Institutional Equity and Compliance Mission

Wichita State University strives to provide an educational, employment and contracting environment that reflects its mission and promotes a deep understanding and appreciation among the diverse members of the University community. It is essential that all members of the community feel included and engaged, and that the contributions of all individuals are respected. All members of the Wichita State University community have a responsibility to uphold these values.

The Office of Institutional Equity and Compliance is committed to preventing and eliminating discrimination or harassment based on race color, national origin, pregnancy, sex age, disability, creed, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, veteran status, political affiliation or political philosophy.

2020 Title IX Policy Revision

The U.S. Department of Education has released comprehensive Title IX regulations governing how institutions must respond to allegations of sexual harassment. The University's Office of Institutional Equity and Compliance (OIEC), in conjunction with other leaders on campus, have approved a new WSU Policy 3.06: Sexual Harassment, Discrimination and Retaliation in response to these new regulations.
