Dear Doctor: -

We have heard nothing from you with respect to the $1000 that we were to get on the 1st of May. We are having a good deal of difficulty in completing the $10,000 as we have exhausted all the large givers and the small ones think we can complete it without their aid. There are several claims that will be put in suit in a few days unless something is done. I have told them that we were certain of the $1000 even if it took few days to complete the $10,000 and they now want to know if both of the sources of the money are going to fail. Let me hear at once.

Yours truly,

R. L. Holmes
