MINUTES OF COMMITTEE ON COMMITTEES MEETING

December 18, 1969

Members Present: Bernard, Graham, Sowards, Snyder

Members Absent: Pate

The Committee on Committees of the University Senate met on December 18, 1969, and took the following actions:

1. A list of committee replacements which needs to be made for the 1970-71 school term was determined.
2. There was a discussion on the committee's recommendations concerning the Student Publications Committee, and it was decided to invite Dr. Breazeale to speak to the committee in January or February, 1970, concerning his feelings toward the Student Publications Committee.
3. There was a discussion of what the committee should recommend with regard to the creation of a Senate committee that would compliment the President's new Planning Committees. The committee decided to invite Dr. Nelson to speak to the committee regarding this subject.
4. Finally, the committee discussed the possibility of recommending that an ex-officio position for Director of Planning be added to the Curriculum Committee. No action was taken at this time.
