Allen moved that the President be authorized to enter into a contract with Major Wehrle for the period of one year at $750 per month, with the understanding that the contract should contain the provision that President Cessna should have the right, upon thirty days notice by either party, to cancel and terminate the contract, whenever in his conviction that the services of Mr. Wehrle were not satisfactory. In reference to Mr. Wehrle's statement that he desired to buy some stock in the company, the President^{was} directed that no provision in the contract should involve the company in any stock transaction. The motion was seconded by Mr. Harrison and carried unanimously.

After other informal discussion, the meeting was adjourned.

M. T. Hargiss, Sec'y.
Treas.
