New York, Aug. 27 1894

Dear Mr. Sibly:

Yours of 23rd is just at hand. Sorry for the wind storm & for the needed outlay for repairs, but, of course, it had to be done.

All shipments of books are ordered by me in writing & are sent via Frisco line. But I can't be present when shipments are made by contributors to compel them to put that label on the cases.

I do not forget bill for Cats. In fact I remember a good many more bills than I can, by working seven days in the week & all the weeks in the year, provide the means for paying.

We are not likely to have many more books sent us, at present.
