with us - they have made no plans as yet - they are very undecided whether to return home or remain here - do not know which it is best to do. Aunt Mary remains about the same that she has been all winter - she does not seem to gain very fast - the past winter has been quite a few but still not very favourable for invalids - I think she would be benefited if she were to remain through the warm weather, for our summers are delightful - of course the days are very warm but the nights are always nice and cool - there is a cool south breeze all the time - School closed last month - there are private schools for children, but Charlie and Henry do not attend - either Mrs Gay or I teach them and Himie three hours every morning -
