the matter, it looks like Lingo was amusing himself throwing at the telegraph wires to make them ring, or just idly throwing stones in that direction. I feel satisfied he had no intention of breaking anything.

He is the man who made the complaint a few weeks ago against Yardmaster Boregard of Las Cascadas for ordering his engine out with the driver brakes out out. I interviewed Boregard concerning this matter and he stated that, "while Lingo tried to throw it into him, yet he entertained no hard feeling, as he considered him a big overgrown boy, and would like to see him retain his position.

Respectfully,

Inspector.
