CRAWFORD HOUSE,

EUROPEAN PLAN

SCOLLAY SQUARE, BOSTON.

HENRY GOODWIN GEO. H. RIMBACH

We should scale down again if we expect to succeed with Parsons. I do not fail to recognize the spirit of sacrifice which has characterized all the teachers all along. They have done more in this direction than any one had the right to expect: I have never seen it equaled since the early days of Olivet College.

I would that we might find another way. Personally I would like once more to be able to buy a new suit of broadcloth, go to meeting in clothing; do something to support my family and be able again to hold up my head as a man among men. But to secure Parsons' gift - and the triumphant life of the College, I am willing to surrender all back sal.
