Feb. 12, 1904,

Dear Prof. Isely; Yours of the 8th is just in. I think you are in error as to the infrequency of my letters. I am quite sure I have written to you every time I have received a letter or a note from you. I wrote you last Monday. I am very glad to hear so good a report as to Mr. Solandt. He has written me two or three times respecting the future. Apparently he wants to work into the Department of Philosophy as a permanent position. I do not feel that he is the man for that work. He has not had the modern training needed, & does not, I think, possess the intellectual
