ARTHUR STODDARD COOLEY, Ph. D.

387 Central Street,

Auburndale, Mass., Dec. 17, 1907.

Pres. Henry E. Thayer,

Wichita, Kan.

My dear Mr. Thayer:-

As you suggested, I wrote Professor Kingsbury regarding a lecture at Wichita. He has written me that he is unable to undertake the matter, though glad to cooperate with others. I have written Miss Mollie Warren asking her to see what can be done, and hope that it is not too late now to arrange for the lecture. The date would be between the 3rd and the 6th of January; and I thought that all the educational institutions in Wichita might combine and the lecture be given at the Plymouth Church, <sup>as</sup> a more central point. I am very desirous to visit the college at this time, and wish to arrange the lecture partly to meet the expenses of the trip from Chicago.
