GENERAL FACULTY CAUCUS

Friday, September 6th
1-3 p.m. HH 208

AGENDA:

To conclude general campus discussion of various aspects of the WSU Mission Statement, the Faculty Senate is calling a General Caucus for the purpose of taking straw votes on any propositions submitted for the Faculty's consideration. Results of these votes will be given to the Mission Drafting Committee to guide them in drafting a new university mission statement.

The Senate has appointed ad hoc committees to formulate propositions for the caucus to consider. Faculty members are urged to submit suggestions directly to these committees as soon as possible. Suggestions on other topics may be submitted to the Senate Executive Committee.

After eliminating duplications, all proposals submitted, in addition to propositions formulated by the Senate committees, will be put before the Caucus.

Committees:

- I. Defining the "urban mission." Contact Jim Clark, Box 78, x3220
- II. Defining the roles of undergraduate and graduate education. Contact Al Gosman, Box 35, x3402
