As is the usual custom, next year's members of Blue Key were notified of their selection by being called to their respective classes and in the organization's emblem of oak.

"I am confident that the list we have unanimously selected will carry on the ideals and aims of the Key," Elder Gunter, president.

PECULATORS CUT WHEAT PRICE AS PROSPECTS WANE

Recasted Estimate of 1938 Yield Too High, Says Jardine

Brain gamblers of the nation are daily cutting the price of United States wheat, when conditions in the field warrant conservative estimates on the year's output, it was stated by Dr. W. M. Jardine, president of the University and former secretary of agriculture.

"There is not so much wheat in prospect now as two weeks ago," the farm expert declared. "More danger is evident from the growth going too rank than from drought."

Chicago prognosticators have been predicting a yield of 750 to 800 million bushels of wheat in the United States this year," he said. "All have underestimated the outlook."

In another 15 days, according to Jardine, the grain may be so rank that it will be tumbling over. Farmers will be forced to cut their yields.

ISLEY SPEAKS ON 'READING MENUS'

Librarian Tells Importance Of Books in Home

Emphasizing the need of good children's books in the home, Alice M. Isley, reference librarian, addressed the home administration class of Grace Wilkie, dean of women. The title of her subject was "Budgeting for Books and Magazines in the Home."

"It is as necessary to provide a budget for reading material as it is for food," said Miss Isley, "and the reading menu should be just as well-balanced."

Miss Isley also made suggestions that would be useful in buying books for home and school when there is only a limited amount of money to be spent.

'ORCHIDS TO YOU' HONORS PALMER

Speech Science Lab Given Recognition on Radio

"Orchids to You," popular radio program heard over a local station last week saluted the department of speech science and the Flo Brown Memorial Clinic. The staff, through Dr. Martin F. Palmer, was presented an orchid for community service.

The speech science department has had international recognition as a leader in the field. Dr. Palmer, head of the department, is recognized as one of the foremost figures in the nation in the field of research in speech correction.

His connection with the Wichita laboratory is largely responsible for the increasing importance of the speech science department here.

Others must be employed to fill the vacancies of Frank R. Hickey, former assistant professor of education, who is now in Cleveland, and Carl D. England, assistant professor of speech who is to teach at Purdue next year.

Probably other teachers will be added, although the president did not indicate what departments would receive the additions. He promised to disclose further information after returning from the Easter holidays, at which time he intends to begin work in that regard. The budget will also receive consideration in a short time.

Election Will Be Held Tomorrow Morning at Rotunda; Dramatics and Student Forum Will Profit if Measure Is Approved; Two-thirds Vote Necessary for Passage

Organizations Guarantee Finer Performances if Bill Passes

Figures on the present financial situation of the dramatics department and Student Forum have been obtained by the Sunflower for the information of voters who will have an opportunity to make use of them in tomorrow's election.

The primary results of an increase, insofar as the dramatics department is concerned, is to lessen the price of plays and other productions per person, and at the same time allow all students to attend every performance. At the same time plans would permit the department to enjoy box office receipts from persons other than students.

Allocations of funds to the department are divided approximately one-third to the debate section and the remainder to dramatic enterprises. With passage of the ticket addition the department would continue to receive a total of $2,100, but the box office amount would be extra.

$2,100 Available Now
At present $2,100 is being received, according to Eugene Spangler, assistant in the department, but the source has been as follows: Activity ticket, $700; box office, $700; Board of Regents appropriation (out of school fund) $700.

With the ticket increase the income from the first two items would merge into a guaranteed $1,400 from the activity ticket. The University appropriation would remain the same, for the present at least. The foreseen increase would be paid by audiences from off the campus.

Although Prof. George Wilner, head of the dramatics department, explained instructors had taken no part in procuring added funds, he

At least three new instructors will be employed in the near future for the coming year, it was revealed this week by President W. M. Jardine.

Intramural Fee Is Found To Go for Other Things

Checkup Reveals That Evidently Student Levy Is Paying Costs Not Indicated

By Sam Smith

THAT students are paying in part for upkeep and maintenance of University gymnastic activities, under guise of the intramural fee on the activity ticket, was the substance of information ferreted out here over a period of several weeks.

Students contribute approximately $2,500 per year for a cause designated on their activity tickets as an intramural fee. In other words, each person enrolled is required, as an enrollment prerequisite, to pay the sum of $1 each semester for the opportunity of participating in intramural sports—or such is the inference made on the ticket.

Consult Business Office
Consultation with the business office reveals that the proceeds from this levy are dumped into a general fund, from which all appropriations are ultimately made. From this monetary pool, composed of all University revenues, it is further disclosed that about $5,000 is drawn for the explicit use of the various physical education facilities.

A total of $1,650 was requested by and granted to Dr. Lawrence Rarick, assistant professor in men's physical education, for the use of his department during the current school year. In his budget he placed $700 aside for the purpose of meeting operating expenses. This includes all sports equipment and incidental

MANY WEEKLIES TO TAKE PART IN ANNUAL CONTEST

University Invites 300 Publishers to Enter in Competition

Invitations have been extended to more than 300 Kansas weekly newspapers to enter the fifth annual Kansas Weekly Newspaper Contest which is sponsored by the University Journalism department, and entries are coming in rapidly, according to Prof. Leo W. Allman, head of the department.

The contest is open to any commercial weekly newspaper published in Kansas. Last year's competition was won by the Belleville Telescope. Three copies published consecutively and preferably from the time the contest opens, are required of each contestant for entrance.

Formerly the papers were judged as one unit, but under a new policy set up only this year, towns under 1,500 and those over 1,500 population will be judged separately. One trophy cup will be donated by the Wichita Chamber of Commerce and the other will come from the University department of journalism.

The entries are judged on the basis of the quality of news writing, editing, editorials and features, news coverage and make-up. The deadline for entries has been set at April 30.

Judges, which have not yet been named, will be chosen from prominent Wichita newspapermen whose decisions will be final.

STUDENTS PLAN MAY 1 PROGRAM

Forty Students Included in Dancing Section

That the program for the May Fete to be held May 6, this year, will be the most ambitious and beautiful this part of the country has ever witnessed, was reported by Miss Gladys Taggart, director of women's physical education.

Forty student members of a modern dance group, including Orchidists, will present Tschalkowski's Sixth Symphony for one part of the program, which follows the coronation of the queen and chancellor.

The production committee for the May Fete includes Gladys Taggart, Evelyn Hinton, Hildegarde Lewis, Mrs. Alice Campbell Wrigley, Eugene Spangler, Maj. Walter J. Duerksen, Prof. Harry K. Lamont, John M. Gaddis, E. A. Welsh, and others, to be named at a later date.

Most of the regular staff will be on hand as well as visiting instructors, some of whom are W. A. Bonwell, principal of Robinson Intermediate; Mary Elizabeth Hector, instructor of physical education at Ames, Iowa.

Paul Lovelace, principal of elementary schools at Scott City and vice-president of the Kansas State Teachers Association; Susan Baxter Pittman, supervisor of music in Sedgewick county; and Claude Klisch, superintendent of schools at Wellington.

The pictures were produced jointly by Professor Johnson and Prof. Schlessinger also of Chicago.

Measure Is Divided Into Two Sections; Kinsey Urges Large Vote

Students of the University will voice their opinion tomorrow on an intended addition to the student activity ticket at polls located beneath the rotunda in the Administration Building.

They will have the option of voting for or against two measures—the addition of 30 cents per semester for the dramatics department and the addition of 25 cents for the Student Forum. If both proposals pass it will mean a total increase of 55 cents to the present price of the ticket.

In placing the issue directly before the voters of the school the Student Council stressed the fact that a two-thirds majority of those voting will be required before the addition will go into effect. Freshmen, sophomores, and juniors are especially urged to visit the polls, because they will be the group that benefits or loses by the election.

Wants Large Vote
"We want as many students out as possible," Charles Kinsey, president of the council explained. "We think they should feel it their own responsibility to make the decision. The returns should reflect the view of the student body."

The increased proceeds are expected by proponents of the issue to make the dramatics department and Student Forum independent of circumstances that often hamper the presentation of programs. The two recipients will be assured of operating funds.

Unit Cost Lower
Those attending performances would be able to view every production at a unit cost much lower than has been charged. By the added price attached to tickets, all students would be admitted to these activities upon presentation of their semester ticket.

The election, recently approved by the Board of Regents, was devised by the council to discover whether popular opinion backed the idea.

SOPHOMORES ARE LAUNCHING DRIVE FOR CLASS DUES

Crosswhite Is in Charge; Collection Provides Reserve Fund

Sophomore officers and council members this week began a drive for class dues of 45 cents, agreed upon at a class meeting two weeks ago. Sophomore treasurer, Clyde Crosswhite, has charge of the collection.

"The small assessment imposed on each sophomore," said President Sidney Martin, "will provide a reserve fund that may be used whenever it is found necessary. Then, too, it will lessen the contribution made when the graduating class leaves its traditional gift."

Sophomore council members will assist in the collection. A desk for this purpose will be established on the first floor of the Administration Building.

Avanelle Clark, Stanley Hamilton, Jeanne Lewis, Jane Schintler, Edmund Jacoby, Lewis Beldon, Bob Greider, Margaret Craig, Margot Cloutier, Sam Smith, Ross Dennison, Dick McPherson, Fredene Goldstein, Jack Jackson, and Martha Barrett will assist the treasurer.

Good Books Are Cure for Spring Fever Epidemic

SPRING fever may be manifested by students on the campus in various and sundry ways, but there's no better way to spend a lazy afternoon than reading a good book—one that will suit your mood. And Morrison Library is stocking up on reading material of all sorts that will please the most particular persons.

Camera fields will be interested in a new book by Deakin entitled "Making Pictures with Miniature Cameras," and potential architects will enjoy Mumford's "Sticks and Stones," a critical survey of modern architecture. "General Principles of Play Direction" by Brown is now available to those interested in the theater.

For the more scientifically-minded students, the new edition of the "Smithsonian Scientific Series," a set of twelve volumes dealing with various phases of science and beautifully illustrated, can now be checked out for a two-week period. The section on minerals will be especially valuable to geology students.

In the realm of fiction, there is the best-seller, "Of Mice and Men" by John Steinbeck, author of the popular "Tortilla Flat." Also available is the new and unabridged play of Noel Coward, "Tonight at 8.15."

EXTENSION DIVISION DEANS HOLD MEETING

Dean Earl K. Hillbrand, of the Extension Division, represented the University at a state meeting of the Deans of Extension Divisions at the University of Kansas, Friday, April 1.

Six schools were represented including Manhattan, Emporia, University of Kansas, Pittsburg, Hays, and the University of Wichita.

Dean Hillbrand also attended the annual Spring Educational Conference Saturday, April 2, at Lawrence. Theme of the conference was "Improvement in Elementary Education." The chief out-of-state speaker was Dr. William C. Bagley, of Columbia University.

JOHNSON WILL SHOW PICTURES ON CAMPUS

Talking pictures depicting phases of chemistry, physiology, and physics will be shown on the campus Friday afternoon by Prof. Warren C. Johnson, member of the University of Chicago faculty.

The pictures were produced jointly by Professor Johnson and Prof. Schlessinger also of Chicago.

STUDENTS IN NYA SAID INCREASING WITH RECESSION Allocation Was Reduced One Third at First Of Fiscal Year

By Marvin Cox WASHINGTON, D. C.—(AP)—The growing "Recession" is having an important and unfortunate effect upon young people, many of whom are college students.

In recent weeks large numbers of boys and girls and young men and young women have been certified to local units of the National Youth Administration for federal assistance.

The NYA, however, operating under a reduced budget, is in no position to care for the additional load it is called upon to carry. Its allocation was reduced about one third for the current fiscal year and now the need among young people is growing greater with each passing day.

Want More Money NYA officials will seek an additional allotment from the $250,000,000 deficiency appropriation for which the President asked Congress this week.

Need Increases There is a possibility that a small additional amount will be allocated to the NYA to inaugurate new work projects for young people who are in need.

Any way, with the need for student aid growing greater daily, the NYA has no funds to meet the increased demand.

DUERKSEN TALKS FOR MUSIC MEET

Band Director Reports On Survey of Degrees

That 38.7 per cent of the band directors in Universities of America have no degrees, was brought out by Mr. Walter Duersen, University band director, at St. Louis, Mo., recently at a meeting of the National Music Educators Association.

Of the band directors, Mr. Duersen told the group, "eight-tenths of 1 per cent have doctor's degrees; 27 per cent have master's degrees; 32.5 have bachelor's degrees; 38.7 per cent have no degrees, and 10.6 percent teach other academic subjects in addition to their directing."

The survey was made last summer by Mr. Duersen as part of the work on his master's degree, which he received from the Northwestern School of Music. He was assisted in gathering and classifying his material by Gene Klingberg, Ed Ransom, and Warren Perreau.

the Last Add

By Kathleen Hite

THE Kansas players gave an excellent rendition of "Winterset." The play is a powerful one and should doubtless be difficult for college players to interpret. But those who sat in the Auditorium last Saturday night saw no amateur production. Rolla Nuckles as "Mio" was everything advance reports said he'd be and noticeable similar to Burgess Meredith. Alpha Perry's characterization of "Trook" was superb. And a whole flock of adjectives are due those persons who played "Miriamme," "Oath," and "Judge Gaunt." The settings were fine and added their share of atmosphere to an already stirring drama.

A lady behind me worked herself up into an awful state because she felt that the Wichita audience was not giving a very enthusiastic reception to the K. U. players. At first she contented herself by merely expressing her opinion in a loud voice between scenes. When she found that such action served only to amuse those who could not help hearing her, she took to writing notes which she passed around at random. They were of a threatening nature, these notes. I quote, "If somebody doesn't help me applaud the next act I'm going to start screaming. From one who appreciates the show." And those who read it were affected in but one way—they ruined the last act by her adolescent bickering. The wa audiences receive a performance is usually their own choice, you'll find.

THE Hippodrome was better than usual. And usually it's mighty near perfect. Everything seemed more interesting and clever and goodnatured—and just everything that makes a show of that nature successful. The continuity that ran between the skits was particularly smart and amusing—better by far than the usual slap-stick. The innovation of the evening was George Batka's impersonation of Dr. Jardine. We've run out of the better adjectives, so we'll just say it was swell and we'll do a "Liberty" and give you four stars. The show in the gym kept the carnival spirit at a high pitch. And the skits—well they were awfully good—and I'm not prejudiced, either—all of them were.

Perhaps the purpose of the Hippodrome has been somewhat overlooked. It's to make money, remember? Well that's what Ed Blood, the mighty mite of Phi Sig, thought. And that's what he secret for years, now and the lodge came out slightly above the red after a tight fight.

IT IS THE ambition of every columnist and sometimes in moments of fantastic flattery I call myself that to attract the attention of "those higher up" in some way or another. And this week I got a letter from President Jardine. Besides being a personal compliment, the note contained some information. It bears an April 1 date—but I doubt that the president was joking.

I noticed in your column, in this week's Sunflower, you seemed to be laboring under the impression that the use to which the activity fee is put is a secret. I didn't know that the purpose and distribution of the activity fee was regarded as a secret. You wished to know exactly what the present fee was expended for. I am enclosing a statement of same for your information.

A lot of comment has arisen about the management of the Hippodrome in general. It looked as much as if Y. W. sponsored the whole thing—with only four Y. M. members helping at the carnival. But Y. M. will share in half of the profits—which should be a neat figure. It is not to speak well for an organization which has been recognized for years as a model for other groups to follow. But congrats to the girls.

Schooler Explains Forum's Standing On the other hand, Stan Schooler, treasurer of the Student Forum, in a financial report submitted to the Sunflower, revealed that the Forum organization possesses at this time a deficit of $42.08, after President Jardine tendered a check of $50 to relieve the original loss of $92.08.

The Student Council had also previously appropriated $100 for the furtherance of the University discussion program. The greatest part of the other income was derived from the sale of tickets. These totaled $446.50. 213 students purchased season tickets for the talks. Possibly less than 25 students purchased single admission—entrancess for each performance.

If tomorrow's election is in favor of the Forum Mr. Schooler declared that a loan would be obtained with the promised sum as collateral. Another means of raising the money must be used, should the vote turn the other way.

FRENCH PLAY IS ANNOUNCED, CAST

May 9 Is Date Set; Music Is on Program

Production of the annual French Club play "L'Anigals Tel Qu'on Le Parle"—a one-act comedy by Bernard, has been started and the cast has been announced by Miss Jacquetta Downing, head of the French department.

The play will be presented Monday, May 9 at 7:30 at the recreation room of the David Jackson home, 1501 Fairmont, and will take the place of the regular Monday night meeting.

Preceding the play several French musical selections will be presented by students. Refreshments will be served during the evening.

INTRAMURAL FEE

$450 to Student Aid Student assistance required another $450. Boys, who issue towels and perform similar duties received this amount. Then as a part of the gymnasium, the remaining $500 was allotted to the task of equipping the building with permanent playing fixtures. After the above funds had been authorized, it was deemed necessary to offer another $100 for a swimming team.

The women's athletic department is favored with two separate grants, totaling $1,250 per year. The first of these, $500, is used for the purpose of intramurals and women's athletic teams, according to Gladys Taggart, director of the department.

Council Gives $25 Trophies, memberships in organizations and expenses incurred on trips are some of the needs this fund satisfies. (While $50 is permitted the rifle team for each trip made, it was found necessary for the Student Council to appropriate $25 for the recent Kemper journey.)

The other $750 at the disposal of the women's department is essentially a maintenance fund. This year for the first time it does not include first aid supplies, which are now purchased through use of the hospitalization fee.

Plan Gym Changes The business office recognizes the payment of $650 for physical examination of University students. It also revealed that $1,500 will be used to extend the facilities of the new, larger Henrion gymnasium. This is, of course in addition to the $500 included in the men's athletic budget for capital expenditures on the building.

Apart from the fee imposed on the activity ticket, another $2 is included in the gymnasium enrollment setup; usually half of this is returned at the end of the semester, and the remainder is retained for the replacement of locks and maintenance of lockers used for gym classes. Students not participating in regular classes are expected to furnish their own towels regardless of the $2 paid annually for an intramural fee.

Juniors, Seniors Pay Opinion is rampant as to the appropriateness of the title "senior" and intramural fee, which is paid, not alone by students enrolled in gymnasium classes, but by juniors, seniors, and R. O. T. C. members who fail to realize any return from their annual payment unless they attend gym classes or enter intramural activities.

Some would even go so far as to protest a proposed addition to the activity ticket for the dramatics department, student forum, and debate team on the ground that a portion of the already mentioned fee does not directly benefit them, and that this portion could well be transferred to the proposed increase.

Once Parnassus Fee Officials explain that if the levy were not made in the form of an intramural fee, which is a development of what was once the Parnassus fee, and which once fulfilled a myriad of other assessments, another charge under a different name would be attached to the ticket. Thus students would be paying, as they seemingly are, for the operation of the various gym classes of the University, with the exception of coaches' salaries which are treated as those of any other faculty member.

FIGURES REVEALED (Continued from Page 1) expressed the opinion the money, of which they would be assured, could be efficiently used in presenting more desirable plays.

He said the present equipment limited them to relatively simple work.

Schooler Explains Forum's Standing On the other hand, Stan Schooler, treasurer of the Student Forum, in a financial report submitted to the Sunflower, revealed that the Forum organization possesses at this time a deficit of $42.08, after President Jardine tendered a check of $50 to relieve the original loss of $92.08.

The Student Council had also previously appropriated $100 for the furtherance of the University discussion program. The greatest part of the other income was derived from the sale of tickets. These totaled $446.50. 213 students purchased season tickets for the talks. Possibly less than 25 students purchased single admission—entrancess for each performance.

If tomorrow's election is in favor of the Forum Mr. Schooler declared that a loan would be obtained with the promised sum as collateral. Another means of raising the money must be used, should the vote turn the other way.

Collegiate World

(By Associated Collegiate Press) The secretary of this department who has charge of things statistical has just completed his yearly survey of new collegiate organizations, and makes the following report of undergraduate institutions that have been chartered in the last month:

- 1. Future Slackers of America, founded by Lehigh University undergraduates who believe there can be no war if nobody attends.
- 2. Anti-Corsage League—place of founding is undetermined, but it has chapters on countless campuses.
- 3. Shirley Temple Club, founded at Yale University by admirers of the famed child movie star.
- 4. Woman Haters' League, founded at Haverford College to give students more time for study during examination periods.
- 5. Organized Cassanovas of America, inaugurated at University of Wichita with no plan of action but a contemplated parody of European politics.

Review

By Edith Foth Melodrama in the modern manner, as performed by the University of Kansas Players, last Saturday was shown in Maxwell Anderson's "Winterset."

Of convincing realism, despite dramatic flaws in the play, was the struggle of the boy Mio to clear his executed father of guilt in a payroll murder. It presents a plea to prevent such tragic errors as Anderson believed was made in the old Sacco-Vanzetti trial.

Characterizations by the entire cast were remarkably real, offsetting the plot improbabilities. The broken-minded judge's fluttering hands, Mio's bitter levity, old before his time, Miriamme's child-like loyalty, and Edras' sage comments are especially memorable.

At times Maxwell Anderson's poetry on the lips of the well-trained actors lost all meaning in the beauty of sound, especially rhythmic in Mio's interpretation of his lines.

The Kansas troupe missed no overtone of the play, either as a crusade for justice or as a thrilling gangster drama.

4 BIG DAYS

Student Opinion

PRO PART of every college student's education—if it's to be a real education—must consist of seeing and hearing distinguished men whose experience and observations are bigger and broader than the campus.

The world is becoming so complex and so involved that these contacts are necessary, if one is to avoid closing up like a hermit.

We are always being told that today's youth must rule tomorrow's world. Just off hand, the job looks so big that the more we can know about it the better.

So the Student Forum. The little it costs—a pack of cigarettes and a couple of cokes—each semester is nothing compared to its value and benefits.

Since it can't be turned down on the basis of cost, there is nothing on earth to defeat it—except ignorance of its value and purpose.

It has only started, yet it has brought to the campus men whose reputation and prestige it can be expected to do much more in the future.

Let's support the Student Forum.—W. A. L.

CON

During the past year there was regular support for the Student Forum from less than 250 students of the University. The voting tomorrow proposes to put this forum function on the regular activity ticket. This means that all students of the University will be required to pay for entertainment for less than one-fifth of the total student body.

The student forum even with the aid of $50 from President Jardine and $100 from the Student Council, had a final deficit of $42.08. This organization has not as yet proved itself in local University circles and has not proved that it can stand on its own feet.

Surely if the Students as a group had wanted this institution, they would have supported it better during the past year and would have seen that it went over the top.

Let's all go to the polls tomorrow morning and vote our preference. Then if it is approved, no one will have a right to criticize. If we don't vote our preference, we may find Monday that we are all paying for the desire of a voting minority.—C.E.P.

Grad Gossip

WE HAVE received since notice of dues went out, a number of letters in which certain questions were asked, answers to which, we believe are of interest to a large number of the alumni, for which reason we are preparing this statement.

Referring to the constitution which was adopted in 1927 by the association, Art. 6, Sec. 1, reads as follows: "The dues of this association shall be $1 per year." Sec. 3 states: "Any member who shall be in arrears more than three years shall upon payment of $3 and the current year's dues be considered paid in full to date."

In 1936 at the annual meeting of the association voted, due to the depression, to cancel all arrears of 1935 and prior years. This left all alumni owing 1936 dues and succeeding years. Sec. 3, Art. 6, providing the extent of these arrears.

A small number of the alumni who have written us seem to have the feeling that the $1 dues are for the Sunflower. This is not the case. The Sunflower, being sent to each of the alumni during this year, was just one of the activities of the association which gave direct benefit to each alumni, and the $1 dues, regardless of sending the Sunflower, still remains. It is only possible for the association to continue sending the Sunflower as long as there is sufficient receipts in the treasury in the form of dues each year to meet the cost of the same.

It is my hope that this answers the questions of those who had the idea that we were collecting subscriptions for the Sunflower. It may be that this method of securing funds of a majority of the association and it may be that this should be changed, but the only method by which it can be changed would be a constitutional amendment at a regular meeting of the association.

If it is your opinion that some other method should be used, I am sure the president, Mrs. E. M. Leach, will turn any suggestions over to the constitution committee for presentation at the next regular meeting at graduation time. So, send in your suggestions so the committee can receive them at least three days prior to the meeting.

I hope that I have answered the questions which seemed to be causing the most confusion. Sincerely, PAUL HENRION, Treasurer.

Phi Alpha Pi Have Pajama Parade

Five boys were on the third floor asleep, five boys were on the first floor talking, and one boy was just going to bed when eight engines of the Wichita Fire Department went north on Hillside last Thursday night. Racing to the window one of the boys yelled that there was a big fire in the northwest. So, rushing down two flights of stairs to the first floor, four of the pajama-clad Phi Alpha made for the fire several blocks north on Lorraine. Of the two left on the third floor, one remained in bed while the other, being modest, dressed and then started for the fire. The boys who had been on the first floor went out the door with the boys in bathrobes and house slippers, but soon left those trudging along in house clothes far behind.

SWIMMERS GET SECOND IN CONTEST

Team Ties for Position In Missouri Valley A.A.U. Meet

With each man on the team showing definite promise of improvement with more competition, six University of Wichita swimmers tied for second in the Missouri Valley A. A. U. Swimming and Diving Championships at Kansas City last week-end.

The meet was won by the Kansas City Athletic Club with Wichita tying with Doubt Center for second. Ninety swimmers and divers were entered.

All six members of the local team qualified in the preliminaries Friday night for the finals on Saturday night. The University team scored 12 points. Jackson placed a second in the novice class 100-yard free style.

Garvey and Austin finished third and fourth in the men's 50-yard free style, and Garvey got another third in the 100-yard free style. In both the 300-yard medley and the 400-yard relay, Wichita placed third. Austin, Garvey, Jackson, and Amnden swam the 400-yard relay and Yarnell, Amnden, and Garvey swam the medley.

Dr. Lawrence Barick, who accompanied the team to Kansas City was well pleased with the swimmers' performance. He considered the results as very good in view of the fact that this was the team's first big meet and the first time most of the swimmers had met anything but high school competition.

Herb Schlotthauer, above, is one of the members of the Shocker mile relay team that has been showing speedy time on the track. Schlotthauer also runs the mile for the Varsity.

A bitter cold day and high winds helped discourage near record marks at the special pre-season track meet held here last Friday with Arkansas City Junior College, when the Shockers wrote a 67 1-3 to 54 1-3 victory over the visitors.

LOCAL TRACKMEN WIN FIRST MEET BY CLOSE SCORE

Shockers Down Ark City Jr. College Handily On Local Field

The Wheatshockers rode away with eight firsts to Ark City's six. Christian walked off with top honors in both the 440-yard dash and the 220-yard dash. In the quarter mile he was so far ahead of the field that it was only necessary for him to jog in.

Poor times were registered in the mile when Schlotthauer practically walked away with the event at 5:44.4. Diamond captured both the 100-yard high hurdles and the 220-yard low hurdles.

Farrow, in winning the 100-yard dash at 10.3 pulled a muscle. Because the event was early in the meet the injury kept him from participating in the mile relay and other events. Coach Harry Marr expressed concern as to whether the star dash man would have sufficiently recovered for next Saturday's battle with Sterling.

Cain Brothers Star
Twin negro brothers by the name of Cain, from Ark City dominated the field events. The two tied for first in the high jump at 5 feet 8 inches. Alex Cain, fourth place winner of the decathlon at last year's K. U. Relays, also took the javelin and broad jump. Burford, of W. U. made away with the shot-put.

Results of the first track meet of the year are:

TENNIS MEN WIN IN FIRST GAMES

Varsity Defeats Arkansas City Jr. College

Capturing five of six matches played, the University tennis team, in its first appearance of the season, walked away with the special meet with Arkansas City Junior College held last Friday.

Although the team had not been picked definitely, Coach Harry Marr grasped the opportunity of playing the junior college squad when the school offered to journey here.

In the singles Vic Johnson, letterman, defeated Bill Howard of Ark City 9-7, 8-7, 6-3. Clark Ahlberg, the second of three Shocker lettermen out for the team, won over Dohrer, 6-4, 3-6, and 8-6. Harold Ross, W. U. was victor over Jack Hall, 6-1, 6-1.

V. Johnson and C. Johnson, ace W. U. doubles team, took Courtman and Dohrer 6-1, 6-3.

SOFTBALL ENTRIES TO CLOSE MONDAY

Entries will close Monday for those entering the softball league and the intramural tennis tournaments, Dr. Lawrence Barick, physical education director, announced Tuesday.

Phi Sig will be the defending softball champions, while the tennis tournaments will be new to the spring intramural program.

All plans have not been completed as yet, but will be by the end of the week, Dr. Barick said.

SCHOOL GOLFERS TO LEAVE FRIDAY FOR TWO MEETS

Turner, Price, Buser, and Armour To Comprise Local Squad

Four University golfers left this morning for Oklahoma City where they will meet strong teams tomorrow afternoon from the University of Oklahoma and the University of Oklahoma City.

The local team, composed of Dick Price, Julian Buser, Ed Turner, and Jim Armour, hope to avenge the smashing defeat they met at the hands of the Sooners last Saturday. They will play O. U. Thursday afternoon for the third time in two years.

"We expect a hard and difficult round," said Mr. Price, manager and captain, "and are particularly eager to defeat this team for we will play Southern California the following week. Their No. 1 man, Bill Craig, is without doubt one of the best golfers of the state."

Sports Wise

Are there—or aren't there enough Barb girls on the campus to make up two baseball teams? That is the question that the managers of the local teams (soph and senior Barbs) and the Vandals (fresh and juniors) answer a very definite NO to. So, priorities, however, are, of the opinion that if they can each get a team out, the Barbs with such a large group so pick from can surely get out two teams. The Barbs solution to the problem is for the Vandals and Vikings to combine, and both teams receive the full number of points instead of splitting them in case the combination of the teams wins. This is a very unsatisfactory solution as far as the sororities are concerned in the inter-society plaque competition.

FEDERATION WILL PICK COMMITTEE

To elect a nominating committee, members of the Federation of Women's Sports and Recreational Activities will meet in the Pine Room of the Commons today noon for a luncheon meeting.

The committee is composed of three members of the Federation, Allen Calkins, president, and Miss Evelyn Hinton, adviser. Members who have paid dues will be eligible to vote in the election which will be held the latter part of April.

Official and unofficial delegates to attend the sectional meeting of the Athletic Federation of College Women to be held in Norman, Okla., on May 5-8 will also be selected at the business meeting today.

The executive board of the Federation recently decided to raise the number of points given in inter-society competition for placing in group sports.

In the present setup a society is awarded the same number of points for winning an individual sport, such as ping pong, that is given for winning a group sport such as basketball.

Tournaments for Spring Sports Are Lined Up By Managers

With basketball now a thing of the past, four spring sports—baseball, tennis, golf, and archery—advance this week to the front row in the women's athletic program. There will be three tournaments for the tennis enthusiasts. The mixed doubles tournament which is to start this week is under the management of Sherman Culbertson and Kathryn Lansdowne.

Those who have never played in a tennis tournament are eligible to compete in the beginners' tournament and should sign up at once on the bulletin board in the women's gym.

Melcher, Braley Manage
Lorraine Melcher is manager. Others may sign up for the free-for-all, managed by Bobbie Braley. To qualify for the golf tournament, to start April 19, scores of three rounds or 27 holes must be turned in to Jeanne Lewis, manager, by April 14. These rounds are to be played at Cresview on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons.

Inter-society round-robin baseball tournament will start tomorrow. Games will be played on Monday and Friday at 4 p. m.

Credits Listed
To receive credit for participation in baseball, six practices are required. Practices are held every Wednesday at 3 p. m. for the next seven weeks. Mary Harrison, women's intramural sports manager, has charge.

Those interested in archery should be practicing now for the Ninth Annual Women's Inter-collegiate Telegraphic Archery Tournament which is to be shot from April 21-28 on the new outdoor target.

W. U. FACES AGGIE NETMEN TUESDAY

Shockers To Open Season On Local Court

First regularly scheduled tennis match of the season will be played Tuesday afternoon, when snappy courtmen from Kansas State at Manhattan stop in to test the strength of the Shocker netmen.

Last week's meeting with Arkansas City Junior College, which the University won handily, was on the card for the Wheatshockers, but came merely as a warm-up encounter.

The same team which defended the colors for the University in that meet will probably face the state college men, however. Vic Johnson, and Clark Ahlberg, both lettermen, will play in the singles. Harold Rose is expected to be the other Shocker representative.

Johnson and V. Johnson are hoped to be in line to play in the doubles. It has not been decided, however, just who will take up the racket. The entire squad is at present participating in a round-robin tournament, which is designed to eliminate a number. At least another week will be required before the tournament will have been completed.

The Sporting Thing

By Charles E. Poe

CONGRATS to the Shocker swimming team members who tied for second place in the National A. A. U. meet at Kansas City last week-end. These boys deserve lots of credit for the way they have gone ahead with the team, working out without a coach, and really training. It's fellows like those boys that make winning teams.

It's not so strange that a few of the fellows on the gridiron team didn't like the publicity of this column last week. It seems as though they were the ones that were screaming that this column had reference to.

Gov. Walter A. Ruzman has accepted the invitation of Gwynn Henry, director of athletics at the Jayhawk school, to be the honorary referee of the Sixteenth Annual Kansas Relays.

Intramural softball is soon to start. Seems as though for the past three years the Phi Sig Club has taken a monopoly on this intramural sport. This year the Greek team boasts of another strong aggregation consisting of Chub Johnson, Merle Coover, Dick Price, Maurice Martin, Jack Jackson, Howard Jackson, and Edgar Turner.

However competition this year will be keener than in any season past. The Fillal Flames, Gammas, and Phi Alpha always form tough competition and if the Holyoke bunch present a team it will be a very interesting tournament.

The Websters undoubtedly will place a team but whether they play games or forfeit them as in the past seasons yet remains to be seen.

CINDERMEN MEET COLLEGE RIVALS ON LOCAL TRACK

Sterling Brings Strong Team To Face W. U. On Saturday

For the first time this year the Wheatshocker trackmen will run into a full-fledged college track squad when they tackle Sterling on the local field Saturday afternoon. Previously they have competed with only the Arkansas City Junior College.

Christian, though not yet pushed this season, has given indications of turning in a good show in the 220 and 440 yard dashes. Diamond is expected to rate high in both hurdle events.

Have Workouts
The Shocker weakness lies in field events, the meet last week disclosed. Special effort will be made to improve the results of last week. Candidates have been working out faithfully every afternoon in order to raise winning points for this week's tangle.

"The pole vault will probably improve," said Coach Harry Marr, "but there isn't much to look forward to in the mile."

Supporters are confident of a Shocker win in the mile relay if Farrow is sufficiently recovered from a leg injury he suffered last Friday.

FOOTBALL DEBATE IN SUPREME COURT

WASHINGTON, D. C.—(AP)—The U. S. Supreme Court, in an opinion, has been called upon to rule as to whether or not intercollegiate football is an educational activity.

Solicitor General Robert H. Jackson has asked the court to rule that the University of Georgia and Georgia School of Technology may pay taxes on football game admissions—a ruling that would affect gate receipts at stadia throughout the U. S.

Government lawyers hold that at neither school is participation in football a prerequisite for graduation, and no credit is given, therefore, toward a degree.

Lawyers for the college maintain that in stating the game their clients were "engaged in the performance of an essential governmental function."
