Students Are Objects Of Political Vote-Bait

Government Aid Potent Factor In Determination Of College Students Preference

University students throughout the country will play a major part in the presidential election of 1936. About one-fourth of the members of the national collegiate enrollment list are of voting age. Exponents and opponents of the New Deal will find vociferous supporters in college students. Political leaders in both parties realize these facts, and they are doing their best to capitalize on them.

NYA Assists Play Tells Of 128 Shockers

New Plan Offers Aid In Wide Variety Of Fields

Every month the University will receive an allotment of $1,920 as its quota to aid the 128 National Youth Administration members. If You Want To Be Prexy, Prof or Dean, Get a Motto

Browsing around through the offices in the Administration Building and looking over the different accessories kept by the professors on their desks proves to be a jaunt that is not only enjoyable but also a good character study. Strolling into Dean L. Helkhus' office one eyes have often found a neat little motto on his desk which isn't easily forgotten. "The better the excuse, the poorer the reason." This is an old motto for a number of years. And it seems to get a great deal deeper than just an excuse for an absence.

Dance Plans Are Revealed By Officers

Honorary Colonel Is To Be Presented To Corps

Plans for one of the biggest military balls ever to be held at the University of Wichita have reached completion this week. Presentation of Miss Loneta Brown, who was chosen as honorary colonel a short time ago, will mark the high point in the evening's entertainment, November 22, at the Henrion Gymnasium. Presentation will be different this year from the form of preceding years. This will take place in the women's gym. John Ahlf will be the officer in charge, and Edwin Miller, Adjutant. They will take their places in the center of the gymnasium. On the north side officers in charge of companies will be stationed. On the south side of the room eight men will be stationed. These will be Maurice Dyer, Edwin Francis, Harry Gaines, John Hans, William Kinder, Roscoe Smith, Loren Steiner, and Loy Wood, who will be in charge. Stepping forward, these eight will form a saber arch under which Miss Brown and Gene Wolts, her escort, will enter.

Alphabet Contagion Drifts In From NRA To Blanket Chemists

Yielding to the contagious influence of the brain trust's abuse of the alphabet, Dr. Lloyd McKinley gave a speech at a dinner of the Optimist Club yesterday in which a review of recent chemical developments was arranged so as to fit the ABC's. The uniquely planned speech had as its title, "Chemistry vs. The Depression," and had to do with the startling developments in chemistry since that year of blackest financial gloom, 1931. It seems that chemistry has made unusually great strides in the last four years, perhaps because the paralysis of business has encouraged scientists to devote more time to research.

Replica of Large Ship Is Displayed For French Group

Phi Sigs Will Have Annual Rabbit Hunt

Passengers numbering 2000, and a crew of 1300, would be rather too much for the replica of the S. S. Normandie, now on display in the French department of the University, but, nevertheless, this is the number the ship itself is able to carry. It is, as everyone knows, the largest ship afloat. If it were tipped end to end beside the R. C. A. Building in Rockefeller Center, it would tower over the top floor of that building by 175 feet.

Freshmen Promise To Show Yellowdog Group Much Spirit

"We are not thru—we have just begun to fight!" These are the cries of swarming freshmen as they flee from the Yellowdogs' wrath. "What the Italians are to us, the Yellowdogs are to us. They have everything on their side—organization, equipment, and resources. But we will fight back. We will make a guerrilla warfare that the leaders of the lowest classed freshmen will be unable to meet." "Our sense of fair play has been disturbed, and sooner or later we will take action on the usurpers of our positions," John Stanley Keller, one of the intrepid freshmen leaders ventured.

Debate Group To Elect Head

All Debaters Are Eligible To Membership

Election of officers will be held and plans discussed for the new debate organization tonight at the weekly meeting of the debaters of the University. This newly organized group, as described by Frank Malone, prominent in forensic affairs of the University, will be open to all those interested in debating. It differs in this respect, he says, from Phi Kappa Delta, national forensic society, because in the latter certain requirements must be fulfilled before one may become a member.

American People Owe Rogers Unpayable Debt for Humor

Will Rogers exemplified the true American tradition of humor. He was the cultural heir of Abraham Lincoln, Mark Twain, and a dozen other great hearted and smiling Americans.

American humor is characterized by kindness, exaggeration, and common sense. We are a nation of absurdities but we have the good sportsmanship to laugh even at our often ridiculous selves.

Leading Nations Wonder About Dividends Paid by Sanctions

Sanctions mean war! This has come to be the watchword of the great world powers in the Italo-Ethiopian struggle.

Various dates have been suggested as the deadline which all League states must make in applying sanctions.

Realizing the power they hold over that organization, which cannot work with them nor without them, these three would do well to go slow in agreeing to any sanctions which are acknowledged as paying such poor dividends.

Delay in Preparation Is Blamed For More Than Half of Failures

It's easy to put off studying now and plan to catch up later, but when one faces the fact which Dean Hekhuis reports, that more than fifty per cent of the student failures are due to neglect of daily lessons.

The student who brings in assignments the last week creates the same effect as a reporter who brings in a story of a crime several days after it has happened.

The world is large when weary leagues two loving hearts divide but the world is small when your enemy is loose on the other side.—John O'Reilly.

Short Pants

Conducted by LOY WOOD

Price stunt: Troy Stewart boarded a crowded bus that other evening and had to stand. Spying a fellow inmate acquaintance, he jumped an armload of books into her lap, and she obligingly held them for him.

A headline written by Soc. Ed. Betty Copeland in last week's Sunflower reads, "It takes low heels to get dates this season."

If the wearing of the green is really going to promote a feeling of class unity among the freshmen, how's about a manifestation of it in freshman support of the freshman football team.

And this Yellowdog business—such tripe has no legitimate place in a modern educational system such as we have here at the University of Wichita.

Faculty tales: Professor Croft should learn to observe facts. Persistent reports come that he frequently late to class, keeping his students waiting, not anxiously, for several minutes before he deigns to put in an appearance.

And: Professor Slevers, says a reliable informant, has been arrested six times for traffic violations since his arrival here not so long ago.

And: Hugo (his wife says he has no middle name) Wall has shaved!

Has anyone a 1936 calendar with good-sized numerals which he is willing to donate to the Brig? Don't everyone speak at once.

Next week the column (if I still live) will carry a list of license numbers and names of campus parking regulations violators.

Lost: A brown pebbled leather key container and seven keys. Finder please call 3-5635 or 4-0001 and earn the everlasting gratitude of yours truly.

An attractive little Pi Kap pledge confided that the honorable Pi Kap actives deserve the royal razzaple for their silly behavior subsequent to the pledge walkout the other night.

Collegiate World

By Associated Collegiate Press We trust you give appropriate thanks. National style barons, says a news item, have "granted" college girls one special concession which their less educated sisters may not enjoy.

There are two, and just two, reasons why freshmen flunk out of college—says Dr. L. L. Click of the University of Texas.

1. Either freshmen get too scared of their studies. 2. Or they don't get scared enough and go to sleep.

Along with every other profession, the profession of being a college student is overworked, says no less an authority than the New York Times, after a survey of 67 colleges and universities.

The surveyor makes the assertion that only 30 per cent of young college men and women are capable of thinking for themselves, which means that the other 70 per cent are just being "carried along."

Brightlight from the columnist in the paper at the University of Illinois: "Sing Sing ought to get a game with Army to prove that the pen is mightier than the sword."

An enterprising professor at Northwestern University put a list of questions with suggested answers before a large group of high school and delinquent boys. To the question, "Which is the most serious offense?" most of the boys answered, "Stealing your mother's wrist watch to pawn it."

For the workless college student in the world we maintain a certain Junior at Miami University. This man is carrying 20 study hours a week and auditing one course. To support himself he works 50 hours a month on the N.Y.A., is an assistant in the physics department, grades papers for the mathematics department and works from seven to midnight every day in the office of a taxi company!

After an egg-laying contest in the city the paper at Michigan State carried the following headline: EGGSELENT EGGSPPOSITION EGGSEEDS EGGSPERATIONS EGGSTRAORDINARY HENS EGGSTEND THEMSELVES—(The editor's excuse, we presume, was that the writer's brains were scrambled.)

One of the most intelligently edited and scholarly written publications in the field of youth is the "Reformatory Philat", a three column, eight page weekly published by inmates of a boys' reformatory in Minnesota.

It is quiet and conservative; even the humor column is rather reserved. The movie reviews are really critical. Much space is devoted to sports, of course, but just as much to European diplomacy. Permit us to quote two paragraphs from the editor's personal column and if they don't tie a sudden knot in your throat, your shell is very hard.

"We thought our worries would be over when our parole was granted. Now we find they're just begun. Principal one among them is Old Man Depression, who, the getting older and feebler, is we are told, still around shaking a threatening case. However, we think he's just a bogey-man.

Help Is Given Chest Workers Shockers Join Others in Big Drive

More than two hundred University students swarmed over Wichita yesterday in a last-day "round-up" drive to boost the Community Chest over its goal of $228,000 as school officials and student leaders joined forces to stage the demonstration in co-operation with Chest officials.

Plotting the city into sections, battalions of students sought to pledge both housewives and merchants to contribute "a penny a day" as their share in the drive.

The drive was backed by the Blue Key, women's and men's Pan-Hellenic, Greeks, non-Greeks, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Pi Kappa Delta, and the Student Council.

Wormer Speaks To Club on Advertising

W. J. Van Wormer was speaker at the regular meeting of the Business Club of the University Wednesday evening, November 6, in room 328, Administration Building.

Mr. Van Wormer, who is advertising manager of the McCormick-Armstrong Press, spoke to the club on the subject of "Advertising." He brought out by illustration the psychology of display, headline making, and other things concerning the printing of a paper.

Sepmeyer's Article On German Author-Poet Is Published

Outstanding recognition has been given to Professor Kurt A. Sepmeyer, German professor at the University of Wichita, in a current issue of Monatshefte fur Deutsche Unterricht, national publication for German teachers. The publication carried an article by Professor Sepmeyer on the distinguished German author and poet, Erwin Guido Koldenheyer.

Koldenheyer is little known in this country, but in Germany and Europe he is quite well known. He was born in Budapest in 1878 and received his education at the University of Vienna, where he graduated in 1904 with a degree in psychology. After graduation he decided on a literary career.

Some of this author's best dramatic works are to be presented in the United States in the near future. It is the opinion of Professor Sepmeyer that Koldenheyer "breaks with the mere rationalism of the 19th century and holds forth a new idealism and a new form of thinking."

College Society Hears Glockler

Dr. George Glockler of the University of Minnesota addressed the Wichita section of the American Chemical Society in the chemistry lecture room of Science Hall Wednesday night.

The subject of Dr. Glockler's speech concerned the modern conceptions of the nature of the molecule. In recent years much chemical and physical research has been done on this question, and opinions have undergone much change.

The Wichita division of the American Chemical Society is not a University organization, alone. It takes in members of Friends' faculty and student body, and many industrial and research scientists of Wichita.

Wilson Speaks on Crime Abolition To Police Science Class

If crime is to be minimized and done away with, the attitude of the public toward crime, criminals, and the police department must be changed, O. W. Wilson, Wichita police chief, told the police science class at the University recently.

The cadets were also reminded that they were employees of the public and therefore must apply themselves to their studies the same as the men in either West Point or Annapolis do.

"In my opinion, too much attention has been given to heredity; inferior mentality does not mean a man must and will be a criminal," said Chief Wilson.

Chief Wilson pointed out that the average mental rating of a cross section of prison inmates is no lower than that of a cross section of those outside of jail; hence crime is caused by attitudes and not always by mental inferiority.

W. U. To Aid Rogers Fund

Memorial Drive To Have Counterpart On Campus

Dr. W. M. Jardine, president of the University, expressed his desire early this week that the student body work out a campaign of their own to raise money for the Will Rogers Memorial Fund.

In carrying out the wish of President Jardine, plans are being made by several members of the student body, and later developments will be announced through The Sunflower. It has been definitely decided that the drive will be worked out on a class basis and not through campus organizations.

A nation-wide Rogers Memorial Drive with headquarters at New York is being launched. President Jardine has been appointed chairman of the committee working in Wichita and surrounding territories.

The object of this campaign is to get as many people as possible to contribute something, rather than to ask individuals to give great amounts. Even a contribution of a penny will bring one knowledge that he has helped to erect this memorial honoring a great man.

The form of the memorial has not yet been decided upon and will be considered thoroughly upon the amount raised throughout the country, but the national committee has pledged itself not to erect a cold, lifeless memorial of marble in commemoration of Will Rogers.

It will be some form of a living, continuing memorial erected to honor the educational, friendly, charitable, and humanitarian traits of the man we all loved.

Editors Vote For Roosevelt

President Roosevelt will be re-elected in 1936 if editors of college yearbooks, magazines, and newspapers have their way, according to a poll conducted by "Pulse," a new magazine of public opinion.

Of the 612 returning ballots, 408 were for Roosevelt, 52 for William E. Borah, 29 for Frank Knox, 23 for Herbert Hoover, and 22 for Alf M. Landon. A. H. Vandenberg received eight votes; Carter Glass four, and Albert Ritchie, Al Smith, and John S. Winant, three each.

Two votes each were cast for Newton D. Baker, Earl Browder, Harry F. Myrd, L. J. Dickinson, R. M. LaFollette, Jr., Charles A. Lindbergh, Gerald P. Nye, and William H. Aldrich, R. I. Calaway, Henry Ford, William Z. Foster, Glenn Frank, John N. Garner, Walter W. Head, Adolph Hitler, Harold Hoffman, Robert Hutchins, Harold L. Ickes, George Lorimer, Frank Lowden, Charles McNary, Ogden Mills, Harry Nice, Floyd Olson, Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Upson Sineclair, F. E. Townsend, and Owen D. Young had one supporter each.

Three hundred and eighty-six of the voters claimed the Democratic party, 183 1/2 were Republican, 45 Socialist, 20 1/2 Independent, 10 1/2 Communist, and 1 1/2 believed in dividing their vote.

STUDENT Opinion

The Sunflower invites persons to express their opinions in this column which does not necessarily reflect the opinion of The Sunflower. Articles reading 150 words in length are best to read.

I would like to criticize Elizabeth Caswell's stand as a scientific objector, as expressed in the Sunflower's student opinion column last week.

If Miss Caswell would carry stand as conscientious objector logical extreme she would refuse to pay taxes, a large percentage of which are used for war and purposes, and she would work the overthrow of the United States, which supports an army in preparation for future wars.

Much can be done to eliminate war through legitimate channels. The profits can be taken out of Honest Journalism can participate with war-scare publishers, tell the truth about international relations. School teachers and story texts can show that self-sacrificing heroes and thinkers are stripped of its tawdry glow shown as a shameful and morose thing.

This is a slow method in years of education and reform in the long run it is safer than the calm. Radicalism in this regard done little but create thoughtful liberal action has brought about the progress of civilization.

However, I think Miss Caswell should be commended for an able, thoughtful, well-written letter. To think and speak about evil is the first step in eradicating them.—MARK CLUTE

Military Ball Is Anticipated

Colorful Event Bears Out Military Atmosphere In Decorations

Always prominent on the campus social calendar, the Military Ball promises to be the most brilliant affair of its kind ever staged.

At the intermission in a gymnasium resplendent with the national colors, red, white, and blue, a saber arch, commanded by Cadet Lieutenant Loy Wood, will be formed on the south, in front of which will stand Commanding Officer John Ahlf, Honorary Colonel Loneta Brown, and her escort, Cadet Lieutenant Eugene Woltz. Facing them from the north will be the troops of the nine cadet lieutenants in charge. At this time the Honorary Colonel will be presented and will receive the troops, for which the R. O. T. C. band will play. The trombone quartet, composed of Ralph Burford, Hobley West, Don Enoch, and Thornton Isley will play "The Lady in Red."

Invitations will be issued to the officers and cadet corps at the University of Kansas, Kansas State College, and Iowa State College, to the National Guard Officers, and the Organized Reserve Officers, to the regular army officers detailed in surrounding cities, to the faculty, to the Board of Regents, and to a list of businessmen selected by Dr. W. M. Jardine.

The two orchestras, Verne Nydiger's and Harold Newman's, each to be composed of twelve pieces will play for the ball.

Football Team Honored at Dinner

Miss Jessamine Onstott, left, is in charge of the arrangements for the dinner to be given by Alpha Tau Sigma sorority this evening in honor of the University football team. Miss Onstott is being assisted by Miss Frances Campbell. The dinner is an annual affair to which members of the school team are invited.

Why Co-eds Assume The Latest Fashion Whims

What determines whether our coeds will appear next week with their hair all combed to one side of the head, or whether it will be combed straight forward, strikingly concealing the eyes?

Is it the piping of a few fashion authorities from Paris; or is it Miss Van-thor or Mrs. Vander-that who lead their ugly mits down New York's Park Avenue? Then again maybe it's Miss Alpha Tau or Miss Pi Kap.

For every person watching Mrs. Such-and-so or listening to authorities of Paris, thousands are rushing to the movies to see if Joan Crawford is combing her hair this month. Never before in history have so many females been influenced as the American maidens have been by their dream-darlings of the screen.

Pictures of movie favorites and their new hats, dresses, or eye-brow-arch nearly crowd all the war and murder stories off the front page.

Let us give a few examples of Hollywood's influence. Take the case of Mary Pickford's lovely long curls, which she hung out to for professional purposes. Suddenly, without a word of warning, she had them whacked off! The first snip of the scissors was of world-wide consequence. Thousands of grandmothers, and even great-grandmothers, picked up their skirts and galloped to the nearest barber. The barber trade went on a boom.

Then came "chuncky" Clara Bow with great quantities of flaxen red hair. Suddenly all of our college coeds' hair looked very much like frayed and ruffled dumst-ps.

Clara's "Pumpkin Era" gave away to the "Living Skeleton Era." American girls refused to eat! They became masses of bruises from rolling all over the bedroom floor while the radio screamed with its early morning exercises.

But—hurrah for Mae West! She saved America's female population from starvation. Women lived again! After Mae's first picture, thousands of girls decided they liked the taste of food. Have you noticed around the campus—girls are getting plumper?

Why did thousands of brown and black heads turn white almost overnight? Was it from worry? Indeed! All the coeds were worrying about how to keep the boy friend from falling in love with Jean Harlow. Beauty operators were kept busy removing color from all types of hair.

Remember when Joan Crawford first appeared with her eyebrows reaching the top of her forehead? Galloping eyebrows immediately became the craze. Everybody tried to look exotic.

Thank goodness! At last, Dietrich didn't succeed with her attempt on our womanhood. She utterly failed to put our young women in trousers! We have noticed several of our university girls, however, at the football games in riding habits minus their horses.

No article would be complete without mention of the great "mystery woman" of the screen, Greta Garbo. When the Great appeared in raved suits, ancient shapeless felt hats, and runover, flat-heeled oxford shoes, half of our university girls looked like a mob of Harvard freshmen.

Look around! See what tricks of dress, facial expressions, and odd coiffures are sweeping the college sororities at the moment. Without a doubt a little further research will reveal a new cinema dream-girl as the influence.

Three Men on a Mike To Sing at Y. W. Meet

Selections by the "Three Men on a Mike," a men's trio composed of Ray Spodgrass, Bob Dey, and Bill Wood, and a book review, "Good Men, Chippies," by Mrs. H. A. Allison, will feature next week's Y. W. C. A. program.

Following the main program, the club will be divided into four committees, namely, the New Citizenship, Harmonious Living, Creative Culture, and Philosophy of Life. During the year, these committees will be called upon for programs on their particular theme. The objective of this system is to find new talent among the club members and to give every girl an active part. This plan was suggested by Miss Stella Seurlock, regional secretary of the Y. W. C. A., during her recent visit to the University campus.

The recognition service and membership tea originally scheduled for this week has been postponed until November 27 because of the Community Chest drive. The committee in charge of the service is composed of the following: Miss Mary Cies, tea; Miss Margaret Branson, room decorations, and Miss Ruth Garvey, recognition ceremony.

Honor Teams Include Five Shocker Men

Wichita Places Three Players on First Eleven

Some sports writers will think it a bit premature to announce an all-conference team so soon, but since the Shockers have finished their conference competition and by the accounts of the games played by the other conference teams—the selections have been made with much thought and study devoted to the placement of the players.

Fort Hays State Lands Four Berths

Fort Hays State leads the parade with four members on the mythical eleven. Wichita lands three berths while Pittsburg and Emporia divide the honors on the remaining positions with two each. Southwestern failed to place a single man on the first team but does have two on the second team, however.

The men selected were judged on their ability to play football. Aggressiveness, knowledge of the game, and ability to execute the plays were the factors used in selecting the men to their respective positions.

Ends on the all conference team are Nye of Wichita and Reissig of Fort Hays. Both of these men play hard fast football and have been the main springs in the defensive play of both clubs.

On the offensive line, Dugan of Emporia and Ed Bender of Fort Hays. These two men are large and fast and are plenty tough to get through.

Nylce of Pittsburg and McKee of Fort Hays rate the guard positions on the first string. Both men were mentioned as all conference material in last year's selections and have proved to be worthy of the honorable rating of the conference team this season.

Dugan Captains and Center There is no doubt as to whom is the best center in the conference. Dugan of Wichita is head and shoulders above all conference competition for this berth. Dugan rated first call on the all conference team last year and he has displayed a better brand of ball this year than he has ever played before. Dugan also rates the captaincy of the eleven.

For the backfield positions, the four outstanding men were picked regardless of the positions they play in the backfield of their various clubs. The conference produced many good backs this year and the choice was close as to who would get the coveted positions.

Frale of Emporia and Brill of Wichita rate two of the positions with Stubb of Fort Hays and Killian of Pittsburg getting the other two posts. Fraley was selected for his ball totting ability and his punting. Brill is a triple threat man with his passing, kicking and running attack. Stubb and Killian are easily the outstanding ground gainers for their respective teams.

In the second team backfield we find Palmer of Hays, DeHoff of Wichita, Crooms of Emporia and Urban of Southwestern. Ends on the second string are Gruber of Fort Hays and Roberts of Pittsburg. B. Strube of Emporia and Helser of Wichita make the tackles for the number two team. At guards Drelling and Yane receive the call. Drelling is from Hays and Yane is a Gorilla from Pittsburg. Baltzell is the center for the second team.

'B' Squad Wins Over Sterling

Walker Tallies for 18 Shocker Points

A fighting "B" eleven scored 30 points in a walkway in Shocker Stadium here last Saturday. Starting early in the first period Wichita scored two touchdowns and from then on it was a Shocker game.

Walker made three of the touchdowns to make him high scorer of the game. Recovering a Sterling fumble on the 21 yard line, Schlott-thauer went off tackle in a long run to put the ball on Sterling's 1 yard line. The first touchdown was scored immediately after when Walker plunged thru center for the points.

Almost immediately Wichita scored again. A march to Sterling's 24 and a long pass Parshall to Johnson again put Wichita in scoring position. After two tries that proved unsuccessful Walker went around left end to make his second touchdown of the afternoon.

Sterling while presenting poor offense, did better on defensive plays. During the whole game they made but two first downs to twelve for the freshmen. Both of these were made by pass.

Wells, Shocker half back, went over early in the second period for the third touchdown. An attempt to kick out of danger was blocked and Wichita covering the ball started another march that ended in a score.

Neither team could score in the third period but in the fourth it was Walker again who scored. After Nash had intercepted a pass, deep in the Sterling territory.

'Beer Keg' Battle Thanksgiving Morn

The Greeks so-called "Battle of the Century," between Men of Webster and the Alpha Gamma Gamma fraternities is scheduled to be played, according to tradition, on the morning of Thanksgiving Day, November 29, for the honor of the "Beer Keg."

Led by Leon Watkins, Roland Skinner and Tom Tatlock, the Websterites are bent on recapturing the famed keg, which was lost to the Alpha Gams by a crushing defeat last year for the first time in seven years. The score of last year's conflict was 25 to 0 in favor of the Alpha Gams. The Websterites are placing much faith on the fact that five of their new pledges were awarded letters for football while in high school.

As a nucleus for their team the Alpha Gamma Gamma fraternity will have Charles Kinley, William Elder and Harold Hurl, all of whom scored in last year's overwhelming defeat of the Websterites. The Gamma are pre-game favorites due to their superior numbers and the additional weight of their eleven.
