May Day Features Annual Coronation

The May Day celebration will reach a climax with the coronation of Sally Jo Norton as May Queen the night of May 2.

In addition to the coronation, several events are planned for the evening beginning at 8 p.m. They include the presentation of trophies to the winners in the Hippodrome, entertainment for the queen, given by her sorority, Gamma Beta, and the tapping of freshmen women for Mortar Board.

The queen's attendants are Marie Hicks and Cindy Rader for Delta Delta Delta; Merry Blair and Jody Evans Johnson for Gamma; Donna Jabara and Shirley Cowen, Gamma Phi Beta; Martha Reagan and Ruth Krenek, Chi Omega.

Joanne Lauterbach and Caryl ... Alpha Phi; Twilah Hood and ... Hatfield, Independent Students Association; and Geri Riggs, Sondra Berg, Grace Wilkie ... Their escorts have not been selected yet, according to Anita ... chairman of the coronation.

Donnie Kemp, Gamma Phi Beta, will serve as the traditional courtier for the queen. Miss Jabara will be maid of honor.

Miss Greene said the queen will be presented with flowers and will be crowned by the Student Council president, Ron Eeles. Her escort will be David Williams, Liberal

Best Film of Year to Be 'La Strada'

The Wichita Film Society's last presentation of the year, "La Strada," will be shown at 8:15 p.m. Wednesday in the Fine Arts Center Concert Hall.

"La Strada," which won the 1956 Academy Award for the best foreign language film, stars Anthony Quinn, Richard Basehart, and Bette Masina.

Students will be admitted on their ID cards.

Arts senior, and a member of Alpha Gamma Gamma.

The processional and recessional marches and musical selections will be played by the University Orchestra.

2 Publications Offer Jobs To Students

Twenty-five Sunflower positions and 16 Parnassus positions are open on next year's publication staffs.

Applications for the positions are available in the offices of Miss Joan O'Bryant, assistant professor of English and chairman of the Board of Student Publications, Rm. 209, Fiske Hall; C. Gene Bratton, assistant professor of journalism and yearbook adviser, Rm. 120, Communications Building; and Paul Gerhard, journalism department head and Sunflower adviser, Rm. 117, Communications Building.

The forms must be submitted by May 3 in Professor O'Bryant's office.

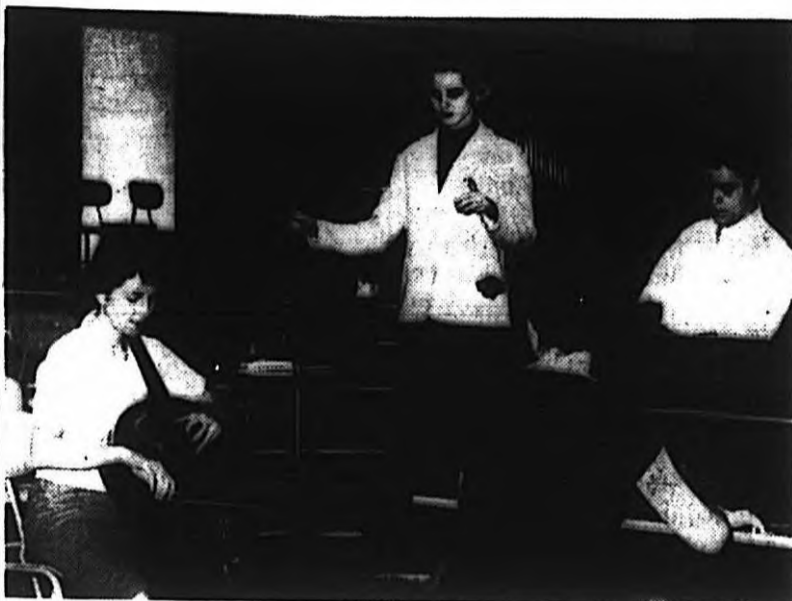

According to Professors Gerhard and Bratton, many of the staff positions are paying jobs.

Bookstore Selling Schedules for Fall

Schedules of classes for the first semester of the 1958-59 school year are available in the Bookstore.

The booklets include the class, pre-registration, registration, and pre-freshmen schedules as well as registration procedures. The price of the schedule is 15 cents.

20 Will Participate In 9th Annual Concert

ONE, TWO, THREE and the players began to play their instruments. Directed by Sandra Berg, these students will participate in the annual music program at 8 tonight in the Fine Arts Auditorium. They include from left, Geraldine Riggs, Miss Berg, Sue Newsom, and Marvin Grandstaff. The music will be directed entirely by students in the School of Music. (Sunflower Staff Photo.)

FAC Fracas Friday; Plan 10 Booths, Show

A new campus carnival—FAC Fracas—will make its debut Friday night in the Fine Arts Center. The Fracas sponsored by music students replaces the traditional Risque Pique Fair, which was abandoned when the School of Music moved from Fiske Hall to the Fine Arts Center.

FAC Fracas will feature ten booths and a floor show at its inauguration, according to Eula Hutchinson, booths committee chairman.

Many Activities

The booth activities will consist of a cake walk, jail, basketball freethrow, record breaker, concession stand, penny toss, balloon breaker, and a marriage booth.

Five music organizations will sponsor two booths each. Organizations participating in the Fracas are Kappa Kappa Psi, honorary band fraternity, Tau Beta Sigma, honorary band sorority, Mu Phi Epsilon, honorary music sorority, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, honorary music fraternity, and Music Educators National Conference (MENC).

Floorshow at 10 p.m.
The doors will open about 7:30.

Conductors, Performers In Program

The University Orchestra will present its ninth annual Concerto and Aria Concert at 8 p.m., tonight, in the Concert Hall of the Fine Arts Center.

The Aria Concert, featuring student soloist and conductors, will present Coleen Round, Music junior, in a piano solo. She will play "Variations on a Theme of Paganini, Opus 43" by Rachmaninoff. It will be conducted by Sandra Berg, Music senior.

Mary Lee Scott, Music junior, in a violin solo, will play "Concerto for Violin, Opus 47, Third Movement," by Sibelius. Conductor will be Doug Jackson, Music sophomore.

Celloist to Play
Celloist Geri Riggs, Music senior, will play "Concerto in B Minor, Opus 104, First Movement" by Haydn, to be conducted by Wayne Harrell, Music senior. Jane Clemmons, Music senior, play "Poem for Flute and Orchestra," by Griffes. Conductor will be Marvin Grandstaff, graduate student.

Jay Hershey, Fine Arts senior, will sing selections from "Carmen" by Bizet. Conductor will be Jim McKinney, Music junior. Linda Barrington, Music senior, will play "Concerto in D Major, Opus 77, First Movement" by Brahms. Conducting will be Jan Fisher.

Freshman Will Sing
James Hayes, Music freshman, will sing a tenor solo, "Vesti La Giubba" from "Pagliacci" by Leoncavallo, with George Zack, Music senior, conducting. "Concerto No. 2 in G Minor, Third Movement" by Saint-Saens, will be presented.

'Pennypacker' Will Be Year's Final Production

'I'VE TOLD you once,' Ken Warwick, who plays Pa Pennypacker, tells Bill Manely, who plays a young Pennypacker child, from left, Tom Donaldson, Kent Cottingham, and Kent Remine, watch the Pennypacker children. "The Remarkable Mr. Pennypacker" opens in the Commons Auditorium Thursday night. Friday's performance is already sold out so no students will be admitted on ID cards that night. (Sunflower Staff Photo.)

"The Remarkable Mr. Pennypacker" will be the next play to be presented by the University Players. This will be the final production by this group for the school year.

"Pennypacker" will be directed by Robert L. Crist, assistant professor of speech and drama.

According to Professor Crist, the play is a comedy of real charm. It is a story of a genial easy-going father who is a very progressive, though quiet, free-thinker who has been, for many years, an unrepentant bigamist.

Farcical and Comical
The entire situation is both farcical and comical as the members of his families react to their father's two-family system.

The show was termed a success by the New York newspapers in 1953. The Times listed "Pennypacker" as "An uproarious show," the Daily News classified it "A happy celebration . . . hilarious," and the World Telegram & Sun described it as being "Both gay and wistful . . . unforgettably pleasurable laughs."

A cast of 14 University students and nine school children will present the play. The cast includes Nancy Bales, Fine Arts sophomore, Laurie Pennypacker; Carole Allegro, Liberal Arts freshman, Aunt Jane Pennypacker; Russel Michaelson, Liberal Arts freshman, Wilbur Fifield; Carolyn McGirr, Education freshman, Kate Pennypacker.

Large, Varied Cast
Marsha Morgan, Liberal Arts sophomore, Ma Pennypacker; Lance Hayes, Liberal Arts freshman, Henry Pennypacker; Kent Cottingham, Liberal Arts freshman, Teddy Pennypacker; Leo Simmons, Liberal Arts freshman, Grampa Pennypacker.

Bob Wirt, Liberal Arts freshman, Quinlan; Bill Manely, Liberal Arts freshman, a young man; Chuck Reeder, Liberal Arts sophomore, Dr. Fifield; Delbert Voth, Business freshman, sheriff; Ken Warwick, Liberal Arts senior, Pa Pennypacker; and Frank Austin, policeman.

The children include Jamie Aiken, first pupil; Peggy Spencer, second pupil; Kent Wiemeyer, Ben Pennypacker; Tom Donaldson, David Pennypacker; Anita Pearson, Edna Pennypacker; and Nancy Razak, Elizabeth Pennypacker.

Good Seats Available
Professor Crist said there are plenty of good seats available for the Thursday and Saturday night performances. Students will be admitted on ID cards that night.

Greeks Unite?

The campus heard a proposal last week that could seriously affect the political situation here.

The proposal, made by Men of Webster Fraternity, is that the sororities and fraternities unite, politically, to form an all-Greek party. The Websters made public their proposal in resigning from the All-University Representation Party.

In some quarters it is believed that such an alignment would bring an end to the constant bickering and strife among the Greek groups.

However, we feel that such a movement would ultimately bring about undesirable results, aside from the fact that the present political system has proved effective.

Years ago, there was such an alignment on the campus. Subsequent problems arose over leadership or more aptly, control, candidates, and representation. This led to the formation of Greek-independent parties. If we can judge from past history, such would be the case again.

As more than one political leader has pointed out, an all-Greek coalition would bring about a one-party system of government. The "evils" of one-party rule are obvious.

Two years ago, the Association for Better Politics on Campus (BPOC) was formed to combat what its leaders thought was one-party control. A year later, AURP evolved from the Shocker Coalition, primarily a Greek party, as BPOC's competition.

Both parties, in one way or another, have tried to keep an effective political system on the campus. Leaders of both realize the problems of over-representation of any one campus element, such as sorority and fraternity members.

Now the present system is being challenged by a group seeking to unite the Greeks.

At present there seems to be little merit in an all-Greek system. Surely there is some other way the sororities and fraternities can remedy their differences, without destroying the welfare of the student body as a whole.

3 Awarded Study Grants

Grants have been received by two University physics professors for summer study in atomic energy.

Dr. O. K. Hudson, associate professor of physics and Paul A. Roys, assistant professor of physics, will attend eight-weeks programs for educators in the field of atomic energy.

Professor Roys will attend the Summer Institute on Reactor Instrumentation and Control, to be held at Argonne National Laboratory at Lemont, Ill.

Dr. Hudson will attend the AEC Summer Institute on Nuclear Energy at Purdue University in Lafayette, Ind.

by Music junior Sue Newsom, in a piano solo. It will be conducted by Don Lowe, Music senior.

Judy Hentzen, Music senior will sing "Tu Che Di Gel Sei Cinta" from "Turandot" by Puccini. Conductor will be Marvin Brown, Music junior. Arthur Madsen, Music senior, will present "Concerto in D Minor K 446, Second Movement" by Mozart. The piano solo will be conducted by Eugene Bales, special student.

The program is open to the public, according to Carole Hicks, publicity chairman.

Petitions Available

Petitions for membership on the 1958-59 Student Forum Board are now available in the Student Services Office, 113 Jardine Hall, according to George Anderton, Student Forum president. Petitions must be filled out and returned by May 1.

Student Opinion Favors Free Day Before Finals

What do students think about rushing into finals directly following the last class day? Inquiring Reporter interviews revealed unanimous approval of a day off—a "stop day"—before final examinations. So far, this hasn't been a University policy.

Wanda Durrington, Education freshman, "Yes, a stop day would be a good idea. I know I would study and so would the majority of students."

Larry Hall, Business sophomore, "The majority of students would study if given a free day. I would be in favor of shortening Christmas, but not Easter vacation, in order to have a stop day. The idea should be brought before the Student Council."

Judy Heaston, Education freshman, "The students would relax more. Finals wouldn't be such a tense grind. I'd be willing to cut a day off some other vacation. Stop day would especially be beneficial for students who work. The idea should be brought before the Student Council."

Linda Palmer, Fine Arts freshman, "We get enough time off for Christmas to shorten it a day in order to have a free period before finals. Stop day should be discussed in a future Student Council meeting."

Bill Oswalt, Education junior, "A stop day would give students a chance to rest before a busy week. It would ease the tension created by exams a little. I wouldn't mind taking a day from Easter or Christmas vacation if it meant a stop day. The majority of students would study. I know I would. Student Council should give the idea some thought."

Anita Greene, Education junior, "I would study if given a free day and so would most of the students. It would be all right to shorten Christmas but not Easter vacation to provide a stop day. The idea should be given consideration by the Student Council."

Letters to the Editor

The Sunflower will publish letters to the editor written by students and faculty members. Letters submitted must be signed by the writer or writers, and names will be withheld upon request. Letters should be turned into the Sunflower office, Rm. 114, Communications Building, three days preceding publication.

Play's Backstage Crew Is Important Element

By FVELYN JONES
Society Editor

For nearly every stage play with a cast from 5 to 25 it takes a backstage crew of often 100 people.

Many of these people are helping in designing and constructing settings and scenery, applying make-up, and designing and fitting costumes. Other important people behind the scenes include property manager, master electrician, and publicity, and sound committees.

Nothing could go over without a business manager and a house manager.

6 People in Make-up

For example, in the backstage crew of the speech department production of "the Remarkable Mr. Pennypacker," there is a make-up crew of 6 people headed by Larry Lane, Liberal Arts freshman. This group must decide how an individual can look the part of a character he is playing, whether it is a small boy with red rosy cheeks and freckles or a wrinkled gentleman of the 1890's.

All characters of any play whether young or old are required to wear a base makeup. An eye-brow pencil is used to make lines in the face of an older person. Hair styles depend upon the character and the period of the play.

IFC, Pan-Hel Picnic Planned

Approximately 500 members of the nine social fraternities and sororities are expected to attend an all-Greek picnic from 2:30 to 7:30 p.m. Sunday at Joyland Amusement Park.

The picnic, sponsored by the Panhellenic Council and the Interfraternity Council, will be the first Greek picnic at the University.

The picnic is being held in place of the usual Greek Week sponsored by the organizations in past years. The Councils decided to eliminate Greek Week this year because of the many other University activities scheduled for this spring.

This year's picnic will include dancing, games, eating, and many other activities.

Joe Westwood, a member of Phi Upsilon Sigma, is in charge of the game committee. Owen Balch of Pi Alpha Pi is in charge of place selection and food committee.

Pavilion "A" has been reserved in Joyland for the picnic and a catering service will provide food.

WRA Plans Election Of '59 Officers

Women's Recreation Association election of new officers will be from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m., Friday, in the Rotunda of Jardine Hall. Any WRA member is eligible to vote, said Janice Hart, secretary.

Candidates for office are Loretta Clark and Janice Hart for president. The runner-up will automatically become vice-president.

Carol Pierce, Pat Bochelmann, and Claudette Walk are competing for the office of secretary. Treasurer candidates are Sally Mitchell and Delores DeGrafemread. Publicity chairman candidates are Marjane Gaston, Jackie Wedin, and Laura Wilcox.

An installation banquet will be held, May 12, in the Commons for the newly elected officers and all WRA members, Miss Hart said.

Play Tryouts For Comedies To Continue

Tryouts for two summer theater comedies, "Claudia" and "Bell, Book and Candle," will be at 7:30 p.m. today and tomorrow in the Commons Lounge.

Any local person can participate in the tryouts, according to Dr. Eugene Hoak, professor and head of the department of speech and drama.

Rehearsals for both plays, to be presented in the Fine Arts Theater, will begin May 1.

A cast of eight players is needed for the play, "Claudia," which is to be presented on June 12, 13, and 14, under the direction of Miss Geraldine Staley, instructor in speech and drama.

"Bell, Book and Candle," to be presented June 19, 20, and 21, under the direction of Dr. Hoak, requires a cast of five members

Accounting Club Names Top 10 Senior Students

Winners of the Accounting Club's "Top Ten" Scholarship contest last semester were announced Wednesday night at the club's meeting.

There was a tie for first place between Jim D. Unruh and Robert D. Hinderliter, Business juniors, both of whom had an accounting grade index of 4.0.

Others in the top ten, all Business majors, are: Kenneth Meredith, senior; Robert E. Brown, junior; Mrs. Charlotte Stuart, senior; Ivan Knudsen, junior; Keith Miers, junior; Paul D. Mahan, senior; Mickey Walker, senior; and Joyce Phipps, senior.

The award of "Accountants Handbooks" to the two top winners was given by the Wichita Cosmopolitan Club as part of its policy to encourage high scholarship in schools and to reward achievement.

Other officers are Marilyn Byrd, vice-president in charge of scholarship; Shirley Gilley, vice-president in charge of pledges; Ruth Lungstrom, treasurer; Iva Jean Richter, recording secretary; Carol Bratcher, corresponding secretary; Carolyn Fitzpatrick, chaplain; Carol Stith, marshal; Jane Whitten, guard; and Carol Dewitt, hostess.

The newly appointed officers are Glenna Hetzel, social chairman; Laura Wilcox, house manager; Sue Newsom, standards chairman; Nancy O'Harra, activities chairman; Marsha Coover, music chairman; Quincelee Brown, publicity chairman; Suzanne Umphrey, rush chairman; and Marcella Kerrick, historian.

Student Teacher Applications Due

Students who plan to enroll in Secondary Education 447, practice teaching, for the fall semester must submit an application form, according to Dr. Jackson O. Powell, dean of the College of Education.

The forms are to be submitted prior to May 16 to Kenneth Nickel, assistant professor of education, Rm. 301, Fiske Hall; or in the office of Phyllis Burgess, assistant professor of education, Rm. 311, Fiske Hall.

Fall semester schedules must be submitted with the application.

Student teachers in the secondary education area for the fall semester will meet at noon May 20, in Rm. 306, Jardine Hall, to receive their student teaching assignments.

Students who will be unable to take the secondary education course during the fall semester may enroll in the summer session by contacting Miss Burgess before May 15, Dean Powell said.

2 Kansas H.S. Seniors Win Beech Scholarships

Two Kansas high school seniors, selected from a field of six finalists, were the winners of the two Walter H. Beech Memorial Scholarships, according to Dr. Hugo Wall, scholarship committee chairman.

Dale B. Brown, Windom, and Michael R. Mendenhall, Wichita, received the $1,600, four-year awards on the basis of examinations, interviews, and the recommendations of high school officials.

The scholarships were established by the late Walter H. Beech, founder of the Beech Aircraft Co., for the purpose of stimulating student interest in the Aeronautical Engineering profession.

Brown is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver J. Brown, Windom. He was a finalist in the recent National Merit Scholarships Contests.

Mendenhall is a senior at East High School and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray T. Mendenhall, 1627 Greenwood. His interest in gas-powered model airplanes was the inspiration toward the aeronautical engineering profession.

'58 Directory Of BA Grads Now Available

A directory of the 1958 graduates of the College of Business Administration and Industry is now available for distribution to business and industrial firms.

The directory was prepared by the Alpha Kappa Psi, professional commerce and business administration fraternity. The directory contains the pictures and pertinent information of the 56 Business Administration graduates.

This is the fourth consecutive year the directory has been published by the College of Business Administration and Industry. It is dedicated to O. A. Sutton, Wichita industrialist and financier, who is the 1958 honorary member of Alpha Kappa Psi.

Pictures of the College of Business Administration's faculty and two summaries of the College by Dean Jack Heysinger, and Fran Jabara, deputy counsellor of Alpha Kappa Psi, will also be included in the directory.

Mikrokosmos staff member. Copies of this year's Mikrokosmos are available in Rm. 209, Fiske Hall to students who signed up in Morrison Library.

Group Plans Mag Issues

An organizational meeting will be held today for students interested in participating in the publication of Mikrokosmos, the campus literary magazine.

The meeting is scheduled for 2 p.m., in the Fine Arts Center reception room.

Two issues of Mikrokosmos are being planned for next year, according to George Van Arsdale,

Spanish Dept Plans Movie for May 2

"Bullfight," a film sponsored by the Spanish department will be shown at 8:30 p.m. May 2 in the Fine Arts Center Auditorium.

The movie stars three bullfighters, Manolete, Belmonte, and Luis Miguel Dominguin. Student tickets are 25 cents and may be obtained in the Spanish office, Rm. 214, Jardine Hall, Mrs. Dorothy Gardner, assistant professor of Spanish, said.
