can with me for the remainder of the term.

I will send you samples of printing which should be duplicated in our new Catalogue. Last year's type was old & poor & must not be repeated this year.

Don't give the job to Funk. See - put to superintend the work as it goes thro' the press, & cannot work with it. I don't care who else has it.

I think we had best appoint a new instructor in Maths, who can also take part of the Greek, leaving Chase's name on Cata.

I have two or three excellent candidates, Methodists.

I am glad to learn, thro' neither by you nor by Holmes, that the Ed. Soc. money did reach you. I ought to receive fr. H. immediate notice of all receipts. It would save embarrassment at this end of the line.

Don't be discouraged because Maj.
