WICHITA, KANSAS,

Feb 18

My dear Dr. Morrison: This morning I dashed off a few lines but as I have now more time I will write a little further regarding the Garfield Normal. Of course the bill has not yet passed the house; many say it cannot pass but even if it does we will have to take it just the same. I saw a text of the bill this afternoon—no appropriation is made to begin instruction hence it will not open for two years, at least that is the prediction. I have all the time dreaded the making of Garfield into a Normal but ~~if~~ if so we will have to rustle harder for students. On the other hand if the bill passes quite a number of our friends
