Tirana, Albania

May 5, 1939.

Mr. Sotir Kondi,
Consulate General of Albania,
New York, N.Y.

Dear Mr. Kondi:

I have received your letter of April 16, 1939, in which you express appreciation of the cablegram which was sent to you in reply to your cablegram making inquiry concerning your family as the result of the crisis in Albania.

I wish to assure you that it was a genuine pleasure to cooperate with you in this matter and it is my sincere hope that you are enjoying your visit in the United States.

With kind regards, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Hugh G. Grant.
Minister of the United States of America.
