass an effective civil rights bill with no weakening amendments.

The table will be in the hall from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m., Monday May 18, through Wednesday, May 20.

Co-sponsors of the table are the Students For Liberal Action, and the Collegiate Young Democrats Civil Rights Committee.

All students, faculty and staff members are urged by the sponsors to sign the petition.

Reel Time Set

The next presentation of Reel Time will be "Autobiography" and "Let's Look at Barbados." The films will be shown tomorrow at noon in the Audiovisual Center.

"Autobiography" is a 27 minute film which tells the story of the horseless carriage from the days of Henry Ford to the present day. Vintage film clips are used, and possible future developments are depicted. The show has been seen on television.

"Let's Look at Barbados" is a 14 minute color film that shows what life is like on a sunny, Caribbean island. The natives are shown at work and play, and scenes of native customs and dances are seen. The island as a resort area is depicted with glimpses of speed-boating, water-skiing and water-polo.

All interested persons are invited to attend free.

News Forum Today

News Forum will be held at noon today in the East Ballroom of the CAC, featuring Mel Moorhouse, assistant to the dean of University College, as moderator.

The two guest panelists on this week's News Forum will be Clayton Bratton, assistant professor of journalism, and Donald Hansen, assistant professor and director of KMUW.

This will be our last News Forum of the spring semester, but News Forums will be held every Wednesday throughout the summer session.

Journalism Banquet

The 18th annual journalism banquet and photo field day will be held tomorrow night, according to Paul Gerhard, professor of journalism and chairman of the department.

Martin Perry, Eagle-Beacon editorial page writer, will address the high school, college, and professional journalists gathered for the occasion, sponsored by the journalism department.

The program will also include the announcement of Sunflower and Parnassus staff appointments for the next school term, and the awarding of a number of scholarships to outstanding student journalists. University and high school photographers will be presented trophies for meritorious photographs entered in the photography contests by Jim Edwards, long time professional photographer and lecturer in press photography.

Doris Mortimer, journalism senior and Sunflower editor-in-chief, will serve as toastmistress.

International Club

Eileen Broadie, Fine Arts sophomore, has been selected as the International Club "Active of the Month," according to Rick Lane, publicity chairman.

Tea and Conversation, will not meet until the summer school session begins, according to Lane. They will resume their regularly schedule get-together at 3 p.m. each Wednesday afternoon on June 18.

Sociology Fraternity Initiates 8

Eight new members were initiated into the Sociology honorary fraternity, Alpha Kappa Delta, May 6, at a banquet in the Shocker Room of the CAC.

The new members are: Robert H. Curry, Mrs. Melba Widdowson, Mrs. Vida Vinduska, Charles A. Thompson, Carol S. Dewey, Nancy S. Anderson, Nancy A. Flagg, and Shirley J. Harris. Mrs. Jeanie Himmel was also welcomed as a transfer from Arizona University.

To be eligible for membership in the fraternity the students had to have a 3.00 average in at least nine hours of sociology and a 2.500 overall grade average.

Also at the banquet, Dr. Donald O. Cowgill, head of the sociology department, presented a paper entitled "The Other Wichita."

Military Frat Gives Awards For 63-64

The University Scabbard and Blade Society recently announced the names of the recipients for the outstanding service medals for the year 1963-64.

Chosen as the outstanding army cadets were Jerry Thompson as outstanding sophomore and Charles Dent as the outstanding junior. Outstanding Air Force cadets were John Richard, sophomore, and Gary Betourne, junior.

In order to be a recipient of these medals, an individual must be a sophomore or a junior in publicity chairman.

The purpose of these medals is to recognize those cadets who have contributed much time and energy to their respective corps.

Shocker Shenanigans

By LORRY BROSIUS, Society Editor

Shockers are busy taking a last fling before finals and planning parties to celebrate victories or console each other after final exams. Merrymakers last weekend included Tri Deltas, Betas, Delta Gammas, and Phi Deltas.

The Petroleum Club was decked with pink and white carnations Saturday evening for the Gamma Phi Pink and White Ball. Robert Foley's orchestra played for dancing; Pat Kemp invited guests for a preparty and Nancy Boman was hostess for a postparty.

Dennis Vanderheiden and Katherine Gothard reigned as God and Goddess at the Sig Ep formal Saturday evening at Spring Lakes Country Club. Dennis was chosen as an outstanding senior; he has been named to the Dean's List eight times, is commander of the Army ROTC Cadet corps, was named Mr. Military among the Ten Top Senior Men, has received a graduate fellowship in chemistry, and is a member of the American Chemists Association.

Bill Strout played for the Alpha Chi spring formal at the Broadview Hotel ballroom. Marty Waddell hosted a preparty at the house and Marilyn Minor invited guests to her home for a postparty.

DU's are constructing elaborate decorations for their traditional Heidelberg June 5.

Alpha Phis are busy with decorations as a surprise for guests at their spring formal at the Petroleum Club Friday evening. Guests will stop at Connie Howell's house for food and conversation before the dance. Sherry Herrington is co-hostess for the party.

Pershing Rifles Sweethearts Bobbi Weir and Linda Ferris were crowned by former Sweethearts Carol Campbell and Susan Crane at the 7th annual White Rose Ball Saturday evening at Innes. Also on the program were installation ceremonies for new Pershing Rifles Company Commander David Wain-

Alpha Phis are especially proud of their royalty this week. Sue McGregor was named Parnassus Queen and Linda Ferris is Pershing Rifles Sweetheart. Carol Campbell was awarded a meritorious service ribbon and a special citation Thursday evening during Field Day awards ceremonies. Carol has been an Army Blues member for four years, Army ROTC Battle Group Sweetheart, Pershing Rifles Sweetheart for two years, and Army Blues secretary and commanding officer.

Gamma Phis surprised Phi Deltas by presenting them with a purple shaft in honor of their Hippodrome skit, "Magnificent 7 1/2."

Tri Deltas honored Cindy Shank, Cynthia Moore, and Diane Dresback at their meeting Monday evening for distinguished records of scholastic and extra-curricular activities.

Gamma Phis invited their mothers to tea Sunday in observation of Mothers' Day.

Gamma Phis are planning a picnic in honor of their seniors June 3.

Alpha Phi pledges served a patio dessert for graduating seniors Monday evening and presented each with a silver and bordeaux carnation. Alums ended a progressive dinner for seniors Wednesday evening with a dessert at the house for the whole chapter. Mothers' Club will honor seniors with a covered dish dinner this evening and those same much-honored guests were seated in the place of honor Monday evening at a dinner before meeting.

Army Blues will install new officers Thursday at noon. These include Bobbi Weir, commander; Connie Knock, executive officer; Sandy Hamm, drill commander; Lorry Brosius, secretary; Cheryl Rosseou, treasurer; Linda Ferris, assistant drill commander; Suzanne Hoover, public relations officer; and Sandy Lindeman, nationalization officer.

Kay Wiblitzhouser is this month's carnation girl and pledge Susie Miller has received the Alpha Chi Maple Leaf award for the outstanding pledge.

Alpha Phi Barbie Wilkes invited her sorority sisters to her home Sunday afternoon for a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mary Lisenby, who will marry Beta John Tidwell May 30.

Sig Eps held an appreciation dinner in honor of their mothers Monday.

Alpha Chis plan a swimming party at Courtney Davis May 29, to celebrate the end of finals.

Gamma Phis will honor their fathers at a picnic June 23.

DU Mothers served coffee and doughnuts to draw the crowd to their garage sale Friday.

Tri Deltas Susie Kueck and Julie Coyne have received the Sorosis scholarships. Sorosis was the local organization which became a part of the national Tri Delta group in 1958.

Army Blues plan a year's end party June 5, at Courtney Davis.

Sig Eps will celebrate the end of the term with their traditional luau May 29.

Gamma Phi Susie Corrigan was special guest at a shower given Tuesday by Vicky Sinning, Nancy Elliott, and Sandy Mueller. Susie will marry DU Butch Bright June 22.

Alpha Phi Sharon Russell passed the candle Monday to announce her engagement to Howard Saunders who attends OSU, and Barbie Wilkes announced that she is wearing the class ring of Sig Ep Dick Walldrop.

Alpha Chi Linda Lewis is pinned to Beta Bill Hartong; Jan Greene wears the Beta lavalier of Vann DeHotel; and Susie Miller is lavaliered to Phi Delta Tom Waddell.

Weekending at KU were Gamma Phis Karen McDaniel, who attended the Sigma Chi spring formal, and Jacque Scheer and Carolyn Donlevy, who were invited to the Sigma Nu Prohibition Party.

Males to Cheer for WSU; Tryouts to Be Tomorrow

Cheer girls, the boys are back! Many Shocker fans will be both surprised and delighted to see male cheerleaders on the Wichita State University cheerleading squad next fall.

At a special meeting of the Pep squad, and also create more interest at games. Council, members voted to elect four male cheerleaders for next year.

The boys will cheer along with the six regular cheerleaders at football and basketball games, all those interested in trying out for the squad must be able to do various jumps, cartwheels, round-offs, and have a strong voice and lots of enthusiasm, according to John Morton, president of the Pep Council.

Dr. Bradley Keith, assistant professor of mens physical education at WU spoke to members of the pep council on why he felt men should be added to the present squad, and said that men will add enthusiasm and variety to the pep
