My dear Mother,

Your letter with news papers clipping at hand a couple of days ago.

I had already read about that girl in the St. Louis papers. It is the most wonderful thing I ever heard of. I read the notices you sent of her and I'll send them back in this letter.

There is nothing new to write about so I'll make this short. You write me often for I expect you have more time to write than I do.

My I don't think Jim is
