PERSONAL

24th November 1942.

My dear Rachel,

Thank you for your letter. I am so glad to know about the Free Siamese; I am sure they will be splendidly looked after by your husband and you.

It is so good of you to suggest sending me eating apples. I am not sure that it would not border on American political practices if I were to accept! But, in fact, most of my family have apple trees, and keep me very well supplied, so I think I ought ~~not~~, in the public interest, to say that yours should go to destinations where they are rarer; thank you so much all the same.

Yours ever,

Philip Noel Baker
