will help on the ten thousand.

Ben McLean as good as promised to give one hundred if the bill passed; several others have promised the same. So the question has its fright side.

Holmes and I were out on the canvass this afternoon - we made several calls. Mr. Goldsmith will probably give $100. Holmes thinks Darling will raise his subscription ~~to $200~~ owing from $100 to $200 owing to Mr. Gould's hostility to our College. The Gould matter has got into a snarl. Gould agreed with a committee of the trustees of the Plymouth Church that he would resign the 1st of Feb but up to date he has not done so. It seems some members of the Church have it in their heads that the Fairmount
