New SGA Officers Sworn In Hippodrome Skits Begin Today With Awards, Revue To Come

By JIM COLLIER
Managing Editor

The 1960-61 Student Government Association made a rather stormy, but nonetheless harmonious exit from the campus political picture at its final meeting Tuesday night.

With the new Congress making up a formidable audience—waiting to be sworn in as the new student leaders, the still empowered SGA debated for nearly a half hour on what should be done about "certain" ultra-conservative groups that are infringing on, or challenging academic freedom on the University campus.

Arguments were touched off after Rep. Terry Covacevich read the following resolution:

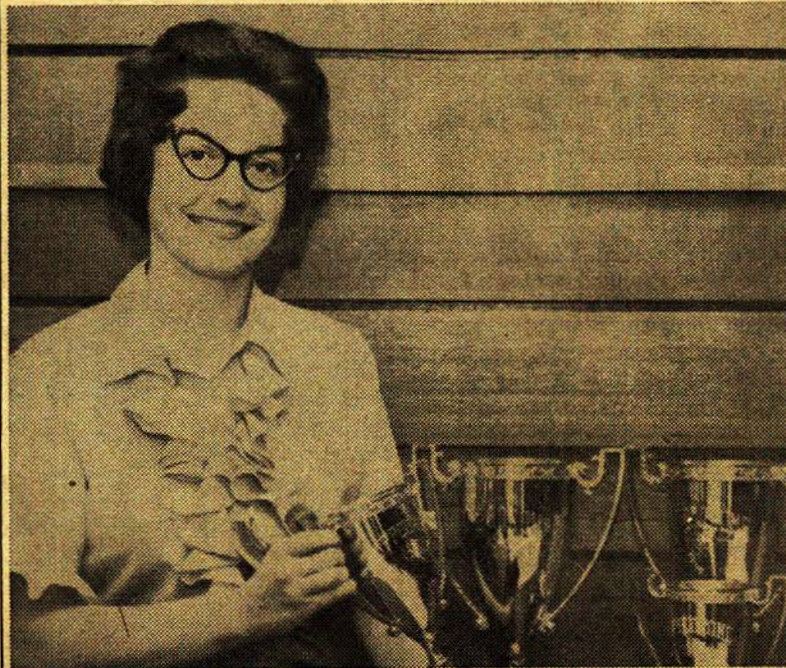

"The actions of certain extremist groups on both the local and national level has led us to the following resolution. Resolved: That we, the representatives of the Student Government Association, reaffirm our interest in maintaining academic freedom on the campus of the University of Wichita, an interest which is grounded in our firm belief that academic freedom is as much the students' right to subject ideas to the tests of reason as it is the right of the professor to search for truth wherever this may lead him. Indeed, we believe that higher education should be viewed as a partnership of faculty and students pursuing a common endeavor, and one that is unobtainable without maximum freedom of expression. Be it further resolved that we the representatives of the Student Government Association make it known that we will not stand idly by if any serious challenge to academic freedom is forthcoming."

Administration Silent

Miss Covacevich said she had no concrete evidence of "the actions of certain extremist groups on the local (campus) level" because, as she said: "The administration wouldn't give out with any information."

The resolution was directed at the John Birch Society but Miss

LINDA McFARLAND, general secretary for Hippodrome, sits next to the highly sought after Hippodrome trophies. Trophies will be presented to the first and second-place winners in the men's and women's divisions. In the independent competition, cash prizes will be awarded. The festivities will begin today at 8:30 a.m. ending with the Saturday Night Revue tomorrow night. Bob Hunt, recently elected SGA vice-president, is serving as general Hippodrome chairman this year.

Charley's Aunt

Unique 'In the Round' Stage Highlights Final Production

Spring is the season when college students all over the nation traditionally enter into a phase of phone booth stuffing and bed-rolling silliness. This spring is being ushered into the University by a drama department production of "Charley's Aunt."

In a season marked by productions of the best of Tennessee Williams and Sean O'Casey, the year's final stage presentation is the best (and the only) of a little-known playwright named Brandon Thomas. A perennial favorite, "Charley's Aunt" has been playing constantly since its debut 70 years ago.

It has appeared in movie and television form, as well as on the stage, in both straight and musical versions, and featuring such actors as Jack Benny, Art Carney, and Ray Bolger.

The University's production is unusual because of the fact that it is being staged in the round. According to Paul McKee of the speech department, "Charley's Aunt" has been done in the round by a University group only one other time, at the University of Washington in Seattle.

McKee extended an invitation to literary classicists on campus to see "Charley's Aunt" ... "based on the premise that they, too, can have fun."

Arthur Hoare, Retired Math Prof, Dies

Dr. Arthur J. Hoare, 83, retired mathematics professor, died Sunday, April 28, in a local hospital after serving the University for 38 years.

Dean Hoare, born in England, studied in this country and came to Fairmount College in September of 1906 as professor of mathematics and surveying. Dr. Hoare was named registrar in 1907 and appointed dean in 1911, serving for 11 years. He was interim president of the College for seven months in 1914.

In 1919, he lost all but three per cent of his sight, but was determined to continue at the college. He resumed a complete teaching program in mathematics in 1922, becoming head of that department until 1938. He retired at 67 years old in 1944.

A memorial scholarship fund has been established in his name at the University.

12 Presentations Top Festivities for May Day

Hippodrome opened today at 8:30 a.m. bringing to an end months of preparation by campus fraternities, sororities, and independent groups.

The May Day festivities, presented annually by students, will end tomorrow night with the Saturday Night Revue. For the Revue, the top skits from each division will be presented again and the winners will be announced.

Individual skits will be presented today from 8:30 a.m. until about 5 p.m., with a total of 12 skits planned by various groups.

Trophies will be presented tomorrow night to the top two presentations in the fraternity and sorority divisions with money prizes going to the independent division. Checks of $25 and $15 will be given for the first and second place skits in this competition.

The master of ceremonies of this morning's presentations is Henry Hall, Liberal Arts senior. For the afternoon, Howard Solomon, Liberal Arts graduate, will conduct the program.

Judges for Hippodrome this year are Haig Kurdian, from Kurdian Art Gallery; Dave Schneider, KARD-TV; Vann Jones, Midwest Kansas Federal Savings and Loan Association; Ken Hadwiger, University speech instructor; and Richard Welsbacher, instructor in English. They will rate the various skits on a point system, according to Bob Hunt, general Hippodrome chairman.

The schedule of events for Hippodrome is as follows:

- 8:30—9 a.m.—"Battle Cry," Delta Gamma
- 9:10—9:40 a.m.—"1961-1962 Season on TV," KMUW-FM
- 9:50—10:20 a.m.—"Spy or Counterspy," Beta Theta Pi
- 10:30—11 a.m.—Dan Tontz's Combo
- 11:10—11:40 a.m.—"Harem Scarem," or "A Veil's Tale," Alpha Phi
- 11:50—12:20 p.m.—"Spinsterella," W.C. Enterprises
- 12:20—1:30 p.m.—break for lunch
- 1:30—2 p.m.—"Homecoming, 1968," Delta Upsilon
- 2:10—2:40 p.m.—"The Three Musketeers," Phi Delta Theta
- 2:50—3:20 p.m.—Orchesis
- 3:30—4 p.m.—"Health's Half Acher," Gamma Phi Beta
- 4:10—4:40 p.m.—"Once Upon a Beanstalk," or "In Good King Harry's Golden Days," Sigma Phi Epsilon
- 4:50—5:20—"Our Fair WUshock," Delta Delta Delta.

The activities will continue this evening with the traditional May Pole winding to be held on the Commons lawn at 7:15 p.m. A program will follow in the Commons Auditorium in honor of Myrna Schenck, May Queen. The program will be closed Friday night by the Mortar Board tapping.

Woody Thompson, SGA president, will crown the May Queen and conduct the ceremonies for the evening.

The Saturday Night Revue will begin at 7:30 in the Commons Auditorium.

May 12 'Interfest' Opening Features Exhibits, 16 Booths

"Interfest," an International Festival, will begin at 7 p.m., Friday, May 12. Sponsored by the Wichita International Association, it will be held in DeMattias Hall on the campus of Sacred Heart College. The festival will end at 6 p.m., Sunday, May 14.

Sixteen countries will display booths depicting scenes from their various cities and countrysides. The participants include Holland, Japan, Indonesia, India, Greece, Viet-Nam, Iraq, Iran, Nigeria, Canada, Mexico, Brazil, England, Germany, France, and the U.S.A.

In addition to booths, an exhibition of traditional and classical art which will feature sculpture, handicrafts, and paintings from various lands will be presented.

A variety show representing classical songs, dances, and drama of the countries around the world will highlight the "Interfest."

Fred Van Soest, chairman of the festival committee, said the purpose of the "Interfest" is to bring together diverse nationalities which reside in Kansas and to promote world understanding through an exchange of ideas and customs.

The project is being staged on a non-profit basis.

WU Regents Promote 12

At the recent Board of Regents meeting, 12 faculty members were promoted.

Richard H. Homburger, associate professor of accounting, was given the status of professor.

Asst. Prof. Robert Ryan, economics; B. Bernard Cohen, English; James Ruoff, English; Brigitta Kuhn, French and German; David Farnsworth, political science; John Johnson, Jr., chemistry; and Joshua Missal, music theory; were promoted to the rank of associate professors.

Four instructors were given the positions of assistant professors. They were Bruce Cutler, English; Russel Dybdahl, documents librarian; Kenneth Hadwiger, speech; and John Sabus, men's physical education.

THE NEW REGIME—Student Court justice, John Songer, swore in the SGA Executive Council at the Tuesday night meeting of SGA. Next year's Council is Joan Sipes, treasurer; Bob Hunt, vice-president; Woody Thompson, president; and Sharon Richardson, secretary.

Traditionally Speaking

Hats off to Hippodrome, 1961. Greeks and independents alike have been priming for the traditional spring walkout for weeks. Today the secrets will be revealed.

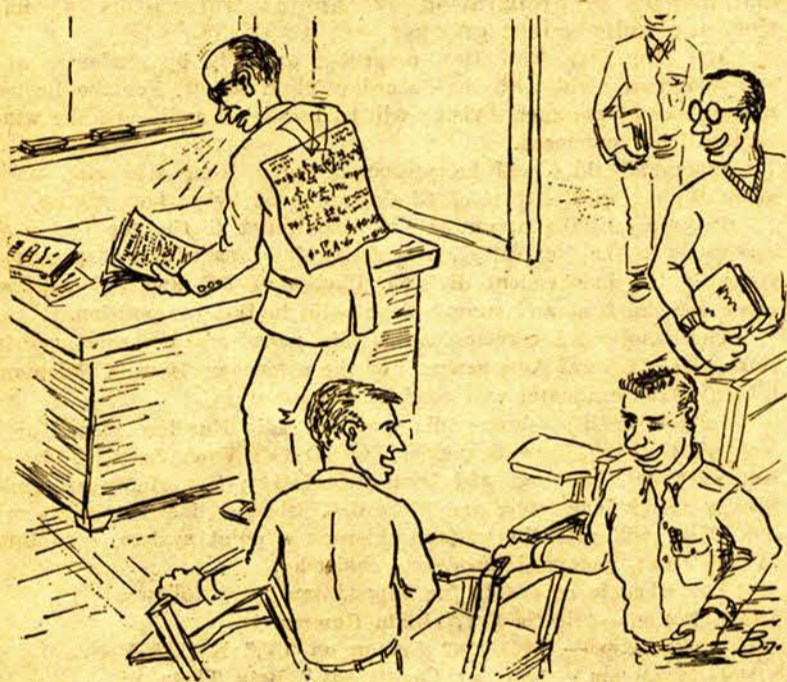

Satire, melodrama, and talent in general will keynote the campus. The satires especially have become popular during the past few years with a number of them slated for today's festivities. State aid, the John Birch Society, and the current national situation are but a few topics which will receive the "critical once-over."

It will no doubt prove to be a gruelling day for the master of ceremonies whose job it is to fill in between skits. His jokes may be stale and twice-told, but he'll earn his money. Unsung heroes back stage will coordinate lighting, sound, and set up quantities of scenery.

Laughter, excitement, and anxiety will fill the annual May Day celebration as awards are handed out, new Mortar Board members are tapped, and the May Queen is crowned.

Monday the campus pace will slow down once again. Skit participants can resume a regular class attendance schedule and costumes can be packed away for another year.

The fling will end—and finals will beckon.

"... and move those chairs apart. There will be absolutely no cribbing on this Exam!"

As An Outsider

By RON SMITH

In case you haven't noticed, the plethora of advertising which inundates the wary reader each week has finally reduced my column to the size of a medium sized body pore.

From where I sit at the top of this page I can look down at the many inherent virtues which are implied by each square of this subliminal embroglio which has completely replaced the good old time, newspaper. (I have no idea what a good, old-fashioned newspaper is, but I am willing for comments from the readers).

Now I fully realize that advertising is the bread of life for the newspapers, and therefore, I feel that any space which can be used to make money rather than friends, is indeed well-used.

I can tell that the column which I had prepared for this week discussing the relative merits of Hippodrome would have been cut mercilessly and therefore I have chosen to merely insert these cursory, cryptic thoughts. Besides, almost everyone who reads this today will be a little "happy" anyway. And so it goes, as I sit here discussing with my comrades of the fourth estate, cheerfully discarding inches of my column, that I address these thoughts to you.

The comments that I had made in the column which is not being printed today because of the infiltration of advertising (pause for a breather) are summed up in a little pamphlet which can be procured from the manager of Hippodrome, entitled, "My Three Months With Hippodrome and How They Grew," or "Till Death Do Us Part."

(In case you are wondering why the above sentence is so long, it is to fool the little pixies who cut my column.)

Why are some girls prouder of their rings than others?

You see it in her eyes—but the reasons aren't all romantic ones. Her diamond ring is an Artcarved. This means it meets rigid standards of excellence in cut, carat weight, color and clarity.

Nor is this simply a verbal promise. Artcarved's written guarantee explains how the exclusive Permanent Value Plan lets you apply the full current retail price toward the purchase of a larger Artcarved anytime, at any Artcarved jeweler throughout the country. You will be proud, too, of Artcarved's award-winning styling, like the Evening Star shown here. Grid Scrimmage Slated for Tomorrow

A full slate of practice sessions were scheduled for this week in preparation for another full-scale spring football scrimmage to be held tomorrow afternoon in Veterans Field. Starting time is scheduled for 1:30 p.m. The Shocker football Gold Unit, sparked by sophomore halfback Al LeBlanc and Alfred Cole, put on an impressive performance in a hard-hitting scrimmage last Saturday in Veterans Field. The scrimmage tomorrow will show added polish to Coach Hank Foldberg's charges.

Before a turnout of over 200 spectators, LeBlanc, a 187-pound speedster from Beaumont, Texas, broke loose on scoring runs of 30 and 37 yards.

Cole ran eight yards for one TD and helped set-up another when he grabbed a pass from quarterback Bill Stagarone at the 10-yard line and carried it to the two-yard line.

Three more touchdowns were scored during the afternoon with Gold and Red Units taking turns at hitting the third and fourth squads.

Sophomore end Leonard Clark of Lawrence got away for the longest scoring jaunt of the afternoon with a 71-yard return of a pass interception.

A ROBE BY ANY OTHER NAME

As Commencement Day draws near, the question on everyone's lips is: "How did the different disciplines come to be marked by academic robes with hoods of different colors?" Everybody—but everybody—is asking it. I mean I haven't been able to walk ten feet on any campus in America without somebody grabs my elbow and says, "How did the different disciplines come to be marked by academic robes with hoods of different colors, hey?"

This, I must say, is not the usual question asked by collegians who grab my elbow. Usually they say, "Hey, Shorty, got a Marlboro?" And this is right and proper. After all, are they not collegians, and, therefore, the nation's leaders in intelligence and discernment? And do not intelligence and discernment demand the tastiest in tobacco flavor and smoking pleasure? And does not Marlboro deliver a flavor that is uniquely mellow, a selectrate filter that is easy drawing, a pack that is soft, a box that is hard? You know it!

But I digress. Back to the colored hoods of academic robes. A doctor of philosophy wears blue, a doctor of medicine wears green, a master of arts wears white, a doctor of humanities wears crimson, a master of library science wears lemon yellow. Why? Why, for example, should a master of library science wear lemon yellow?

Well sir, to answer this vexing question, we must go back to March 29, 1844. On that date the first public library in the United States was established by Ulric Sigafos. All of Mr. Sigafos's neighbors were of course wildly grateful—all, that is, except Wrex Todhunter.

Mr. Todhunter had hated Mr. Sigafos since 1822 when both men had wooed the beautiful Melanie Zitt and Melanie had chosen Mr. Sigafos because she was mad for dancing and Mr. Sigafos knew all the latest steps, like the Missouri Compromise Mambo, the Shay's Rebellion Schottische, and the James K. Polk Polka, while Mr. Todhunter, alas, could not dance at all owing to a wound he had received at the Battle of New Orleans. (He was struck by a falling praline.)

Consumed with jealousy at the success of Mr. Sigafos's library, Mr. Todhunter resolved to open a competing library. This he did, but he lured not a single patron away from Mr. Sigafos. "What has Mr. Sigafos got that I haven't got?" Mr. Todhunter kept asking himself, and finally the answer came to him: books.

So Mr. Todhunter stocked his library with lots of dandy books and soon he was doing more business than his hated rival. But Mr. Sigafos struck back. To regain his clientele, he began serving tea free of charge at his library every afternoon. Thereupon, Mr. Todhunter, not to be outdone, began serving tea with sugar. Thereupon, Mr. Sigafos began serving tea with sugar and cream. Thereupon, Mr. Todhunter began serving tea with sugar and cream and lemon.

This, of course, clinched the victory for Mr. Todhunter because he had the only lemon tree in town—in fact, in the entire state of North Dakota—and since that day lemon yellow has of course been the color on the academic robes of library science.

(Incidentally, the defeated Mr. Sigafos packed up his library and moved to California where, alas, he failed once more. There were, to be sure, plenty of lemons to serve with his tea, but, alas, there was no cream because the cow was not introduced to California until 1931 by John Wayne.)

New SGA Officers Sworn In During Tuesday Meeting

Covacevich said that it wasn't necessary to specifically name that group since there are other anti-communist forces directing a major portion of their propaganda at our institutions of higher learning.

Several Congressmen wanted to know why the resolution wasn't directed at the Birchers since the original resolution, introduced at the previous SGA meeting, did specifically name that group.

The first resolution, which called for the actual condemnation of the Society, was referred to a rewrite committee headed by Miss Covacevich.

Resolution Approved

However the resolution in its present form got the unanimous approval of the Congress, a motion was passed to set up a committee in the new SGA to study the areas in which the Birchers are challenging academic freedom, if in any.

In other business Bob Cressler, chairman of the Fact Finding and Investigation Committee, recommended that the judicial body of the SGA, the Student Court, be given more emphasis so to increase its scope of power and effectiveness. His report and recommendations were also met with favor by the Congress.

to raise a family...
the choicest spot on earth is SOUTHEAST KANSAS

Of all locations in the world to raise a family, which would you find most nearly ideal? Obviously it would be in America—since you'd want your sons and daughters to be U. S. Citizens. Probably at the center of the nation, where American virtues and advantages stand in their best balance. Midway between east and west, north and south. You'd want a region neither old and tired, nor so new it's still raw. One well settled, yet with elbow-room and a bright future. One with ample and varied natural resources, good farm lands, and lively industry and commerce. Not in a traffic-jammed and smog-choked metropolis. You'd want a healthful, invigorating climate, with pure fresh air and four true seasons; excellent schools and cultural facilities; and ample opportunities for wholesome family fun and recreation. You'd want an environment nearly free from crime and juvenile delinquency. You'd want good neighbors who'd be your kind of people—the kind your own children might some day marry. All that you would want is, in short, exactly what you now have. For it is the good fortune of us all to make our homes in Southeast Kansas—Focal Point of the finest spot on earth to raise a family.

SOUTHEAST KANSAS FOCAL POINT, U.S.A.

A human interest story about one of your neighbors: "Bobby's eyes really lighted up. He's my nephew, lives in a big Eastern city. Can you imagine? He's never played catch on the lawn or helped hoe a garden. Never been fishing with a cane pole and a dog at his side. Never visited a real farm, rode a pony in a wooded pasture or saw a watermelon patch. He had a field day while he stayed with us out here. And we learned something, too. We learned to appreciate the room to live, the rural atmosphere we have in Kansas, the good schools, churches, neighbors who are our kind of people. Wonderful place to raise a family."
