The supreme council of the Allied and Associated Powers of the Peace Conference in Paris ~~have~~ agreed that the convention relating to International Air Regulation; which was approved by their subcommission on Aerial Navigation at the Peace Conference, subject to certain ^{small} reservations; should be issued for the information of the public of the Allied and Associated States.

who first reported March 18th 1919

Since the agreement to issue this for the information of the public appears to have been ^{promulgated} ~~had~~ in America; when the Medical Text with a table of contents and a statement made that the complete draft was agreed to was published; it might ^{seem} ~~appear~~ that the public held in mind by the Supreme Council was the Governmental employees ^{in the United States} ~~for these latter~~ can ~~could~~ not be prevailed upon to release the text of the convention; yet, September 1919, or in any event these

~~in English until July 23d and then only in England, the American~~ ~~Government repeatedly refuses to give out copies although the~~ privileged few can secure ^{copies} ~~them~~ by cabling to England where they were ~~have been~~ published ^{in July} in several magazines and in pamphlet form.

The purpose of the publication, is to afford, as early as possible, the American flying and manufacturing public the privelege; hitherto reserved to a few ^{some officials} ~~of the military~~ etc. We in the hope that this ~~tardy~~ "information of the public" ^{state thought} may lessen the danger from a fettering code ^{framed} ~~foisted~~ by a narrow ring and be in time for
