Last week, + afternoon full course Jerome wrote him about a meeting of the Board early in Jan. at Wickford. He in fact first proposed the meeting & promised to attend, & now intimates that he will give to work for the College. He talks more as a Trustee ought to talk than I am recently accustomed to.

Hyson writes me a receipt of his address me at Crawford House, Boston. I shall be there before I start West.

Cordially

W. H. Morrison.
